

BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

—It is liable to be "windy" about the Bush House this time next week.

—Miss Luella Shook, of Bellefonte, has secured a position of stenographer with a large firm in Pittsburgh.

—The Garman estate is putting in new joist and floor in the brick house on the corner of High and Spring streets.

—Mrs. Harry Auman, who has been visiting at the home of her brother, Hickman Kellerman, at Cresson, returned home on Thursday.

—Miss Helen Mingle, of Bellefonte, is now spending most of her time in her father's shoe store where she now has charge of the books.

—Charles W. Heilkecker, of Montgomery, has been appointed manager of the Belle Telephone company for Lock Haven to succeed the former manager, W. S. Shope, of Bellefonte.

—Mortimer O. Donahue, of Philadelphia, spent Sunday in Bellefonte. Several years ago he was one of the managers of what is now the Nitany Furnace. Since leaving Bellefonte he has been a traveling salesman.

—Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Johnson are now in Juniata, where Mr. Johnson has secured employment. At present they are making their home with Mrs. Johnson's brother, Samuel Foster, but later they will go to housekeeping.

—A chicken and waffle supper will be held in the U. B. church annex, on Thursday, December 23rd, by the ladies of the church. The proceeds will go toward helping to meet an obligation they have assumed, and they will appreciate all patronage to the supper; go and help along a good cause.

—J. A. B. Miller, Esq., who has been in a hospital in Pittsburgh the past few weeks, writes us that he will be home by next Monday, and feels that he has recovered his former good health, and will resume his practice. This will be welcome news to Mr. Miller's many friends and numerous clients in this section.

—On Thursday afternoon a Mother's meeting was held at the residence of Mrs. Archibald Allison, on Allegheny street. It is soon time the mothers of Bellefonte are waking up to the fact that there is something for them to do. The mothers of the town could be a power for good if they would show their influence.

—On Thursday evening drayman Ira From, of Bellefonte, reached another milestone in the journey of life which is something less than 80 years. His wife therefore planned for her husband a pleasant surprise. Consequently about forty of his friends gathered at his home in the evening. The time was spent very pleasantly and before the guests departed Mrs. From served her guests with fruits, ice cream and cake.

—The Basket Shop will hold its annual exhibition in Bellefonte in the W. C. I. room in Pittsburg hill the week beginning December 13th. The line of baskets this year is far larger and prettier than ever. There are baskets of all kinds for household purposes: Waste baskets, sewing baskets, work baskets, hanging baskets, in various styles and fancy shapes, at prices to suit any kind of a purse. Nothing so good or appropriate for a Christmas remembrance.

—The other day two young men were seen on the streets of Bellefonte all equipped out with a gay uniform. Many of the residents and pedestrians were puzzled to know just who they were and what it all meant. A little investigation brought out the fact that they were Gottlieb Haag and Chester DeVon, attaches of the Brockerhoff House, S. D. Ray, the proprietor. He is bound to keep abreast with the times and therefore has trimmed the bell boys out with uniforms of deep green resplendent in gold braid trimmings. When porter Jim Miller gets fixed up to nature the Brockerhoff won't make such a bad showing.

—Harry Otto has his pool and billiard room, in Alkana block, in full operation. The large room has been papered and painted in the most artistic style and has all the conveniences of a place of this kind. There is a very pretty pattern of linoleum on the floor and the furniture consists of two pool tables and one billiard table of mission design, and are not only substantial but are very pretty. The arm chairs along the wall are also mission furniture so that everything about the place harmonizes. At the counter the patrons can secure cigars, tobacco, cigarettes and anything in that line.

—Facts are facts and there is no use of disputing that the scenic is the place to go to have an evening of real enjoyment, while it is true that manager T. Clayton Brown is in Philadelphia for a stay of about three weeks things are moving along down there like clock work. It is a delight to go there and sit for three-quarters of an hour and look at something that is wonderful when you stop to think how much time and money is spent to work out the pictures that are nightly thrown on the screen. Pathetic stories told there, from time to time, that cannot help but have an influence for good in the community. On the other hand there is always something that appeals to the humorous side of life.

—Robert F. Hunter, of Bellefonte, is now carrying his arm around in a sling the result of not heeding that old familiar warning of "stop, look and listen." He was out at Kitching's garage cleaning out the differential of his automobile and had a pan of gasoline setting under the machine. Thoughtlessly he struck a match to see if everything was all right. Quick as thought there was a blaze and he quickly withdrew the blazing fluid to save the car, and in doing so slipped on the greasy floor. The result was he spilled the burning gasoline over his right hand which was painfully burned. The rear of the car was also badly scorched although it was not seriously damaged. This is another lesson from experience not to monkey with gasoline. Robert is getting all right again.

—"The Holy City" coming on the 14th.

—Mrs. Samuel Rine spent several days recently in Boalsburg as the guest of her daughter, Mrs. George Fisher.

—Morris Bogle, who had been quite ill in a hospital in Philadelphia, is home and is looking exceedingly well. He expects to remain in Bellefonte for an indefinite time.

—Col. Deitz, who had been spending the summer in Bellefonte as a guest of the Bogle family, left on Monday afternoon for Mexico, where he will spend the winter.

—Mrs. Isaac Matland and daughter, Miss Louise, of Williamsport, and Mrs. Chas. Cruise, of Bellefonte, were the guests of their brothers, Allen S. and Robert Garman, at Tyrone.

—Edward Williams, clerk for the County Commissioners, left on Thursday for Canton, Ohio, where he transacted business for the county. He returned on Monday well pleased with his trip.

—The Garman brothers are fixing up a room in the basement of the house on the corner of High and Spring streets for Edward Torsell, the shoemaker. He will move there from Bishop street.

—On Friday evening a report was prevalent on the streets of Bellefonte that a child of Linn Blackford's was dying. It was afterward learned that the child was suffering from whooping cough; and on Saturday morning was much better. It is all right now.

—When the rain began last Tuesday morning Dr. Van Tries expressed a wish that it would rain three days. That would not be near enough, Doctor,—make it ten days of moderate rain,—say one inch every twenty-four hours for ten days.

—On Monday we had a pleasant call from William Rehner, of Pleasant valley, on Marsh Creek. He just closed negotiations for fifty-four acres, which adjoin his farm. The price paid was $375. Mr. Rehner now has a fine producing farm which is bound to make him some money. He is a hard worker and is entitled to meet with success.

—Doyle Eberhart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Eberhart, of Bellefonte, was in Philadelphia last week where he took the entrance examination to the Williamson Trade School with a view to entering that institution in the spring. William Royer, for man in the Republican office, also took his exam on the same place with the same purpose in view. Clair Robb, of Bellefonte, is at present a student at that school.

—Manager Mair, of Garman's Opera House, has succeeded in booking Clarence Bennett's massive production, "The Holy City." This means that the local theater-going people have the opportunity of seeing one of the finest productions in the country. The play, which deals with life during biblical times, is beautiful, special scenery being carried for each act, and the cast is the best that can be produced. If you desire an evening of real enjoyment go to this attraction which will appear in the opera house on Tuesday, December 14th.

—We take pleasure in stating that Charles Krumrine, the bright thirteen-year old son of druggist Sidney Krumrine, is recovering nicely from the accident which befell him last week. While attempting to drive a nail in a shelf in the drug store he made a mistake and hit a bottle filled with diluted nitric acid. The contents flew all over the boy's face and hand but with remarkable presence of mind he closed his eyes tightly and called for alcohol to neutralize the effect of the acid. Although his face and hands were covered with scabs it is not thought that he will be disfigured.

—On Sunday George Little, the famous crayon artist, was in Bellefonte, and gave an exhibition before the Methodist Sabbath School, the Y. M. C. A., the Young People's meeting in the United Brethren church, and in the evening he occupied the pulpit in the Presbyterian church. Monday he gave exhibitions in the High school and Academy. His forte is in sketching from which he teaches some very important lessons. They are interesting and as the artist goes through life he cannot help but sow seed that will be productive of great good.

—Rev. James P. Hughes, principal of the Bellefonte Academy, who had been seriously ill for several days, is gradually recovering. He is able to sit up a while each day which is good indications that he will be around again. He is up in his eighties which made his illness a serious matter, and the only thing that prevented the disease taking a fatal course was his strong, robust physique. He has lived much of his time in the open air, thus insuring him a longer lease of life. He came to Bellefonte at the close of the Civil War to take charge of the Academy and filled it to the honor of himself and the satisfaction of the school's patrons. It is to be hoped he will permanently recover.

—Harry B. Hutchinson, the obliging and efficient ticket agent at the P. R. R. station, is now off duty and is taking a well-earned vacation of ten days, part of which will be spent with C. P. Hews, Esq., of Erie. His place is being very acceptably filled by his assistant, Wilbur Burkholder, who is assisted by Samuel Tressler, the dayman in the tower. H. D. Weaver has taken Mr. Tressler's place in the tower in Bellefonte and Mr. Salesburg, of Beech Creek, has taken Mr. Weaver's place at the tower between Bellefonte and Milesburg. This is a good bit of changing around to give one man a little vacation. When "Billy" Taft leaves Washington it's a question whether there are as many changes as when "Hutch" wants to take a little trip. It is good for any man to get out of the old rut once in a while, and we trust "Hutch" will return with renewed vigor.

—"The Holy City" at the opera house next Tuesday, 14th.

—Charles Yearick and wife, of Altoona, are visiting friends in Bellefonte.

—Mr. R. H. Henderson, one of State College's respected citizens, favored our sanctum with a call.

—Miss Lottie Robb returned on Thursday from Dayton, Ohio, where she had been visiting her sister.

—Miss Sarah Bogle, an attache of the Carnegie Library, at Pittsburg, is visiting in her home in Bellefonte.

—Mr. and Mrs. Richard Quigley, of Lock Haven, are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby boy. It's now "Uncle Henry."

—Hon. James A. Beaver departed on Saturday evening for Philadelphia to be in attendance at Superior Court this week.

—Contractor Edward Gheret was in Philadelphia this week on business connected with the repairing of the Court house.

—Mrs. Stein, wife of Dr. James B. Stein, and her children, Mary and James, of Tyrone, are visiting in Bellefonte this week.

—"Girls," at the opera house next Wednesday evening, is a high class production that dropped in here only to fill an open date.

—Harvey Stine and wife, of State College, spent Sunday in Bellefonte. This is the first time they had been in the county seat for a long time.

—Mrs. John Wilson and Mrs. May Milward, of Osceola, have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Milward at Pleasant Gap, and on Saturday called on friends in Bellefonte.

—Mrs. Daniel Rhoads, daughter Rebecca and son Edward K. Rhoads have returned to Bellefonte after an absence of about one month. They were much pleased with their trip.

—Immediately after Christmas Mrs. S. Cameron Burnside will close up her home in Bellefonte and go to Philadelphia where she will spend two months. Later she will visit her niece, Mrs. Theodore Thomas, at Canton, Ohio.

—This evening the local Benevolent Protective Order of Elks will give a dance and banquet to those who did so much toward making the "Centre County Fair" a noted success last week. The festivities of the evening will be held in Bush's hall and it will be quite an interesting affair.

—Robert and Roy Wilson, of Altoona; Charles Tripple, of Philadelphia; Luther Gelsinger, of Huntingdon; and Mr. and Mrs. George Kerstetter, of Harrisburg, were among those from a distance who attended the funeral of the late Dr. Gelsmer on Monday.

—William R. Shope has resigned his position as manager of the Lock Haven exchange of the Pennsylvania telephone company to accept a position with the International Correspondence school, of Scranton. He will make his headquarters at Lock Haven and look after the company's interests in this section of the State.

—Why not try something like the following in Bellefonte? Lewisburg officials and overseers of the Poor have provided a stone pile in order to give labor to all able bodied men who apply for support. By this arrangement the borough will accept and pay all orders issued by the Poor Board and the streets will be kept in repair without hiring outside labor.

—On Monday evening Joseph McCully, driver of a C. C. Shuey's delivery wagon, had a little runaway. He was making some deliveries in the North ward when the horses frightened and ran away. Joe was thrown out but fortunately he was not injured, but his hair stood on his head like that on a porcupine. The team was caught in the vicinity of the old nail works with little damage to the outfit.

—It is to be regretted that Hastings Gates, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gates, Bellefonte, is seriously ill at his home on Lamb street. For about one year Hastings had not been feeling well and last summer he resigned his position with the Adams Express Company as delivery agent at this place, and went to a farm near Yarnell where he spent several months. He seemed to get better, but when he returned to Bellefonte recently, a turn came for worse and he now is confined to his bed. His ailment is an affection of the throat.

—To-morrow evening, Friday, Constance Commandery of the Knights Templar, of this place, will have a special function and banquet. It will be in honor of Rev. John Hewitt, rector of St. John's Episcopal church, who after an absence of twenty-four years has returned and again joined the ranks of the local commandery. Rev. Hewitt has the honor of being Past Grand Chaplain of the Grand commandery in both Pennsylvania and Nebraska, which gives him considerable prominence in the order. Several officers of the Grand Commandery will be present on this occasion, as well as members from sister commanderies.

—On Monday afternoon we had a pleasant call from A. D. Mair, who will be the manager of Garman's opera house for the next three years. We found him to be a good sociable gentleman, with a thorough knowledge of the theatre business, having many years of experience along this line. He is a member of the National Vaudeville Managers' Association so that he is in a position to give to the people of this vicinity the best that's going. The object is to run a high class vaudeville show, the year around, charging 10 cents. Every attraction will be equal to the majority of 50 cent shows, so that there will be no fakes. Occasionally a higher price attraction will be sandwiched in, to give variety to the entertainments. This will be appreciated by our people. A new regulation booth will be placed in the opera house, and everything will be run on improved methods. There will be no loud talking or throwing paper wads. Loafing in about the hall will also be broken up so that the patrons of the house can feel perfectly safe in going there without being molested in any way. The object is to extend the best of courtesy to everybody.

—Mrs. Robert Irvin left on Tuesday for Altoona to visit friends.

—In the show window of Olewine's hardware store can be seen some fine electrical appliances for household use.

—On Monday Joe Thal and Charles Moorbacher went out hunting and returned with 20 rabbits. How is that for a day's work?

—Mrs. D. H. Hastings has ordered a 1910 model touring car for delivery next spring or her return to Bellefonte from Harrisburg.

—Arthur Undercoffer, son of Joseph Undercoffer, of Bellefonte, has secured a position at Cherry Tree. He left for that place on Tuesday.

—Morris Musser, of College township, was a business caller; he informs us many up that way are obliged to haul water for home use, except those like himself, connected with the College water line.

—Dr. Selbst, of this place, returned from Newport, Pa., on Saturday, where he had been to see his father who had a shoulder dislocated by being thrown from an automobile. The elderly gentleman is improving from his mishap.

—The American Lime & Stone Company now has a new kiln in process of erection at their Armor Gap quarries, and as soon as it is completed it will be placed in commission which is an indication that the business of the company is steadily improving.

—Observing the good results of oiled streets to get rid of the dust nuisance, as demonstrated up town, the business men between Spring creek and the Pennsylvania railroad have decided to put oil on that section of High street. The balance of High street should complete the job.

—The Pennsylvania telephone company have begun stringing new cables about town. It is their intention to install the cable system all over town, as far as possible, and do away with the net work of wires that it now requires to handle their service. This will not only increase the efficiency of the service, it is hoped, but will obviate practically all danger of damage and delay by high winds and storms. New and much larger poles have been erected along the route of all the cable lines.

—Folks, little and big, are having Christmas shopping upon their minds, since that greatest of all holidays is within sight. The store windows are already smiling as well as temptingly invite the passer-by and arrest the attention of all. "My Christmas Gift" is a salutation that will be fired at more than thousands on the early morn, and all day, of Saturday, 25th—some will tender recognition, some will dodge in "Wish you a merry Christmas," and will be a greeting as countless as the stars in the firmament above and should be as lovingly meant.

—Isler-Hess. On Thursday evening, December 2nd, at 8 o'clock a very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Hess, which was beautifully decorated with roses and ferns, at Pittsburg. The bride was their daughter, Miss Charlotte Hess, who became the bride of C. A. Isler in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives, among them being Miss Alice Isler and Miss Vera Smith, of Bellefonte. Rev. Thomas D. Edgar, pastor of the Presbyterian church, performed the ceremony in which he used the pretty ring service. Harrison Whippo, formerly of Bellefonte, was best man and Miss Eva Miller was bridesmaid. The bride was attired in a gown of white satin and wore a tulle veil fastened with orange blossoms. In her hand she carried a bouquet of white roses. Following the wedding an informal reception took place and a wedding dinner was served. The bride is one of the Smoky City's best and prettiest of young ladies, thoroughly competent to preside over her own home. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Isler, of Bellefonte, who is a progressive young man, now holding the position of signal superintendent for the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. at Trenton, N. J., where the groom has a house furnished for his bride. Many handsome presents in silver, glass, china, etc., were received. The wedding trip included Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Bellefonte where they spent several days.

—Loyal Legion Banquet. The Charles J. Higgs Loyal Temperance Legion held their meeting contest banquet at the Y. M. C. A. on Thursday evening. The contest was decided on some time ago and Miss Martha Barnhart and Miss Mildred Kirk were chosen as captains of the two sides who were to make a thorough canvass for new members. After a very interesting race, which brought the membership up to 90, including honorary members, Miss Barnhart won out, her side having gained more members than the other. The agreement was that the losing side should give an oyster supper to the winning side, and this was given accordingly on Thursday evening. The full membership was present to enjoy the supper and a most pleasant time was spent in the banquet hall.

—Where is Your Share? Every person in the United States should have a stake of $24.95 if the money in circulation on December 1st were evenly divided. This is based on the treasury's estimate that the population of the United States is 82,524,000 at this time.

—That it is said a certain well-known gentleman in Bellefonte is getting entirely too much coal oil. The neighbors in the North ward say that he gets enough of coal oil to light the whole blooming town. The people have gotten onto the coal oil business and they think he ought to change to a keg instead of a can, because it would taste better and the chances of poisoning would not be so great.

COUNCIL MEETING.

On Monday evening the Bellefonte Council held its semi-annual meeting. Under the head of verbal communications Paul D. Sheffer presented a petition signed by the property holders on Allegheny street, between Howard and Lamb streets, protesting against the laying of brick on that part of this thoroughfare when the new State road is made through Bellefonte. The main objection is that it is too noisy. They prefer asphaltum or the ordinary macadam state road.

Some of these residents would feel well if they resided in the large cities, where there is a hum and bustle all the time. Thousands of dollars have been spent in putting material on and afterwards carting it away each year, while paved with the liberal assistance from the state, much expense in the venture would be saved. The thoroughfares in all progressive towns are paved and none would return to the old method of making streets.

Some time ago the term of Dr. R. G. H. Hayes expired as a member of the local Board of Health. There was an objection raised against him being appointed because he didn't reside in the borough. At this meeting the question was brought up and Dr. David Dale was appointed to fill the place of Dr. Hayes.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Co. was granted the privilege of laying a steam pipe across High street from the watch box to their property on which the depot stands.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

The spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. William Bennett, of Port Matilda, was the scene of gay festivities on Saturday, December 4th, 1909, it being the twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding.

One hundred and ten invited guests assembled to witness the wedding ceremony re-enacted. At noon, the bride and groom, looking as young as they did twenty-five years ago, and even happier, because of the many blessings they have received, marched to their parlor and were again married by Rev. Ake, Mrs. Ake presiding at the piano. After receiving the hearty congratulations of all present, a sumptuous feast was served to which all did ample justice. During the afternoon Mr. Barnes, a noted singer from Michigan, favored the guests with several selections, and Mrs. Ake and Mrs. W. Crain with instrumental music. The presents were useful, beautiful and costly.

Among the out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hoy, of State College; Mr. and Mrs. James Cox and daughter, and Mrs. Veronice Taylor, of Altoona; Mr. and Mrs. John Bennett, of Pittsburg; Mr. and Mrs. Elias Grant, Miss Margaret Nearhook, Miss Lulu Switzer, Mr. E. L. Grant, Mr. G. W. Harpster, of Warriors Mark; Mr. Geo. Herman, of Phillipsburg; and Miss Jennie Bennett, of Tyrone.

The ladies of the Evangelical church of Zion will hold an oyster and ice cream festival on December 17th. All are invited to attend.

ANNUAL ELECTION.

The annual meeting of the Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Centre County will be held in its office, Petrikin Hall, Bellefonte, Monday, January 10th, 1910 and the election of twelve directors for the ensuing year, between the hours of 10 a. m. and 3 p. m. of said day.

D. F. LUSE, Secretary. H. E. DUCK, President.

—Dissolution Notice. Notice is hereby given that the firm of "RANDOLPH & TATE," dealers in furniture and undertaking at Pine Grove Mills, Pa., was dissolved on Monday, December 6th, 1909, by the mutual consent of Mr. A. J. Tate retiring from the said firm. The business of said firm will be continued by the undersigned, and the books and all accounts with the firm are in his possession for settlement. All persons having claims or owing said firm are notified to make immediate settlement. E. R. RANDOLPH, 430 Pine Grove Mills, Pa.

Didn't Get Nothing.

All the local hunting clubs, of Tyrone, having returned from their annual outings in the Alleghenies, the fact developed that not one club had the fortune to bag either a deer or a bear. The incident is without parallel in recent years.

For the first time in 30 years the famous Modoc hunting club of Harris township came in this season completely "skunked" and were quite disappointed.

Fire at Eggleville.

The livery stable of Charles Kunes at Eggleville was totally destroyed by fire on Sunday evening at 8 o'clock, together with three buggies, a two-seated carriage, a number of sleighs, a quantity of hay, harness, etc. The eight head of horses were saved, although the stable was a mass of flames soon after the fire was discovered. The loss is partially covered by insurance. The origin of the fire is unknown.

A very pretty sociable was given at the home of Miss Edith Robb, at Room 6, on Saturday evening in honor of her guest, Miss Adda Thompson, of Port Matilda. The parlors were beautifully decorated with evergreens, and the rendition of music by Miss Pearl Brickley and Miss Robb was grand. The evening was spent in social games and general amusement, and at 10:30 o'clock all retired to the dining room and partook of a feast fit for a king, and at 11:45 o'clock all left for their homes bearing with them recollections complimentary to Miss Robb and her guest.

Deputy sheriff Jas. B. Strohm has not yet got his ankle in trim to kick foot ball.
