EDITORIAL.

When will senator Aldrich make a move to save that three hundred million dollars annually, in the government expenditures, of which he boasted he could, a few days ago? Or, having been in the senate over twenty-five years already, why did he not make a move to save those millions long ago?

FOR CONGRESS.

The announcement of Lewis Emery, Jr., of Bradford, as a candidate for the Republican nomination for congress, in this district, was made on Tuesday; and it comes with a ring that makes our local politicians sit up and think. We admire Mr. Emery's frank statement to grafters, that while he has ample resources and is perfectly willing to pay all legitimate campaign expenses, he will not become a "boodler" and squander money on the grafters and leaders of the district. Good! Excellent!

For years this congressional district has put its congressional honors on the auction block and nominations were secured by boodlers of the type of Dresser and Barclay—the one was in his dotage, and the other a representative of very mediocre ability. While Emory has the "hoodle to burn" if he chooses to use it, he very creditably declares that he seeks this nomination from the Republican electors of this district "upon his merits." That sounds mighty good; something new in our congressional politics that should appeal to all well-thinking people.

Another thing about this man Emery is that he is fearless, with a mind and a will to think and act for himself. He never wears a boss collar, or truckled to any corrupt faction for personal advantage.

There is much about Lewis Emery that we admire; and the Republicans of this district will have to search far and wide to secure an abler or better man to represent them in congress.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

—Thank goodness Tuesday was the last day for the groundhog.

—Clement Dale, Esq., transacted legal business in Philadelphia on Friday.

—C. C. Bartges, who runs a job printing press at Spring Mills, was a business caller.

—Mrs. C. U. Hoffer, of Philadelphia, is visiting her father, C. T. Gerbrich, on Thomas street.

—E. R. Chambers and family will move from Linn street into the flat in Petrikin Hall, recently vacated by Dr. Coburn Rodgers.

—Mrs. Gust Heverly left Bellefonte on Wednesday afternoon for Philadelphia where she will visit Miss Helen Moore and other friends.

—Miss Annie Nolan, the efficient clerk in the register's office, transacted legal business in Philadelphia on Saturday. On her way home she stopped at Tyrone where she spent Sunday very pleasantly with her brother, Daniel Nolan, and family.

—This week Dr. Coburn Rodgers and family moved to apartments in Petrikin Hall to the flat over Dr. Harris' office, recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Edward Irvin, who moved into the rooms occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell L. Gardner, in the Shoemaker house, on Spring street.

—Ruth Bartley, the 13-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Bartley, of Lock Haven, who is quite well known in Bellefonte, fractured her left ankle while skating on roller skates. The injury has been quite painful but she is getting along as well as can be expected.

—Bellefonte still has some skeptical people as to the new trolley line between Bellefonte and State College. Supt. L. T. Munson, however, says it is a go. Just now the trolley company is figuring on putting down the track in Allegheny street, when the state road is being built, which would be cheaper for the company and save the streets from being torn up the second time.

—A number of persons have been wondering what has become of the Bellefonte Cement Brick Co., which was organized about one year ago. A representative of the Centre Democrat, while looking around for news on Wednesday, was reliably informed that in course of a short time operations on the plant would be commenced. The machinery is ordered from the American Clay and Brick Machinery Co., of Ohio, and just as soon as the weather opens up something will be done toward erecting buildings in which the machinery will be placed. When in operation it will give a large number of men employment.

—On Tuesday evening an immense crowd of people attended the scenic, the proceeds of which went to the Bellefonte Baseball Association. There is a little encouragement in this for the boys to go ahead and make a further effort to secure a team here this summer. Miss Mary Moerschbacher was asked to sell a few tickets and in a half day sold 227 which entitled her to the beautiful handbag which had been offered as a prize, although no contest was made. It is evident that Mary knows how to get close to a young man's pocketbook. The Association greatly appreciates her effort to aid the enterprise.

How to Clean Light Colored Leather Upholstery in the Machines.

Those who have purchased automobiles upholstered in light colored leather because their wives or daughters liked the particular tint of the upholstery are often bothered by the apparent untidiness of the linings which is sure to result from exposure and use. To clean and remove stains from light colored leather, however, is not such a difficult matter, and the following mixture may be used with excellent results: Boil a pint of milk, allow it to cool and add one dram of hydrochloric acid and one dram of sulphuric acid. After this has been well shaken a half dram of oil of lavender should be added and one pint of vinegar and the white of one egg beaten to a froth. The mixture should be kept in a tightly corked bottle. If this liquid is rubbed on the leather with a soft cloth, the stains will be removed and the leather be much improved in appearance.

How to Exercise For Cold Feet.

Ankle exercises will improve the circulation of cold feet wonderfully. When sitting in a chair stretch the foot out, extending the toes to the extreme limit. Then rotate the foot up and down, sideways and around in a circle. Then stand, supporting yourself by a table or chair, and with one foot slightly raised, make it hang lifeless—in other words, deitalize it. With a circular movement of the lower part of the limb swing the foot around many times. Exercise both feet in the same way. When you have stopped the exercise you will feel a peculiar tingling sensation in the feet. This is the blood rushing back to them. Almost at once you will feel a comfortable sense of warmth that will be different from any feeling of warmth obtained by the use of hot water bags.

DOUBLE VISION.

It Affected the Oculist as Well as the Patient.

A well known oculist of New York city tells a story of one of his patients who proved rather more than a match for him. The patient was an old fellow from one of the rural counties of the state, fifty years of age or more, who strolled leisurely into the doctor's office and, after taking a mental inventory of the place, remarked that he was afraid that his eyes were "gitting a little out o' kilter" and he guessed the doctor had better "take a peek at them." He was seated, and as a preliminary, was invited to look through a prism at a photograph.

"Why, now," said he after "squinting" awhile, "this is curious! I see two photographs. What makes me see like that?" The oculist, who is something of a humorist and inclined to be jocose with certain of his patients, replied that this phenomenon was certainly very interesting and that, while possibly it indicated some slight abnormality, it yet had its compensating advantages. "With double vision you have a great advantage over me, for example," he continued, smiling, "for you will be able to see twice as many beautiful things in the world as I can. You will have twice as many friends. Your family will be doubled. You will have twice as much real estate and two pocketbooks instead of one."

The old man did not say much in reply, but seemed to be pondering it. Meanwhile the oculist completed his examination, and the time came to receive his fee, which in this case was $10.

Very slowly the old man, still pondering, drew forth a roll of notes and, carefully selecting a five dollar bill, looked hard at it for some moments. Then, proffering it, he said quietly, "Here's your $10, doctor."

How to Save the Stickpin.

If the end of a stick pin is under a lapel or inside the opening of the dress, anywhere that you can easily get at it, you will be in no danger of losing it if you will wind tightly about it a small sized rubber band.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD Bulletin. DREADNAUGHT CARS. The nub of railroading is first-class equipment and reliable service. The Pennsylvania Railroad provides this for the public. For many months big all-steel coaches, built like Dreadnaughts, have been operated on all through trains. Their easy-riding qualities and steadiness of motion have been widely praised. The all-steel dining cars too have distinct advantages over the wooden ones. They are stronger and sturdier, and the act of eating is made more enjoyable by the smoother movement. There are also some steel Pullman Cars—Combined Parlor—Smokers and Baggage in the service now. Travelers like them. They have plenty of elbow room and they glide over the rails. The Sleeping Cars are coming. Some four hundred parlor and sleeping cars will be in use by Summer. These steel coaches and cars are the strongest vehicles ever built for passenger transportation. They are fire proof, break proof and bend proof. They present the climax of safety and the perfection of comfort in railroad travel. The Pennsylvania Railroad has always been the leader in all manner of improved equipment as well as in all methods of making their patrons more comfortable. This is why it is known and honored as The Standard Railroad of America.
