Thursday, December 23, 1909.

BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

-A Merry Christmas and A Happy New Year to all.

-Most of the students of the Bellefonte academy left on Friday for their homes to enjoy the Christmas vaca-

-Harry Ruhl, the Bellefonte barhis shop, under the First National Bank

-Miss Helen Irvin left Bellefonte Mrs. Boone.

-William Stewart, of Seattle, is now a visitor in Bellefonte at the resiof Mrs. Patsy Stewart on good dence Linn street.

-Miss Mary Thomas, who had been for several months, has returned to a visit of several weeks at the home her home in Philadelphia.

-Robert C. Roberts, an employe of Wolf. Potter-Hoy Hardware Co., is the spending his Christmas vacation with cently returned from Philadelphia his parents in Wellsboro, Pa.

in Bellefonte and is assisting in the much improved. dental parlors of Dr. Kilpatrick, taking care of the laboratory work.

-Mrs. John Hinman and baby, of week and are now guests of her par- six months long. ents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Cook, on west Linn street.

McQuistion, of Bellefonte, gave a din-ner to their tenants which was ap-ing him busy getting around. preciated by those who partook of the choice viands.

-Mrs. William Kirby, of Trappe, Md., baby bouncing Hamond Sechler is now the happiest man in Bellefonte.

-Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Burlingame, Burnett, sailed recently for France. Mrs. Burlingame will be remembered as Miss Margaret Burnett.

-Walter Furst, who holds an excellent position at New Haven, Conn., is spending his Christmas vacation at the residence of his mother, Mrs. A. O. Furst, on west Linn street.

-Owing to the scarcity and high price of feed a number of the dairymen, who bring milk to Bellefonte, have advanced the price from 6 to 7 cents a quart. Let's hope the poor man can, at least, use milk in his cof- lal music will be sung from Dudley preparing Sabbath school exercises appropriate for Christmas observance. the programs.

-John Furst, son of the late A. O. Furst, of Bellefonte, with F. Hazard Lippincott and Harry McCaughley, recently made application for a chart-"Lippincott Pencil Co."

treatment for rheumatism, were going his way.

ed that it will be permanent.

-All business places in Bellefonte will be closed on Christmas.

--We have been requested to anhave agreed to close on Christmas, veying for Jack Nason. Saturday, 25th.

-On Saturday Samuel McClure ar-Theological Seminary to spend his days. Christmas vacation.

---Remember no paper will be is transaction of busines.

---Willis Grove, residing on Thomas street, Bellefonte, has secured a good position at Altoona and will move his family there by January 1st.

of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William

-James Rine, of Bellefonte, rewhere he underwent treatment for -Wilber Twitmeyer is now located his eyes, the sight of which is very

-We have reached the shortest days of the year. But then the north pole country beats us all hollow here-Philadelphia, arrived in Bellefonte this there the days and nights are each

-George Johnson, of Bellefonte. has secured the contract for the -On Thursday afternoon Miss Mary plumbing at both the Court House and the new school house. It is keep-

-Miss Carrie Weaver, one of the efficient teachers in the Bellefonte schools, who has been seriously ill is now the fond mother of a with pneumonia, is gradually recovboy. Grandfather ering, which is good news to her many friends.

-Two great bollers-each of seventy horse power-are being placed and the latter's mother, Mrs. Mose in the cellar of the new rear addition to the court house and jail. Col. Taylor has charge of the plumbing for the new plant.

-S. F. Dale, of DuBois, who is interested in selling the Bullock porch swings, spent Saturday and Sunday in Bellefonte. Sam is a hustler and is doing good work for himself and to his position as ticket agent at the the company.

-Christmas services will be held in St. John's Reformed church as follows: Christmas day at 7 P. M. Spec--All the Bellefonte churches, and those over the county generally, are preparing Sabbath school and school beck of the King," at Sunday, Dec. 26th.

the school teachers of the county was ocal and instrumental music, reci- compiled in the Centre Democrat oftations, dialogues, etc., will make up fice and published several months ago. print same again in connection with Mr. and Mrs. Swartz formerly resided Stover, is also deceased. The latter's

-Wilson Gephart, who had been er to manufacture lead pencils, etc. spending some time among the In-Bellefonte telling fairy tales of some -Hon. John G. Love and wife re- of his wonderful experiences in that turned on Thursday from Clifton section. He is looking as though the Springs where the Judge had been country agreed with him and things holidays in Bellefonte, are: Freder-was a pleasant visitor in Bellefonte on

THE CENTRE DEMOCRAT. BELLEFONTE, PA.

RECENT DEATHS.

HAZLETT:-David Hazlett,

LANNEN:---On Monday afternoon

short distance frim Bellefonte. His

RAYMOND:-Mrs. Harry Raymond,

who resides on north Allegheny street, teachings. Surviving her is a husband and three small children all un-and daughters. The funeral to that dread disease, diabetes.

Hoover was born on March 13th, 1858, and was the son of Joseph and Rebecca Hoover, of Centre county, both now o'clock.

12th.

of.

Her age was about

The

Mr.

about 4:30 o'clock, John M. Lannen, an employe of the American Lime and tarium on Sunday, December

-Miss Mary Owen is seriously ill at her home on Howard street. -Curt Wagner left on Wednesday afternoon for Orbisonia, Huntingdon schools of Philipsburg, who was quite county. well known in Centre county. -Miss Nannie Hoy, who had been cently at his home at Rock Hill, Hunvisiting friends at Winburne, has retingdon County. The deceased was turned home. -George Johnston, the plumber, has put on the street a neat and attrac- five years. tive delivery wagon.

---Henry Wetzel left on Wednesday nounce that all stores in Bellefonte afternoon for Julian to do some sur-

-Wilson Romic, who had been fit-Lydia Moore, who formerly resided in Bellefonte. Several years ago she and ting up a large mill at Niles, Ohio, is ber, has made some nice changes to rived in Bellefonte from Princeton now in Bellefonte spending the holi- her mother left here for the Quaker City where about two years ago she was married. He was about 27 years

-Mrs. H. S. Cooper, of Galveston, Texas, arrived in Bellefonte on Sat- of age. for Kentucky where she will spend sued from this office next week. The urday to spend several weeks with her holiday vacation with her sister, business office will be open for the friends.

> -George T. Bush and his sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Caloway, are about Stone Co., died very suddenly at his ready to leave on their trip around home at Morristown, on Buffalo Run, the world.

death was the result of gallstone, from -On Monday Mrs. William L. Steele -Miss Mary Thomas, who had been visiting among friends in Bellefonte for source work in Altoona after had been visiting her parents for four and 28 days. He left to mourn his or five weeks. loss a wife and five children. -Mrs. Edward Latham, of Harris-funeral takes place today. Interment took place in Meyer's cemetery. burg arrived in Bellefonte Tuesday to spend Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Newton Haupt.

-The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Belledied Monday morning at 12:40, after fonte Y. M. C. A. will hold an open house on New Year's to which the an illness of several months with tuberculosis. public will be cordially invited. years and was the daughter of Andy I. Kuhn, of Spring Creek. Being a

-Miss Eva Crissman will hold her regular dancing school and afterdance member of the Methodist church she on Christmas night in the Arcade hall, always lived a life consistent with its the afterdance to begin at 8:30 instead of 9 o'clock. -Earl N. Bathurst passed through Bellefonte on Tuesday on his way to took place on Wednesday afternoon. his home at Lemont, to spend his Christmas after being in the east and northwest for four years.

-On Wednesday Claud Smith moved his household goods from Bellefonte to State College where he will go to housekeeping. Mrs. Smith who had been seriously ill is gaining strength right along.

-C. E. Royer, one of Gregg township's teachers, of the "old guard," was in attendance upon Institute this of Abram and Anna Jackson, deceased, week, and informs us he had not Miss Anna Armor. He served faithmissed an institute in nineteen years. fully as a soldier in the Civil war. Be-Truly a good record.

-On Thursday H. T. Hutchinson, after a vacation of ten days, returned P. R. R. passenger station. He had a pleasant time and returned to his duties feeling somewhat refreshed. -On Tuesday Mrs. Harry Haag, of Bellefonte," received word from Johnstown that the baby of her daughter, Mrs. Gertrude McMullen, was serious-ly ill. Mabel Haag left on Wednesday to render such ald as is neces-Sary -Mr. and Mrs. Guy E. Swartz, of deceasel. One brother, Arnold Plum-Wilmington, Ohio, were recent guests mer Hoover, died several months ago, and Mrs. James D. Seibert, and a sister, Mrs. Colonel John H. Mr. of in Bellefonte and their friends were husband years ago was a member of a beneforte and their friends were musuand years ago was a member of glad to see them. They are now at the Belleforte bar and district attor-Mr. Swartz's home, near Hublersburg, ney, also dec'd, in Missouri. where they will spend Christmas.

-Calvin Huss has given up the moving picture business through the country to accept a position with with a stone while working at the Field's Minstrels, and left this week Josephine quarries near that town and to join them at Columbus, Ohio, as a injured so badly that he was laid up middle man. Cal has spent a number of years in that business and is thoroughly at home on the stage.

His friends will be glad to know that _____Among those who were away to thoroughly at home on the stage. -Mrs. Thomas Mallory, of Altoona, other illness from which he died.

MATCHES BY MILLIONS.

SHEEDER:-Prof. W. H. Sheeder, Three Million Matches Are Struck formerly superintendent of the public Each Minute.

By the end of the brief minute taken to read these paragraphs the na- President Judge. Harry Keller was died retions of the civilized world will have called to the chair. Col. J. L. Spang-struck three million matches. This is ler and Dr. J. L. Selbert appeared and struck three million matches. the average for every minute of the 24 hours day. Seven billion is the coormous number for the entire year. aged about 60 years and had been a school instructor for more than thirtyenormous number for the entire year, of and those living under the American flag are said to be responsible for the would be too noisy. He claimed that Philadelphia, died at Mt. Alto Saniconsumption of one half of this fare could not then be able to hear 12th. The deceased was the husband of Miss amount.

wood tipped with sulphur or some come nothing more than a race track other material ignited by friction is and a nuisance. In Clearfield the peoonly recognized when the average ple are fighting to keep paved streets smoker tries to contemplate his pre- out of the resident portion of the town. dicament if he had to go back to the Dr. Seibert endorsed the sentiments of time when he had to coax a spark from Col. Spangler and further put stress a tinder box. Of course, the answer that would be taken up by the wind that would be taken up by the wind is, he would smoke a great deal less and blown into the houses. As no because of the difficulty in getting a contract has yet been signed for the light, or else, on the other hand, smoke road, no action was taken in the matcontinuously in order to keep alive the ter by the council. This will adjust pipe or cigarette, as the case might be. Small and insignificant as it is, the of fireworks or any other explosives tention in the choice of the wood going into its manufacture as any other forest product. Only the choicest portions of the best trees are suitable Sapwood, knotty or cross-grained timber will not do. Instead of being a by-product of otherarticles of manufacture the little match is turned out at hundreds of mills over the country where the by-products are bulky objects like doors, sash, shingles, siding, der five years of age. The funeral posts and cord-wood. The pines, linden, aspen, white cedar, poplar, birch, and willow are the most suitable JACKSON:-Thomas Jackson died match timber.

on Friday morning at 7:45 o'clock, at the home of his mother-in-law, Mrs. The match makers-not only matrimonial kind-are already finding that Thomas James, at Black Bear, near the amount of choice timber available Philipsburg. Death was due to cancerous growth on the side of his face is dwindling. Forest conservation, if from which he had been a sufferer for applied to the holdings of the match several years. The deceased was born companies, like it is on Uncle Sam's in Bellefonte and was aged 68 years, 10 months and 29 days. He was a son National Forests in the west, will do much to make the supply sufficient for a longer number of years than would his mother's maiden name having been be the case if the old-time wasteful to farm on a much larger scale, and lumbering methods of a few years ago should continue. The rapid increase sides his wife he leaves several sons in stumpage prices is one of the chief took factors in encouraging the wise use place on Sunday afternoon at 2 of the forests where suitable match timber is available. HOOVER :--- On Sunday morning at

This item should be of interest to his residence in Altoona, there passed Bellefonte people as we have a large away from life's activities, one of the factory in this town where the procity's best known and most respected duct is thirty millions per day, and by citizens.Mr. J. W. Hoover, after four years of ill-health and suffering, due another year the capacity will be more than doubled.

CRUELTY TO ANIMALS

Will be Punished by an Officer in Bellefonte.

On a number of occasions Bellefonte has been in need of an officer who LOTS POR SALE. would give direct attention to persons violating the law with reference to cruelty to animals. To provide for this deficiency, at a recent meeting of FAHRINGER :--- About two months the board of directors of the Pennsylago Charles Fahringer, of Williamsvania Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, Chief-of-police, burg, Blair county, was hit on the head Harry Dukeman, was appointed the authorized agent at this place and throughout Centre county. Mr. Duketo hew close to the line regardless of where the chips fiy. The man who abuses any kind of a dumb animal should be severely purished meeting of the Bellefonte borough council was held. In the absence of that the main objection was that it themselves talking on their porches The importance of the industry while vehicles were pasing. Should which turns out the little splinters of the street be paved it would be-

The ordinance prohibiting the use match demands perhaps as much at- inside the borough limits was passed. The ordinance provides a heavy fine for those who violate its provision which will be strictly enforced. The ordinance is for the protection of property, life and limb of those residing in this community. It means that hereafter Bellefonte will observe the Fourth of July without the usual noise, followed by accidents.

Philip Beezer asked for the annual appropriation for the Logan and Undine Fire companies, which is $250 for each. It was granted Treasurer Ed. Gherret asked for the renewal of notes amounting to $2209 and $800. Orders were also drawn for the interest of these notes.

OVER THE COUNTY.

Everyone calling at Meese's store, Colyer, Pa., will be remembered with a Xmas gift.

George Beezer, the truck farmer, of near Roopsburg, has purchased the David Rothrock farm on Buffalo Run. engage in farming generally Alfred Rogers, a veteran of the civil war, and a member of the first Pennsylvania cavalry, died at his home in Mileshurg on Tuesday morning.

PUBLIC SALES.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 18, J. L. Hartsock, one and a half miles west of Waddle at 12 o'clock sharp will sell 3 horses, 4 cows, fresh by time of sale, 4 yearling culves, farm implements in horse spring wagoo. 1-horse surry, hotsied, 2 open buggles, horse gears, double and single harbess. Frank Mayes, Auct.

MONDAY, MARCH 2)-One-half mile east of Old Port, Harry E. Fys will sell farm stock and implements. L. Frank Mayes auct.

At bargain to quick perchaser, two At cargain to queue percess, corner of Bishep and Wilson streets, both facing on Bishep street Also lots on High and Wilson streets, near new building of Isaac Miller, carpetiter and builder Easy payments. Inquire of Wm. P. Humes, Bellefonte, Pa. FARMFOR SALE.

Farm of eighty acres, or the ly known as the old Wm. Bei ed in Burnside township Cen ie prop Inquire of Wm. P. Humes. Beilefonte. Pa.

COUNCIL MEETING.

Monday evening the semi-monthly

Page 5.

Bellefonte stores, or outside stores, as Dale, from the Staunton Military in the cities, and even for less money. Academy, of Virginia, and Miss Virgin-Our stores are stocked with all lines in Dale, of Sweet Brier, Virginia of articles suitable for Christmas gifts

-About a month ago A. Baum left place. On Saturday evening the Suntrip did him a heap of good.

partment of the Beliefonte Academy, present at all these services. in charge of Miss Helen Overton, been purchased which will be judiciously distributed among those who are deserving of a donation of this kind.

hardly know the place. The dining room has been papered and painted in a neat and artistic style. On the walls are new pictures, several large mirrors, together with other embelishments, which go to make the surplaced in the opening between the pool room and restaurant adding pri-vacy to the surroundings.

-William J. Dorworth, who is the electrical engineer at a couple cotton mills at Greensboro, North Carolina, ending his Christmas vacation in Bellefonte with his parents, Dr. and "Billy" as he Mrs. E. S. Dorworth. is known here, has been making good, and is putting to shame some of the young men in Bellefonte who had the opportunity to make good, but fell down. He is a welcome guest and it is to be hoped that he will thoroughly enjoy his visit here.

-George Grimm, who for several years had charge of the Nittany Furnace, as furnaceman, has resigned and the probabilities are he may go to Cleveland, Ohio. Mr. Grimm is a competent man, thoroughly conversant with everything connected with his position, and is perfectly sober which has much to do with the success of any enterprise. As a member of Bellefonte Council he has always proven himself a man of honest convic-tions and never afraid of his shad-When, such men think of leav-OW. ing our community it is to be greatly regretted, and every inducement should be made to have them remain.

-The other day Dr. Weston, secre-tary of the local Y. M. C. A., was called to the telephone and some kind-heartindividual whispered in his ear that if he would go to a certain cloth-ing store he would be fitted out with a new rainceat and it wouldn't cost him one red cent. Dr. Weston wasn't long in obeying instructions. In a short time he was back in his office when the telephone rang and he was told to. go to one of the shoe stores in Bellefonte and pick out a good pair of shoes and keep his money in his in-side pocket. It was just what he needed and he let no grass grow unneeded and he let no grass grow un-der his feet in getting to the shoe store. Dr. Weeton doesn't know who his benefactors are but it is enough to know that they ore his friends, and the gifts were the promptings of a kind and generous heart, and were bestowed without any ostentatious display.

-Bear in mind that Christmas gifts ick Reynolds, from St. George's School, n be purchased as cheap in the Newport; Randolph Daggett and Jack -On Saturday morning at six o'clock for all classes and ages. Then why send to city merchants?

to spend the winter at the home of his daughters in Indiana and Kentucky. He made the visit but it due to the second Christmas services will take place. Rev. J. S. Fulton, Confer-He made the visit but it did not take ence Supt. of Allegheny Conference, him long to discover that there is no place like home. And old Bellefonte ing and evening. On the following is good enough for him any time. The Monday evening Bible services will be gin. The pastor, Rev. Winey, extends -The scholars in the primary de- a hearty invitation to everyone to be fit of the poor. Christmas gifts have patrol wagon was responding to an casion of their fortieth wedding anbarrel in front of Dr. Seibert's residence on Allegheny street. It had but unfortunately no lantern was there merly of Bellefonte and their friends been placed over a hole on the street -Charles Moerschbacher, the Belle-fonter restaurateur, has fixed his wagon was full of firemen and the result might have been disastrous. Fortunately no injury was done, but this should be taken as a warning not to number of friends, was skating on R. let such death traps exist on the pub-lic thoroughfare without the proper when the ice broke and she went caution. Such neglect might be very through into eight feet of cold wacostly longer with tonsilitis and when he recovered and was able to get around his pyhsician advised him to be careful or he would contract rheumatism getting things in readiness to occupy as a result of the disease. Whether their new quarters in the Governor he caught cold or not is not known, Curtin Mansion, on High street. Some but now he is confined to bed with a little repairing and changing is now very bad attack of inflammatory rheu- being made to the interior and in a matism. Therefore for awhile his legs short time they will be installed in one had to be kept wrapped up in cotton. of the most comfortable homes in Cen-The pain finally left his legs and went tral Pennsylvania. Every to his arms. He is now somewhat night new members are being "initiabetter but is still a great sufferer. The ted" which means that "Elkdom" in only thing to be done it to let the dis- Bellefonte is growing. ease take it's course.

-John M. Ward, better known in tried before Judge Orvis in the office Bellefonte as "Montie" Ward, was in of J. A. B. Miller. It was Pruger vs a tie vote of 4 to 4 with John A. Heyd-ler for presidency of the National Base Ball League. Finding it impossible to elect either the name of Tom Lynch, the old-time umpire, was brought out of retirement on Saturday and unanimously elected to the position. Ward being a Belefonte boy, much interest was taken here as to the outcome of the contest, and there is a feeling of regret that he failed to win out. However, Tom Lynch is a good man and is known as the king of umpires who of Bellefonte, received an announce-started his career in the Eastern man of Charles Heebner who, about League and came to the National 1880, was an instructor at the Aca-League in 1886.

-On Tuesday morning Garman's opera house became so cold that it was found necessary to adjourn the Teachers' Institute to Petrikin Hall. The opera house is one of the hardest buildings in the town to heat because it hasn't enough of radiation. In an interview with manager, H. S. Taylor, of the steam heat works, he stated that the lical plant was in the best Wednesday. She is a daughter of W. H. Fry, of Pine Grove Mills, but for and Mrs. John Fahringer and was born guilty person escape. years made her home with Mr. and in Centre county in 1863. He went to Following is an exyears made her home with Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Speer, since leaving here and going to the railroad town she and fler husband have been getting along very nicely.

-We venture that one half of the type at work puting up the reading matter for the paper. Owing to it being a very busy week, in all the departments of the office, we are sorry that we could not give all our guests. more attention while at the office.

-Rev. G. D. Pennypacker, D. D. and wife, of Huntingdon, on the ocant surprise by a large number their friends last Thursday evening. Both Dr. and Mrs. Pennypacker for here will foin in wishing Mr. and Mrs. cccasions.

-Miss Clara Undercoffer, with port: ter. She grappled the ice as soon as the worse from the trying ordeal. -The local lodge of Elks is now meeting

-This week a bill in equity was county. Markowitz, both parties being from Pittsburg. The Prugers own land in township and the case was Taylor brought to strike off a judgment. John Blanchard, Esq. of Bellefonte, and Paul Smith, Esq., of Pittsburg, re-presented the defendants and W. Harrison Walker, Esq., of Bellefonte, and John G. Silvius, of Pittsburg, represented the plaintiffs.

-Recently Prof. James R. Hughes, He had been assistant solicidemy. tor for the Reading Railroad Co. and upon the retirement of Mr. Campbell islature, from Blair county. he was advanced to general solicitor. Mr. Heebner is an exceptionally bright and energetic gentleman, possessing excellent qualifications for the responsible position to which he has been called. He is a graduate of Lay-feyett and was the 1st honor man in atin, Greek and mathematics. While in Bellefonte he was popular and his many friends will be glad to hear of Friday morning, Dec. 8th, being found dead in bed. He was a son of Mr. newly appointed officer will let no sister. Interment was made in Wil- cruelly ill-treat, over-load, beat or liamsburg cemetery .

died on Saturday morning at the local meanor, and on being convicted there hospital. The deceased became ill with pneumonia on Sunday, December and although everything was done to restore him to health the mes-senger of death claimed him. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Tressler, and was born at State College, July 19, 1887, making his age 22 years, 4 months and 29 days. He had been a resident of Bellefonte for the past three years, being employed as a butcher by Wm. Lyons. Mr. Tressler was a member of Co. B, 5th regiment. Re sides his wife and two children he is the Court.' Pennypacker many more such happy flowing brothers and sisters: Aaron, occasions. of Warriorsmark; Mrs. Daniel Breen, of State College; Belle, of Williams-Moses, John, Curtis, Harvey, Theodore, Cora, Hannah and Phoebe, of Bellefonte. The funeral took place Monday morning, interment being made in the Pine Hall cemetery.

A Good Record.

W. H. Markle, of Hublersburg, who favored the Democrat sanctum with a call whilst attending Institute, informed us that this was the thirtleth Unstitute he had attended-being a teacher he did not miss an Institute in thirty years. This is a record to proud of and which, perhaps, no other Centre county teacher can boast He may deservedly be regarded nestor of the Teachers' Institute of Centre county. Mighty progress has been made in thirty years in the Mighty progress common school cause, and high standards have been attained, all of which have come unto the observance of so old and faithful a soldier on the roll ing. of the public school teachers of our Making Saloon Issue Heard. Great Temperance rallies were held at Altoona on Sunday morning and evening in thirty-eight churches. The principal addresses were made by Dr. G. W. Young, of Louisville, assistant national superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League; all the district superintendents of the State and many other eloquent temperance orators from all parts of the State. The sub-ject of the meeting was to effect a powerful organization of temperance workers, with a view of electing anti-saloon members to the next State Leg-should be severely punished, and the er. 454.1 Following is an extract from an Act otherwise abuse any animal, whether TRESSLER:-Harry Tressler, who belonging to himself or otherwise, resided on Logan street, Bellefonte, shall be deemed guilty of a misdeof before any Magistrate shall be fined by said Magistrate for the first offense in a sum not less than $10, nor Ohio. more than $20; and for the second and every subsequent offense in a sum not less than $20, nor more than $50,-or upon such binding over or commit ment to appear before a said Court, and be there convicted of such misdemeanor, he shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding two hundred dollars, payable as aforesaid, or undergo an imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both, at the discretion of

BENNER TWP.-Rock View. A birthday surprise party:-A surprise party was given on Friday evening in honor of Miss M. Pearl Hoy, at her home in Rock View. Her father took her to Bellefonte the early part of the evening, and returning about 8:45, found her home filled with her many friends. Those present were: Dunk and John Herman, Leslie Miller, Effie and Roy Keller, Walter Rishel, of Pleasant Gap; Anna Dawson, Ro land and John Shuey, Helen and Edgar Breon, Mark Williams, David Keller, Helen and Frank Stover, of Axeman; Ruth Keller, Helen Lutz, Nellie and Madeline Gehret, Lea Struble, Paul Fishburn, Linn Graham, of Bellefonte: Ruth Fleck, of Rock View. At eleven o'clock they were called to the dining room where refreshments were served: after all reporting a good time, and wishing her many more happy birthdays, they returned to their homes in the wee hours of the morn-

King Leopold's Millions. Leopold, king of the Belgians, having died last week worth 50 million dollars, leaving three daughters and a son by his first wife, and a second wife and several children, there will not be a very merry Christmas for the royal family, over the succession to the throne and the distribution of this vast wealth. The daughters have started legal proceedings to obtain the mil-lions of the king. Thus it will be seen the high have their troubles as well as the low, who have nothing. The three daughters are not on speaking terms with the second wife and do. not wish to see her get the larger part of the pile, and since the second marriage had been at outs with their king-father. The Pope performed the second marriage about two years wo. King Leopold's life was not at all a one-gross immoralities are charged up against him.

Marriage Licenses.

John T. Horton - - - Philipsburg Lillian M. Willoughby - Philipsburg Wm. F. Harding - - - Bellefort Marjorie E. Jackson - -Bellefonte Wilbur J. Woodring - Port Matild Minnie May Crain - Port Matild Darius W. Cole - - - - Colevil Agnes Miller - - - - - Colevil

See us for Sale Bills.

Penny a Word Adv.

Any subscriber can intert a want advert ment in this column one issue free. if it d not exceed 25 words; Charges to others, ent a word. Erst issue, no advertisement than 25 cents : two issues 40 cents : 3 issues 50

No advertisements will be answered from this office.

WANTED-Lady distributor and collector in Bellefonte. Dr. W. S. Burkhart, Cincinnati,

FOR SALE-House and lot on Bishop street, Bellefonte Pa. Inquire of B. E. Monigomery, Bellefonte Pa. 45tf

FOR SALE-Building lots in South Howard borough, very cheap Call or write Z.S. or D. L. Welch, Howard, Pa. 2544

FOR SALE-Two car loads of superb perfec-tion Red ceader 18-inch shingles. Apply to Amos Kauffman, Zion. Pa. 25

FOR SALE-A good top buggy and a No. 9 Dockash range, nickle top, in first class condi-tion. Inquire of W. G. Runkle, Bellefonte. x1

ESTRAV--Came to my premises, a large ram-no marks. Owner will please call, pay charges and remove same, W. K. Corl. State College, R 2, Pa.

FOR SALE-Bottling machinery, bottles, box-es and everything complete, belonging to bottling works, good as new. Inquire of L. Hr Stover, Coburn, Pa. 250

BUILDING LOTS-6 choice building lots. In Howard boro, will be sold between this and February 1, 1910, at a special price. Call on or address, Z. S. Welsh, Howard. x3.

FOR SALE-I have two homes in Milesburg borough for sale on easy terms, one for $700 and one for $30; much better inducements for cash. L. C. Bullock, Jr., Overseer of Poor, 324

FOR SALE-40 h. p. Rambler touring car. top and windshield, full equipment: 2 32 h. p. Ramblers complete with top: 120 h p Reo. Will be sold at a sacrifice. Address C. M. Gramley. Rebersburg, Agt for Harrisburg Automobile Co. x35

FOR SALE-Two farms one of 29 acres, with good buildings and water: another of 100 acres, buildings in good repair, never failing water piped to house and barn. Located in Huston township, Apply or address, David Henderson, Julian, Pa. 2!

WANTED-A good energetic man to sell teas, coffes, spices, extracts etc. Liberal commiss-ion and steady employment. Small estab-lished route to start with. Man with horse preferred. For particulars apply to Great At-lantic and Pacific Tea Co., 356 Market St., Will-iamsport, Pa

FOR SALE-A fine farm 34 of a mile north of Linder Hall, in Harris twp., considing 80 acres: fine brick house of ten rooms. bank harn 62x70, abundance of spring water, excel-lent fruit of all kinds; 15 acres above is timber and pasture land. Will be sold at public sale on Thursday. Dec. 23, at 2 p. m. J. M. ROSS, x 50.

FOR SALE-Engine and boller, located in the Bouring mill at Plensant Gap. Engine is 20-horse power; boller is 25 horse-power. Also the following milling machinery: I French burr; I mountain store turr, I centrifugal red. I smut machine with cleaner, a four bolting machines, corn cob breaker, belting, abafting, pulleys, e.e., For information apply to John Mulfinger, Pleasant Gap. Pa. 251

MARKET OFOT TIONS.

BELLEFONTE-PRODUCE.

*** **** *****
IN.
TC. Y. WI

Schoolboard Liable Judge Alder in the Cumberland county court has decided that rural school boards and not pupils are liable for tuition charges under the township High school law. Some pupils from North Middleton township were sent to the Carlisle High school,