

Correspondents Department

THE NEWS IN CONDENSED FORM FROM ALL PARTS OF THE COUNTY

NITTANY.

Miss Mittle Winkelman has gone to Altoona to keep house for her brother, Ell.

One of our young gentlemen who is tired of Ridge life has decided to learn the art of railroading.

Charles Zerby and Miss Florence Gardner, of Howard and grandpa Zerby, of Spring Mills, were guests of H. P. Zerby and family on Sunday.

Quite a number of our young people are attending big meetings at Hecla.

Rev. Bingham delivered a very able sermon to a very large audience in the Ev. church, Sunday evening.

Charles Mauck, who spent the past several weeks in Philadelphia taking in the sights and working in a large meat establishment, has returned home but expects to return again before spring.

Miss Katie Johnson, of Salona, has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Horace Winkelman, the past two weeks.

Mrs. Carrie Sweeney and son Russel, of Avis, were guests at the same place several days last week.

Mrs. C. W. Polbert attended the butchering at Mrs. A. R. Rossman's, at Clintondale, recently.

Mrs. Markle's sale is on the 10th and J. Wesley Crawford's sale is on the 15th. Both sales are near the C. R. R. of Pa.

Those from a distance attending the butchering at grandmother Showers' and Dan Diehl's, were John Showers and grandson Nevin Weaver, of Kote; Winnie Delaney, of Rock Haven; Henry Nighthart, wife and Claude Transue and wife and Herbert Nighthart, of Lamar.

Mr. Lincoln Swartz and wife and Mr. Edward Markle and wife, were guests of C. P. Markle and family on Sunday.

James Gussallus and wife attended church at Hublersburg on Sunday.

Harry Mauck boarded the train going east one morning last week.

Mrs. Belle McEwen, of Hublersburg, was the guest of her parents here, one day last week.

W. E. Garbrick and family and Ben Fisher and wife were to Salona one day last week helping William Fisher to butcher.

Some of the Hecla young folks were visitors to our town on Sunday.

Guy Nolan was to Howard one day last week on business.

Earl Peck says it takes four pecks to make a bushel, but some of the girls say they are satisfied when they have one Peck, Earl.

Sam Tweed, Perry McCaleb and Ralph Swartz say they don't like rabbit anymore, they have lots of deer meat to eat, you know.

Clark McClintick says if it don't soon rain he is going to make a trip in his flying machine to Unionville, to see about it.

Clyde Lee and Less Swartz, who are busy sawing wood for our people, say they ought to have a self-filer when they are sawing those pesky ties.

Charles Decker, has been to Philadelphia to bring home his little son who has undergone an operation in Jefferson hospital.

Mr. Bitner, of Potter's Mills, was in town one day last week.

Misses Christine Harris, Vista Krape and Flo Smith, of Lamar, were visitors here on Sunday.

STATE COLLEGE.

The College singing girls, gave a very interesting entertainment to a large and appreciative audience on Friday night.

Saturday night was followed by a free lecture on the description of the countries of some of the extreme western states, also furnished the pictures of those countries and some of the fine fruit grown there. He told of the manner in which people lived and of the cliffs of different parts and the use of these by the inhabitants of those people.

Mrs. Mary E. Beck, spent several days with friends and relatives at Howard and Lock Haven this week.

Mr. Hamil Holmes, has his men at work on the new house which is a much needed building here.

James Holmes moved from the country into his newly purchased property on the corner of College and Frazee Sts. He will equip it with heat and light at once.

The Royal Arcanum order initiated about twenty new members on Friday night.

Mr. William Beck, was laid up several days with neuralgia in his jaw.

Our hunters returned with a fine deer and bear.

Sunday Memorial Services were conducted in the Auditorium for W. C. Patterson, who helped to build up the college grounds and farms to a high mark.

This Saturday we will have the privilege of listening to the Pharaonian Minstrel to be held in the new auditorium.

The cross country run by our trackmen is reported to come off this Saturday, Dec. 11. The route is laid out and will cover nearly four miles of territory.

Charles Keratetter, won a goose and a chicken at a shooting match held last week.

Mrs. William Foster, of Lewistown was a College visitor on Saturday.

HUBLERSBURG.

Mrs. Kathryn Stover spent a few days with her sister, Mrs. Thos. Shope, of Milesburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace White, of Axemann, and Miss Melonie Rahan of Bellefonte, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. David Deltrich.

Messrs. Calvin and Nevin Hoy spent Sunday with their parents.

Among those who made a business trip last week to our county seat, were Edna Decker, Mr. Boyd Carner, Peter Evers, Mrs. Mabel Swartz, Nellie Rathmill and brother James.

Miss Lilia Deitrich went to Pitscairn over Sunday to see Mrs. Markle's son Lloyd, who was very ill with appendicitis.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Swartz, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Markle and son Hogan, spent Sunday at the home of Perry McCaleb at Huston.

Mrs. Sarah McEwen of Irvona, is spending some time at the home of Mrs. J. H. Rathmell's.

Roy Decker, spent Sunday with his mother and sister.

Ben Swartz who teaches school in Clinton county, spent Sunday at his home.

Every One for Himself.

If ever you feel you cannot look out for yourself no one else will look out for you. If you can't help yourself, Sixtine Pills will help you. $1 a box, 6 boxes $5, with full guarantee for all forms of nerve weakness in men or women. Address or call C. M. Parrish, Druggist, Bellefonte, where they sell all the principal remedies and do not substitute.

WINGATE.

Olle Summers left on Thursday for Phillipsburg where she expects to visit friends and relatives.

Ellis Wagener, of Rebersburg, is visiting her grandparents, Mr. Harnish's.

Martin Bartley and sister Flora, of Zion, were pleasant visitors at the home of Claud Summers over Sunday.

Chas. Hoover, after spending some time away from home, returned to see his friends on Saturday.

Mrs. C. Summers, after spending a week with her parents at Zion, returned home on last Tuesday.

Leonard Watson transacted business at Tyrone on Tuesday.

Geo. Sterck and wife, of Altoona, spent a couple days visiting his parents here last week.

Harry Askey is spending several days at the home of J. H. Snyder.

Last Wednesday evening, Fireman Wellers, of Tyrone, while coming east on engine 2704, stopped at S. S. Int. to take on water and in some way, in holding the valve lever down, it slipped and hit him just below the knee.

On last Friday night four of our young men, with Jno. Smith leader, started for the mountain to fight fire; by their skill and swift work they accomplished their task in two hours.

John is deserving of lots of credit, as in a short time the fire would have been twice as bad and the men could have done nothing.

Any one that wishes to share hands with a woman that never told a lie, may meet her on Saturday by calling on the scribe, for information.

On last Friday night four of our young men, with Jno. Smith leader, started for the mountain to fight fire; by their skill and swift work they accomplished their task in two hours.

John is deserving of lots of credit, as in a short time the fire would have been twice as bad and the men could have done nothing.

Any one that wishes to share hands with a woman that never told a lie, may meet her on Saturday by calling on the scribe, for information.

On last Friday night four of our young men, with Jno. Smith leader, started for the mountain to fight fire; by their skill and swift work they accomplished their task in two hours.

John is deserving of lots of credit, as in a short time the fire would have been twice as bad and the men could have done nothing.

Any one that wishes to share hands with a woman that never told a lie, may meet her on Saturday by calling on the scribe, for information.

On last Friday night four of our young men, with Jno. Smith leader, started for the mountain to fight fire; by their skill and swift work they accomplished their task in two hours.

John is deserving of lots of credit, as in a short time the fire would have been twice as bad and the men could have done nothing.

Any one that wishes to share hands with a woman that never told a lie, may meet her on Saturday by calling on the scribe, for information.

On last Friday night four of our young men, with Jno. Smith leader, started for the mountain to fight fire; by their skill and swift work they accomplished their task in two hours.

John is deserving of lots of credit, as in a short time the fire would have been twice as bad and the men could have done nothing.

Any one that wishes to share hands with a woman that never told a lie, may meet her on Saturday by calling on the scribe, for information.

On last Friday night four of our young men, with Jno. Smith leader, started for the mountain to fight fire; by their skill and swift work they accomplished their task in two hours.

John is deserving of lots of credit, as in a short time the fire would have been twice as bad and the men could have done nothing.

Any one that wishes to share hands with a woman that never told a lie, may meet her on Saturday by calling on the scribe, for information.

On last Friday night four of our young men, with Jno. Smith leader, started for the mountain to fight fire; by their skill and swift work they accomplished their task in two hours.

John is deserving of lots of credit, as in a short time the fire would have been twice as bad and the men could have done nothing.

Any one that wishes to share hands with a woman that never told a lie, may meet her on Saturday by calling on the scribe, for information.

On last Friday night four of our young men, with Jno. Smith leader, started for the mountain to fight fire; by their skill and swift work they accomplished their task in two hours.

John is deserving of lots of credit, as in a short time the fire would have been twice as bad and the men could have done nothing.

Any one that wishes to share hands with a woman that never told a lie, may meet her on Saturday by calling on the scribe, for information.

On last Friday night four of our young men, with Jno. Smith leader, started for the mountain to fight fire; by their skill and swift work they accomplished their task in two hours.

John is deserving of lots of credit, as in a short time the fire would have been twice as bad and the men could have done nothing.

Any one that wishes to share hands with a woman that never told a lie, may meet her on Saturday by calling on the scribe, for information.

On last Friday night four of our young men, with Jno. Smith leader, started for the mountain to fight fire; by their skill and swift work they accomplished their task in two hours.

John is deserving of lots of credit, as in a short time the fire would have been twice as bad and the men could have done nothing.

Any one that wishes to share hands with a woman that never told a lie, may meet her on Saturday by calling on the scribe, for information.

On last Friday night four of our young men, with Jno. Smith leader, started for the mountain to fight fire; by their skill and swift work they accomplished their task in two hours.

WOODWARD.

Misses Besale and Laura Condo, of Rebersburg, spent some time among friends in this town.

Harry Kessinger, of later employed by Harter Bros. at Harter, W. Va., returned last Friday to pay a visit to his family at this place.

On Monday, the 29th, George Fultz, accompanied by a number of his chums started to the mountains south of town for a day's hunt, but after going only a short distance the 32-20 Marlin carried by Fultz was accidentally discharged, the ball passing through the foot at the joint of the second toe.

Mr. Fultz's wound is rapidly improving and he was seen out on the street on Sunday.

Among the visitors in town on Sunday were L. L. Weaver and family, at James Weaver's; Frank Lose and family, at L. D. Orndorff's; Harry Stover and family, at D. J. Benner's; Harris Stover and family, at Mrs. Wolf's; and G. W. Wolfe, Jr., and wife at Chas. Musser's.

The hunting season closed last Tuesday with the Woodward Gun Club having obtained a buck and a bear. The Round Top party from this place also got a buck.

The mountains east of town were burning fearfully on last Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. The fire was started at three places, viz: In Mosquito Hollow, Sand Hollow and Narrows Hollow, and by the outlook of said fire someone unknown must have been doing rascally work.

Harvey Hoover, Mrs. Emanuel Orndorff and D. J. Benner and family were to Centre Hill last week to participate in John A. Hosterman's butchering.

M. Hosterman moved to said place from this community last spring.

C. W. Hosterman moved his vacant store room from the corner of Main street and Mt. Ave. back about 60 feet, facing Mt. Ave. with the front.

Members of the Evan Association Sunday School of this place intend holding a Christmas service on Sunday evening, Dec. 26th. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

The communion services in the United Ev. church on Sunday were attended by a large crowd. The services were conducted by Rev. Reeser, P. E.

Mrs. William Walter was taken to the Bellefonte hospital for medical treatment last week.

Rev. Kessler and C. E. Kremer made a trip to Millhelm on Saturday afternoon.

James Beaver, of Millhelm, passed through town on Friday morning with a nice drove of cattle. Porter Snyder and Sandy Bowersox accompanied him as far as Hartleton.

Charles Lingie, of Wolf's Chapel, was a caller in town on Saturday afternoon.

C. H. Hosterman and family, of Buffalo, N. Y.; H. S. Hosterman, of State College, and W. S. Hosterman, of Johnstown, visited their parents at this place last week.

An inventory of the stock of Mrs. C. W. Hosterman's general merchandise store, of this place, was taken by Chas. Wolfe, of Aaronsburg, on last Saturday.

We failed to notice any correspondence by scribe No. 2 for some time. I suppose his weekly visits to Brushvalley are the cause for it.

Roy Musser, who has been confined to the house for some time with typhoid fever, we are glad to say is again able to get out as he has been seen on the streets a number of times during the past week.

Mrs. A. M. Yearick returned home on Saturday from the Bellefonte hospital, at which place she underwent an operation lately.

John Sheesley, employed at Carrott, Clinton Co., had the misfortune of being hurt by a rolling log on last Saturday, and was brought home on Sunday by Wm. Haines.

Mrs. L. L. Haines spent some time in this community this week among friends.

Samuel Baird and Harry Whitman left for Burnham where they are employed in a Standard Stone works.

Mrs. Chas. Neff, of Lock Haven, spent two days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Fetzer.

Miss Agnes Scanlon, of Axemann, was a recent visitor at the home of Ross Wallace.

Don't forget to leave your oyster orders for Christmas just one week ahead. The demand for oysters at that time is great, so not to be disappointed have your orders now.

Mrs. Heaton, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Chas. Fetzer, left for Harrisburg and Philadelphia where Mrs. Heaton is consulting eye specialists and having her eyes treated.

Monday, Nov. 29th, the home of Ross Wallace was the scene of a very pleasant surprise party it being the 66th birthday anniversary of Mrs. Wallace's mother, Mrs. White. The guests were Mrs. John Martin, of Bellefonte; Miss Sadie Jones, of Bellefonte; Miss Sallie Gumm, of Mrs. Raymond McCloskey, of Altoona; Mrs. August Newman, Mrs. John I. Gingham, Mrs. Elizabeth Kirk, Mrs. Ben Austin, Mrs. Hevelly, Mrs. Henry Comer, Mrs. Ella Holt, Mrs. Calvin Zimmerman, Mrs. Newton Jones, Miss Jane Ryan, of Milesburg. The room and table were artistically decorated in autumn shades.

As the guests assembled at the table they formed a group of autumn leaves on which the words of time are falling lightly. The birthday cake contained 66 tiny twinkling candles which added much to the occasion. Mrs. White received many presents.

The chicken and waffle supper, held on Saturday night by the M. H. school, was a success, having cleared $30 for the benefit of a physical laboratory. Everything was satisfactory to all present. It was really a $50 meal for $25.

Mrs. Clayton Poorman, of Tyrone, was a recent visitor among relatives and friends.

The Revival services now being held in the M. E. church are meeting with wonderful success.

Xmas goods at Toner Hugg's will supply the community without going elsewhere. Fine pictures given with every $1 candy purchase.

BOALSBURG. The supper Saturday evening was well attended and quite a nice sum of money was realized.

Bruce Lonsberger, who has been working in Virginia, came home to spend a few weeks, also to nurse a very sore foot—having it hurt from a falling log in camp.

We are sorry to note the death of Mrs. J. J. Reed, who died on Saturday morning and will be buried on Tuesday forenoon. Services will be held in the Presbyterian church of which she was a faithful member. Mr. Reed has the sympathy of his neighbors and friends in his time of trouble. Mrs. Reed left no children.

Mrs. Belle Stuart, of Williamsburg, was called to see her sister, Mrs. Reed, last week and stayed to help take care of her in her last days of sickness.

The Tussey Rebekah Lodge, No. 66, installed their new officers for the next term last Wednesday evening, with Mrs. Anna Zeigler as N. E.; Mrs. Kathryn Motherbaugh as V. C.; Anna Dale, Sec'y.; Nora B. Millers, Treas.

POTTER TOWNSHIP.

FRUITTOWN. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Moyer spent several days with the lady's parents, of near Hecla.

Boyd Jordan is lying very ill with typhoid fever at the home of his parents.

The stork again visited our town Tuesday morning, this time presenting Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Nevel with a young daughter.

Mrs. E. T. Jordan assisted Charles Stover's to butcher on Tuesday.

Josephine Deitz, of Howard, is spending the winter with her aunt, Mrs. Clara Moyer.

Samuel Slack, of Potter's Mills, was calling on some of his friends in our town on Monday.

Charles Gander seems to have some attraction at the home of Wm Ishler. Wonder why?

MANOR HILL. Butchering is in full boom this week in this section.

A Stump has had the belt for this year so far. He had three porkers that dressed 1025 and got six and one-half cans of lard and a heaping bushel basket of sausage. Who can beat that? Will let someone know of William Cummings' elephant grinders next week.

Mrs. Foster Walker left for Dunbar on Monday, where she will make her future home. Mr. Walker having gone there some time ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Prantz, of Earleystown, helped Mr. Robert McClellan butcher last week.

A baby girl came to the home of C. R. Neff on the 28th.

EARLEYSTOWN. Nice weather all along and butchering is all the go around here. There is lots of sausage and pan haus made.

Mr. Bartsch came back from his trip to Chester Springs and visited Mrs. D. C. Keller and Mr. Sheets, and speaks well of the people down there, and how nice they treated him, and the school is just alright.

Miss Cora Frazier came back from her visit at Buffalo Run well pleased. It is very dry here.

COLYER. Mrs. J. Henry Moyer and son Cyrus spent a few days with her mother and sister at Spring Mills.

GREGG TOWNSHIP. NORTH PRECINCT. Protracted meeting is still in progress.

C. A. Duck and lady friend were out for a pleasure trip on Sunday.

That a certain young sport of Pennsylvania was over here to beat another sport's time, but was stung. How about it, C. A. D.?

If some of the Madisonburg boys do not have the nerve to ask a girl to let them take her home, the girls will ask them. How about it, Ernest?

C. E. Duck is busy sawing wood in Taylorstown.

Recently there have been chicken thieves who make themselves bold and come around and take as high as fifty young chickens at a time. We be unto them if they are caught.

Some of our young people attended the dance at Spring Mills last week.

Get your wedding bells ready for the newly married couples at Madisonburg.

The other night a party of coon hunters were out on the second mountain when they heard a peculiar noise.

They stopped and listened and it came nearer and nearer when it was near enough that they could see it, they found it was a panther chewing a deer and yelling so that the earth fairly trembled.

BRILLIANT SPARKLING CLEAR LAMP OIL. Best light for the eye. Does away with every lamp trouble. Costs no more than inferior lamp wicks. Almost every dealer has it. Inquire. WAVERLY OIL WORKS CO., Independent Refiners. PITTSBURG, PA.

Saturday CASH SALE

- 5 gal. oil..... 58 " 75
Rice, per lb..... 8 " 10
Corn Starch..... 5 " 25
Rumford..... 28 " 20
Baker's Chocolate.. 21 " 25
Banner Lye, 3 for... 25 " 10-12
Butcher's Pepper... 25 " 40
Raisins lb..... 10 " 15
Currants..... 10 " 12
3 lb Prunes..... 25 " 12 lb
15 lb gran. Sugar.. $1
6 cakes Soap..... 250

We pay 33c for Eggs, 33c for Butter. Potatoes and Lard Wanted

GILLEN'S GROCERY

The other night a party of coon hunters were out on the second mountain when they heard a peculiar noise.

SAVINGS DEPARTMENT. Questions We Answer EVERY DAY: 1. When can I open an account? Ans.—Any business day. 2. How much must I put in? Ans.—One Dollar. 3. Can I open accounts for my children? Ans.—Yes, as Trustee. 4. Can a married woman have an account of her own. Ans.—Yes, absolutely her own. 5. Can anyone make her pay her husband's bills with it? Ans.—They cannot. 6. When can I draw it out? Ans.—Any time. 7. What interest do I get? Ans.—3 per cent. yearly. 8. When does it begin? Ans.—The first of every month. 9. When can I draw the interest? Ans.—At any time after three months. THE BELLEFONTE TRUST CO. BELLEFONTE, PA.

MEN'S $5.00 Snag Proof Rubber Boots. $4.00 A PAIR. MEN'S $5.00 Snag Proof Rubber Boots. $4.00 A PAIR. MEN'S $5.00 Snag Proof Rubber Boots. $4.00 A PAIR. AT YEAGER'S SHOE STORE, BELLEFONTE, PA.