

BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

Miss Nannie McKelvey, of east Lamb street, has accepted a position as operator in the Commercial exchange. Mr. and Mrs. John T. McCormick, of State College, and Mrs. McCormick's aunt, Mrs. Kate Carson, of Potlatch Mills, spent Friday in Bellefonte at street. At a special meeting of the Tyron school board the other evening, James A. Shook, of Bellefonte, was elected assistant principal of the borough school. Col. J. L. Spangler had a concrete walk laid along the entire length of his lot in the alley on the north of his home. J. C. Showers was the contractor and made a good job of it. George C. Johnson, the plumber, who had been awarded the contract by Gehret and Lambert, for the plumbing work in the Court House, expects to commence work in about a week. Mrs. Harry Haines has returned from the White Haven Sanatorium where she had been taking treatment for lung trouble. Her friends are glad that her condition is much improved. On Saturday afternoon Conrad Miller, of Bellefonte, took Miss Jeanette Smith to the hospital at Williamsport for treatment, Miss Smith resides in the Miller family and is a bright young lady. Edgar Burnside left on Thursday afternoon for Denver, Col., where he will again assume charge of the business of the Scale Co. He has his most recent injury to his foot.

If you are having sale, this fall, it will pay you to have the printing done at this office. E. J. Williams, clerk for the County Commissioners, transacted business in Harrisburg this week. The office of County Treasurer Geo. Fink, in the court house, looks as if it had been struck by a Kansas Cyclone. Miss Eveline Stevens, one of the obliging operators in the telephone exchange at State College, spent Tuesday in Bellefonte. Announcements in our Public Sale Register cost $1. When you have your bills printed at this office you receive the advertisement free. Mrs. Mary Segner, of State College, spent Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday in Bellefonte as the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Sarah Fulton, on Pine street. Edward Greenslade, of Buckingham, Va., arrived in Bellefonte on Thursday afternoon and is now a guest of his sister, Mrs. W. A. Lyon, on High street. He expects to remain in here part of the winter. Dr. Joseph Brockerhoff, while in New York City the past week, was invited to the palatial home of Charles Schwab. This is the famous five million dollar residence, along the Riverside drive, and is considered the finest of the kind in the country. Blair & Co. are all torn up this week owing to a new floor being placed in their store room. Mr. Blair is not certain just when the corner entrance with plate glass side windows on the diamond, will be put in, which will enable them to display stock to better advantage. There were some rains last week, Thursday, 5.2, Friday, 5.3 inches, total 1.05 inches. Surface was benefited in wheat fields and otherwise, but springs and streams remain low. Thermometer was lowest on 20th, for this season, down to 23. Mrs. R. J. Roth has left for Cleveland, Ohio, where she expects to look up some important matters for parties in that thriving city. She will probably be absent until the latter part of November. Mrs. Roth made this trip by urgent request of her former patrons there. Miss Elizabeth B. Meek, daughter of Hon. and Mrs. P. Gray Meek, of Bellefonte, instructor in bacteriology, who has been quite ill for several months, has been granted a leave of absence. Miss Meek was one of the most efficient teachers in Pennsylvania State's corps and will be greatly missed. Edward Torsel, who started a cobler shop in the harness store of C. C. Wian, has withdrawn from that place of business and has started a shop of his own in the Brown block on Bishop street. Mr. Wian has secured the services of Mr. Shutt, who knows how to put up a good job of soiling and heeling. The County Commissioners are all out this week delivering the ballots for the coming election. The job is more difficult this year than any other from the fact that they are extremely large and bulky to handle. It almost requires a regular hay wagon to deliver the ballots belonging to a large township. On Monday evening Edward Hayes walked down High street with one of Bellefonte's prettiest young ladies, and their friends said, "There goes the long and the short of it. We realize that it is not consistent with the best etiquette to refer to an instance of this character, but how could we refrain when both extremes were so perceptible? Who was the young lady? Well, she has the art of teaching the young idea how to shoot, down fine. Mrs. Lewis Wetzel and her three sons arrived in Bellefonte from Toledo, Ohio, on Monday afternoon and are now guests of Mrs. Wetzel's father, C. T. Gerbrick. In about one week Mr. Wetzel will be here and soon afterwards the Wetzel family will leave for Birmingham, England, where Mr. Wetzel has secured an excellent position. While in the old country they will make an effort to visit the country outside of the place they intend to locate. Friday's Lock Haven Democrat says that Mrs. Sarah Battersfield, Miss Byrd Noll, of Bellefonte, Mrs. Mary Feese and grandson, Chester Bardo, of Jersey Shore, Mrs. C. W. Goodman and son Chester, of Pittsburg, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Felmeier, during the celebration. In honor of the above ladies Mrs. Felmeier gave a dinner consisting of all the delicacies of the season. The Italian orchestra rendered some very fine music, while the guests were eating. Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Jones have stored their household goods preparatory to leaving for Philadelphia yesterday, where they will reside in the future and board until a suitable time for going to housekeeping in the city. Mr. Jones for a number of years has been mail agent on the train between Bellefonte and Lewisburg, and has accepted a better position in Philadelphia of transfer register clerk at the Broad street station. Robert Sechler has been transferred to the position vacated by Jones. We are sorry to lose so excellent a family from our town. Last week Dr. J. Allison Platts, pastor of the Bellefonte Presbyterian church, was engaged in Evangelistic work in a little church at Fruit Hill, Clearfield county. It stands out in the country about one mile from any habitation, although the meetings were well attended by people from several mining towns some distance away. On Thursday evening a fierce electrical storm passed over the community when lightning struck the church, doing considerable damage. Fortunately the congregation was not large or there might have been some fatalities. However, the lightning didn't scare Dr. Platts off, as he returned on Monday and preached several nights this week. The meetings have been full of interest and productive of great good. The third quarterly meeting of the Bellefonte Methodist church, of which Dr. Thomas S. Wilcox is the pastor, will be held from October 27 to 31. The preparatory services will take place as follows: On Wednesday evening Oct. 27, Rev. A. S. Quimby will preach. On the following evening Rev. J. B. Brennan will occupy the pulpit; on Friday evening Dr. W. P. Shriner, a former pastor, will preach. These services will take place at 7:30 o'clock each evening. The Sunday services will commence at 9:30 o'clock in the morning with Love Feast, led by Rev. C. C. Shuey. At 10:30 o'clock reception of members and holy communion. At 7:30 o'clock preaching by the pastor followed by holy communion. The individual communion cup will be used for the first time. This beautiful set has been presented to the church by Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Crider.

Thomas Rishel and Ira From the poppy Bellefonte drayman, spent Sunday in Sunbury as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Livingston, the latter being a daughter of Mr. Rishel. Mrs. C. B. Williams, who had been visiting in Bellefonte for the last three weeks at the residence of her parents Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lyon, left on Wednesday afternoon for her home in Jersey City. Cyrus Hunter, of Stormstown, was in town—and what would Stormstown be without Cyrus?—and claims that his township of Half Moon is entitled to first credit, standing at the head for good roads, and not Ferguson. Well, we are just too glad to mention the contention of Cyrus, and admit, too, that Half Moon is entitled to praise for its good roads. If it be only "half" Moon, it is the whole thing for good roads. On Wednesday morning Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Miller, of Bellefonte, received a letter from the deaf and dumb institute in Philadelphia stating their son was making wonderful progress toward speaking. They claim that the difficulty is not that the boy can't talk, but being deaf from birth, he never heard anybody else talk, thus he is entirely ignorant of any words or language. After he is taught these he will be able to speak and read. It is said that C. D. Casebeer and Dr. A. W. Hafer were lost the other day in the new annex of D. I. Willard's store, on High street. They had to secure the Bellefonte corner and play through the corridors and the music naturally drew them out of their hiding places. One of the attractive features of the annex is the beautiful antique frescoing in side walls and ceiling. Another good point is the Brachbill system of ventilation, which is all right in summer, but a little chilly in winter. However, when Mr. Willard gets through he will have a most attractive store room. Real Estate Transfers. William C. Cassidy exr to J. K. Johnson, October 16, 1909, property in Bellefonte borough. MARRIAGE LICENSES. Chs. W. Kepner - Altoona Olive T. Piper - Nittany Steve Perko - Philipsburg Evey Mosey - Osceola Mills Joseph E. Witherite - Runville Annie E. Fetzer - Yernell John K. Coleman - Bellefonte Edith E. Houser - Houserville Joseph W. Harvey - State College Alice A. Johnston - Zion George Immel - Spring Mills Mabel M. Bowersox - Pine Grove Mills. Uncalled for Mulishness. The roadbed between State College and Pleasant Gap is in such a frightful bad condition that the automobile line has been discontinued, both cars having been put out of service. That is certainly a nice situation for a civilized community to be in. Mulishness on the part of certain individuals is to blame for this state of affairs. The public should make a positive demand that this road be put in good condition and if it is not done the supervisors should be brought into court to show the reason why two or three men can take it upon themselves to say whether the people can have good or bad roads. It is an imposition and the public shouldn't stand for it a moment. -Times. Particulars of Mr. Batschelet's Death. John W. Batschelet, whose death in the South was reported at Beech Creek, died from heart disease. He expired suddenly. He was employed on a saw mill at Bird's Point, Missouri, where he lived with his wife and daughter, Miss Dora, the three having gone there last spring, and the summer in the southern climate proved to be hard on all of them and Mrs. Batschelet and her daughter suffered considerably from malarial fever, from the effects of which they have not fully recovered. Will Fight Cannon. Coincident with the visit of United States Senator La Follette to Spokane to uphold Congressman Miles Poindexter and to give indorsement generally to the policy of the progressive Republicans in Congress, twenty editors of country newspapers throughout eastern Washington on Thursday night organized the Progressive Republican League. The organization is expected later to lead to a state-wide movement in opposition to the Cannon and Aldrich policies. Mrs. Boyd A. Musser, who last week was struck in the eye by the steel point of an umbrella man in front of her was carrying under her arm, while she was boarding a train at this place on her way to Altoona from a visit with friends in Bellefonte, is getting along very nicely and the indications are that she will suffer no permanent injury to her eye. -Times.

PINE GROVE MILLS. Mrs. Alfaretta Goss accompanied her mother to Houtzdale on Saturday, where the latter expects to spend a few weeks with H. C. Goss and family. Mrs. Annie Miller is on the sick list. Prof. U. A. Moyer, principal of the High school, spent part of last week with his family at Selinsgrove. Martin Foster and family and Miss Maude Decker, of Altoona, were recent visitors at the home of J. A. Decker. Mrs. Baer, of Baileyville, is visiting her nephew, J. G. Heberling. Ray Albert is nursing a badly sprained arm, caused by a fall, while playing at school on Friday. J. I. Markle, of Bellwood, is spending a few weeks with his family. Mrs. Julia Musser and granddaughter, Grace Musser, visited among relatives at Linden Hall last week. Charles Goss is visiting his sister, Mrs. Dr. E. G. Smiley, at Altoona. Mrs. J. C. Meyer, of State College, visited her mother, Mrs. Sue Peters on Sunday. The desks in the High school have been beautified by the addition of a coat of varnish; Randolph Tate did the work. Rev. A. S. Bierly is holding protracted meeting at Dungenen. Communion services will be held in the Lutheran church next Sunday, Oct. 31; preparatory service on Friday evening.

ROMOLA. The sale of Mrs. Rebecca DeLong was not well attended owing to the inclemency of the weather. Services will be held at the Mann's school house Thursday and Friday evenings by Rev. W. H. Patterson, of Blanchard. Charles Daly, one of Romola's prominent young men, spent Saturday and Sunday with his friend, Wilber Glossner, of Blanchard, who is the teacher at Mann's school. J. L. Poorman transacted business in Bellefonte on Saturday. Edward Welsh, wife and son Ralph, visited in Lock Haven the latter part of last week. Ward Thompson spent Saturday in this place. Mrs. Bigler, of the West, visited her niece, Mrs. Thomas McCloskey last week. J. D. Brickley, the up-to-date coal dealer, of Avis, attended the Harvey brothers' sale on Wednesday. Miss Maude Daley attended the Confer-Haagen wedding at Yarnell last Wednesday. That the girls of Bellefonte will forgive a young man if he kisses them but they will never forgive him if he doesn't.
