THE NEWS IN CONDENSED FORM FROM ALL PARTS OF THE COUNTY

HECLA PARK.

Mrs. C. C. Workman favored her mother, at State College, with a visit last week.

Mrs. Peter Hockman and Mrs. F. W. Dunkle spent a short time with Mrs. Dunkle's son Willbur at the Lock Haven Normal last Friday.

Hockle says that cold or stormy weather cuts no ice with his weekly or semi-weekly visits to Zion. On ground hog day a son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Armstrong at this place. This makes the second birth on this noted day in that family. Charles says he don't care if it continues cold for several months yet if this kind of prosperity dominates.

A few weeks ago we noticed an account of the different departments of business in the vicinity of Nittany. All odd or foolish things seem to become fashionable, so here is where we shine. The following are our principal persons and departments of business at this place: C. C. Workman is our postmaster, merchant and coal dealer; he has done since this place became prominent in history; he carries the U. S. mail, does his own draying and is looking forward when his store may excel Wanamaker's. D. Peters is our section foreman; he and his section hands, Calvin Guiser, E. G. DeArmitt, Robert Harnish and Lloyd Peters, alternately keep section No. 2 of the C. R. R. in first class condition; they are personally responsible for the keeping of the elegant ice water on the passenger coaches as they furnish them with ice every morning; they also keep the park in apple pie order; here is erected a fine tool house and have everything in fine order. L. H. McMullen is our 'squirelet, but on account of too much other business refused to accept this most important office; he is a lumberman—has his mill in full blast on the Irwin tract where he employs less than five hundred men; he also manages his farm. John DeVinney is our blacksmith; he is a very hard working man as his occupation indicates. John Nevel is our champion saw filer and wood chopper. Elroy Neff is our general agent for the sale of mops. Joel Stover is our educator as he has charge of our village school. Rev. Bingman, Rev. Crow and Rev. Fleck officiate as pastors. J. B. Rossman is our station agent. Cline Zimmerman is our fruit tree grafter. William Zimmerman is our painter, wall paper agent and paper hanger, and by so doing he makes the environments for the ladies beautiful. Chas. McClain is our daily loafer. Hooligan is our 'Tom Boy.' Calvin Guiser is our 'squeezer' as he is in the cider business. Wm. VanGorder is the latest man here. L. H. McMullen, Wm. Harnish, Jacob Zonge, Joe Nevel and Cline Zimmerman are in 'Bachelor-land.' Scott Peters had been in the 'leghorn' dog business but since his sample dog proved an egg sucker he has resigned. Chas. McClain has a cold storage fish plant at this place. John Zimmerman and John Workman claim to be the champion checker players; challenge them for a match. Lloyd Peters and Wm. Sprout are our tallest men; they naturally look over small things. Samuel Hinda, John Zimmerman, Shuman Zimmerman, Robert Harnish, Wm. Fulton and Jacob Zonge compose our hunting clubs; they were skunked last fall. E. G. DeArmitt is our chief promoter of wearing apparel for women; he is in the skunk business. Pidge Fisher is manager of our base ball team; their success was due to his efficient management last season. Joe Herman is proprietor of the Nittany Country Club; he deals mostly with aristocracy. Our street directory will be out after the census enumeration is made.

Come and see our next business picnic as we will have lots of swimming and all the ice water on tap you want.

FILLMORE.

John Fogelman met with a very serious accident last week by falling down stairs and allighting in such a shape as to break four of his ribs and hurt his arm; all suppositions were that he had broken his arm also, but it was found he had just bruised it to the extent that it was helpless. He is getting along as well as can be expected.

William Garman expects to move on the back Hunter farm, near Hunter's Park, now occupied by Henry Tressler.

Elmer Shull has rented the Rev. Glenn farm, near Rhyolite.

Preaching service was made very brief Sunday morning on account of the uncomfortable conditions of the room, being very cold.

Clair Rimmer spent Saturday evening with his friend Della Rockey.

Arthur Hull spent Sunday with his brother-in-law, George Hoover.

Howard Frazier has been spending a few days with his uncle, J. B. Rockey.

Edward Marshall took a jolly sled load over to Oak Hill to Mrs. Mand Benner's.

Edward Taylor might have met with a very serious accident last week; while leading a steer home the animal started with him and dragged him around in great style, but all that saved him was that his boots were drawn full of snow and this made too much of a load for the steer and he was compelled to stop. What a nice thing it is to have big feet.

WINGATE.

Christ Hoover and wife, of Ballsburg, and Charles Coon and wife, of Altoona, were called home on account of their sister being very low.

Leonard Watson, after telling the people he was going to Unionville, transacted business in Tyrone last week.

Clara Iddins, after returning from a pleasure trip to Jersey Shore, remained over night with her father here and left on Thursday for Runville where she will stay for some time.

Last Monday Edna Murray left for Altoona where she will spend some time with her brother.

Mary Test, of Phillipsburg, is visiting her sister Carrie Fisher.

The generous hearted young men so far as to take a sled load up to Bush Hollow have been, Guyer Alexander and Fred Fisher.

Raymond Fisher has secured a position in the round house at Tyrone.

Last Friday a message came to Claud Summers calling him to Tyrone to take the fireman examination; this leaves a vacancy in the paddy force.

Veris Wav, of Stormstown, spent Sunday with his brother Lawrence.

BENNER TWP.

Some of the young people of Buffalo Run, Book View and Axemann were invited to the home of Mr. Emnhizer at Rock View on last Wednesday evening. Those present were: Nellie and Ella Neese, Minerva and Hester Shuey, Viana Grove, Mollie and Luella Krape, Gertrude Kelley, Annie Bartley, Pearl Grace and Catherine Hoy, Ruth Benner, Gertrude Showers, Earle and Orvis Smeltzer, Boyd Krape, Roy Decker, Fred Marshall, John and William Kramer, Runkle and Howard Frazier, Irvin Shuey, Robert and Earle Walters, Paul and Jared Emnhizer, Earle Neese, John Shuey, Harry Reamy and a few others. Many thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Emnhizer for the fine refreshments and enjoyable time.

On last Thursday, at 12 o'clock noon, Miss Florence Marshall and Mr. Cam- rone were united in marriage at the home of the bride. Some of the friends and relatives were invited, there being about fifty-one present at the grand dinner served. In the evening the callithumplings gathered in and gave them a good old time serenading, which was followed by refreshments and dancing.

It is reported that a certain young man found it necessary to get out of his sleigh on last Saturday evening and break the road for his horse on a trip to a certain friend's home.

Boyd Krape and Orvis Smeltzer returned from Altoona on Wednesday after spending a few days with friends and relatives; they report having had a fine time.

Some of the farmers have been hauling their wheat to the Roopsburg mill the past week.

Sickness has been attacking some of the people in this community especially some of the scholars, but we are glad to note that most of the sick are improving.

Most of the teachers of Benner township attended the local institute of this district held at Hubersburg on last Saturday, February 5th. The instruction was very good and will certainly be beneficial to all present.

COLYER—Potter Twp.

On Wednesday last week H. C. Gettig's family moved from the Aaron Detwiler home into the G. R. Meese home, near Colyer. Mr. Detwiler will again take possession of home after March 1.

Mr. Charles Bortoff, who is employed at Burnham, spent over Sunday here with his family.

Miss Myra Rockey and Miss Bertha Miller spent Saturday with their friends, Misses Grace, Ruth and Lena Bower.

Mr. and Mrs. Witmer Grove spent one day last week at the home of William Moyer's.

One day last week while Mr. Ashbridge Thomas accompanied Mrs. H. S. Alexander and lady friend, Miss Ruth Smith, from Pottery Mills to the former's home, while crossing out of the McCoy field into the road, the shafts broke, the horse took fright and the lines breaking the animal became unmanageable for the driver; the occupants were thrown out, although no one received any injuries. The horse ran for quite a distance, being caught by Mr. Stuart Jordan and Blaine Palmer, near the Jordan home.

Quite a number of children are ill with the whooping cough around this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. William Long and children, of near Lewistown, are spending a few days with the former's mother, Mrs. Susan Long, who had been ill for some time but is again on the mend.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Boal and son John spent Saturday at the home of P. S. Boal.

Ground hog saw his shadow here. Some say he is a sure sign of the weather for the next six weeks, but anyone who will think a little knows that he has nothing to do with it. Times in the past have proved it so.

The Baptists are to have a new pastor at this place. We understand that he expects to make his home here. I hope that he may find our town a very pleasant place of abode, and that it may be bettered by another minister living in it.

The 4th annual Sabbath School convention for the district composed of Huston, Taylor and Worth townships will be held in the Baptist church in Port Matilda on the 4th and 5th of March. It is hoped that all Sabbath School workers in the district will do all in their power to make this convention a success. We had a very good time together last year, and we can have a better one this year, if we will all attend.

On Wednesday the house on the Hills farm, about 5 miles northeast of Port Matilda, burned to the ground with all its contents. The family were eating their dinner and knew nothing of it until the roof and upper floor fell in. We do not know whether there was any insurance or not.

If you want to buy hay now is your chance. It is only one cent a straw and can be had in any quantity at that price. Never has hay sold for the price it is now. In this community, good hay is $20. a ton. They haul it to Phillipsburg for $25 a ton.

WOODWARD.

"Oh! yes, Oh! yes" will be the cry at L. L. Weaver's on next Wednesday morning. Everybody should try to be present as his implements are all like new. He also has some fine stock to be sold.

Frank Confer and family, of Sober, spent Sunday at D. J. Benner's.

Mrs. Geo. Smith and children, of Wolfe Store, spent some time at the home of Mrs. Smith's parents, Israel Runkle's, here.

The young folks of here and the surrounding community held an oyster supper at Thos. Wolf's, on last Friday night. The evening was spent in social games and was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Alice Stinling and her daughter Florence, spent a week's day at the home of Benj. Cober's.

William Weaver, of Aaronsburg, who has been driving stage for Joe Ard for some time, quit on Saturday. He returned to his home at Aaronsburg and will make a week's trip to Illinois on the 22nd of this month.

H. S. Hosterman, of State College, spent a short time with his parents here on last Friday.

Among those on the sick list are: Clayton Sheesley, Mrs. C. D. Motz and Emanuel Orndorf.

SHINGLETOWN.

Boyd Jordan has returned to his western home after a brief visit with his parents and friends.

Quite a number of young folks from here attended the box social held at Ballsburg.

Miss Edna Leech has come home after an extended visit with her sister in Tyrone.

W. A. Leech and Walker Shutt are quite busy hauling logs to John Charles' saw mill at Ballsburg.

E. J. Jones, a seller in lumber for the mountain above Pine Grove to Oak Hall—quite a distance.

Charles Ienber and Peter Sones are operating Frank Dar's saw mill on J. M. Kepler's tract of timber.

J. H. Sones, of Altoona, was a pleasant caller among friends—how about it Stella?

The farmers are busy getting a supply of wood on hand for the coming year; Walter Weaver is doing the work with his engine and saw.

Willie K. is all smiles since the young man from Altoona went home.

LINDEN HALL.

Gertrude Miller, of the Glades, visited her sister, Carrie Welland, last week.

John Wieland, of Ballsburg, purchased a fine team of gray horses last week of Hie Rosa, and also a horse of Robert McClellan.

Nora Diehl and Bertha Meyer spent Thursday of last week very pleasantly with Madie Raymond.

A sled load of young folks of this place enjoyed themselves very much at the home of Claude Wert, of Tusseyville, on Wednesday evening of last week.

John Ginterich loaded a car load of mining props on Friday last week.

John and Harry Cummings, sons of J. W. Cummings, are under the care of the doctor.

James M. Rose is seriously ill with the grip.

CENTRE MILLS.

Ira Shultz shot a red fox recently. Chas. Miller and sister, Miss Sadie, visited friends at Spring Mills over Sunday.

Harvey Lambert and family, Mrs. Flora Lambert and Ed. Miller and family attended the funeral of Fred Lambert at Aaronsburg last week.

Howard Weaver's gave a dance to their friends last week.

Geo. Kline made a trip to Lock Haven and Bellefonte last week.

BEECH CREEK.

On Saturday afternoon the 5th inst. the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Bowmaster, north of Unionville, was made quite merry by the arrival of a sled load of jolly folks from Beech Creek. Among the crowd were Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter Miller, Mrs. Joseph Heverly and daughter, Miss Florence, of Beech Creek; Mrs. Isadore Westner, of Lock Haven; Mrs. W. R. Morrissey and daughter Miss Ruth, of Duquesne; They were a jolly crowd, out for a good time, though the thermometer said it was almost zero. On Sunday, after dinner, they got ready for their departure again. After everybody wishing everybody else a long life of health and happiness all picked out the warmest place in the big sled. The driver cracked his whip, and away they went.

C. K. Sober, of Lewisburg, was a pleasant caller at U. G. Auman's on Thursday.

Jerry Stover and William Hoy, both of Bellefonte, were seen in our vicinity on Saturday and Sunday. We wonder what their attraction was.

U. N. Auman, who was working at Dauphin, came home one day last week.

Mrs. James Miller and B. Shaffer went to Lewistown to work.

Furl Auman attended the party at Millheim on last Wednesday evening.

Katie Stover, of Millheim, was a caller with her lady friend, Furl Auman, last Saturday.

Young men, don't marry a parlor ornament unless you can afford to hire a cook.
