CLUBBING RATES.

There is a limited amount of space in this paper, and after we receive the local happenings in the various sections of the county there is not sufficient space left to give a complete summary of the general news and especially of all the leading events in the State and Nation.

"3 Times-Week World."

Comes three times a week, better to the average reader than the shabby daily. Contains only the latest, the most important—in terse, condensed form.

Sample copies—We have arranged with the World to send each of our readers a few sample copies—Free.

3-t-Week World 1 yr. costs, $1.00

The Centre Democrat 1 yr. costs, $1.00

Both above papers 1 yr. for, $1.65

Parties who have paid subscriptions already in advance can secure the World for 65 cents. These terms are cash.

"The National Monthly."

This is a Democratic Magazine issued by Norman E. Mack, of Buffalo, N. Y., chairman of the Democratic National Committee.

The National Monthly is endorsed by all the leading Democrats in the country. If you see it you will want it.

The Centre Democrat costs $1.00

Both the above will be sent 1 yr. $1.50

"Farmer and Stockman."

This is exclusively a farmer's paper and is published at Pittsburg. Many Centre county farmers now get it.

GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

was cast they always made friends. As stated, Mr. Rumberger is by trade a carpenter, but besides this he is an excellent accountant which has made him a very useful man besides running the plane and building houses.

When in need of a good man in the court house they often looked to Mr. Rumberger, and thus in the temple of justice he has competently filled the following positions: Clerk to the county commissioners from 1845 to 1848; register six years, from 1849 to 1890; Deputy treasurer from 1896 to 1899.

Mr. and Mrs. Rumberger were surrounded by a large family of sterling sons and attractive daughters, all of whom have been an honor to their parents.

The sons all occupy positions of trust and are getting along nicely. The married daughters have fared sumptuously in procuring model husbands and are dining on the fat of the land, thus the bride and groom of fifty years ago can congratulate themselves that they have not lived the half a century in vain.

The children and grandchildren present are as follows: Sarah J., married to Joseph E. Brugger, who have four children—Flora, George W., Cornelius and Margaret, of near Unionville. Nella, married to Ed. M. Greist, three boys: Andrew J., George W. and Harold of Phillipsburg. John C., married to Carrie A. Brugger—three boys: Samuel B., Paul and John, Bellefonte. George F., married to Enfrasia Means—2 children: Margaret and George W., DuBois. William H., married to Susan Martha, of Bellefonte. Albert E., married to Minnie Holter—one child: Harry D., of Patton. Harry D., of Patton. Allen G., of Trenton, N. J.; and Marlan—all were present.

Guests, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Mrs. Julia L. Bell, William Re- John Armstrong, Mrs. Margaret or, Miss Elizabeth Brugger, Mrs. Bing, Ralph Mallory and

Wilmington va. Jack Nelson at night.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Rumberger and children—taken at their recent Golden Wedding Anniversary.

WEDDING BELLS RING MERRILY

English Lutheran parsonage at Lock Haven by Rev. Amos A. Parr, on Monday afternoon, Dec. 27th, at 3 o'clock.

Markle-Shope. Miss Ada V. Shope, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Shope, of Howard, and Mr. W. F. Markle, youngest son of Mr. Abram Markle, of State College, gave their many friends a genuine surprise by announcing their marriage two weeks later.

Miss Shope and sister, Miss Lou, accompanied by the groom, took the evening train at Howard on Christmas night for Bellefonte, where they wended their way to the Lutheran parsonage and just as the clock struck the hour of six, Rev. Fred Barry, by the beautiful and impressive service of the Lutheran church, pronounced Miss Shope and Mr. Markle husband and wife.

They were attended by Miss Lou Shope, a sister of the bride, and Mr. Clarence L. Rine, of Bellefonte. Mrs. Markle will stay with her parents at Howard a short time after which she will reside at State College, where the groom, who is a popular and industrious young man, holds a good position with the B. C. R. R.

Sholl-Armstrong. On Monday evening, about 6:30 o'clock William Sholl, Jr., of Jersey City, N. J., and Mrs. John Armstrong, of Bellefonte, went to the rectory and were married by Rev. John Hewitt. Those who stood with them were Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Smith, with whom the bride had been making her home. It was so quietly done that not even the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Sholl, of Bellefonte, knew that the nuptial event had taken place.

In the evening at 8:15 the father, brother and sister were at the train to bid the groom goodbye and you can imagine their surprise when the bride stepped on the car for the purpose of taking her departure with the young man who claimed her as a bride. However, everybody was satisfied because the bride is a most esteemed young lady. The groom holds an excellent position as a foreman in one of the departments in the Erie railroad shops at Jersey City, N. J.

Blair-Bible. A very pretty home wedding took place at the residence of Prof. and Mrs. George P. Bible, in Philadelphia, on Tuesday, December 28th. The contracting parties were their daughter, Miss Helen Bible and Russell Blair, of Bellefonte. The bride was given away by her father. The maid of honor was Miss Isabel Snowden, of Philadelphia, and the groom's best man was Dr. H. A. Blair, of Curwensville. The ceremony took place at 6 o'clock and was witnessed by a number of friends. After a wedding feast they left on a trip, after which they will make their home in Bellefonte where the groom is a partner of his father in the jewelry business. They will go to house-keeping in Dr. R. G. H. Hayes' house on Curtin street, recently vacated by Oscar Gray. The happy couple have the best wishes of their many friends.

Democratic Caucus. The Democrats in every election district in Centre county are requested to meet at the usual places for holding caucuses on Saturday, January 22, 1910, for the purpose of nominating candidates for township, ward, borough and precinct offices, to be voted for at the February election. The result of the caucuses must be returned to the County Chairman so that the same may be filed with the County Commissioners not later than January 26, 1910.

W. D. ZERBY, Co. Chr.

Installed Pastor. Rev. Harry I. Crow was Thursday night of last week, installed as pastor of the Hublersburg charge of the Reformed church, with headquarters at Hublersburg. The change is composed of the Reformed churches at Hublersburg and Zion, and the exercises were held in the church at the latter place. The sermon was preached by Rev. Ambrose M. Schmidt, D. D., and the installation was conducted by Rev. Samuel H. Stine, of Lock Haven.

Rev. Crow was pastor of the Nittany valley charge for eight and a half years and when the Hublersburg charge was formed he was called as pastor to take charge of the work. His successor to the Nittany valley charge has been selected in the person of Rev. E. F. Faust, of St. Thomas, Pa., and he will accept the offer to become the pastor of this well known charge.

Liability to a Fine. Fishermen who own fish baskets in the streams may not be aware of it, but all are liable to a fine of $25, which the Fish department will enforce if necessary. The law provides that owners of fish baskets must report to department their catch of the year in each basket, and if they do not do so by December 31, the last day, they are liable to a fine of $25.

Mr. John Stewart, of State College, is quite ill with pneumonia.

Won't Eat Trust Meat.

Sellinggrove has organized an anti-trust organization, the members of which pledge themselves not to use meat under the present prices of the meat trust. This is the only way to combat the combination's unreasonable demands.
