

BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

Mrs. James Noonan, of Bellefonte, is visiting her sister in New York City. Rev. C. W. Winey is attending the Sunday school convention being held in review union church at Runville today. Miss Maude Decker, of Pine Grove Mills, has accepted a position in the millinery department of Joseph Bros. store. Mrs. Hammon Sechler has been visiting her daughter and grand-daughter, Mrs. William A. Kirby and child, at Trappe, Md. Mrs. J. Thomas Mitchell has returned from a three-weeks' visit at her old home in Indianapolis and was accompanied by her mother. Miss Teresa Shields, of Bellefonte, who had been seriously ill at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Shields, is much better. Miss Ruth Brown, who makes her home with Rev. and Mrs. W. C. Winey, has returned to Bellefonte after spending several weeks with her parents at Freeburg, Pa. Jack Decker, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Decker, is going around with his arm in a sling, the result of falling from a tree at the Brick school house, on Bishop street. The mild weather during the fore-part of March started the buds on the shade trees along our streets. Since Sunday mercury has dropped below freezing notch. Mrs. Charles Thomas, nee Fannie Barnhart, has returned to her home in Pittsburgh after a pleasant visit to her home here. She was accompanied by her sister Alice who recently underwent an operation at the Bellefonte hospital. Mrs. George Stinson and little daughter left on Friday morning for their new home at Allentown. They were accompanied by Mrs. John Ardel, who will visit at the Stinson home for a few weeks before leaving for her home at Buffalo, N. Y. Isaac M. Harvey, of State College, was in Bellefonte the other day and stated that the roads would permit the State College Transportation Company would resume its service between State College and Bellefonte. Last week Kline Woodring began truck raising on a small scale. He put out seeds for lettuce, radishes, sweet corn, and onion sets. He covered the plot with pieces of carpet for protection against any possible freeze. Kline did the same thing last year and with success, for he had roasting ears on the Fourth of July for his table. Miss Mary Bradley is arranging an interesting musical service at the St. John's Episcopal church on the evening of Good Friday. She has selected a choir of about thirty voices, taken from the several churches, to sing the "Crucifixion." Each member of the choir will be dressed in black. The women will wear full black, with white collars, and will also wear black caps. The first annual meeting of the Bellefonte Motor Club will take place on the second Monday in April and as that will be the time for the election of officers and the appointment of standing committees, and in order to insure a full attendance of members of the club it has been decided to have a banquet that night and Dr. John Leasing and F. E. Nagney were appointed a committee to make all necessary arrangements. We were favored with a call from Centre Hall's oldest resident, druggist J. D. Murray, accompanied by his son-in-law, Prof. Bitner, late of the Millersville State Normal. Murray now carries his eighty-third year and has been residing in Centre Hall some sixty years. He is a native of Harris township, and settling at Centre Hall followed the bugles, until some years ago, when he went in the drug business. He carries his age remarkably well, and has been a useful and respected citizen all his lifetime. The boxing show to be held at the Bellefonte armory, Friday night, gives every promise of being the classiest as well as best attended show ever staged by the armory. A. C. Word from both Gilbert and Campbell state that they are in the pink of condition and only awaiting the call of time. Even more interesting to Bellefontians will be the Ward-Weaver semifinal. Ward is a very clever boy, but he will be compelled to bring all his brawn down to earth in order to play to earn the decision over young Weaver. The Greensburg boy is the real goods, clever, fast and aggressive, and comes here supremely confident of winning hands down. Carded and Manager Blackford certainly intends giving his patrons a great run for their money this time. Sunday evening a large congregation assembled in the Presbyterian church to hear Dr. J. Allison Platts preach a sermon to the young ladies of the town. It was a masterly discourse filled brim full of excellent thoughts for the elevation of womanhood. His first appeal was for the young lady to protect her honor, secondly, she should learn some trade or profession so that if adversity came she would be ready to meet them; thirdly, she should seek to establish a home for herself by marrying the right kind of a man. Often a young lady is making a larger salary than the man who wants her hand in marriage. In that case she should make the young man hustle to make more money. It is a fact that a young lady who is earning $50 a month, dislikes very much to marry a young man who is only earning $40 or $50. Lastly he pointed them to Christ as the true ideal of life. Here is one on Mr. and Mrs. T. Clayton Brown who run the Seenic. A drummer was in that place of amusement on Friday evening and when coming out, after the show, said he had been to a number of entertainments that kind in Pennsylvania and he has run against none better than the Seenic in Bellefonte. Neither Mr. or Mrs. Brown can feel much bigger, physically, than they are now, but nevertheless, it is a nice little compliment. This being so, every effort put forth by Mr. Brown to better the show should be appreciated. You know the larger amount of water makes the wheel turn faster, and the more money you give Mr. Brown the better will be the entertainment. The pictures have been improving right along and it does not pay to miss any of them, as the price is within the limit of almost everybody. If you haven't been a patron now is the time to commence. The program was also much impressed with the excellent instrumental music by Mrs. Russell Jury.

J. C. Derr's Rhode Island Reds are best. Miss Anna Curry, who had been visiting friends at Reading, has returned home. W. R. Braebill entertained John E. Fryberger and two children, of Phillipsburg, over Sunday. William Chamberlain, Esq., of Milton, spent Sunday in Bellefonte as the guest of his sister, Mrs. A. O. Furst. W. B. Watson, of E. Syracuse, wanting to keep posted on Centre county, wisely subscribed for the Democrat. Miss Jane Hafer, who had been spending three weeks with her sister in Tyrone, returned home on Sunday evening. Homer Barnes took a little trip this week to Pittsburgh where he visited his brother and transacted a little business. Richard Taylor, who has charge of the military at the Huntingdon Reformatory, spent last week with his family in Bellefonte. Mr. and Mrs. John S. Furst and little daughter Louise, of Williamsport, spent Sunday as the guests of Mrs. A. O. Furst, on Linn street. H. R. Curtin and son Laird returned on Saturday from Atlantic City, where they had gone for the benefit of the latter's health. John D. Meyer, secretary of the Altoona Security & Trust Co., spent Sunday in Bellefonte as the guest of Mrs. and Mr. Harry Jenkins. On Saturday Mrs. Ray Atkinson returned to her home at Niagara Falls, after an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shaughnessy, on Howard street. Mr. and Mrs. Phil McGinley, of Sparrows Point, Md., and Mrs. Stewart Pierce, of Conneaut, Ohio, attended the funeral of Mrs. Harriet McGinley, which took place in Bellefonte on Tuesday. J. R. Brunard, of Rebersburg, favored our sanctum with a call. He informs us the wheat fields have a promising look down there and also that there is considerable sickness in Miles township. Perry Breen, of Potter, and son Morris, of Syracuse, N. Y., were pleasant callers. Perry would purchase a medium sized farm if he found one to suit him. He gets wheat fields in Potter looking fair. Miss Eva Mosebarger, of Peal, is visiting in Bellefonte at the home of her sister, Mrs. Fred Bryan, on Thomas street. She is a seamstress and while here she will spend her time by taking in sewing of all kinds. Eugene Coxey, son of C. W. Coxey, the Bishop street groceryman, is ill with scarlet fever. So as not to interfere with his business during the period his home is quarantined, Mr. Coxey is boarding with Mrs. Tanner. The young man is getting along all right. W. S. Wieland, one of the salesmen in the Potter-Hoy hardware store during the past four years, has moved to Williamsport, where he will have charge of the store. He is now in Jersey Wire Cloth Co., of Trenton, Success to him in his promotion to so important a position. John Dubbs, Jr., of Hagerstown, Md., spent Sunday in Bellefonte with his parents, John Dubbs, Sr., and wife. He is route agent for the Adams Express Co. and is one of the Bellefonte boys who are making good. He is reliable and is one of the first men in the line of promotion. For sometime Miss Elizabeth Platts, eldest daughter of Rev. J. Allison Platts, of Bellefonte, had been suffering from an affection of the throat. The other day it was examined and the difficulty was found to be in the tonsils. To remedy the trouble the tonsils were removed and now the young lady is getting along very nicely, with every indication that her trouble will be at an end. Harry T. Goss, repairer at George Beezer's garage, has decided to move his family to Bellefonte. He recently sold his property in Phillipsburg to Charles D. Kuhn, of that place. It is very likely Mr. Goss will purchase a home in Bellefonte, and he can't get his eye on one that will suit him. He is a deserving young man and his friends will be glad to know that he is going to locate here permanently. Winfield Brislin, son of the late Col. James Brislin, and a sister, Miss Katharine Brislin, of St. Paul, Minn., have been guests at the home of Col. and Mrs. J. L. Spangler, the latter being his aunt. He holds a lucrative position with the St. Paul & Milwaukee Railroad Co. and he came east on a little combination trip of business and pleasure. He is a very pleasant gentleman and while here has been having a delightful rest and recreation. On Sunday afternoon Miss Sarah Collins, who resides on Curtin street, underwent a serious operation. For the past five months she has been suffering from terrible pains in the head which the physicians attributed to a diseased eye. An operation was decided upon and it was performed by Dr. Curry, of Pittsburg, assisted by Drs. Hayes and Sebring, of Bellefonte, when the eye was removed. Reports are that the aged lady is getting along as well as can be expected. W. I. Willard, the High street merchant, has been making more improvements in his store room. This week he put in a bat case. In front are large glass doors which can be put back quickly and forwards. It will keep his hats dust proof and at the same time place them within the gaze of every one who enters his store. Since starting up in business, a couple of years ago, Mr. Willard has made a wonderful change in his store which shows his business is increasing. During the week Jim, the Clothier, has made his room much lighter by placing new handsome hardwood and glass back-grounds in his show windows. It makes his store a daylight store, not to say how much more effective they make the appearance of his windows. This firm is always progressing, sparing no expense or efforts in giving the public better service, and with its modern fixtures, stock and business methods, is a store Bellefonte and Centre county people can look to with pride, as we know of few stores in the largest cities that are more thoroughly up-to-date than this one. On Sunday morning Rev. Percy Shelly, representing the Pennsylvania State Sabbath Alliance Association spoke in the Presbyterian church and in the evening addressed a large congregation in the Methodist church. His subject here was to arouse the sentiment of members of the church against several pernicious bills that will be presented at the next Legislature that will have a tendency to destroy the sanctity of the Sabbath. Unless the good people of Pennsylvania show their hand in trying to suppress the growing sentiment against the Sabbath it will not be many years before there will be such things as a day of rest, devoted to reverence, God who controls the destiny of both the individual and the nation. Rev. Shelly is a deep thinker and an excellent speaker, thus it was a pleasure to have him here.

Paul Fortney, Esq., transacted business in Altoona on Monday. Miss Emma Alkens has returned from Philadelphia and New York. Harry Fitzgerald, who is in the business of supplying dental supplies with headquarters at Columbus, O., spent Saturday in Bellefonte as the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Fitzgerald. On Friday evening there will be a meeting of the Bellefonte Baseball Association in the offices of Gettler, Bower and Zerbe to which all who are interested are cordially invited. Go and help give encouragement to the movement. From this time on for several months the stores of Bellefonte will be open until 8 o'clock in the evening instead of closing at 6 o'clock, as they have been doing for some time past. This will be hailed with delight by those who are in the habit of purchasing the daily necessities for the house. For sometime Miss Elizabeth Platts, eldest daughter of Rev. J. Allison Platts, of Bellefonte, had been suffering from an affection of the throat. The other day it was examined and the difficulty was found to be in the tonsils.
