THE NEWS IN CONDENSED FORM FROM ALL PARTS OF THE COUNTY

NITTANY.

Phillip Wasson, who is employed at Ralston, visited his parents and many friends here over Sunday.

The democrats and republicans held their caucus meeting on last Saturday night; there was a fair turnout and some good men were chosen.

We noticed quite a number of the Hubbersburg, Clintondale and Lamar people in our town on Sunday.

Charles Gonsaulous and William Gates attended lodge on Saturday night.

There is quite a lot of sickness through here.

William Knecht, of Parvin, visited ex-Sheriff Shaffer and family on Sunday.

Bob Allison and Ralph Swartz hold court nearly every week, and its to be continued for sometime.

The rain which fell one day last week caused quite a flood; the creek was very high.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Fratt, of Walker, attended church here one night last week.

A sled load of Milesburg people drove to this place one day last week and were guests at the hospitable home of H. P. Zerby. They spent the day very pleasantly.

Tillie Peck and son Ralph visited friends at Jacksonville on Sunday.

Guy Nolan, who is attending school at Williamsport, spent over Sunday with his parents and many friends here.

Ferry Webster, who is employed at Waddle, spent several days with his sick wife and his family here.

George Kilmefelter and Daniel Showers, who are employed at Waddle, are home for a brief time on account of the ground being frozen too hard for their line of work.

Corman Yearick, who is employed at Pleasant Gap, spent over Sunday with his family here.

The Town of Nittany.

We have three stores here, namely, J. H. Beck & Son, E. M. Emerson and S. Peck & Son. S. Peck and Charles Lee are our coal dealers; W. E. Kessinger is our barber; Charles Gonsaulous is our blacksmith; Horace Winkelman has the elder press and repairs wagons and buggies; G. N. Yarnell is our section foreman; Harry Yarnell is our R. F. D. mail carrier; William Showers has the saw mill and saws all kinds of lumber and shingles; Lees Swartz has a gasoline engine, he saws wood and makes chop for our people; J. B. Crawford has a chop mill; C. P. McCaleb is our W. P. T. Co. agent; Mrs. H. K. Allison is our postmistress; Mr. S. R. McCaleb is our mail carrier from trains to postoffice; W. J. Mauck & Sons are our bustling butchers and shippers; John Dorman and T. A. Williams are our photographers; John Williams and H. O. Roddy are our blacksmiths for large firms; John Williams, Jr. is our newbaby; we have three churches, not far apart, namely, St. Mark's Lutheran, Rev. Fleck, pastor; U. E. church, Rev. Bingman, pastor; and Church of Christ, Rev. Thompson, pastor. We have a first class cornet band which renders some choice music; Daniel Diehl has a steam hay baler, threshing machine, corn husker and shredder, and has all the work he can do; A. C. McCintick is our jolly auctioneer, and he gets his share of sales.

The Snively brothers are busy hunters and trappers. Nittany is a lively little town, but not much work for a laborer outside of farming. Everybody here reads the Centre Democrat—the best paper in Centre county.

While Glenn Nolan was hauling straw to town one day last week one of his large gray horses took sick along the road and they were unable to bring the horse home for several days; but we are glad to say they got it home feeling much better.

MADISONBURG.

Alice Nestlerode and friends, Mrs. Everett and Mrs. Rose Wolfe, made use of the snow last week.

Allen Royer was driving team for Mr. Creba a few days last week.

The singing which is conducted by George Wise has a good attendance, and the scholars report getting along nicely.

Boyd Hazel, who drives to and from Waryon spent Friday evening with their friend Allen Royer, where they had one of preacher Miller's times, playing chess and carom.

Boyd Hazel, who drives to and from his school, reports sleighing fine and wishes it would stay till after hay making.

We had a little rain last week and the brooks and creeks show the effects of it.

As the week of prayer is now past, we hope that at least some one has been benefited by it.

The trapping of small fur-bearing animals is not brisk at present, but would be better if the people would keep their tom cats at home.

The town is lively when Mr. Barza comes around, but we think he ought to bring a girl or two from Sugar Valley for our young bachelors over here.

When I take my girl out I take her out; but its dern mean for a young man to go half way and then let her go the other half by herself; young man, nerve is wanted.

Announcements:—The 4th quarterly meeting of the Pennsylvania charge, Evangelical Association, will be held on Saturday, 29th, and Sunday, 30th, as follows: Quarterly business meeting at 2:00 P. We are glad to see Mrs. J. E. Confer is able to be around.

Just ask Lulu if she would like to take another sleigh ride.

MADISONBURG.

Dr. A. C. Musser, of Aaronsburg, and Dr. D. K. Musser, of Bellefonte, were visiting in our midst on Sunday.

Frank Yearick is still suffering from frog sick. He will improve slowly. It proves very loathsome to Mr. Yearick, his life heretofore was cut doors.

We are sorry to learn that the Lutherans are not getting their minister as formerly stated. He deems the salary tendered him insufficient to meet his wants and asks for his house and horse feed in addition. These people are well to do and could pay equal with the other denominations. What other reasons might cause trouble, we have not heard. From present observations we would surely praise them.

Quit your talk about your store bills. You were compelled to pay by law. We have no reason to believe that any of our merchants are dishonest, nor that they would knowingly charge anyone with what they did not buy.

John Miller, of near Pittsburgh, is here visiting his parents. He is employed by the B. B. firm of Pittsburgh.

Benjamin Yearick, of South Dakota, is spending a few days at S. D. Gettig's.

This Mark Insures Your Health

Look at the bottom of every utensil you buy and if it bears the above trade mark and words "The Original Pure Illinois 1892 Aluminum" you are certain of 15 years steady service. The makers guarantee every piece to wear that length of time. More important still you will safeguard the family health by using "1892" Pure Spun Aluminum Cooking Utensils because they can't crack, scale, peel, rust nor tarnish. No particles will chip off into the food and cause serious stomach troubles as physicians say the old enamel ware will do.

"1892" Pure Spun Aluminum is beautiful as silver, easier to keep clean and lighter to handle. It cooks quicker, reduces chance of burning food and saves its cost in many ways. Money refunded if this ware does not make good every claim made for it.

We have a full and attractive line. Drop in and see it and get it. The makers guarantee every piece to wear that length of time.

When the Hair Falls

Stop it! And why not? Falling hair is a disease, a regular disease; and Ayer's Hair Vigor, as made from our new improved formula, quickly and completely destroys that disease. The hair stops falling out, grows more rapidly, and all dandruff disappears.

Does not change the color of the hair.

The little book in each package gives the formula of our new Hair Vigor, tells why each ingredient is used, and explains many other interesting things. After reading you will know why this new hair preparation does its work so well.
