Page 8.

Correspondents' Department

Continued from Page Eight

HOWARD.

Next Sabbath there will be preach-ing in the several churches of our town and at the appointments which cemetery. center here as follows: Methodist Episcopal-Pastor R.

. ..

Taylor will preach at Howard at 10:30 A. M.; Hunter's Run 2:30 P. M., and Beech Creek at 7:30 P. M. The third quarterly conference for this year will meet at Howard at 10 A. M. Saturday next, with District Superintendent

B. C. Conner presiding. United Evangelical—Rev. W. W. Rhoads will preach at Howard at 10:30 A. M., and at Jacksonville at 7:30 P. M

Reformed-Rev. H. I. Crow will preach at Jacksonville, at 10 A. M.; Marsh Creek at 2:30, and Howard at 7:30 P. M. The services at each of these appointments will relate to the Harvest Home rejoicing. Christian Chapel-Rev. W. H. Patterson, Disciple, will preach at 7:30 P.

Church of Christ-Elder J. H. D. Tomson, evangelist, will preach morning and evening, at Flemington.

The abundant rains of the past week have started the pastures into green life again, energized the old brindle into renewed activity, filled the springs and runs and wells, and cisterns, and put the ground into first class shape for fall seeding. On Sunday last George W. Wolf and wife, of Fiedler, drove over in their auto to take dinner with their son, Sumner J. Wolf, and brought with them a nephew, William Wolf, and his wife

C. A. Williams and Frank Williams, of Pittsburg, with their cousins, the Misses Della and Laura Williams, drove to Penn Cave, by way of Bellefonte, on Monday. J. Will Mayes is laying the foundation for a large monument to be erected in the cemetery, in memory of Edward F. Watt.

Miss Edna Gunsaullus, of Nittany, spent the past week at the home of her uncle, John A. Haagen, and be-came an enthusiastic admirer of our town and its hospitable people. She was particularly glad to find her esteemed old teacher, A. A. Pletcher, getting about and in good health.

Mrs. Harry Kling and Mrs. VanCade of Tyrone, came all the way down to Howard last Thursday for a good dinner with their relative, Thomas E. Thomas, and a couple of big baskets of fine plums of which Mrs. Thomas has many this year.

Mrs. Viola Hastings departed for a ten days' vacation at Elmira, last Wednesday.

George W. Wyble. who is street commissioner of Mifflin, visited his brother, street commisioner James Wyble here last Thursday.

John W. Beck, now on the corps of mail delivery men at State College, was a Sunday visitor among his friends here

Will Conley, wife and daughter Nellie, accompanied by Miss Wian, all of Bellefonte, spent last Sunday among their friends and relatives here.

Prof. T. Milford Pletcher, the successful principal of the High School at Eagleville, is frequently seen in his old home here, resting up and getting ready for another term of the faithful and efficient training he has for several years been giving the young people of that vicinity

Mrs. William Williams and Mrs. the aid of a cane a Lawrence Sigmund, of Salena, mother hopes of recovery. and sister of mail carrier W. S. Con-Miss Rhoads has fer, spent last Saturday at his home. Miss Helen Bartholomew, daughter of William Bartholomew, of Centre Hall, who is a successful teacher of experience, and will teach in her home town the coming winter, with a little niece, is visiting her aunt here. Excellent barber John Nighart, of Bellefonte, was seen getting on train No. 53 last Thursday, with a fine string of black bass caught on the Bald Eagle, just below town. George Valentine was another of the party, but he had given away his fish. Pearl Edwin Thomas, who was graduated from the Penna. State College in June last, with the degree of B. S., in electrical engineering, and who has since been conducting the electrical work of the Penn-Mary Coal Co., at Heilwood, Pa., has been elected in-structor in Descriptive Geometry and Mechanical Drawing, at his Alma Ma-Mechanical Drawing, at his Alma Ma-ter, and will enter upon his duties at the opening of the first semester, a couple of weeks hence. He will also take post graduate work for an ad-vanced degree in the future. We are particularly glad to record this recog-nition of Mr. Thomas' hard and suc-cessful work as a student, and confi-dently expect his ranid advancement dently expect his rapid advancement. Genial and sunny as ever. Tom Moore, of Philadelphia, was a last week visitor with his brother, H. A. Rembrandt Ricker, of Lock Haven, is spending a month in the farm home of Peter Robb, Jr., for the benefit of country air and country life, on his Mrs. Grant Thomas, of Tyrone, was a dinner guest at the home of T. E. Thomas and family on Wednesday last. R. O. Diehl, who learned the tinner's trade with his father, in this town, and who is now following the business as a master in Rebersburg, visited his old tramping ground last week. The stork continues his visitations among his friends here and during the past week presented John Gallagher and wife with a bouncing boy, and William Lucas and wife with a glorious girl. Sergius S. Pletcher came up from his work in Washington to spend his vacation among the old home scenes, and with his old home friends. Peter Rittman and family, of Lock Haven, spent last Sunday with his brother-in-law, J. W. Ritzman, of this township. The street authorities have some-what improved south Walnut street from the railroad to H. T. McDowell's home, by breaking stone upon it, and covering them slightly with clay as a binder binder. Miss Maud Sechrist, of Bellwood, while on her way to teach school in New Jersey, next winter, stopped off a week for a visit with her sister, Mrs. George L. Williams. Miss Mary Sterret, of Washington, D. C., who has been visiting friends in this county since the burial of her mother a week or two ago, was a guest mother a week or two ago, was a guest of her girlhood friend, Mrs. Katharine H. McKinney, last Friday and Saturday. N. G. Pletcher was the successful bidder for the new school house the township is erecting in the Kennedy district. The work will be hurried along, of course, but the use of the house cannot be expected for the time-house cannot be expected for the time-ly opening of the coming term. Mrs. S. H. Pletcher and daughter Alice, are visiting friends in WilliamsTHE CENTRE DEMOCRAT, BELLEFONTE, PA.

UNIONVILLE.

daughter, to spend the day with another daughter, Mrs. Ward Thomp-

six-months-old son of Alonzo Henderson and wife, slipped away into the making good recovery under the skill-ful treatment of Dr. Fox.

Little William Henry Henderson, the son.

blos

friends

paint

moon valley.

riend, this week.

Mrs. A. T. Rowan and her son John and Mrs. I. G. Alexander, are sporting in the turf at Ocean Grove and, no doubt, but that they are having the time of their life.

beyond forever, last Saturday morn-ing, Funeral services were held at the house at two o'clock on Monday, conducted by Rev. W. H. Patterson, Mrs. Edith Wilcox, formerly of this place but now of Millheim, is another regular reader of the Centre Democrat, who largely watches, for the weekly items. and interment was made in Schenck

Toner Calhoun, wife and baby spent several days at the home of Toner's mother, as the guest of the baby's Clarence Yearick is entertaining Ed. Gannon, an old Poughkeepsie school lovely aunts, Rebie and Keziah, Stover, the great rabbit hunt-

Adelbert Confer's fine young horse er, of Philipsburg, spent Sunday with his invalid mother. has been laid by for several weeks with a case of paralysis, but is now The first to pay his taxes for 1909 was Joseph Griest, with George Haugh night.

Little Russell Dietz, of Girard Cola close second. Miss Normena McClellan, of Lemont, lege, is spending his vacation here with his mother, looking the very picthe pretty cousin of chief clerk, George Moran, is visiting at the home of her ture of health and good care. The P. R. R. has recently very much uncle, Perry Moran. Misses Mary and Margaret Cooney improved the facilities of the tower at this point for handling trains, by enand Miss Helen Fox, all of Bellefonte, drove up from that little village on larging the room, and improved the equipment by installing a much larg-Sunday to our beautiful city and, while here were the guests of Miss Margaret McDonnell. Lovely girls, and better equipped desk. It has also delivered here a crane, of large power, which will be installed at the them.

Miss Bertha Wilson, of Half Moon, west end of the freight platform, and will greatly aid its patrons in was a Sunday guest at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Nannie Williams.

handling heavy freight. Now if it will give us a cheap and temporary Mrs. Hanna Thompson, accompanied her niece, Margaret Brady, totollet room at the passenger station, we may be able to get along, with the where she will take a three-years' course of studies in one of the most old shack a year or two longer-until the surely-coming prosperity shall warrant it in giving us the long promprominent institutions of learning in the country. Margaret is an exceptionally bright girl, and we predict for ised and badly needed new station. The automobile fever has broken her a brilliant future.

Owen Underwood has erected a silo tank and is the first and only one we know of in the county who is experi-menting with silo. He is now enout in Howard in a well defined, if not acute, form. Joseph D. Diehl has taken the agency for the Overland, said to be one of the latest improved styles, gaged in filling it.

and has secured as chaffeur and ex-Wm. P. Fisher, with his family, left pert, Geo. F. Gray, of Halfmoon val-ley, who is a graduate of the South this place a few days ago in his large family auto, enroute for New York City, where they will again take up Broad Street Automobile College, and has had practical experience in drivhousekeeping after spending several years here. They will be greatly ing and maintenance of a variety of cars. On Tuesday last the first shipmissed.

ment of cars arrived, three in num-A flock of wild turkeys, numbering ber, one a runabout and the other a were seen by the writer and others touring car, each of thirty horse-powat various times in George Morrison's er, and they are surely good lookers. Mr. Diehl intends to retain the tourfield on the side of the mountain recently. When Dr. Clyde Van was told about them, "Gee" said he, "You bet I'll knock the 'stuffin' out of some of ing car for his personal use, and the other is understood to be already Howard is bound to keep up them when the time comes."

with the procession, and now Dr. Kurtz is thinking of handing his masadly afflicted man is Joseph A Brugger. After spending three months in a hospital where he had a critical chine over to "Buzzy" for a plaything, and importing a Bleiriot monoplane for his own use. Mrs. R. S. Taylor is visiting old operation performed on his arm and shoulder the result of which is utterly unsatisfactory and he may possibly and acquaintances in Halfnever have the use of that member. He is now lying on his back unable to J. D. Diehl is building a new horse move body or limb helpless as a child, from inflammatory rheumatism, and barn and garage combined. It will be 30x50 feet in size, built of brick, with nervous affliction .- It is hoped he may metal plate roof, and expects to have Metal plate root, and expects to have it ready for occupancy within a month. Mrs. George Long is entertaining her young friend, Miss Anderson, of Niagara Falls, and Mame and Lila Rothrock, of Bellefonte. W. H. Neff & Sons are renewing the W. H. Neff & Constant on Black speedily recover. On Friday night Mrs. A. J. Griest was taken seriously ill with cholera morbus. The next morning she be-came unconscious, and for a time her friends became very much alarmed. Her daughter, Mary E., who had gone ouse of Mrs. Irvin G. Lucas, on Black on a visit a few days before, was sent for, also her three sons, Ed, Charley street, with a fine coating of white and Harry, all of whom were prompt-ly at her bedside. At this writing ors' care: Walter Wentzel, who makes Wednesday morning, she is much im-proved and hopes of her speedy rehis home at Yarnell, was in so precar-ious a condition that his mother, Mrs. John Baney, was summoned to his side on Saturday. Mrs. Baney has covery are entertained.

ROMOLA.

returned to her home and reports him as somewhat improved, but regards his case as very serious. Wm. H. We are glad to say that master Wm. Robb is slowly improving. Neff is able to again appear upon the streets, but a deal enfeebled by his re-We are sorry to note the sudden death of Elsie Robinson on Sunday cent illness. John Turner is still con-fined to his room, and his improvemorning at 7 o'clock. Burled Monday m., at the Lucas cemetery.

ment is somewhat slower than his ambition to be out and at his work. Miss Viola Poorman, who has been very ill, is slowly improving. Willard McDowell is rapidly grow-Willard McDowell is rapidly grow-ing stronger, being able to walk with Page wedding, at Orviston on Wednesday, August 25, were: Misses Sara Bechdel, Ella Brickley, Edythe Wenthe aid of a cane and crutch, and has Misses Sara Roy Ebert is on the sick list

Mrs. John Wolf, of State College, and laughter Hattle, were pleasant callers at Beni, Breon's. Gertrude Ebert went to Bellefonte on Wednesday where she expects to spend a couple weeks. Margaret Dunkleberger, of Pleasant

The stork visited M. C. Auman's and left them a wood chopper. Mr. W. W. Krisher made a business trip to Sunbury on Wednesday. Blanche Bartges, of Spring MMills.

spent a couple days with friends here. The Childrens' Day service at Para-dise was well attended on Sunday

LEMONT.

John Ludwig, of Ebensburg, is at Houserville woolen mills, teaching young men to spin. weather has been very favorable for the growing and earing of the corn, excepting the cool nights. Mrs. George Shuey has been im-proving very slowly, if any, of late. The trolley line that has been sur-community. The farmers are busy getting ready to sow, but the ground is dry and hard; the rains that fell did not soak deep enough to do good. Alvin Grove's two sons enjoyed a few days' visit at the home of James Williams. Many attended the funeral of J. N.

Dinges, at Boalsburg, Moaday. Elmer Miller came up from Smull-ton, the fore part of the week and visited a while at the home of his son Clarence A. Houtz and family Sundayed at the home of Jonathan Shuey. George R. Roan went on the ten-day excursion to Ocean Grove and will alvisit a few days in Tottenville, The men of this community, who follow threshing, say that the grain threshes tougher than it has done for YARNELL The picnic on Saturday was largely attended.

Frances Confer is entertaining her usin, Miss Edith Reese, one of Port Matilda's charming young ladies. Miss Erma Eckley is spending some nine years.

me at Coburn. Miss Maud Daley spent Saturday light at J. A. Confer's. A party of youngsters spent Sun-lay at Jacob Yarnell's. Walter Wensel was quite ill on Satrday evening. We are sorry to note the sudden death of William Lucas, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Lucas, of Holts Hollow, who died this Monday morning. He was aged about 17. The remains of Mrs. John David, ho was formerly Lettuce Reichner, of this place, were brought from her home at Nanty Glo to the Lucas cemetery near Romola, on Thursday, for burial, She was about twenty-two years old will move back home on Monday. and is survived by her husband. Jason Confer, of Jefferson county, arrived here on Monday and will spend some time with his brother, Jerome.

LIVONIA.

Mrs. Guy Burkert and son of Wilamsport, Miss Florence Watson, of Mr. and Mrs. Rishel, of Tylersville, paid it to a washerwoman, and she

COBURN.

On Monday morning the schools of Penn township will open and many youngsters are anxious to hear the bell ring and see the doors thrown open for their admittance. To gain the best results in school every pupil should enter Gap, who has been visiting at U. G. the first day and be present every day. Auman's, has returned home. W J. Harter and his mother visited Brushvalley, one day last week.

man, of Scalp Level, is visiting relatives state and many hunters from all parts in this section.

man.

W. C. Walter and wife, of Woodward, that forest fires are prevented. visited at the home of Elmer Smith.

Sunday evening and all were well pleas. also included in the purchase. ed with the exercises.

HARRIS TWP.

SHINGLETOWN

Charles Bateman and family, of Ty-John Leech.

Petersburg, on Saturday, for a short made. stay

A band of gypsies stopped in our open to hunters during the hunting sea-town, last week and one of the gypsy son and a great deal of land can now be boys had quite a good time. Foster Davis is working in Bellefonte tending the brick layers. Miss Bessie Sones returned home last Saturday after a ten days' visit with friends in Altoona and Hollidaysburg. using such an animal at this time will be George Hess, of Altoona, was visiting his uncle's E. W. and N. E. Hess, here served is that all parties setting up a few days, D. B. Thomas visited friends in Altoona last week.

SCOTIA Ed Markely left on Monday for Hecla Park to assist John Baudes in moving the merry-go-round to Snow Shoe where he will remain several weeks. The Ephworth League will hold a PUBLIC SALE-festival in the grove here. Saturday festival in the grove here. Saturday evening September 4; music by the Scotia band. Come All. Wm. Bottrof returned from Lock Haven, where he took his wife for an operation in the hospital. Sarah Kellerman spent Sunday with her parents at Pine Grove. The band held a concert in the park on Sunday afternoon and rendered some on Sunday afternoon and rendered some on Sunday afternoon and rendered some fine music. John McKinneson who moved on the stock farm to work for Mr. Thompson, will move back home on Monday. A Money Puzzle. During the silly season and for the amusement of puzzle solvers we sub-amusement of puzzle solvers we submit thefollowing from the Kansas City Journal: A banker going home to dinner saw a $10 bill on the curb-stone. He picked it up, noted the number and thence by other lands of the saidJacob Strubl liamsport. Miss Florence Watson, of Lancaster, and Mr. and Mrs. Gheen, of Rauchtown, were visitors at M. Shades, John Wolf's have a boy baby two weeks olo.

Jessie Adams and Ruth Stover re-turned Friday from a two weeks' visit to Linden, Williamsport and Lock Hav-en.
Mr. and Mrs. Rishel, of Tylersville.
weith of the farmer to a merchant, who in turn paid it to a swasherwoman, and she
the store is the visit of the farmer to a merchant, who in turn paid it to a swasherwoman, and she
the store is the visit of the farmer to a merchant, who in turn paid it to a swasherwoman, and she

Thursday, September 2nd, 1909.

PURCHASED MORE LAND

Large Section Secured by the State in Lycoming County.

The state of Pennsylvania has just made a purchase that will affect a great many hunters who are accustomed to do their shooting in the vicinity of Trout Run and Gray's Run, Lycoming county. at the home of Elias Wert, in West The state has purchased nearly 4,000 acres in that section. It embraces the Harry Walker, of Union county, visit- | territory in the region of Gray's Run, ed his sister, Mrs. Amanda Everett, who Trout Run, and what is commonly is slowing improving in health. In that secis slowing improving in health. Nora Corman, daughter of W. C. Cor-tion is found the choicest hunting in the of the state wander through its dense Mr. Heckman, of Spring Mills, spent forests. Its advantages will now be in-a few days at the home of A. L. Au- creased, as the state will see that lawful methods of taking game are made and

A greater portion of the land was pur-A number of our people attended chased from John L. Hall, the lumber-children's services at the Paradise church man, and the D. M. Mahaffey farm is Several other lumbermen sold their holdings in The trolley line that has been surveyed through town seems to be a sure thing and if so it will be quite a convenience for all the citizens of this community. from this section, but the state will preserve what is left and will plant young trees. A warden has been stationed on the new preserve and his duties will be to see that no forest fires occur and that the rules are obeyed. In rone, are visiting at the home of Mrs. the hunting season several other wardens will traverse the grounds to see Palmer Hetzle's and family, left for that no unlawful taking of game is

The purchased land will be thrown hunted that was covered with trespass signs before. The state has ordered, however, that certain rules be observed.

During the deer season no dogs will be fined. Another rule which must be ob-camps at any time in these state forests game commissioner. These permits must be kept in order to show the wardens or else the parties will be excluded

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE.

The egotist is an I specialist.

from the preserve.

Ance, are visiting riends in withans-port thes week. Lock Haven silk mill, came up on Sun-Mrs. T. S. DeLong, forelady of the Lock Haven sik mill, came up on Sun-day last with her little four-years-old

Miss Rhoads has sufficiently recov-

Among those who are in the doc-

MOSHANNON.

Miss Minnie McGowan, of Pitts-Mrs. Dingee, of Peale, spent Friday with her daughter, Mrs. Grover Duck. Mrs. Josephine Davis, of Bradford, and Mrs. Magill, of Philadelphia, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Grove, the past week.

Mrs. George Ritter and daughter Madeline, of Harrisburg, are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Howard Harry Brown, of Curwensville, was

Mrs. Ella Black and son James, are spending a few days with the former's mother, Mrs. M. H. Rankin. Miss Maud Rankin attended the usiness men's picnic at Hecla Park. Mr. and Mrs. Girt Lomison and family, of State College, are visiting at the ome of Wm, Lomison. Miss Louisa McGowan, of Clearfield, is visiting at the home of John McGowar

Mrs. Mary Duck, of Brushvalley, is isiting at the home of G. C. Duck. Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Weaver spent a ouple days with friends at Shaws-

A number of the young people held corn roast one evening last week;

all report a fine time.

RUNVILLE.

"Pennsylvania salve" is now on the rogram

Carl Garbrick, of Bellefonte, was guest of honor at the home of Miss Eva Witherite, Sunday. Oran Poorman, of Clearfield, transacted business in our town the past week Asbury Pletcher, of Howard, was een promenading our streets Saturday. Mrs. Sarah Walker, of Austin, and niece, Miss Grayce, of Philipsburg, who have been visiting at Edward Poorman's, departed for their homes on Saturday

Mrs. Clara Iddings, of Wingate, ac-companied by her sister, Mrs. William Becker, of Harrisburg, were callers of Mrs. James Lucas, Friday of last week.

Edward Hancock and sister, Mrs. John Furl, of Philipsburg, spent Fri-day with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elias Hancock's.

Elias Hancock's. Blanche Smoyer, of Butts Sta., is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Lucy Smoyer. Eva Lucas and wife departed for their home in Altoona, on Monday. The two Misses Wirtz, of Wood-ward, are guests of Mrs. C. B. Freil. Roy Rodgers, one of our sporty young men is driving a fine new bug-gy-so says Miss Eather.

JACKSONVILLE.

Mrs. Mulhollen, of Altoona, is re-ported very ill at the home of her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Ertley's, vest of town.

Mrs. Barbara Condo has returned home from visiting her daughter, Mrs. John Smith, in Mifflin county.

We wish to correct the statement made in last week's items about com-munion being held in the United Ev. church on last Sunday afternoon. It will be on Sunday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock, September 12, at which time Rev. Reeser, Pres. Elder, will be presered from the operation in the Meth-odist hospital in Philadelphia to re-turn home, and can walk about. She has assurance of a speedy recovery. Tenn., and C. F. Robb and wife, of Johnsonburg, who have been spend-in the speed speed. Those ing their two-weeks' vacation here. Mrs. Nan McMonigal, and son Clyde, of Ridgway, visited at the home of H. S. DeLong's last week.

SOBER .- Penn Twp.

The festival at Paradise was large-ly attended on Saturday night.

Miss Furl Auman spent a couple days at Pleasant Gap last week with her sister, Mrs. Noll, and lady friend, Margaret Irvin.

Miss Edna Shook attended the camp meeting at Loganton on Sunday, visited Geo. Stovers last week.

Sugar valley last week. Mr. Shawver and family also Mr.

King and family all of Millheim, stopped Stover's hotel, Sunday. Among at others who stopped during the week

A. Shoutz and party of six, also Mr.

of Mifflinburg. Mr. and Mrs. Strahan attended the funeral of lady's uncle, Mr. Samuel Wolford, last Saturday.

When a woman says she knows her husband like a book, she means a drawing a check they are merely drawcheck book.

owing the banker a note of $10, went Mr. Williams, of Pine Station, is to the bank and paid the note. The visiting at William Conser's. Mrs Ed. Conser spent two days in he had found and which to that time paid $50 worth of debt. On careful examination he discovered that the bill was counterfeit. Now what was lost in the transaction, and by whom? The aggregate church membership

Fred Brungard and party of five, all of the United States is computed at thirty millions. The seating capacity of its churches would accommodate fifty millions.

> When some fellows talk about ing on their imagination.

be offered for sale in the village of Zion. Will' be offered for sale in the village of Zion. Boundary : Beginning or being jot No. 8 on the plot of plan of building lots ial out along the public road leading through Nittanyvalley in the said township of Walker, which said lot is bounded on the east by lot No. 7, sold to Sam'. Nefl, now owneed by Henry J. Garbrick ; on the nort h by the public road , on the west by an alley, and on the south by an alley : and containing in breadth along said public road flity. One feel, and in length or depth ten perchestrates of the town. Choice fruit and all modern improvements. Terms of sale : Ten per cent, of purchase price of each of the above described tracts, to be paid in cash immediately after the bid has been accepted and the property declared sold : 40 per cent to be paid in cash on or before April ist 1910, and the other 50 per cent of the purchase price to be paid on or before April ist 1911. Said deferred payments to be secured by bond and mortgage on the premises. Possession given April 1, 1910. MACOB M. GARBRICK, A. E. GARBRICK.

Executors W. HARRISON WALKER, Atty.

