EDITORIAL.

And now one pole-wise scientist expresses the opinion that Dr. Cook did not get within several hundred miles of the pole, and he also thinks that Peary did not reach the pole either.

Brooms are on the rise and an authority upon sweeping predicts the article, already on the rise, will get up to a dollar in price.

For a term of years the sugar trust had a sweet time cheating the government out of millions with the knowledge and connivance of officials.

government, as turns out to be the case with the party in power for the last three decades! Under the good old Democratic party there were no strikes, no panics, no tramps and other like weeds—and the good old party still lives.

It is notable that one constantly reads in the gangster press the stereotyped charges that the "old democratic party has been corrupt" and that the party of the gangsters is one ever flowing with virtue and righteousness.

Years of robber tariff putting hundreds of millions into the pockets of the trust millionaires and skimming it off of the public.

CHANGES IN THE ROAD LAW Important Things to Know About the Taxes. The last Legislature made more changes in more laws than any Legislature that has met since the adoption of the present constitution.

THE CENTRAL BANK. The people have another fight ahead. The financiers have decided that they will convert congress into creating a central bank to manage the government's money matters, and they are going to make the effort.

THANKS GIVING TO THE G. O. P. Thanksgiving table supplies consisting of a nine-pound turkey, plum pudding for four, mince-meat for three pies, celery, parsley, quart of cranberries, pound of mixed nuts and three pounds of potatoes were sold in Chicago ten years ago for $1.95.

Boy to Wear Rabbit Skin. One of the rarest surgical operations in the world has just been performed at the general hospital at Kansas City, as a last resort in an attempt to save the life of Jonny Herren, 14 years old.

SENATOR GORE'S PREDICTION. While the blind Senator from Oklahoma, Thomas P. Gore, was delivering a lecture in Erie recently on "Social Duty," he started his large audience by saying:

IT STILL LIVES. The old Democratic party, mainly the founders of the Constitution and of the Republic, which added to the thirteen original states all the vast territory on the Alleghenies to the Pacific ocean, still lives—outliving half a dozen other parties.

FIFTY-TWO GIFTS FOR ONE DOLLAR. Fifty-two Christmas gifts for one dollar hardly seems plausible, but that is just what a year's subscription to the Centre Democrat would mean to your friends.

was approved. The trusts have monopolized the markets so far, and are now laughing at competition. It is not probable that Taft will ever receive a second term. In the face of low wages the price of living has advanced enormously, and Taft will be judged and damned in the balances of the grocery and the shoe counter.

POPULAR VOTE SHOWS DISTRUST FOR TAFT. Continued from page one. Reason for this vote, and it is apparent that the feeling is that the President has not shown sufficient backbone in resisting the standpoint policy of the Republican leaders.

REBUKE FOR BARCLAY. In the same manner the Success made a canvass of its life subscribers throughout the country. In this congressional district it sent 18 inquiries to whom three questions were put: First—Do you approve the position of your representative in Congress in the speakership contest last spring?

WEDDINGS. Blair—Bible. On Tuesday, Dec. 23th, Pussel Blair, the Bellefonte jeweler, will be married to Miss Helen Bible, daughter of Prof. and Mrs. George P. Bible.

COULDN'T BE MISTAKEN. The elderly matron with the bundles, who was journeying to a point in Wisconsin and occupied a seat near the middle of the car, had fallen asleep. On the seat in front of her sat a little boy.

A FAITHFUL PORTER.

He Tried to Follow Orders as He Understood Them. The major dropped into his club in London one night with three pieces of court-plaster on his nose and an eye in half-mourning and was vainly importuned to divulge the cause.

Next morning the major was awakened by a loud knock at his door. He shouted "Come in," for it was 6:30, and the porter entered. "You're to get out," he said briefly. "What do you mean?" asked the major testily.

FOR FRUIT GROWERS. Following the recent activities along the line of fruit growing in our County which indeed is a matter of importance to the interest involved, there are arrangements now being made to insure the greatest measure of success to the movement.
