

BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

—Mr. and Mrs. William Tibbets, of Bellefonte, spent Thursday in Altoona. —During the thunder gust on Sunday evening lightning struck the fire escape at the Academy. —Miss Mary Hunter Linn, of Bellefonte, was in Bryn Mawr where she witnessed the annual May Day Sports. —Misses Mary Bertram and Lizzie and Marie McGowan spent Sunday at State College with Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Stine. —No large catches of trout were reported during the past week. Cool weather and high water are not favorable conditions. —Mr. and Mrs. D. Paul Fortney returned on Tuesday evening and now are at home at the Fortney residence on Bishop street. —Horton S. Ray, proprietor of the Brockerhoff House, left on Saturday afternoon for Syracuse, N. Y., to attend the funeral of an uncle. —Mr. and Mrs. Brewer, of Buffalo, N. Y., have been visiting in Bellefonte at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Brewer, on Thomas street. —Hon. John Noll left Thursday afternoon for New York City, where he spent a short time with his son, Charles, who is agent for a large firm who manufacture laundry machinery. —Isaac Frain, of Marion township, was a visitor in Bellefonte on Thursday. He is one of the most popular grangers in Centre county, and always a welcome guest at the county seat. —Harry F. McManaway, of Millheim, was in town on Monday, starting out on his first trip as salesman after a serious illness of six months, most of the time in a hospital in Indianapolis. —A. S. Garman, formerly of Bellefonte, but who for a number of years has been a resident of Tyrone, has placed his order for a Ford car. He has had to have waited and gotten a flying machine which some day will have the auto skinned a mile. One advantage in the air, you will not need to take anybody's dust. —He who runs can read the new signs put up by H. S. Ray at the entrance of the Brockerhoff House. They are something novel and are bound to attract the eye. The Brockerhoff is the house scheduled in the route book of the Pennsylvania Automobile Association where autoists are given special rates, and now there will be no trouble for strangers coming in at night to locate the place. —On Thursday Samuel Donahy, formerly superintendent of the Pennsylvania Match Co., Bellefonte, underwent another operation for necrosis, in the hospital in Williamsport. His case is becoming quite alarming. The dread disease had become more deeply seated than at first thought, which required a much more severe operation than was first anticipated. It is to be hoped, however, that something can be done to bring about a permanent relief. —On Friday a lady in Bellefonte walked into the Bellefonte Y. M. C. A. and handed to the secretary a check for $50, stating that in the near future she would give an additional $150 for the work. This woman has been carefully watching the work of the Y. M. C. A. for some time, and she has come to the conclusion that she cannot invest $200 a year where she will reap larger returns than just in a place where young men are being trained and protected from much of the vice and temptation that is thrown around them. —On Sunday evening, soon after nine o'clock a thunder gust set in, bringing close on to half an inch of rain, which gave the surface needed moisture to assist plant life. Soon after the rain began there was a report from the clouds that far exceeded the most terrific thunder and about the town, as if a small earthquake had given us a shake. Many people were startled from their slumbers by the shock which was felt in the outskirts as severely as over town. Whether the report was caused by the electrical discharge or was the effect of an explosion of a meteor in the air, is not known. —One of the writer's amiable friends in Bellefonte is Rev. John Hewitt, and another is Rev. C. C. Shuey. They are both exemplary christian gentlemen whose life and character don't get thy of emulating but will balance of us poor mortals appear? This little paragraph is the result of a friendly conversation the other day in which it was hinted that we were afraid to say that "the" of the gentlemen were Heavenward bound. No, the Centre Democrat is never afraid to speak the truth, and nothing but the truth. We are always willing "to give the Devil his due." —You have often witnessed a football rush but the rush at the scene on Thursday evening was all hollow. Where the people all came from is a question, as the large hall was filled up several times. The Roosevelt pictures were very good, and gave general satisfaction. The audience not only saw "Teddy" with his gun, but they learned much about the country through which the ex-president and his companions have been traveling for the last two years. The pictures also gave the audience some idea of the wild animals that roamed throughout the far-off country. The show was a success in every particular, and Manager Brown is to be congratulated on getting these pictures at such an early date. Remember the show goes right along every night, when nothing but the best pictures are shown. —Last week we simply mentioned the fact that E. K. Rhoades and his sister, Miss Rebecca, returned to Bellefonte from Bermuda Islands. Since writing the above we have had a pleasant chat with Mr. Rhoades, who is much elated over his trip. As is generally known the island is under English control and you do not find anything like boss rule as you do in Pennsylvania or the other States. Everything is under the government control and everybody is treated alike, as long as they observe the proper decorum. The scenery throughout the island is perfectly magnificent. The cities are of a modern type and at the hotels the traveler can secure the best of accommodations. The roads all through the island are kept up at a great expense and thus they are among the finest in the world. So fine are some of them that automobiles are prohibited from running on them. Mr. Rhoades says that all the time he was on the island he only saw two automobiles. He visited a number of caves and witnessed their crystal formation which was beautiful beyond expression.

—Hon. J. C. Meyer left on Thursday for New York City to spend several days on important business. —Removing corns and callouses, relieving bunions and ingrowing toe nails is our speciality.—Yeager's Shoe Store. —Mrs. Theodore Thomas and daughter, of Canton, Ohio, have been visiting in Bellefonte at the home of Mrs. Cameron Burnside. —Rev. James B. Stein, D. D., formerly pastor of the Bellefonte Methodist church, preached a special service to the Odd Fellows of Tyrone on Sunday. —Col. H. S. Taylor has been elected a vice-president of the Fifth regiment Spanish-American War association. Hickok, of Harrisburg, expects to send her three children to Bellefonte to the Hastings home, while she and Mr. Hickok take an extended automobile trip this summer. —Milton Willard, who is on the U. S. battleship Georgia, arrived recently in Bellefonte on a furlough extending until May 17th, which he will spend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. I. Rhoades, on Linn St. —Mrs. John Curtin departed on Wednesday last week for Williamsport where she had her eyes treated. From there she went to Watsontown where she spent Sunday with Mrs. Joseph Baker, nee Miss Jennie Breesse. —Calvin Huss shipped his household goods from Bellefonte to Troy, N. Y., where he has accepted a good position with a shirt factory. His company in addition to playing a trombone in one of the large bands in that city. —John J. Bower, Esq., Dr. John Sebring, Robert Hunter and H. S. Ray, of Bellefonte, traveled in Williamsport a short time the other afternoon on their way home from a business trip to Loganton. They were traveling in Dr. Sebring's Franklin six cylinder car. —On Saturday the Bellefonte Junior League played two games. In the first the Walker's team put the lead onto Keller's team by the score of 8 to 7. In the afternoon Love's team swept Rowe's team off the diamond by a score of 12 to 11. They say that the umpiring of these games was N. G. —J. Howard Lingle has secured the contract for all the foundry and machine repair work for the Pennsylvania Construction company on their big job at Northumberland. This will give an increase in business and work for several years. On Monday Mr. Lingle foundry and necessitate the increasing of the force and workmen. —One of the latest to invest in an automobile was Irvin Bennett, of Gum Stump, who purchased the famous Franklin which Bob Hunter operated for several years. On Monday Mr. Bennett came to town with the critter smoking all over. Some advised him to run the machine in the creek to cool 'er off. —Mr. and Mrs. Orrie Ishler, of Trenton, N. J., who attended the F. M. A. Ishler wedding on Wednesday of last week, left on Thursday for their home. Mr. and Mrs. Willis Ishler, of Pittsfield, Mass., who also came here to witness the nuptial event, will leave for their home tomorrow. Both the Ishler boys are getting along nicely. —Dr. George F. Harris and wife, and John Shugert, returned on Saturday from Atlantic City where they had been spending several weeks. Dr. Harris has recovered almost entirely from his recent serious illness and will be at his office every morning where he can be consulted, especially by those who are troubled with tuberculosis. —"St. Elmo," at Garman's opera house on Saturday evening, was simply fine. The stage settings and costumes were magnificent and the parts admirably taken. As usual the show played to empty seats. It was an attraction worthy of a house filled with the best theatre-going people in the town. If you don't believe us just ask Andy McNitt. —Thomas A. Shoemaker is now shipping fifty carloads of slag a day from the Bellefonte furnace dumping ground to Northumberland to be used as filling material for the Pennsylvania R. R. company. All the material is loaded on the cars by one big steam shovel. Several thousand cars of this slag have been used to fill up the above yards, but it is so insignificant that it can hardly tell where it has been used. —Last week the Centre Democrat mentioned the fact that Leslie Jacobs, of Centre Hall, was taken before Squire W. H. Musser, of Bellefonte, under the charge of taking a watch from Miss Elizabeth Tate. In a letter from Leslie he takes exceptions to the word "theft," stating that the watch had been loaned and had gotten smashed up in an accident, and that he offered to pay for or replace the watch which was not accepted. The hearing will take place next Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock when the crooked places will be made straight, and we will have an opportunity to give a more complete story. —F. H. Thomas, superintendent of the Bellefonte Central railroad, on Monday was expecting a P. E. R. contract for the new passenger and baggage car to be used on the road between Bellefonte and State College. It is a vestibule car, 60 feet long, with six wheel trucks. The car will be run for a trial and, if it answers the purpose, it will be purchased. This additional rolling stock is made necessary because of the increased traffic on the road. They are hauling more express than ever before. Inquiries are now coming from St. Louis, Chicago and other western cities. Mr. Thomas says that the car purchased several years ago with the engine built in the car, which afterwards was found impractical on this road, had too heavy a track and too long for the sharp curves on the road. Mr. Thomas expects to find a purchaser for the car in a short time.

—George Donahy, of Salona, is in Bellefonte and will remain here for some time. —Miss Anna McCoy and Miss Kate Shugert, of Bellefonte, have been visiting friends in New York City. —We have more corn and bunions shoes for women than all the other stores in Central Penna.—Yeager's Shoe Store. —Those very large callouses on the sole of your feet can be removed just as easily as the boy knew his daddy. If you come to Yeager's Shoe Store. —Dorworth put the cleaner to Harter, the past week. You could smell garlic about the commissioners' office for several days, in consequence. —Y. M. C. A. day in Bellefonte on last Sabbath was a success beyond all ways than on one, and in the future may bring forth good fruit on behalf of the Association. —A. C. Mingle had the bad luck of jamming his new "Overland" touring car against a telephone pole the past week. The repairs to the front end became necessary, but it is in service again. —Charles Brachbill and wife are now putting things in shape to go to housekeeping in apartments on the third floor of Crider's Exchange. This means taking the parental string and launching out on the broad sea of life. —During the second week of court there will be a hypnotist at Garman's opera house. Those who like the antics of the man who can make you go to sleep and walk around like a Major General, without you knowing it, will have a season of real enjoyment. —This week a number of the rooms in the new portion of the Bellefonte hospital are being furnished and were immediately pressed into use. About $200 is needed to complete the new building, and that sum could easily be raised, if undertaken in the right way. —Horton S. Ray, of the Brockerhoff House, has ordered through Willard Hall, a Victor Victrola. It is a large music box enclosed in a handsome mahogany case, and will be used for various purposes in and about the hotel. The patrons of the house will probably have music while they eat. —On Tuesday morning Ed. Gherrett and William Ott materially reduced the sign in front of Milton Kern's barber shop, located in the Elk home. As it were, they clipped its wings and laid it flat on the main body of the sign. There is enough left, however, to keep the public informed that Mr. Kern is still in business at his old stand. —On Thursday morning at 9:30 o'clock Miss Ruth Bottorf, of Lemont, was operated upon for appendicitis, at the Bellefonte hospital. The young lady is a sister of William Bottorf and Mrs. John I. Olewine, of Bellefonte, and for several years had been an instructor of music in the ladies' seminary at Bucknell University, Lewisburg. Her condition indicates a speedy recovery. —Miss Sarah Ishler, daughter of Al. Ishler, of Salona, is in Spring township in the Bellefonte hospital suffering from a broken shoulder bone, and has been more than an ordinary sufferer, from the fact that the bone refused to knit, and as a last resort her physician was compelled to use wire to keep the broken ends in place. The broken bone was caused by being thrown from a horse. —Mrs. W. V. Hughes, of Hollidaysburg, arrived in Bellefonte on Tuesday afternoon and was met at the train by Miss Mary Ann McGill. Her husband is a contractor and a prominent contractor in Bellefonte, and a number of houses here stand as a monument to his skill and ingenuity. Mrs. Hughes always manifested a great interest in the community, and did much good work for the church and the W. C. T. U. —Charles Heisler, of Bush Addition, some day will lay down his hammer and chisel and just let his chickens do the rest. He is going into the poultry business on a large scale, and "peepers" are his thoughts by day and his dreams by night. He has erected a large hen house, and will raise 10,000, more or less, of the best bred to be found in the country. One of the first things he wants to learn is which end of the egg is laid first. —Mitchell & Coan is the name of the firm who has leased Garman's opera house and are now running each night a vaudeville and three reels of moving pictures. The pictures change nightly but the vaudeville changes each Monday and Thursday evenings. There are two shows each night—7:30 and 9 o'clock. The charge for admission is 10 cents for adults and 5 cents for children. The gentlemen in charge have had considerable experience in the business and they say they will bring nothing but the best entertainments here. —This week Dr. Buck, who has charge of a mission field in India, sent Rev. C. C. Shuey, of Bellefonte, a post card, the contents of which Rev. Shuey is greatly elated over, because of the wonderful success the native missionary is meeting with, whom he is supporting in that far-off land. On the 1st of January Rev. Shuey sent $25 which was gratefully received, and in acknowledging the receipt of it Dr. Buck stated that the missionary in question baptized 158 natives. This is certainly worth the money and Rev. Shuey's example should be an impetus for others to do the same thing. —On Saturday Earle C. Tuten transacted business in Philadelphia. His way home he stopped off at Tyrone where he fell in with kind friends such as Al. Garman and Bert Bayard, who took him a ride in the former's new Ford touring car. Al. never had any experience in automobilism, but that will come—when it begins to pull on his bank account for repairs, or when he has to crawl under the machine to find the trouble for not being willing to move. However, Earle says that Mr. Garman can handle the car with the dexterity of an old chauffeur. Clair Seibert, formerly of Bellefonte, was with them and they took a spin around Tyrone which was thoroughly enjoyed. —Today (Thursday) G. Ralph Spigelmeyer and wife, of Bellefonte, rounded out forty-two years of married life by celebrating their silver anniversary here they went to Williamsport, where they are having a delightful time at the home of their daughter, Mrs. John Huffman. Both the bride and groom of forty-two years retain their youthful appearance, with the promise of crossing the century line. Mr. Spigelmeyer looks just about the same as when he kept store at Woodward, years ago, and at night he would just hand over the key of the store to the long-winded politicians down there and tell them when they were through they should just lock the store, as he was going to bed. Mrs. Spigelmeyer has the appearance of the sweet girl of sixteen. They have many friends in Bellefonte and in wishing them many more such pleasant wedding anniversaries.

—This week the Emigrant, as usually tried to "hog" all the Spring Primary ballots, but Dorworth put the cleaner to him and was awarded the entire job. A stuck hog never squealed louder. —At a public meeting for women on Monday afternoon in Petrikin Hall, "The Women's Club of Bellefonte" was organized. Its work is divided into five departments—organized charities, the mothers' club, public school All women of Bellefonte, who are interested in their own homes, the communities in which they live, and the town in general, are cordially asked to join the club. The second meeting will be held at 3:30 on the first Friday of June, in Petrikin Hall. A. S. Black, formerly a detective for the American Detective Agency, of Indianapolis, Ind., but now a night clerk, book-keeper and general manager of the Morrison House, Philadelphia, has been making his wife, formerly Miss Hannah Mary Everett daughter of Michael and Amanda Everett, of Coburn, now deceased, a few weeks' visit. Mr. and Mrs. Black recently made a visit to friends in New York, Newport, Fall River, Boston, etc., returning to their home in Philadelphia. Mr. B. returned to his home on Tuesday morning. Those very large callouses on the sole of your feet can be removed just as easily as the boy knew his daddy. If you come to Yeager's Shoe Store.
