

Correspondents' Department

HOWARD.

In Our Churches on Sunday
Methodist Episcopal—Rev. R. S. Taylor will preach at Howard at 10:30 A. M., Kennedy at 2:30 P. M., and at Curtin at 7:30 P. M.

United Evangelical—The serious illness of pastor W. W. Rhoades, and his consequent detention at the hospital in Lock Haven, render it impracticable to make preaching announcements for this church at this time.

Thanksgiving Feastings
Mrs. S. H. Bennison went to Pittsburg to eat her Thanksgiving dinner with her son, McDowell, and to visit her new, first and only grandson.

Three Ladies Dined Together
Here last Saturday who had been neighbors and friends in Milesburg in their earlier years.

Banker Matthew Rogers, Jr. went to his old Juniata county home to eat his turkey, and continued his holiday among friends in other parts of the state until Monday.

Miss Sue Pletcher went to Stormstown as the guest of the family of Green Gray.

George D. Johnson went to Bellefonte to get a good dinner, and incidentally some good legal advice of his son, J. Kennedy Johnson.

All the family of the late W. T. Leathers, including mother, daughter and five sons, were invited guests of a second daughter, Mrs. Howard Neff, in Boggs township.

Miss Nellie Hopkins was the happy hostess of her friend, the Rev. Bergen. Mrs. Lavina Moore, of Lock Haven, came up to eat turkey with her sister, Mrs. Susan Wistar.

An old fashioned Thanksgiving gathering of the family was held at the farm home of Franklin Confer in the township, and an old fashioned dinner prepared by Mrs. Confer's skillful hands, with the orthodox turkey as the piece de resistance, flanked by the almost obsolete venison roast, was served, the deer which furnished it having been killed by one of the members of the family.

Miss Grace Schenck came home from Milesburg to give thanks with her home folks.

Our whole bunch of Howard girls made the delightful change of board-school fare for the old home dinners, and kept up the fun and feasting until Monday.

Miss Anna Muffly, the popular teacher of our third grade school, had her dinner in the home of a Clearfield friend, and visited with other friends in the same section during the remainder of the week.

William G. Ertel, of Pittsburg, with wife and two children made his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Ertel, thankful by coming home for the feast.

Mr. Frederick Robb, Miss Emma Robb and young Edwin Robb, with Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur F. Hall went to Milesburg on No. 55, had their evening dinner with Samuel M. Robb, who is the son's brother, brother-in-law and uncle of the party, and likewise the head of the successful Milesburg school, and returned on No. 54.

Miss Grace Schenck came home from Milesburg to give thanks with her home folks.

Miss Anna Muffly, the popular teacher of our third grade school, had her dinner in the home of a Clearfield friend, and visited with other friends in the same section during the remainder of the week.

William G. Ertel, of Pittsburg, with wife and two children made his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Ertel, thankful by coming home for the feast.

Mr. Frederick Robb, Miss Emma Robb and young Edwin Robb, with Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur F. Hall went to Milesburg on No. 55, had their evening dinner with Samuel M. Robb, who is the son's brother, brother-in-law and uncle of the party, and likewise the head of the successful Milesburg school, and returned on No. 54.

Miss Grace Schenck came home from Milesburg to give thanks with her home folks.

Miss Anna Muffly, the popular teacher of our third grade school, had her dinner in the home of a Clearfield friend, and visited with other friends in the same section during the remainder of the week.

William G. Ertel, of Pittsburg, with wife and two children made his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Ertel, thankful by coming home for the feast.

Mr. Frederick Robb, Miss Emma Robb and young Edwin Robb, with Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur F. Hall went to Milesburg on No. 55, had their evening dinner with Samuel M. Robb, who is the son's brother, brother-in-law and uncle of the party, and likewise the head of the successful Milesburg school, and returned on No. 54.

Leathers, Willard McDowell and Charlie Woodward, to help them help him. It was a typical college party. On Thanksgiving eve, Emma Weber entertained at cards in honor of her sister Edith, who is enjoying a vacation from the Normal. Besides the "Sewing Circle" several out-of-town guests were present, including Mrs. Alma Packer of Pittsburg; Charles V. Woodward, of Philadelphia, and Messrs. Schaffer, Clond, Eaton and Gearhart, students of State College and Frat brothers of Balsem Weber. The feasting was Mrs. Weber's first furnishing, and no more could be said for it.

The Wedding Bells
Rang sweetly, the sun shone brightly and the breezes swept gently when at 10:30 last Monday morning Henry J. Miller, of Haskell, N. J., and Kathryn M. Kane, one of our Howard girls, stepped to the altar of St. Bernard's and were made man and wife, by the impressive ceremony of the Catholic church. The couple moved up the aisle to the stately tones of the wedding march from Lohengrin, and as they approached the altar, were met by Father O'Hanlon, who performed the ceremony and pronounced the mass in his dignified way. At its close the party, accompanied by a few invited friends, returned to the home of the bride, where one of the most sumptuous and well prepared feasts ever served in Howard was awaiting them. The couple departed on the evening train for Haskell, N. J., where Mr. Miller holds the responsible and lucrative position of foreman of one of the DuPont powder mills. The bride who was most becomingly gowned in a beautiful dress and hat of blue which emphasized her glossy, black hair and laughing bright eyes, and displayed her fine, full figure to the best advantage, was supported by her life-long friend, Miss Delaney, who was similarly attired and very handsome, and the groom's best man was James Kane, a brother of the bride. The wedding march and the instrumental accompaniment of the mass were performed by Miss Mary Marshall of Lock Haven, and the vocal music was admirably rendered by Miss Sara Cummins, of Lock Haven. The altar was beautified with pink carnations, the gift of the bride's sister, Miss Mary, of Philadelphia.

Three Ladies Dined Together
Here last Saturday who had been neighbors and friends in Milesburg in their earlier years. Mrs. Abram Wolf was the capable hostess and the guests were her sister, Miss Moore, of Spokane, and Miss Delaney, of Milesburg, the latter of whom has the fine distinction of having taught the primary school of Central City, in Boggs township, for thirty-two successful and successful years. This is a record which cannot, we believe, be duplicated in the county, and is at once a splendid compliment to Miss Delaney and evidence of the good judgment and correct thinking of the citizens of that district. Only a woman can have the essential qualifications for teaching the primary school; only a woman, with her mother instincts and true mother heart, is capable of so gently and tenderly and deftly touching the tender petals of the precious little soul buds which are committed to her care as to open them up, without soiling their spotless native beauty, to such a condition of receptivity as will best advance them in the mental, moral and spiritual development for which they were born. Promote her? Yes, of course, promote her; but let it be by an increase of salary, and not by a change of grades. Every year's experience will increase her power for good in her chosen work, and make her of more and more value to the community to which her very presence is a benison.

Thanksgiving Feastings
Mrs. S. H. Bennison went to Pittsburg to eat her Thanksgiving dinner with her son, McDowell, and to visit her new, first and only grandson.

Three Ladies Dined Together
Here last Saturday who had been neighbors and friends in Milesburg in their earlier years.

Banker Matthew Rogers, Jr. went to his old Juniata county home to eat his turkey, and continued his holiday among friends in other parts of the state until Monday.

Miss Sue Pletcher went to Stormstown as the guest of the family of Green Gray.

George D. Johnson went to Bellefonte to get a good dinner, and incidentally some good legal advice of his son, J. Kennedy Johnson.

All the family of the late W. T. Leathers, including mother, daughter and five sons, were invited guests of a second daughter, Mrs. Howard Neff, in Boggs township.

Miss Nellie Hopkins was the happy hostess of her friend, the Rev. Bergen. Mrs. Lavina Moore, of Lock Haven, came up to eat turkey with her sister, Mrs. Susan Wistar.

An old fashioned Thanksgiving gathering of the family was held at the farm home of Franklin Confer in the township, and an old fashioned dinner prepared by Mrs. Confer's skillful hands, with the orthodox turkey as the piece de resistance, flanked by the almost obsolete venison roast, was served, the deer which furnished it having been killed by one of the members of the family.

Miss Grace Schenck came home from Milesburg to give thanks with her home folks.

Our whole bunch of Howard girls made the delightful change of board-school fare for the old home dinners, and kept up the fun and feasting until Monday.

Miss Anna Muffly, the popular teacher of our third grade school, had her dinner in the home of a Clearfield friend, and visited with other friends in the same section during the remainder of the week.

William G. Ertel, of Pittsburg, with wife and two children made his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Ertel, thankful by coming home for the feast.

Mr. Frederick Robb, Miss Emma Robb and young Edwin Robb, with Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur F. Hall went to Milesburg on No. 55, had their evening dinner with Samuel M. Robb, who is the son's brother, brother-in-law and uncle of the party, and likewise the head of the successful Milesburg school, and returned on No. 54.

Miss Grace Schenck came home from Milesburg to give thanks with her home folks.

Miss Anna Muffly, the popular teacher of our third grade school, had her dinner in the home of a Clearfield friend, and visited with other friends in the same section during the remainder of the week.

William G. Ertel, of Pittsburg, with wife and two children made his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Ertel, thankful by coming home for the feast.

Mr. Frederick Robb, Miss Emma Robb and young Edwin Robb, with Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur F. Hall went to Milesburg on No. 55, had their evening dinner with Samuel M. Robb, who is the son's brother, brother-in-law and uncle of the party, and likewise the head of the successful Milesburg school, and returned on No. 54.

Miss Grace Schenck came home from Milesburg to give thanks with her home folks.

Miss Anna Muffly, the popular teacher of our third grade school, had her dinner in the home of a Clearfield friend, and visited with other friends in the same section during the remainder of the week.

William G. Ertel, of Pittsburg, with wife and two children made his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Ertel, thankful by coming home for the feast.

Mr. Frederick Robb, Miss Emma Robb and young Edwin Robb, with Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur F. Hall went to Milesburg on No. 55, had their evening dinner with Samuel M. Robb, who is the son's brother, brother-in-law and uncle of the party, and likewise the head of the successful Milesburg school, and returned on No. 54.

Willard McDowell returned from Mt. Clements, Michigan, where he had been treated for chronic rheumatism about three months ago, with instructions to use every known means, under the care of local physicians, for building up his general health and strengthening his system, and then to return for further treatment, the physicians believing that with strength to endure for sometime their somewhat vigorous methods he might be cured. During these three months he has most manfully and courageously worked and dieted to attain the needed vigor and has made marked gains and last Monday he again started under the escort of his father who has been his most faithful attendant during his many months of pain for the sanitarium, filled by a strong hope of ultimate recovery. Many warm friends wish him bon voyage.

Rev. W. W. Rhoades, having returned from the bedside of Mrs. Morrow, his seriously ill daughter in Cumberland Co. and courageously worked and dieted to attain the needed vigor and has made marked gains and last Monday he again started under the escort of his father who has been his most faithful attendant during his many months of pain for the sanitarium, filled by a strong hope of ultimate recovery. Many warm friends wish him bon voyage.

The home of H. S. Williams was the ingathering place for the feast of the family and those present were: I. R. Williams and family, S. S. Williams, wife and daughter, W. M. Lucas and family, of Howard; H. S. Williams and two children, of Altoona; S. S. Williams, wife and two children, of Pleasant Gap, and J. G. Williams, of Union Furnace. A goodly company of twenty-six.

The robust health of Joseph Packer, whose eighty-fourth birthday was celebrated with Thanksgiving Day, gave him and his family just cause for being doubly thankful. His daughter, Mrs. W. E. Barton, of Galeton, Potter county, came home with her pretty little daughter to celebrate the double holiday.

Rev. S. N. Bergen, a graduate of the Western Theological Seminary, and regularly supplying a Presbyterian pulpit at Coal Center, Washington Co., preached very acceptably in the brick chapel last evening. Those who heard him think that he has promise of a successful future.

Carl T. Noll, of the well known Pleasant Gap family, and now an expert electrician, holding a lucrative position with the P. R. R. Co., at Pittsburg, with his wife who have been spending some time with A. A. Pletcher, Mrs. N's father-in-law, has returned to his work.

Miss Cora Leathers came down from her Mt. Eagle home on Sabbath last for the double purpose of enjoying a good dinner at the home of her sister, Mrs. Samuel H. Bowen, and hearing a tender sermon from Elder H. D. Yearick. She reports that she found both.

About 75 tons of brake ends and four thousand dozens of garden rakes—the two specialties of the Howard Tool and Iron Co., are being sent out by this firm.

Mrs. Woodward has so far recovered as to take a little walk, of a few minutes' duration, upon the piazza of her home, upon fair days.

Capt. H. C. Holter is building a new store room 18x20 for Franklin Dietz at Mt. Eagle, to take the place of the one recently burned.

Mrs. Katharine H. McKinney, who has been visiting with many friends in many places, returned to her home Sunday last.

Miss Lovan Henderson has returned to her post in the exchange after an absence of a few days because of indisposition.

Mrs. W. I. Harvey and Miss C. M. Kane were among the shoppers who visited the Clinton county capital on Saturday.

Thomas Robb, son of Jacob Robb of the township, is now in the employ of the Switch and Signal Co., at Pittsburg.

C. M. Fox has endured a week of severe suffering, which is now abating, and he hopes to be about in a few days.

Harry Fulton, Harry Keeler and Ralph Haag were Bellefonte visitors in our town Saturday night and Sunday.

G. L. Musser, trustee, advertised the stock of the Condo grocery at public sale on Friday evening next, for cash.

Harry M. Robb and family, of Lock Haven, spent a day or two with his father, Frederick Robb, last week.

Mrs. Jonathan Packer and Mrs. Adeline Foreman, of Yarnell, were Saturday guests of Mrs. John Baney.

Samuel A. Walizer, of Syracuse, arrived home on Monday last for a short visit.

Miss Nellie Kline spent the week end with her parents.

Henry Wetzel was a Sunday visitor in Beech Creek.

Disappointment is the black sheep of the hope family.

Director Huston McKibben, of Cedar Springs, came to our town on Tuesday last in search of a teacher to fill a vacancy in one of the schools of his district, and dined with his old neighbors, D. T. and Miss Mary Allison. He was directed to William Bachtel, of Liberty township, and secured him.

The B. Weber estate has introduced a baby boy into the house on Main street, occupied by T. J. McCallan and family.

Ward C. Thompson left for Renovo on Wednesday to take work with the P. R. R. Co., at the Juniata shops.

Hugh and Mrs. Glosner, of Beech Creek, were Sunday guests at the home of Isaac Williams and family.

Miss Charlot Gher, of Williamsport was the guest of Mrs. Nellie Watt Thanksgiving week.

JACKSONVILLE. Mr. Sampson, wife and two children, of Pittsburg, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Hoy.

Mrs. Chas. Yearick and Miss Alta Yearick were Lock Haven visitors last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Lowery attended the funeral of Mrs. Krape at Buffalo Run.

A baby boy arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Yearick.

The following children are visiting at the home of their mother, Mrs. Sarah Hoy: George Tate, wife and four children, of Yeagertown; and Mrs. Newton Dorman and two children, of Avila.

On Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, December 5, Rev. Faust, of Loudon, Pa., will occupy the pulpit in the Reformed church, as a candidate for their pastor.

Mrs. Chas. Heltman returned home after a week's visit at the home of her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Heltman, of Mackeyville.

J. Newton Kling, of Scottsdale, is visiting relatives in this section.

Mrs. Baney, of Howard, spent Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Harter; she was accompanied by Mrs. David Holter also from Howard, who spent the day at the home of Mrs. Sarah Hoy.

Mrs. Frank Waite is improving after a long sojourn of rheumatism.

The hunting club returned and they were not successful in getting any large game.

Mrs. Sarah Hoy is confined to her home at this writing.

The many friends of John Musser, of Ferguson, will regret to learn that his condition is not at all encouraging, having been ill for a number of weeks from stomach trouble.

Mercury yesterday morning, last, was down to 19—lowest thus far this fall.

Katz & Co's STORE NEWS

.THIS CUT.

shows an exact representation of our $21.50 and $25.00 suits that are now reduced to $15.

Do you like the style? The finish, Cut and trimmings are bound to please you.

We have equally as good bargains in coats.

YOU SHOULD BRING Butter & Eggs

TO OUR STORE, BECAUSE— We pay for Country Butter a lb. 35c We pay for Country Lard a lb. 14c We pay for Fresh Eggs a doz. 35c We sell fancy Roasted Coffee a lb 15c We give ten per cent. off on every pair of Shoes we sell STATE COLLEGE SUPPLY CO. R. M. Foster, Prop.

It is no longer a question of NEEDING AN OVERCOAT, but-- where you will choose.

For our part we offer you a selection from abundant fabrics, colorings.

Thoroughly dependable materials, faultlessly tailored to our order by whose garments are justly regarded as the finest ready-for-service Overcoats produced and at prices as low as the average good kind.

ALFRED BENJAMIN & Co.

MONTGOMERY & COMPANY, BELLEFONTE, PA.

Gift Portraits! The time between now and CHRISTMAS is limited. If you will favor us with a sitting immediately we will be able to complete your order in time. Don't delay. We'll do our part if you do yours. WE DELIVER WHEN PROMISED. REGARDLESS OF WEATHER. The Mallory Studio, 2nd Floor—Cridler's Exchange. Bring this ad. It is worth one extra photo free if you order.