BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

-Miss Bodle left Bellefonte on Wednesday afternoon for East Liberty, Pittsburg.

-Mrs H.enrietta Nolan, of Bellefonte, is ill at her home on Thomas street with blood poison.

-On Friday evening of last week, Harry B. Pontius became critically ill at his home from an attack of acute indigestion.

-Col. Hugh S. Taylor on Monday fired up the new furnaces in the court house and thus far the heating apparatus has given excellent satisfaction. -Dr. David Dale, one of the leading physicians in Bellefonte, left on Sunday afternoon for Philadelphia to consult a specialist as to blood poison.

-Burgess John J. Bower has been confined to his home the past week with a mild attack of typhoid fever. Up to this time his condition has not been considered alarming. -On Monday afternoon Mrs. Ralph Mallory and children left Bellefonte for Philadelphia, where they will be the guests of Mr. Murphy, father of Mrs. Mallory.

-On last Saturday the big iron safe, formerly used in the office of the county treasurer, was put up at public sale and purchased by the Bellefonte school board for $137. -On Monday evening a lady, when accompanied by someone having a 30cent ticket, will be admitted to the opera house free. This entertainment is something of unusual interest, and will prove entertaining as well. -Frank Wetzler, the undertaker in Milesburg, on Wednesday secured a late model Franklin four-passenger car, through John Sebring. It has all latest improvements and is considered an exceptionally desirable car.

-The ladies of t ethodist chap-el, at Coleville, will an ice cream festival on next Tuese y evening on the lawn near the chapel. Money is needed by this little band of christian workers and any help will be appre-

-The Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows and the Rebekahs are now in session at Williamsport. Up to Tuesday evening 1,000 delegates had been regis-tered for the Grand Lodge, while the representatives numbered two hundred and sixty.

-The young man or boy in Bellefonte who desires to go camping with the Y. M. C. A. camping party next month, should see Dr. Weston, secretary of the Association. He is shaping things for a big time at a small cost. The camp will be near Howard. -Lieut. C. T. Arnold and wife, of near Boston, who spent two weeks in Bellefonte as guests of Judge Mrs. Ellis L. Orvis, left on Monday afternoon for Indiana, where they will spend the next two weeks among the friends and relatives of the Lieu-

-The Bennison funeral, yesterday afternoon, was largely attended. Widely known, brought many who held Captain Bennison in high esteem, and his comrades, survivors of the Civil War, attended to pay their last respects at the obsequies. The G. A. R. post, of this place, attended in a body.

game of ball is pro-May 25, at 2:15, afternoon. when Juniata College, of Huntingdon, comes to play the Academy nine. Bustend the Saturday games.

-Our town has quite a brigade of cigarette juveniles not yet out of their teens, yet feeling as nonchalant as the great smoker Cannon. Parents would do well to pass a strong prohibit, and police be advised to confiscate the health-destroying indulgence whenever seeing it in the possession of one of these hopefuls.

-A fast game of ball will occur this Saturday afternoon at Hughes field at 2:15 sharp, between the P. R. R. nine of Altoona and the Academy. The first game between these two teams resulted in a score of 1-9 in favor of the Academy; neither side bers were delightfully entertained at scored but one hit. Don't miss this second game. The visitors are practi- and at dinner by Mrs. Hewitt. cally professionals.

-Charles P. Barnes, who has been employed by the New York Jewel and Filtration company for several years, resigned his position to accept one with J. G. White & Co. He came home on Saturday to spend several days with his friends before going to Idaho, where the latter company is constructing an extensive irrigating system. This is an elegant position which carries a nice salary.

-Last week, F. H. Thomas, superintendent of the Bellefonte Central railroad, with William Bartlet, his foreman at the round hose, went to Sunbury where they selected a freight engine to be used between Bellefonte and State College. On Thursday Mr. Thomas received word from the officials of the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. that they had decided not to let the engine go. On Wednesday afternoon-Messrs. Thomas and Bartlet left for The addition of the engine was made necessary by the increased freight

-Special complaint was made in our office the past week by parties, conversant with the rules and customs of the National Game, that base ball contests in our town have recentare a fallure.

-Among the callers at this office on Saturday afternoon was Charles Haines, of Beaver Falls, one of the ex-Charlek pert machinists at the large establishment of the Standard Scale company. He remained over Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Haines, who reside in the Beaver-Hoy row. Charles is a prominent member of the Valley Echo Lodge of Odd Fellows in that city, and was on his way

-Mr. and Mrs. M. I. Gardner have returned from a very enjoyable trip to Washington, D. C.

-Every night next week a hypno-tist will hold forth at the opera house. This will be a new line of amusement for the public, —On Monday C. M. Parrish left Bellefonte for New York City and Newark, N. J., where he will meet Mrs. Parrish, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gearhart.

-Mrs. J. B. Gentzel, of Bellefonte, is seriously ill from a complication of diseases which are thought to be the result of an operation performed some time ago. She is also suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism.

-Rev. Fletcher Biddle, of Roaring Springs, who was born and raised on Buffalo Run, was an arrival in Bellefonte on Monday afternoon. He is a member of the Central Pennsylvania Methodist Conference and is doing a good work.

-This afternoon Rev. Dr. Schmidt and family left for Washington, D. C., where they will attend the Sixth World's Sunday School Convention. There will be no morning or evening service held in St. John's Reformed service held in St. John's Reformed became the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Lyon, on Curtin street.

-Laird Curtin was in Bellefonte on Moaday jubilant with the prospects of becoming an automobilist. He left this week for New York with expectations of purchasing a Stoddard & Dayton touring car. This is one of the best automobiles maunfactured.

had.

-Andy Knisely, formerly of Belle- home in Bellefonte. fonte, but who has been a resident of State College for several years, has to the merchants in town. If the mud He likes the billiard and pool business better, and will make that to sprinkle the streets. his future occupation.

-William Furey, one of the pro-gressive insurance men in Pittsburg, with his pretty little daughter, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Morris W. Furey, of near Bellefonte. Mrs. Karstetter and children. of Curwensville, have also been visitors at the Furey home.

-Col. H. S. Taylor will attend the the water when the boats will be freighted with thousands of Irishmen from this country. Thetrip will cost about $240, including transportation and all other expenses while there. Thetrip will cost

-Satanelli, the master hypnotist, next week, claims no power, simply a knowledge of a science which can be readily acquired in a few lessons. He

-On Saturday afternoon cobs, of Centre Hall, and Miss Elizabeth Tate, formerly of Bellefonte, fixiness men, here is another chance to ed up their difficulty in an amicable way by Mr. Jacobs paying the costs after which they took a drive and now everything is as rosy as rosy can be. It will be remembered that Miss Tate blamed him for taking a gold watch valued at $75. Leslie denied the allegation and thus ends the story. They are now just as good friends as ever. rectors at Lock Haven and Bellefonte, Nine members were present. The Rev. Lewis Nichols, of Lock Haven, read an interesting paper on Church in Colonial Days." The members were delightfully entertained at

-At the annual convention of the Episcopal church held in Altoona last week, the Rev. John Hewitt, of Belle-fonte, was elected a delegate to the National Convention of the Episcopal church, to be held in Cincinnati, Ohio, to Col. W. Fred Reynolds, who on being nominated this year withdrew in . -The Pennsylvania Railros favor of his rector. Mr. Hewitt has pany has been making some times from Ohio.

-James McCalmont, of State College, father of Mrs. J. C. Meyer, and brother of Mrs. Jane McCalmont, of Bellefonte, suffered from paralysis about ten years ago and since then he had been an invalid, being compelled to sit in a chair and moved around by friends. For years he and Capt. S. H. Bennison and John Holmes, of Howto make another selection, ard, had been close friends, when they all lived in the vicinity of Jacksonville. On Tuesday when Mr. McCalmont was informed of the recent deaths of Mr. Bennison and Mr. Holmes, he seized with another stroke which, in all probability, will be the closing up of a long and useful life.

-Rev. J. Allison Platts, Ph.D., pasby been noted for unfair umpiring, and tor of the Presbyterian church, left that teams leaving here were pro- on Monday for Milton, Wisconsin, for writer has not seen a game thus far help them prepare for removal from this season, therefore has no criticism their old home to Los Angeles, Cali- and gives the residents of Bellefonts to make. We only report what we form to the father the father than t to make. We only report what we fornia. His father, Rev. L. A. Platts, some idea of how the people of that hear, and we hope it is incorrect, for D. D., who for 20 years has been sta- age of the world preserved the dead. no true athlete will take a mean or dirty advantage over an opponent.

Athletics must be manly or else they divides in Southern California, and at it. In the window are also a numwill leave within a week or so for his ber of picture frames of Egyptian new home. His father is 71 years old manufacture that are also a curiosity. and his mother is 70, so this may probably be the last time he will see them alive, thus Dr. Platts' visit is of pleasure mingled with regrets.

He expected to be absent ten days. -H. C. Weaver, wife and daughter, Miss Miriam, of Harrisburg, are pleas-ant guests at the home of the former's bly wishing to have chicken for its Miss Miriam. of Harrisburg, are pleasant guests at the home of the former's sister on Howard street. They were dinner. Mr. Malone secured his gun formerly residents of Bellefonte and former's residents of Bellefonte and are accordingly warmly welcomed by eral shots had been fired it left and Mabel Thomas, - - - Benore Grand Lodge which meets in that city this week. He is a progressive young man and is getting along nice-ly. Among the other Bellefonters who ing that time there have been many long the other Beilefonters who are employed with the Standard Scale Co. is Christ Schrock, who is one of the blacksmiths, and he is living on the town. He is better acquainted top of the pile. The Standard Scale Co. are manufacturing the concrete mixer such as Milton Johnson recently purchased, and they have also sold the people whom he meets on the proposed with the people whom he meets on the two the purchased, and they have also sold the propose of the propose of placing a good team amount of concrete work at the court house.

Later Mr. Sankey was elected judge of the Wichita courts, and also held other positions of trust, being one of the most influential men in the city. Mr. Sankey was east about three years about six feet and a half from the eagle fell, and when measured it was about six feet and a half from Jersey Shore.

According to information received a guar-about six feet and a half from Jersey Shore the base ball entered to the people whom he meets on the streets. Wednesday he and his daugh-about six feet and a half from Jersey Shore the base ball entered to the people whom he meets on the streets. Wednesday he and his daugh-about six feet and a half from Jersey Shore.

Leonard Rhone, of Centre Hall, who is the purpose of placing a good team and they have also sold the people whom he meets on the eagle fell, and when measured it was about six feet and a half from Jersey Shore.

According to information received from Jersey Shore.

According to information received a guar-about six feet and a half from Jersey Shore.

According to information received a guar-about six feet and a half from Jersey Shore the base ball entered. To his astonishment the eagle fell, and when measured it was about six feet and a half from Jersey Shore the base ball entered. To his astonishment the eagle fell, and when measured it was about six feet and a half from Jersey Shore.

According to information received from Jersey Shore the base ball entered. To his astonishment the eagle fell, a

-Among our callers the past week

-Miss Laura Runkle, of Centre Hall, was a visitor at the home of W. R. Brachbill, on Spring street. -Mrs. William Keller, of Lancaster, is a guest at the home of Harry Keller and wife of Linn street. -If you desire to see the comet you must rise a little earlier than if you were going for a morning "jigger." has been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Bartlet, on Valentine street.

-Albert Engles Blackburn, Jr., with his nurse, is in Bellefonte to spend the summer at the home of his grandparents, Col. and Mrs. J. L. Spang-

-Hunter Knisely, father of John, George, Jacob and Andrew Knisely, is again very ill at his home on Howard street. The main trouble is with his heart.

street where the grading is now being the present. -Squire H. D. Brown has fitted up trusted to him will receive prompt attention.

-Abram L. Armstrong, who for a ilar position at the Hotel Rappe. -This evening the Ladies' Aid Society of the Bellefonte United Breth--Michael Kelley, of Altoona, was ren church will hold an ice cream so-his mother's grave. Each year he comes and plants pretty flowers there in testimony of his love and devotion to the best and truest friend be come.

—Miss Mary Thomas with a maid don't miss the Scenic.

—On Thursday Lieu and went directly to the Schad house Roland Curtin arrived to the best and truest friend he ever on Linn street, which she and Mrs. Lane will occupy while making their gotten tired of the livery business and were thoroughly scraped from the will dispose of his entire livery equipwould be abated and at less cost than

-Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Boozer, of Centre Hall, passed through Bellefonte on Thursday on their way to Pitts-burg where they spent a few days and then continued their trip to Joliet, Ill. They expect to be absent five weeks.

-One of the trout in the town spring sports an evidence of triumph -Col. H. S. Taylor will attend the lift over a night hawk who stealthily Irish Jubilee over in Ireland during the month of August. In every city in land baited hook. The trout tore the Ireland there will be a public demonstration of some kind, and to these special excursions will be run across kidnapper was around but was outwitted by the fish.

orchard demonstration work in this county, under the direction of Prof. Satanelli, the master hypnotist, county, under the direction of Prof. of Altoona, were united in marriage who apears at Garman's opera house next week, claims no power, simply a knowledge of a science which can be readily acquired in a few lessons. He resides the state Zoologist. He reports a good attendance at the meetings in this county, and some effective by Rev. J. M. Rearick, pastor of the Salona Lutheran church. When the bridal couple entered the room, Irene Levina Winslow, of Blanchard; Charles by Rev. J. M. Rearick, pastor of the bridal couple entered the room, Irene Levina Winslow, of Blanchard; Charles by Rev. J. M. Rearick, pastor of the bridal couple entered the room, Irene Levina Winslow, of Blanchard; Charles by Rev. J. M. Rearick, pastor of the bridal couple entered the room, Irene Levina Winslow, of Blanchard; Charles by Rev. J. M. Rearick, pastor of the bridal couple entered the room, Irene Levina Winslow, of Blanchard; Charles by Rev. J. M. Rearick, pastor of the bridal couple entered the room, Irene Levina Winslow, of Blanchard; Charles by Rev. J. M. Rearick, pastor of the bridal couple entered the room, Irene Levina Winslow, of Blanchard; Charles by Rev. J. M. Rearick, pastor of the bridal couple entered the room, Irene Levina Winslow, of Blanchard; Charles by Rev. J. M. Rearick, pastor of the bridal couple entered the room, Irene Levina Winslow, of Blanchard; Charles by Rev. J. M. Rearick, pastor of the bridal couple entered the room, Irene Levina Winslow, of Blanchard; Charles by Rev. J. M. Rearick, pastor of the bridal couple entered the room, Irene Levina Winslow, of Blanchard; Charles by Rev. J. M. Rearick, pastor of the bridal couple entered the room, Irene Levina Winslow, of Blanchard; Charles by Rev. J. M. Rearick, pastor of the bridal couple entered the room and the

> as the "Bellefonte Bulletin." Bellefonte news is being sent to Lock march as the couple entered the room. Haven by a special correspondent. The bride's dress was of Rajah silk who seems to be covering the ground over taffeta. After the ceremony the pretty thoroughly. He gave a very bride and groom came to Bellefonte nice write-up of the Elks' reception, and on Friday morning left for Al-and the other notes of the town were toona where they will make their fuinteresting.

-Senator Templeton and A. W. Templeton, of the Temple department store, councilman H. L. Ore, J. Wood -The Williamsport Clericus of the Miller, and H. L. Camp and son, Episcopal church, which includes the of Tyrone, came to Bellefonte on Satheld its last session for the season in the parish house of St. John's Episcopal church, on Monday, May 16th.

Were guests at the Garman House. Mr. Templeton represents the Blair and Huntingdon district in the State Sen-The ate and is one of its most useful and honored members.

-W. R. Gainfort, of Bellefonte, supervisor of the Central Railroad of Pennsylvania, was in Williamsport on Wendnesday where he purchased a large stock of flowers and plants. The plants will be shipped to Hecla Park, for the purpose of beautifying this well known park. Considerable improvements are being made at the park, and it is the intention of the management to make this place one next October. This bonor usually falls of the most beautiful parks in the state

-The Pennsylvania Railroad combeen a member of the General Con-vention of his church seven times— three times from Nebraska and four have been taken away and the surroundings leveled up with fine lime-stone screenings. It was found impossible to keep the flower beds in good shape, thus the screenings have taken their place. In the clump bushes, on the east side of the depot, was found enough of whiskey bottles to start a saloon. When everything is cleaned up the change won't look so bad.

-In the show window of the Index Book store is quite a curiosity in the shape of an Egyptian mummy brought to this country by Miss Daisy Keich-line, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Keichline, of Bellefonte, Sey years ago she and her brother, Several John Keichline, now of Petersburg, Huntingdon county, spent some time in Cairo, Egypt, and while there came into possession of some interesting relies, among which is this mummy.

-The other day T. A. Malone, Yarnell, was a pleasant caller at this office and in a conversation told of the oig bald eagle he killed the other Sunday after he had returned from Sun day school. The immense bird was it returned again and then Mr. Malarry P. Thompson, - - Bellefonte seek a climate more congenial, and lone determined that if he could kill Bessie C. Loner, - - - Stormstown this took him to Wichita, Kansas.

-Mr. and Mrs. Charles Taylor have were A. R. Moon, Merril and J. B. moved their furniture to Pitcairn Robb, of Blanchard. where they will make their future home

-Mrs. Caswell, formerly Miss Annie Swartz, came to Bellefonte the other day for the purpose of shipping her household goods to Scranton where she will make her future home.

-Charles Schroyer, a prominent business man of Chicago, Ill., arrived in Bellefonte on Monday afternoon, called here by the death of Mrs. Min--Mrs. Charles Smith, of Altoona, nie Harper. He at one time was well s been visiting at the home of her known in Bellefonte.

-Dr. Ambrose M. Schmidt, pastor of the Bellefonte Reformed church, and A. Lukenbach attended the West Susquehanna Classis which convened in Mifflinburg recently. They had a pleasant and profitable time.

-Clement Dale, Esq., returned recently from Pittsburg where he had been attending the meeting of the Su-perior Court. Mr. Dale was interested in the case of Commonwealth vs. eart.
-Work on the State road through for the Commonwealth. On his moour town is progressing, the operations tion the defendant was non-suited being confined to the west end of Linn which would seem to end the case for tion the defendant was non-suited

-The enthusiasm with which the pictures are being receted at the Scenan office in the basement room in the ic is certainly something out of the Aiken block, where all business enup from the vast audiences which as-semble there nightly. Within the last -Mrs. Joseph Mitchell and two lit- two weeks there have been pictures shown there that taught a moral better than could be taught in school or from the pulpit. The young man or woman who sees these truths thrown on canvas cannot help but be impressed that being sober and honest is the best life to live, although the broad road to despair has many en-ticing features and allurements. On the other hand, there are pictures the time put you in a joyful mood.

> -On Thursday Lieut. Commander Roland Curtin arrived in Bellefonte for a few hours' stay with his parents, General and Mrs. John I. Curtin, on here, has sis. napolis as instructor in ordnance. In three years from now the height of his ambition will be reached when he be made a commander. He left for Annapolis on Friday. Gregg Cur-tin, of New York City, also spent a hours here at the same home,

RECENT WEDDINGS.

Reed-Eddy. dy, of that place, and Irvin Gray Reed, known, brought many who held aptain Bennison in high esteem, and is comrades, survivors of the Civil last repects at the obsequies. The G. A. R. ost, of this place, attended in a body.

—A very interesting and exciting ame of ball is promised next Wed-mane of ball is promised the next was a country and some effective work done, especially in the young or chards the finds that thus far there is the finds that thus far there is the finds that thus far there is the finds that thus far there one, he all the cousin of the bride of a little cousin of the bride of the work done, especially in the young or chards. He finds that thus far there is the finds that thus far there one, he all the cousin of the bride of the work done, especially in the young or chards. He finds that thus far ture home. When the bride's trunk arrived here it was elaborately decorated with ribbons, water cans, fire shovels, old shoes, with a fair-sized doll baby strapped on top. Among the 80 guests present were Mr. and .lrs. Sellers, of Waddle; Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bricker, of Bellefonte; Mrs. Gray f Bellefonte, and G. C. Reed, of State College.

Stover-Lutz.

On Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock Dwight M. Stover and Elsie M. Lutz, of Zion, were married at the home of Elmer Bartley, at Milesburg. officiating minister was Rev. L C. Shearer, of Bellefonte.

Thompson-Loner.

Tuesday morning at the Reformed parsonage, Mr. Harry P. Thompson, of Bellefonte, and Miss Bessie E. Loner, of Stormstown, were joined in holy wedlock, by the Rev. Ambrose M. Schmidt, D. D.

Home Burned.

A disastrous fire occurred on Satur-day, May 14, near Pine Hall. The Loesch home, a two-story frame dwell-ing house with a kitchen attached as at the time. The house was occuby Michael Loesch and his wife, was Miss Anna Stine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Stine, of Hunter's Park, and were married in February and had gone to housekeeping in the Loesch homestead. It was a loss to the young couple and also to the

to left elbow.

Darius Blair, of Stormstown, admited with acute appendicitis; improv-William R. Gardner, of Howard, admitted for treatment.

Miss Bessle McCafferty, of Bellefonte, operation on Wednesday. John Zones, of Scotia, laborer in banks, leg broken, hit by a spike; in a precarious condition, due to inammation of the brain. Mrs. Tom Bressler, of Centre Hall, admitted for operation. John Clark, of Bellefonte, admitted for treatment.

Irvin Gray Reed. - - - Altoona Mabel Thomas, - - - - Benore

RECENT DEATHS.

BENNISON and HOLMES:-Two prominent citizens of Howard. Find sketches of each in the Howard items. WOOD:-W. Herdic Wood, director of the Repasz 12th Regt. band, in Williamsport, died on Friday from pneu-monia, after a brief illness. He was years of age, and quite well known in Bellefonte.

FASIG:-James E. Fasig, a son of Maggie and the late George Fasig, died at Wiliamsport on Sunday night, May 8th, and was buried in the Union cemetery, at this place. His death was due to paralysis. Deceased was aged 11 years, 7 months and 1 day. He survived by his mother, one sister and two brothers.

HUTCHISON: -- Ellen Mabel Hutchison, of Warriorsmark, died on May 17, aged 20 years and 6 months. She is survived by her parents and three brothers and one sister. Ellen would graduated at Dickinson seminary this year, but that dread disease, diabetes, ruled otherwise. She was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church.

BREON:-On Saturday night about 10 o'clock, the 1-year-and-9-months daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Breon, of Axemann, died after an illness of four weeks with whooping cough, followed by brain fever. a bright and interesting child and will sorely missed in the home. funeral took place on Tuesday afternoon. Interment at Pleasant Gap.

BARTHOLOMEW:--Ephriam Bartholomew died at his home off Water street, in Millheim, Tuesday evening, May 10, aged 69 years, 1 months and 21 days. He had been in ill health for a number of years but recently he had a stroke of paralysis from the effects of which he died. He was a veteran that drive dull cares away, and for of the Civil War and served his country faithfully until the close of Everything is run to the best interest strife. He leaves to survive a widow here last week for a day or so for the ciable in a room in the church, on of the patrons who always get more and two daughters, Mrs. Agnes Corl, on of the patrons who always get more and two daughters, Mrs. Agnes Corl, on of the patrons who always get more and two daughters, Mrs. Agnes Corl, on of the patrons who always get more and two daughters, Mrs. Agnes Corl, on of the patrons who always get more and two daughters, Mrs. Agnes Corl, on of the patrons who always get more and two daughters, Mrs. Agnes Corl, on of the patrons who always get more and two daughters, Mrs. Agnes Corl, on of the patrons who always get more and two daughters, Mrs. Agnes Corl, on of the patrons who always get more and two daughters, Mrs. Agnes Corl, on of the patrons who always get more and two daughters, Mrs. Agnes Corl, on of the patrons who always get more and two daughters, Mrs. Agnes Corl, on of the patrons who always get more and two daughters, Mrs. Agnes Corl, on of the patrons who always get more and two daughters, Mrs. Agnes Corl, on of the patrons who always get more and two daughters, Mrs. Agnes Corl, on of the patrons who always get more and two daughters, Mrs. Agnes Corl, on of the patrons who always get more and two daughters, Mrs. Agnes Corl, on of the patrons who always get more and two daughters, Mrs. Agnes Corl, on of the patrons who always get more and two daughters, Mrs. Agnes Corl, on of the patrons who always get more and two daughters, Mrs. Agnes Corl, on of the patrons who always get more and two daughters, Mrs. Agnes Corl, on of the patrons who always get more and two daughters, Mrs. Agnes Corl, on of the patrons who always get more and two daughters, Mrs. Agnes Corl, on of the patrons who always get more and two daughters, Mrs. Agnes Corl, on of the patrons who always get more and two daughters, Mrs. Agnes Corl, on of the patrons who always get more and two daughters, Mrs. Agnes Corl, on of the patrons who always get more and two daughters, Mrs. Agnes Corl, on of the patrons who always get more and two daugh forenoon, conducted by Rev. B. R. M. Sheeder and interment will be made in Fairview cemetery.

LEE:-After one week's illness, Mrs. Curtin street. He has not been here Amos Lee died early Wednesday for five years, although there is no particular change in his appearance, Colyer. Her death was due to paraly-"Rolly," as he was known here, has made good. He is a graduate of the Annapolls Naval school and since then Jacob and Elizabeth Gondor, and was has been fast advancing as an official born in Dauphin county, January 26, in Uncle Sam's big navy. He was an officer on the Alabama when the fleet She is survived by her husband and went around the world. Recently he one son. Ever since her marriage to was taken from the Minnesota and Mr. Lee she lived in the vicinity of placed in the Naval Academy at An- the home where she died, and was held in high regard by her acquaintances. She belonged to the Luther-an church and lived a christian life. Interment was made at Tusseyville on Friday morning. SNYDER:-Mrs. Susan Snyder, of Blanchard, widow of the late Jacob Snyder, died suddenly early on Monday morning of heart diseases. She had been in feeble health for some onths but her condition had not been witted by the fish.

—T. C. Forster, of Union county, was an interesting caller the past week. He has charge of most of the when their daughter Miss Ada J. Edona on child survives, a daughter, Cora, wife of George Berryhill, with

The J. Boyd Rickard played the wedding of Robert Miller, on Halfmoon Hill. Lock march as the couple entered the room. shortly before 11 o'clock on Wednesday night, May 11th. She was house-keeper for Mr. Miller and had been in her usual health when she retired about 9 o'clock. Shortly before 11 o'clock she began to cough and choke and ran out of the house in order to get her breath. She called for Mr. Miller and he got out and caught her just as she was in the act of falling to the grond. He took her in the house and laid her down, then summoned the neighbors and went for Dr. Dale. When the neighbors got to the house the woman was dead and so the doctor found her. The dead woman is survived by a brother and three sisters.

BROWN:-Charles Brown, of Belle fonte, died Saturday morning about o'clock in the Bellefonte hospital from heart trouble and dropsy. He was a bachelor and kept house on Pine street in one of the oldest residences in the The deceased was the son of Charles Brown, Sr., who died several years ago, and who was a well known citizen. The subject of this sketch was a laborer and worked around town at whatever he could get to do. He was about 50 years of age and belonged to the Catholic church. He is survived by the following brothers and sisters: William, of Philadelphia; Mrs. John Kane, of Lock Haven; Mrs. James Lin, of Karthaus, and Mary, of olumbia, Pa. The funeral took place Monday morning at 9 o'clock from the Catholic church.

ell, and a galvanized roof, was to to the ground. The fire appeared to to the ground. The fire appeared to at an early hour on Sunday morning, at an early hour on Sunday morning.

May 11, at the home of her brother. Carl Auman, in Altoona, after several days' illness with diphtheria. She was within a few days of being fourteen years of age and is survived by her mother, Mrs. Maggie Mentzer, and the following brothers and sisters: Carl. Nettle and Rose, of Altoona; Frank and Tracie, of Millheim, Burial was Loesch brothers, who were the owners of the house, on which there was no insurance. The loss is thought to be about $3,000.

—At a meeting of the West Brain.

—At a meeting of the West Brain.

Medical Society held in Lock Haven recently, Dr. J. L. Seibert, Bellefonte, was elected president and it was decided to hold the next meeting in cided to hold the next meeting in Oliver Witmer, plumber for A. Alli-Bellefonte. Centre county physicians on, operation on Wednesday for in-who were present were Drs. J. L. Seiwho were present were Drs. J. L. Seibert, R. G. H. Hayes, M. J. Locke and W. Feldt, of this place, and Drs. John Robinson and P. Hoffer Dale, of State College. SANKEY:-Former Judge Robert

A. Sankey died at his home in Wich-Kansas, at noon on Thursday May 5. Interment was made in city. Judge Sankey was a native of Potter township, having been raised on the Sankey homestead, near Potters Mills, and was a son of James Sankey. After the Civil war, in which he participated, Mr. Sankey took up the study of law with the then wellknown firm of McAllister & Beaver, and was later admitted to the Centre county bar. The west had attractions for him, and he finally located at Newcessful. In time he was obliged Later Mr. Sankey was elected judge

LAIRD:-Mrs. R. A. Laird, who at one time resided in Bellefonte, died recently in Minneapolis. KNISELY:-Hunter Knisely, one of respected citizens of Bellefonte, died Wednesday evening at 6:30 o'clock: at his home on Howard street, afteran illness of one year from heart, trouble. He is survived by a wife and the following children: John, George, and Jacob, of Bellefonte; Andrew. of State College; Mrs. John Meyer, of Pleasant Gap, and Mrs. Jacob War-ner, of Reading. At the time of going: to press no arrangements were made for the funeral/

HARPER:—Mrs. Minnie Harper, wife of Jonathan Harper, deceased, died at her residence on Linn street, Bellefonte, on Sunday afternoon at. 4:30 o'clock, after an extended illness. of about four months with a compli-cation of diseases. Her sufferings: were intense but she bore it with christian fortitude. Her age was 67 years, most of which were spent in Bellefonte where she had hosts of friends. She is survived by the fol-lowing children: Eulu, Maud, Jerome, Edward and Jennie; also by the folbrothers and sister: Charless and Harry Schroyer, of Chicago Hayes Schroyer, of Philadelphia; Mrs. Henry Hoffman, of Pittsburg, and Mrs. G. W. Evans, of Lock Haven. The funeral will take place this morning at 10:30 o'clock. Interment wilk be made in Union cemetery.

Talk About Sleeping. Women are like men when it comes to sleeping. Plenty of restful sleep makes a man strong and vigorous, and it makes a woman happy and beautiful. But both women and men care procure restful sleep by using Sexine Pills. It is well known that Sexine Pills produce that delightful relaxation that folds one's tired limbs in Nature's arms while the unconscious body draws new life and vigor. Sexine Pills are the perfect tonic. They are guaranteed. They cost $1 a box; six boxes $5, with full guarantee closed. Address or call on C. M. Par-rish, Bellefonte, Pa., where they self all the principal remedies and do not

Meeting at Advent Church. There will be a meeting at the Ad-vent grave yard, Boggs township, on Saturday, the 28th, 1910, at 2 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of electing officers and transacting such other business as may come before the committee. Everybody interested in the yard is requested to be present. By order of committee. J. Ed. Confer, sec'y.

substitute.

The Pleasant View Sabbath school, between Milesburg and Bellefonte, will have a festival on Saturday, May 28th, in the evening. Ice cream and cake will be served. Proceeds for benefit of the Sabbath school. Invitation extended to all.

NOTICE-TRANSFER OF TAVERN LI-CENSE.

Notice is hereby given that the petition of Edward G. McCrossin and Edgar Sheffer was: Robbet is hereby given that the bettom the Edward G. McCrossin and Edgar Sheffer was this day filed in the office of the Clerk of the Court of Quarter Sessions, for the Transfer of the "Loyd House" Tavern License, in the 2nd ward of the Borough of Phillipsburg, from Edward G. McCrossin to Edgar Sheffer.

A. B. KIMPORT,
May 13th. 1910 Clerk.

Penny a Word Adv.

Any subscriber can insert a want advertise ment in this column one issue free. If it does not exceed 25 words: Charges to others, one cent a word first issue, no advertisement less than 25 cents: two issues 60 cents; 3 issues 50 No advertisements will be answered from

FOR SALE-Second handed buggy, cheap. W. Patton, Port Matilda, Pa.

FOR SALE-Thoroughbred English Berkshire pigs 5-weeks old, at Dally farm, Romola, Pa

FOR SALE-200-lb. horse, good driver and saidler. W. R. Haup, Bellefonte, Bell phone. WANTED-A cheap driving borse, address T.
J. Fleisher, Spring Müln, Pa., R. F. D. No.

WANTED-Boarders and roomers at No. 154 E., Currin St., Commercial phone, No. 795, Prices *20 reasonable.

CARPET CLEANING-By vacuum process, attended to promptly, by Garbrick & Kerns Bellefonte. Bell phone 148-4. X20

FOR SALE—Two choice lots, situated on Burrows street. State College. Pa. Call or address, G. E. Haupt, Bellefonte. Pa. Bell phone. FOR SALE-early cabbage, tomatoes, mangoes, celery, etc. plants every Tuesday on the Diamond. Mrs. W. B. Johnston, Howard, Pa.

PRODUCE—Will buy eggs and chickens for cash and pay market price, call or phone, Bell 230-5. N. Itzkawitz, Logan St., Bellefonte, Pa.

POR SALE-I have secured the agency for the Racine farm wind mill, this mill will clean all seeds. Write for prices, H. G. Miller, Linden

FOR SALE-Day-old chicks will be ready by Saturday, May 28, 100 chicks $7., 50 chicks $4. 25 chicks $2.25. Call or write Bernard M. Stover, Bellefonte, Pa. R. F. D. No. 3. FOR SALE-Dark bay horse, il-years old good roadster, cheap to immediate purchaser also top buggy and harpess. Byron W. Hazel, Madisonburg Pa, Bell phone.

FOR SALE—Automobile the most successful car ever run in Bellefonte, carries five passengers, easy to run. In good condition. Price $300.00. A. C. Mingle.

FOR SALE—Merry go-round, in No. 1 running order, whole outfit and living tent 12-14, will sell cheap. Offer good till 15th of May. Apply to John G. Baudis, Sr., Benore, Pa. 14 tf

BEE SUPPLIES—I have now on band a full line of Bee Keepers Supplies of the A. I. Root. Co. goods with will be sold at their estalogue prices with 2 per cent of, with February orders. W. S. Villiams, Jul an. Pa. 17-tf

MONEY WANTED-Can place several loans of $2.500, as first mortgage on improved real estate in Centre coupty, at 6 per cent interest. Ample security. Consult us at once if you are in position to invest your money. Inquire of John M. Gray & Son, Insurance agents. Belte-

WANTED-bomes, for two girls, one 2 years, and one 4 years old, both hearty, strong children. The father of these children, John Estrich has deserted them, andil willether bind them out or they can be adopted. Any person knowing where John Estrich is will please notify me. L. C. Bullock, Overseer of Poor, Milesburg.

VIGOUREUX 2872—The French Coach borse, owned by the Bellefonte Coach Borse Company, can be seen at any time at the farm barn of Thes. Beaver and after April 1st be will be stationed at the following places. State College, Old Fort and possibly Millhelm or Coburn and then return to Thos. Beavers. The time when he will be at these places will be made known later.

On Monday, April 4th, will be at Thempson's farm. Centre Furnace for several days. Then at George Bradford's, Centre Hall; after which returns to Bellefonte.

MARKET QUOTATIONS.

Bellefonte-Produce. Bellefonte-Grain. The following prices are paid by C. Y. Wagner, for grain:

Oats Barley