On Sunday one of the main attractions to sightseers in Bellefonte was the large steam shovel which Thomas A. Shoesteam showled the Thomas A. Shoesteam showledges at machinery capable of scooping up thousands of tons of material a day. The operator occupies a seat on the machine and by the use of levers he manipulates it with ease. The Bellefonte Central Railroad Company has about completed a railroad siding along the side of the impresser pile of slag and the side of the immense pile of slag and filled with powder and dynamite which when put off, will loosen up thousands of tons at a time. It will then be easy to scoop up and put on cars. As pre-viously stated much of the siag will be shipped to Northumberland to be used in filling up in the new railroad yard.

Michael Kelley, of Snow Shoe, and Swanson Dahlin, of Houtzdale, who recently leased the old Volcan coal property, about one mile and a half above Ramsey, which was partially developed by R. B. Dwight & Son years ago, are putting in a new opening and are encouraged over the prospect of having a successful min-ing operation. The old raffrond leading to the opening which also was abandoned some time age, is being replaced with steel rails and new ties. This road is a branch of the Pennsyl-
