

Correspondents' Department

Continued

GREGG TWP.

Our trappers have been successful in capturing a few foxes this far this winter.

Anyone wishing to purchase bean poles, call on A. Ocker, of Madisonburg.

Edwin Ertle was a caller at Wm. Lambert's on Saturday.

We noticed Mr. D. C. Duck and family passing this way on Sunday.

Mr. Duck was formerly of Madisonburg but is at present engaged at farming in Nitany valley.

L. E. Rachau was a caller at Dr. Smith's one evening last week.

We would like to know what the Madisonburg scribe has reference to in his article.

N. H. Shaffer, of Tylersville, was a business visitor in our section last week.

The rains played havoc with our snow last week.

18 number of our farmers attended the cattle sale at Millheim on Saturday, also the horse sale on Monday.

Harvey Mowery, who is employed in the boring mills at Burnham, spent a few days here with his father.

J. C. Taylor spent Sunday at Aaronsburg.

Anna L. Taylor, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor, died on Tuesday forenoon, Jan. 18th, after becoming confined to her bed for one week.

She was a victim of tuberculosis. She was aged 11 years, 10 months and 18 days.

Interment was made in the Union cemetery at Farmers Mills on Friday.

Rev. B. F. Bieber and E. E. Haney officiating.

Rev. E. E. Haney preached an able sermon in Bathesda church on Sunday.

FILLMORE.

Those who were afraid of it wintering up without giving any promise of a water supply can relieve themselves of a heavy burden—for the last few days every stream, pond, and channel has been filled to its utmost capacity.

The old saying is, "America for invention." Well, a couple of our young ladies invented a new style coasting sled; they were using a dishpan, of course it was a long time before they got it under perfect control, being up and over once or twice, and receiving several nasty bruises.

Davis Gumbo expects to move in the tenement house on the Hunter farm, near Hunter's park.

Mrs. Kephart isn't any better yet. She still continues to grow weaker. On Friday evening she was taken to the Bellefonte hospital and was operated on that same evening.

She came out from under the influence of ether all right and was conscious at the time of her death. The operation would no doubt have been successful but the abscess had broken before anything could be done to save her life.

Saturday morning the community was startled to hear of the death of Mrs. Thomas Glenn, a well known and highly respected young woman. (See notice elsewhere.)

John Zeek, of Buffalo Run is visiting at the home of F. D. Young.

PROBERTOWN.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Muekey, who have been living at Buffalo, N. Y., last summer, are now residents of our town.

They moved into the house vacated by Harvey Bradley, who moved one mile west of Valley View in the Knox house.

M. M. Summers and family, and James Summers and family, drove over to Potters Mills to their father's in a double sleigh and took dinner with a few friends, on last Wednesday.

The party consisted of: "Chick" Thomas and wife, Emanuel Smith and wife, Michael Smith and wife and Mrs. Dr. Alexander, all of Potters Mills; James Summers, wife and son and Mr. Hunter, of Axeman; M. M. Summers, wife and daughter and Miss Clara Plack, of Probertown. All report having a splendid time. The event of the day was a very beautiful song sung by Mr. Thomas and Mrs. Alexander.

Newton Treaster, of Altoona, was a visitor in town over Sunday.

COLYER.

On Tuesday evening quite a number of young folks gathered at the home of Henry Gettling in honor of Miss Helen Boddor's sixteenth anniversary. After refreshments were served, consisting of ice cream, cake, etc., all returned home at the wee small hours of the morning, expressing themselves as having had a fine time.

The sick are Mrs. Susan Long, Emory Zerby and Charles Shutterbeck; all are under the doctor's care.

Miss Mae Cooney spent Saturday afternoon with her friend, Miss Elzabe Moyer.

Miss Annie Fortney is spending several weeks visiting her sister, Mrs. Dunkle, at Punxsutawney.

Mrs. Ralph Blacker and children spent a week with her sister, Mrs. Charles Neff, at Earleystown.

Mr. and Mrs. Bradley and son Walter spent over Sunday at Mr. Wm. Reiber's.

CENTRE MILLS.

Bruce Moyer expects to quit farming next spring.

Mrs. Flora Lambert visited in Williamsport a few days last week.

The heavy rain last week swelled Elk creek until it looked like a river. No serious damage was done by the high water.

Mrs. Margaret Bailey and little daughter, of State College, and Arthur Kline, of Altoona, visited their parents here recently.

Miss Helen Weaver is staying with Newton Brungard's family, at present.

Pov Grimes has recovered from the slight injury he received some time ago while coasting and Paul Lambert, who received a wound in his forehead, is able to attend school again.

LIVONIA.

The fiercest windstorms ever known in this section, took place on Friday and Saturday nights last.

STATE COLLEGE. On Tuesday the fast junior team defeated the Sophomores 22-14. It was by far the most exciting game played in the inter-class league. The Sophomores set a hot pace in the first half, the score being 9-3 at the close of this period. Towards the close of the second half the Juniors put in fresh men and managed to annex a few more goals than their opponents.

On Thursday the Varsity basketball team of Pittsburg College, played here. The first half the score was 25-20 in favor of State. The second half changed and the final score was 45-40 in favor of the Pittsburg Collegians.

On Saturday night the republicans held their primaries. The democrats held theirs on Monday night.

On Saturday the University of Penn met State's Varsity team on the mat in the armory, for a wrestling contest. State's men were as follows: Oberly, 115 lbs weight; Diehl, 125 lbs; Brown, 135 lbs; Morrison, 145 lbs; Very, 158 lbs; Leah, 175 lbs; Talbot, heavyweight.

There is fine skating in the upper part of town, by the Brooklyn Bridge. What did you think of the blizzard on Saturday night? The coal man is reaping his harvest this winter. The cold weather has hung on pretty steadily.

HECLA PARK. L. H. McMullen has his saw mill erected on the Irwin tract and is now ready for operation.

MOUNTAIN—Gregg Twp. Tuesday will be February first, which is only a short month, in fact spring will soon be here.

Quite a large congregation had gathered in the Evangelical church last Thursday evening for communion service and waited until a late hour for the minister. As he did not come, prayer meeting was held instead.

Henry Zerby is filling a contract with Hon. Wm. Allison at Spring Mills, to supply him with several hundred fowls.

When people get to speaking ever the little poem, "There is so much good in the worst of us, and so much bad in the best of us, that it scarcely behoves any of us to talk about the best of us."

CHARLESTOWN. Mrs. Mary Dell, of Altoona, was a recent visitor at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Peters.

UNIONVILLE. After the election it will be either Squire Stere or Squire Spotts. Pay your taxes before February 1st; don't allow 5 per cent. to be added.

EARLEYSTOWN. Mrs. Birchfield was visiting her sister, Mrs. Prantz, last week.

THE BAZAAR. We will offer this week a full line of new Gingham, Prints, Bleached and Brown Cottons, Outings, Bed Ticks—all bought before the advance.

FLORIDA WINTER TOURS VIA PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD February 8 and 22, and March 8, 1910 ROUND $49.60 TRIP FROM BELLEFONTE

The Bank Account Is the first step toward success. Protects your families in emergencies. Educates your children. Makes you independent.

The First National Bank, BELLEFONTE, PA. A Big Reduction in LADIES' SHOES John Cross Dorothy Dodd Clements & Ball $3.50 and $4.00 high grade lace shoes. Reduced to $2.48 A Pair

YEAGER'S SHOE STORE, BELLEFONTE, PA. A child quickly grasps the meaning of above characters. But it takes a lifetime to appreciate their value.

EYES EXAMINED FREE! All Work Guaranteed. PROF. ANGEL, EYESIGHT SPECIALIST Wednesday and Thursday, Feb. 9 and 10. AT BROCKERHOFF HOUSE.

THE BAZAAR. We will offer this week a full line of new Gingham, Prints, Bleached and Brown Cottons, Outings, Bed Ticks—all bought before the advance.

NURSING MOTHERS show the beneficial effects of Scott's Emulsion in a very short time. It not only builds her up, but enriches the mother's milk and properly nourishes the child.

If your subscription is over a year due you are able to have the paper discontinued. Uncle Sam won't hand-lem them at the 2nd class rate.