EDITORIAL.

That "Full Dinner Pail" story is not being worked very hard at this time by our Republican friends.

If the signs of the times can be judged by recent events the Cannon-Aldrich tariff is in bad favor with the public.

A liberal reward will be given for a real, live, republican caught in the act of shouting for Taft. They are exceedingly rare.

Out west they are making bread out of alfalfa hay, and many are using it as a substitute for wheat. When a man's dinner pail is empty he is willing to eat almost anything, even if it is hay.

If the recent tariff bill brought prosperity to the country, as some of the republican papers are asserting, who destroyed business during the former administration? It certainly was not due to Democratic measures.

With coal miners on a strike and serious labor troubles in Philadelphia, and people in the west eating hay, the only real prosperity seems to be in reading some of the frothy editorials in our local republican papers.

Andrew Carnegie, who got more millions through tariff favors than he can judiciously dispose of, very gratefully mourns the downfall of Cannon. Andy knows where his bread and butter came from, and how he made millions out of the iron business.

Today there is a Democratic pow wow among the party leaders at Harrisburg. The principal topic is to discuss the character of the ticket to be selected for the campaign this year. In the light of recent events there is reason to assume that will be a Democratic year all along the line.

Most likely Governor Stuart is considering the advisability of calling an extra session of the legislature for the passage of an act authorizing the erection of an annex to the Western penitentiary to supply room for the accommodation of the Pittsburgh gangster council who are now being found guilty and sentenced by the scores for bribery and corrupt practices.

INSURGENT VICTORY.

The Republican State convention in Indiana on Tuesday was an important political event. In the last Congress Senator Beveridge vigorously opposed the Payne-Aldrich tariff, and denounced it as a violation of the Republican campaign pledges and the platform itself. Senator Beveridge opposed the measure, which Taft pronounced the best tariff ever enacted.

In this convention it was important to note what action would be taken. It resulted in a great victory for Senator Beveridge, the insurgent who presided. Resolutions were passed endorsing his action in opposing the tariff bill and demanding a revision at the earliest possible moment. The name of Roosevelt was loudly cheered, while that of President Taft evoked little enthusiasm. In his speech Senator Beveridge severely ridiculed the new tariff, showing the injustice and hardships it worked upon the masses.

The result of the Indiana convention showed that the Taft administration was a disappointment thus far.

When you consider the result of recent elections, in Massachusetts, Chicago, Missouri, and many other points where Republicans lost heavily, sober minded men plainly discern that there is revolt in the atmosphere. It is an index of the temper of the people, who find their conditions growing heavier every year.

The man who perceives in these early expressions, a Democratic victory this fall and a Democratic Congress, may not be far mistaken.

Cannism has been repudiated, and the people may demand still more, as confidence has been lost in that branch of the government.

A CANNON TOOL.

The Lewistown, Pa., Gazette, the leading republican paper of Mifflin county, opposes the re-election of Hon. B. K. Focht, of Lewisburg, for numerous reasons, the following being the principal one:

"Mr. Focht has been entirely subservient to the will of the Cannon-Aldrich crowd, instead of representing his district. He has voted to sustain the classes against the masses. He was a willing supporter of the Aldrich abortion called a revision of the tariff that has caused an increase in the cost of living to every citizen of the land, falling most heavily upon the poor, who are least able to stand it." Congressman Barclay, of our district, voted the same way and in every instance upheld the Cannon-Aldrich crowd and their measures. Barclay simply took his orders—voted as he was directed. For doing this he has been eulogized by the Gazette of our town whose editor never had any further consideration for the public good, than what would advance his own selfish ends.

We truly are anxious to see whether the intelligent patriotic republicans of Centre county will favor the return of Barclay, when they have the opportunity of selecting a better man in either Patton or Emery.

The men who must pay the present high prices for the necessities of life out of meagre salaries seem to be thinking a great deal of late, as the recent elections in various sections of the country show a wave of discontent. The trouble with them is that the other fellows have the "Full Dinner Pail."

Barclay always stood by Cannon; every Cannontite should stand by Barclay.

REPUBLICANISM STILL BUSTED.

The Republican party is busted. It hasn't a majority in the House and probably not in the Senate. It cannot enact the Taft measures. Its fighting elements are irreconcilable.

It is still busted. "This is revolution," said Mr. Tawney on Saturday. "You can't tell what will happen."

What proceeded to happen was that Uncle Joe was put off the rules committee by a vote of 191 to 155 a good majority of the House declaring that it would legislate according to its own taste and conviction and not according to his.

Awful, awful insubordination, but the rebels had the votes.

But when it came to turning the speaker out, the House was not ready. By the same vote (191 to 155) by which it had put him off the rules committee it declined to declare the chair vacant.

Speaker Cannon has been thrashed. It took 27 or eight hours to do it, working hard all the time without intermission for natural rest, though all the time the necessary votes were ready. That shows how hard a job it was, and by the same token shows how much it needed doing. The speaker is made for the House, not the House for the speaker. The speaker's office is to precede, not to legislate on his own hook.

Uncle Joe has done both. The insurgents charge that he has shaped legislation to suit himself. A majority of the House didn't like the way he shaped it. Will he be good now? The refusal of the House to turn him out seemed for the moment to neutralize the effects of the licking. We fear that Uncle Joe is not much sadder nor much wiser than he was before. But there are bills to be passed, Republican measures, and business is business. If it is the will of the House to pass some of these bills, we presume Uncle Joe will assist in the doing of it. To that end, he said, he refused to resign, and there was much sense in his refusal. But the oldtime Joe-Cannon Republicanism is done for, and there is no prospect—not a sign—of its revival.—Harper's Weekly.

Corrections Made.

All persons who remitted for subscription to The Centre Democrat during the past month of March will find proper credit given for same by a change of the date on the label this week. Look at it now and in case of an error notify this office at once.

The following is the way labels appear, which many do not seem to understand:

Smith, John $10

That means that John Smith's paper is paid up to April 1st, 1910. All subscriptions are dated from the FIRST OF THE MONTH; and for convenience we drop the "19" out of 1910—only carry the last two figures of the year. For these reasons the above label does not mean that the subscription is paid to APRIL 19TH, but to APRIL 1ST, 1910.

Pine Grove Mills Academy. The historical and well known Pine Grove Mills Academy will open April 25th for the purpose of conducting a Spring term of normal school of six weeks at Pine Grove Mills, Pa. The topical method will be pursued in reviewing the so-called common school branches, hence any good text book may be used. Students wishing to take advantage of this school session should at once notify the Principal,

Some fifty persons have left Aaronburg this spring for the West. This will shorten the work of the census taker some in that pretty, ancient village, with a population of some 400. From our Fielder correspondent in the same township of Haines, we note that there are a great many vacant properties there this season due in a large extent to former citizens moving to parts of Illinois, and in consequence there are several vacant farms. A number of above went to Plainfield, Illinois.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

STATE SENATE.

We are authorized to announce the name of Geo. Dimeling, of Clearfield, Pa., as a candidate for State Senate in this the 34th Senatorial district, subject to the decision of the Democratic voters at the primaries to be held on Saturday, June 18th, 1910.

COSMOPOLIS.

To the Editor:—I hereby announce myself a candidate for Congress in the 21st Pennsylvania district, subject to the decision of the Republican voters at the primaries to be held June 18th, 1910. I make this announcement and enter the contest in compliance with the earnest requests of many prominent members of the party in the district and also because I believe that in Congress, if elected, I would be in a position to effectively advocate those principles and measures of good government more than ever, should be embodied in Federal legislation. I believe in clean politics and progressive Roosevelt policies. And so to end that I may serve the best interests, I ask the support of the Republicans of this district. LEWIS EMERY, JR. Bradford, Pa., March 15, 1910.

RECENT DEATHS.

STOVER.—Miss Tillie Stover died at the home of Thomas Fleisher, at Colyer, on Wednesday morning. She was a township charge and for a number of years had been cared for by the Fleisher family.

MASSEY.—On Thursday Charles T. Massey, of Philadelphia, died after an illness of two years with Bright's disease. His condition, however, was not considered critical until a few days before his death. Eleven years ago he was married in Philadelphia to Miss Kate Power, of Bellefonte, who survives him with a little daughter, Anna.

VAN DORSTON.—A much belated death notice reached us on Wednesday. It was that of Mrs. Elizabeth Van Dorston, who died at her home in Kansas City, Missouri, on Jan. 20th. Her age was 93 years and 6 months. Her maiden name was Miss Elizabeth Packer, and was born in Centre county, near Howard. The deceased was a cousin of the late Harvey McClure, of Bellefonte, and will be remembered by the older residents of the town. Her husband, Rudolph Van Dorston, died thirty-seven years ago.

HENNIGH.—While walking on the streets with his brother John, in Atchison, Kansas, Elias Hennigh, of Rantoul, Illinois, was stricken with paralysis, and died a few days thereafter. Mr. Hennigh was the son of David Hennigh, and went west at the outbreak of the war, where he engaged in farming. Those surviving are: David, Sabetha, Kas.; John, Atchison, Kas.; Benjamin Franklin, Larned, Kas.; Simon P., Spring Mills; Mrs. Nancy Gargies, Coburn; Mrs. Mary Rearick, Centre Hall; Mrs. Lambert J. Noll, Dewart; Mrs. E. M. Granley, Logan. One brother and seven sisters are dead.

VONEIDA.—Wm. Voneida, after an illness from diabetes for about two years, died at his home in West Buffalo Twp., Union county, on Friday night, March 25, aged 66 years, 3 months and 21 days. Interment was made in the Leighton cemetery. Mr. Voneida was born at Woodsport, Centre county; was married to Malinda Housinger, who survives him; also two children, Mary Elizabeth, at home, and Carol, of Laurelton. For 21 years he conducted a flouring mill, the Lincoln mill, in Hartley township, where the family resided. Seven years ago he purchased the Thomas Mill near Mifflinburg, which he conducted successfully until illness barred him from further active labor.

McFADDEN.—Miss Susie McFadden died at the hospital Tuesday morning about 1 o'clock, following an operation for bowel trouble. The deceased was a daughter of the late Ellen McFadden, and had practically been helpless all her life, owing to paralysis of the lower limbs. Although terribly afflicted she bore her suffering with patience. She always showed a kind disposition and thus was held in the highest respect. She is survived by the following brothers and sisters: John and James, of Pittsburgh; Mrs. Edward McNevia, of Mikesbarre; and Dennis McFadden, of Bellefonte. This morning services were held in the St. John's Catholic church of which she was a consistent member, after which the remains will be taken to Butler for interment.

SAXTON.—On Saturday night at 10:30 o'clock James H. Saxton died at his home in Birmingham, Blair Co., after a short illness with Bright's disease. He was a machinist by trade, and it was he who placed the machinery and erected the structural iron work at the White Rock Lime company's operations, near Pleasant Gap. Being a fine workman he was seldom out of a job. Had he lived until next month he would have been 50 years of age. He was married to Miss Ella Love who survives him with the following children: Eva, May, Harry and Charles, at home; Wilber and Mrs. J. W. Morrison, of Bellefonte. He is also mourned by the following brothers and sisters: W. G., of Spring Creek; Samuel, of Leechburg; J. L., of Ayer, H. E. and Mrs. J. H. Sellers, of Ford City; Mrs. J. M. Bricker, of Bellefonte; and Mrs. Henry Lowry, of State College. The remains arrived in Bellefonte on Monday afternoon on the 1:20 train and were taken to Pleasant Gap where services were held in the Methodist church. Interment was made at that place. Among those who accompanied the body here were Charles Venner and William John Sellers, of Ford City. The wife of the deceased was so overcome with grief that it was impossible for her to accompany the family. J. H. Sellers, who is married to his sister, was also too ill to attend the funeral.

Home Baked Bread, Biscuit, Cake, Pastry. Fresh, Tasteful, Healthy, and Economical when made with ROYAL BAKING POWDER. Royal is the only baking powder made from Royal Grape Cream of Tartar.

FISHEL.—Henry Fishel, an old soldier and one of the best and most highly respected citizens of College township, died at 2 o'clock on Thursday afternoon, March 24, of diseases incident to his advanced age. He was born in Pennsylvania and was 74 years and 12 days old. He was a miller by occupation and during his life worked at the McFarlane, Centre Furnace and Pine Grove Mills, though for a number of years he had lived a retired life. During the Civil war he served as a private in company E, Pennsylvania volunteers, under Col. J. M. McCarter. He was severely wounded during the Virginia campaign of 1862 and as a result was discharged in November of that year. He was a member of the Reformed church and of Capt. Robert Foster Post G. A. R. In 1864 he was united in marriage to Miss Ella Desevy who survives with five children, namely: John, Thomas, Mrs. William Houtz and Mrs. Albert Ralston, all of Lemont; and Irvin, of Indiana county.

SHAW.—John B. Shaw, a well known and respected citizen of Blanchard, died at his home in that place on Wednesday morning of paralysis, after an illness of many years, aged about 74 years. Deceased is survived by his wife and three sons, Robert Shaw, of McKeesport; James, of Coffeyville, Kansas, and Edgar, of Jersey Shore. Funeral services will be conducted in the Christian church at Blanchard at 10 o'clock Saturday morning and interment will be made in the Christian cemetery.

For City Farmers. Just for the fun of it, we give a clever illustrated article on another page which contains some good advice for "City Farmers." Don't miss it—it is as good as a circus.

That Bellefonte has in it a certain class of people who think that this life's joys and pleasures were made only for them. Often they forfeit their manhood and womanhood in order to satisfy their lust after what they call a good time. The man or woman who lives within him or herself had better go out into the fields and take lessons from the brute creation as to fidelity and loyalty to their kin.

Every smoker does not know that National Cigar Stands are to be found in drug stores only. As agencies are established in the ratio of but one stand to every four drug stores, only the most prominent druggists can secure the right to handle the famous National brands. Green's Pharmacy Co. operates a National Cigar Stand and are now featuring "Cuba-Rome," Clear Havana 5c cigar. A typical example of National quality.
