

FRANCIS SPEER'S Breezy "Chat" Column

Should some people in Bellefonte should clean the dirt from their own door and let their neighbor's alone.

That sowing wild oats is apt to make a fellow look seedy. There are a number of good examples of this right here in Bellefonte.

That it sometimes happens in Bellefonte when a woman sees her husband looking happy and contented she thinks there is something wrong with him.

That several young married men in Bellefonte have said that a day before they were married is a great deal longer than the day before their rent is due.

That it is all right to say "No," but it has made many an old maid fighting mad when she sits down and thinks what might have been if she had only said "Yes."

That there are two girls in Bellefonte who are heartbroken—one because she couldn't marry a certain fellow and the other because she didn't. Can you figure it out?

That it is very bad taste for a young couple in Bellefonte to do so much spooning in front of other people. It shows they have more brains some place than in their heads.

That there are some people in Bellefonte who put on considerable style but they don't want you to try to trace their ancestry. That would knock them out. "Mum" is the word.

That if some church members in Bellefonte could find as many excuses for going to church as they do for taking a drink there would more pious men here than you could shake a stick at.

That should a youngster in Bellefonte swallow a $5 gold piece the physicians who kept a watch on him might be able, with Dr. Locke's X-ray, to say that he could see a great deal of change in him.

That a certain young lady in the North ward of Bellefonte says she isn't going to send back the presents given to her by a young man until she is reasonably sure the trouble cannot be patched up.

That because Supt. McAvoy, of the Electric Light company, intends putting in switches in the new school building doesn't mean that the teachers are going to do their whipping by electricity.

That "Reddy" Lane says that the majority of the girls in Bellefonte do not like to be kissed against their will. We wonder how he found that out? That's no place to kiss a girl, anyhow.

That they say a woman from Bellefonte went to Atlantic City sometime ago and she fell among sharks, and they were not in the sea, either. Murder will out, although it often takes a long time.

That there were certain people in Bellefonte who were brushing up their religion within the last six days for fear the comet might strike the earth and knock it to pieces. In a short time they will be at their old tricks again.

That it is the general impression that Horton S. Ray, of the Brockhoff House, Bellefonte, fears a man with a good appetite. That's a mistake, because Horton knows that a man with a good appetite can eat almost anything.

That this slaughter is needless. For people will watch for the early symptoms of cancer and in each case have the tumor removed before it spreads, the cure will be almost certain and the death rate from cancer reduced to a minimum.

That it is said that a certain young lady in Bellefonte was at the Crisman dance the other evening and speaking of a young State College student she said that his step was perfectly divine. That young lady wants to watch her "p's" and "q's" or we might hear from her later.

That it is said that the head of George Washington is to appear on some of the new coins to be used by the government. Isaac Mitchell, one of the oldest and best financiers in Bellefonte, says that George will be more than ever first in the heart of his countrymen.

That there is a young man in Bellefonte who says there is a young lady in town who after getting about everything he has she went back on him. The young lady who would act this way is very cruel, indeed. The young man in question also lacked a few brains in leaving any girl get in on him in that way. What is the use of pointing about it?

That there is a young lady in Bellefonte who seems to be very particular with whom she sits at any public entertainment. Before she attempts to put on so much style she should sit down some day and figure out from whence she came, and what right she should pucker up her nose at the person sitting at her side. She may not be hot stuff in her own estimation but that's about as far as it goes.

That there is a business place on High street, Bellefonte, where young fellows congregate on Sunday and play poker. They put up the stuff and this kind of actions on the Sabbath is becoming a nuisance to the neighbors. The proprietor may not know what is going on but it is his business to know if he desires to retain certain customers. A word to the wise ought to be sufficient.

That quite a number of Bellefonters went up on Halfmoon hill on Wednesday night of last week to see the comet switch its tail through this old world. Could you imagine anything quite so ridiculous? If the comet had switched its tail, and many of these sight-seers expected, Harts Harris and Frank Nagney, the local undertakers, would have had their hands full. Some of them were far from ready to meet the Almighty.

That a few days ago a rather bashful young lady from the country went into Meese's grocery carrying three chickens. She inquired of manager Will Conley the price of chickens and then laid them on the counter. Mr. Conley didn't know the chickens' feet were tied, and asked the fair dame if they would "lay" there. She bit her handkerchief and said: "No, sir; they are roosters." Something dropped just about that time.

That when a young man takes a young lady to a show in Bellefonte, which seldom happens, he is expected to provide the finest seats in the house. Could you imagine anything quite so ridiculous? If the comet had switched its tail, and many of these sight-seers expected, Harts Harris and Frank Nagney, the local undertakers, would have had their hands full. Some of them were far from ready to meet the Almighty.

That a few days ago a rather bashful young lady from the country went into Meese's grocery carrying three chickens. She inquired of manager Will Conley the price of chickens and then laid them on the counter. Mr. Conley didn't know the chickens' feet were tied, and asked the fair dame if they would "lay" there. She bit her handkerchief and said: "No, sir; they are roosters." Something dropped just about that time.

That when a young man takes a young lady to a show in Bellefonte, which seldom happens, he is expected to provide the finest seats in the house. Could you imagine anything quite so ridiculous? If the comet had switched its tail, and many of these sight-seers expected, Harts Harris and Frank Nagney, the local undertakers, would have had their hands full. Some of them were far from ready to meet the Almighty.

That a few days ago a rather bashful young lady from the country went into Meese's grocery carrying three chickens. She inquired of manager Will Conley the price of chickens and then laid them on the counter. Mr. Conley didn't know the chickens' feet were tied, and asked the fair dame if they would "lay" there. She bit her handkerchief and said: "No, sir; they are roosters." Something dropped just about that time.

That when a young man takes a young lady to a show in Bellefonte, which seldom happens, he is expected to provide the finest seats in the house. Could you imagine anything quite so ridiculous? If the comet had switched its tail, and many of these sight-seers expected, Harts Harris and Frank Nagney, the local undertakers, would have had their hands full. Some of them were far from ready to meet the Almighty.

That a few days ago a rather bashful young lady from the country went into Meese's grocery carrying three chickens. She inquired of manager Will Conley the price of chickens and then laid them on the counter. Mr. Conley didn't know the chickens' feet were tied, and asked the fair dame if they would "lay" there. She bit her handkerchief and said: "No, sir; they are roosters." Something dropped just about that time.

That when a young man takes a young lady to a show in Bellefonte, which seldom happens, he is expected to provide the finest seats in the house. Could you imagine anything quite so ridiculous? If the comet had switched its tail, and many of these sight-seers expected, Harts Harris and Frank Nagney, the local undertakers, would have had their hands full. Some of them were far from ready to meet the Almighty.

That a few days ago a rather bashful young lady from the country went into Meese's grocery carrying three chickens. She inquired of manager Will Conley the price of chickens and then laid them on the counter. Mr. Conley didn't know the chickens' feet were tied, and asked the fair dame if they would "lay" there. She bit her handkerchief and said: "No, sir; they are roosters." Something dropped just about that time.

That when a young man takes a young lady to a show in Bellefonte, which seldom happens, he is expected to provide the finest seats in the house. Could you imagine anything quite so ridiculous? If the comet had switched its tail, and many of these sight-seers expected, Harts Harris and Frank Nagney, the local undertakers, would have had their hands full. Some of them were far from ready to meet the Almighty.

That a few days ago a rather bashful young lady from the country went into Meese's grocery carrying three chickens. She inquired of manager Will Conley the price of chickens and then laid them on the counter. Mr. Conley didn't know the chickens' feet were tied, and asked the fair dame if they would "lay" there. She bit her handkerchief and said: "No, sir; they are roosters." Something dropped just about that time.

That when a young man takes a young lady to a show in Bellefonte, which seldom happens, he is expected to provide the finest seats in the house. Could you imagine anything quite so ridiculous? If the comet had switched its tail, and many of these sight-seers expected, Harts Harris and Frank Nagney, the local undertakers, would have had their hands full. Some of them were far from ready to meet the Almighty.

That a few days ago a rather bashful young lady from the country went into Meese's grocery carrying three chickens. She inquired of manager Will Conley the price of chickens and then laid them on the counter. Mr. Conley didn't know the chickens' feet were tied, and asked the fair dame if they would "lay" there. She bit her handkerchief and said: "No, sir; they are roosters." Something dropped just about that time.

That when a young man takes a young lady to a show in Bellefonte, which seldom happens, he is expected to provide the finest seats in the house. Could you imagine anything quite so ridiculous? If the comet had switched its tail, and many of these sight-seers expected, Harts Harris and Frank Nagney, the local undertakers, would have had their hands full. Some of them were far from ready to meet the Almighty.

OVER THE COUNTY.

Last week's warm showers and mild atmosphere have had a much desired effect for good on all vegetation.

Ex-treasurer James Gramley, of Madisonburg, a short time ago sold two cows for the handsome sum of $115.

Charles Fisher and family, of Danville, are visitors at the Fisher home. They expect to spend the summer at Boalsburg.

C. M. Dale, one of College township supervisors, is making some improvements on the roads in the vicinity of Oak Hill.

The Krumbine property, in Centre Hall, occupied for some years by Mrs. Sarah Foreman, was purchased by her at sheriff's sale for $600.

Rev. Frank Wetzel, the Reformed minister at Rebersburg, has accepted a call at Stoytown, and will move there some time in June.

New potatoes are marked at forty cents per peck—too high for any table, whilst the old ones are being sold at from twenty to thirty-five cents per bushel, and good enough for any meal.

Mrs. Sarah Rankin, who spent the winter at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. P. McEntire, at Altoona, returned to her home at Boalsburg recently. Mrs. McEntire accompanied her on the journey.

By the death of the late Mrs. William Allison, of Howard, nee Thompson, formerly of Centre Hall, which occurred several weeks ago, Mrs. H. D. Stitzer, a niece, has been awarded a share of the property which she left.

A fat bull was sold recently by Richard Brooks, of near Centre Hall, that netted him a trifle over $102, and a fat heifer brought some sixty dollars. This indicates that meat is not the cheapest food that comes on the table.

Preaching for May 29th, in the United Brethren church, Houserville, at 10:30 A. M., with sacramental services; quarterly conference on the 28th, at P. M. Valley View, at 7:30 P. M. By the pastor, Rev. E. Harvey Swank.

Mrs. J. P. Coburn, of Bellefonte, visited at the home of Dr. Huston, at Nittany, recently, and was accompanied by her niece, Miss Huston, of Indiana, who will remain a week with her cousins, Misses Isabelle and Evelyn Huston.

Word has been received by relatives at Linden Hall from New Dorp, Staten Island, to the effect that Mrs. William Felding, who was at death's door for many weeks, is improving rapidly, and expects to be able to come to Centre county for the summer.

Miss Ella Ishler, of Harris township, last week attended the assembly of Rebekahs at Williamsport, as a delegate of the Tussey Rebekah Lodge, and Homer O. Barr represented the Boalsburg Lodge of Odd Fellows at the meeting of the Grand Lodge in the same city.

George Meese, the merchant at Colver, will positively have his last auction sale on next Saturday evening. He had too much stuff over from last Saturday night's sale. From this out, during the summer months, Mr. Meese will serve ice cream and fruit each Saturday night. Give him a call.

Dr. J. R. G. Allison and F. P. Geary of Centre Hall, were spilled from the former's buggy at the Old Fort the other afternoon. The horse they were driving took fright at an automobile and became unmanageable. Dr. Allison sustained a number of bruises on the head and face, but Mr. Geary escaped with a slight injury to one of his toes.

Last week thirty-three nurses were graduated from the Training School for Nurses of the Jefferson Medical College Hospital, in Philadelphia. Presentation of diplomas was made by William Potter. The address to the graduates was made by Professor J. Chalmers Da Costa. Among them was Miss Sarah Neff, daughter of Joseph L. Neff, of Curtin.

Carpenter Aaron Thomas and a crew of workmen began the construction of the circular barn Prof. C. R. Neff, south of Centre Hall, is having erected. The barn is quite large, almost four feet incircumference, and will be modern in every way. It will require a considerable length of time to complete it, and will be the only barn of that style in Central Pennsylvania.

Rev. L. N. Fleck, pastor of the Lutheran church of Snyderstown and Zion, a few weeks ago tendered his resignation much to the regret of many of his parishioners. As an expression of their good will a surprise was planned by the members of St. Mark's congregation on the evening of the 19th. Old and young to the number of 25 gathered in the parsonage and spent a very enjoyable evening together. After refreshments provided altogether by the guests, the company departed, having brought brightness and cheer to the occupants of the parsonage. Rev. Fleck closes his labors on June 1st, and removes to Newry, Blair county.

Monument to Carnegie. Former partners of Andrew Carnegie, including Charles L. Taylor, Charles M. Schwab, William E. Corey, Alex. R. Peacock and Judge J. M. Reed, have decided to erect a statue of the ironmaster, almost twice life size, and to cost $60,000. The statue is to be of bronze and will be placed on a marble pedestal inside the entrance to the Carnegie Institute at Pittsburgh.

The idea has been under consideration for some time, and the contract has been let to J. Matthew Rhinds, the New York sculptor, who is now working on the design.

H. C. Frick, Henry Phipps, F. T. P. Lovejoy and A. M. Moreland, former partners of Mr. Carnegie, have not been asked to join in the movement, because of their antagonism to Mr. Carnegie and their present estrangement.

It takes two to make a marriage, but one can make a failure of it.

There is more Catarah in this section of the country than at other places, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local treatment, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it hereditary, because it proved Catarah to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment.

Hill's Catarah Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally, it does not drop to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the eye. They cure one hundred dollars for any one it fails to cure. Sent by circulars and testimonials.

Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio, Sold by Druggists, etc.

Take Hill's Family Pills for constipation.

CHAMP CLARK FIRES SOME HOT SHOTS

TEARS THE NEW TARIFF BILL INTO SHREDS.

POOR FOOD FOR OLD SOLDIERS

Another Exposure that Created a Sensation—Other Timely Topics From the National Capitol—Democrats are Confident.

The Payne-Aldrich tariff revision WAS upward. It was upward by approximately 1.71 per cent. It has already resulted in increased prices! Thus did Champ Clark, of Missouri, leader of the Democrats in the House of Representatives, thunder his reply to the speech of President Taft and other Republican leaders who are attempting to feed a disgusted public on the assertion that the Payne-Aldrich bill was "the best tariff bill" ever passed.

Mr. Clark's speech had been carefully prepared. It was a complete and effective answer to the many bald misrepresentations that had been manufactured by the Republicans, who are desperately in need of campaign material of any sort. Hundreds of thousands of copies of the minority leader's great speech will be mailed out by the Democrats. It is practically a handbook on the Payne-Aldrich bill.

To start with the Missourian denounced the proposed appropriation of $25,000 of the people's money for the purpose of enabling the Republicans to gather data with which to attempt to prove that the new tariff law is a God-send to the country.

He condemned the joker in the tariff bill. He deplored a condition which permits the steel trust and other monopolies to sell their manufactured products cheaper to foreigners than to Americans.

"It is true," Mr. Clark admitted, "that we reduced the duty on lumber, and that the lumber trust marked up the price of lumber $1 per thousand before we got out of Washington. And it is the duty of justice and of duty to do its duty it would by this time have filled the jails so full of lumber trust officers that their arms and legs would stick out at the windows and the doors. Mr. Payne, the Republican floor leader, says that he and his cohorts will meet in November. Glory be! glory be! I never looked forward to any day with such joy as I do to the first Tuesday after the first Monday of November except to my wedding day and the days on which my children were born. My Democratic brethren, at last, after hard trials and great tribulations, thank God we stand here shoulder to shoulder, heart to heart, solid as a stone wall, inspired by the spirit of coming victory. Democrats are getting together everywhere while the Republican party presents to the astonished gaze of men the appearance of a dissolving view. Oh, yes, my Republican friends! You will never see me again, because you can not help yourselves. And when you do meet us in November you will receive the bloodiest licking you have had since 1892. 'Up, guards, and at them!'"

Although the colossal sum of $5,000,000 is being spent annually by the government on the maintenance of soldiers' homes, the Republicans are forcing the old soldiers of the nation to subsist on from 11 to 14 cents worth of food per day.

An inspector of the war department reported that the food in the soldiers' homes was no more in quantity than that supplied the prisoners in the federal penitentiaries. An idea of the wasteful methods employed in conducting the homes may be had from the fact that although the cost of maintenance per man has doubled in the 10 years between 1898 and 1908, the number of soldiers cared for had increased but 7 per cent.

"Let your imagination spread this outlay of 14 cents over a day's food supply," suggested Representative Cox, of Ohio, "and you have an accurate picture of how the nation's heroes are being starved. Observe the evening meal, and you will appreciate what it was that moved Inspector Brewster to pity, and inspired his recommendation that there be at least a bowl of milk added to the scant evening fare."

Frederick M. Kirby, the young interior department stenographer who was dismissed because he admitted that Oscar Lawler, an appointee of Ballinger, had practically dictated President Taft's letter exonerating Ballinger, was the sole support of a mother, wife and two children, and he had conscientiously for five years to reach the position he occupied when dismissed. Kirby was positive he would be discharged if he told his story. He thought the matter over carefully for several weeks. "I concluded that any allegiance I owed Mr. Ballinger," said Kirby, "was cancelled absolutely when by his silence he became a party to an attempt to smother the truth." By making his exposures Kirby was probably treacherous to Ballinger and Ballinger's plans for turning over Alaska coal lands to the Morgan-Guggenheim syndicate. But it is difficult to see how he was treacherous to the public in whose service he was employed.

The new rates and classifications in the cotton schedule," says Senator Dooliver, Republican, "operate to increase duties very materially on most cotton cloths used for women's and children's summer wear, and on all mercerized cottons. In fact, the Aldrich revision of this schedule was one of the most daringly iniquitous features of the new tariff. The production of agricultural implements is largely in the hands of the trust, and the trifling reduction of 5 per cent. on these products was merely for the purpose of attempting to fool the farming community."

In his speech on the tariff Champ Clark declared that if President Taft had vetoed the Payne-Aldrich-Smoot tariff bill, he could have written his name among the country's greatest benefactors. "But he let the golden opportunity go by unimproved, adding to the minority leader, "and it will never return to him as long as the grass grows or water runs."

Comet May Have Lost Tail. Halley's comet may have lost part of its tail—perhaps all of it. In any event, Prof. E. B. Frost, director of the Yerkes Observatory, says the earth didn't pass through the tail Wednesday night of last week, for the tail of the comet which was expected to sweep over the earth while the comet was crossing the orbit is still in the eastern sky, where it showed from 8:25 p. m. to 9:25 p. m. on Thursday.

The astronomers at the Yerkes Observatory cannot explain the mystery and confess ignorance of the cause, admitting the possibility of the comet not having yet crossed the orbit.

A GENEROUS THIEF.

Gave Large Sums to Charitable Institutions.

After a plea of guilty of 13 of the 15 counts in an indictment charging the larceny of $104,000 from the South Bridge Savings Bank, at Worcester, Mass., and a subsequent recital of his disposal by gifts to investments of relatives and by bad investments of stealings, which he estimated at $270,000, John A. Hall, defaulting treasurer of the bank, was sentenced by Judge Robert T. Raymond, in the Superior Court on Friday to serve not less than 12 nor more than 15 years in the State prison at Charlestown.

Hall's speculations had their beginning about 20 years ago, he said, when he took $100 out of the cash drawer in the bank to take a flyer in Atchison stock. Experts who have gone over his books assert that about $600,000 is missing.

When asked by the Court what he did with the money, Hall read from a memorandum showing gifts of $50,000 to the South Bridge Y. M. C. A. to build a new building; $30,000 to his brother, Clare Hall, to help establish a sheep farm in Montana; $6,500 for the education of his brother, Frederick Hall, and to start him in business; $50,000 in a stock deal; various sums to the Good Will Home and the Home for Orphans and Little Wanderers, in Boston; to the Worcester Y. M. C. A.; about $10,000 to poor people at different times, and $20,000 in unfortunate real estate deals.

Hall said his living expenses had averaged $7,500 a year, and that his salary as bank treasurer was $2,500.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.

W. P. Humes et al to F. P. Knoll, May 14, 1910, tract of land in State College; $600.

Betsy Marshall et al to John A. Erb, March 28, 1906, tract of land in South Phillipsburg; $302.50.

A. M. G. Woris et al to John A. Erb, March 20, 1906, tract of land in South Phillipsburg; $400.

Susan Miles to Mary C. Sleke, May 11, 1910, tract of land in Boggs twp.; $350.

Mary J. Bechdel to C. B. Schenck, April 1, 1909, tract of land in Liberty twp.; $4,000.

David Chambers et al to T. B. Budinger, May 11, 1910, tract of land in Snow Shoe twp.; $5,000.

J. C. Allport et al to John A. Erb, Feb. 15, 1909, tract of land in Phillipsburg; $800.

Bellefonte Boro to Susan Miles, May 2, 1910, tract of land in Boggs twp.; $1.

Hetty Green, having accumulated a fortune estimated at fifty million dollars, is about to hand the management of this immense fortune over to her daughter, Sylvia, now Mrs. Andrew Astor Wilkes. For years Hetty has been quietly training Sylvia for the responsibility of this situation. Her aids, coupled with the care of making this immense sum have begun to tell upon her, and she seeks to divide the responsibility. Her whole enjoyment has been expended in making money. The poor woman never had time to study how to spend it. And now, her sole care is to so leave it that it shall continually increase and not diminish, and to this end, she devotes her waking hours. This is not a very high sort of existence, but it is the way with millionaires.

Every smoker will appreciate greater enjoyment and economy. This is just what the National Cigar Stand in Green's Pharmacy means to every smoker in Bellefonte. They now buy their cigars through the National organization of three thousand leading druggists throughout the United States. By purchasing together, these druggists are able to command better quality of tobacco and have their brands produced expressly for them in factory quantities. This explains how you get a cigar like the Flash-light at 6 for a quarter.

As a rule it isn't when they are in deep water that people get along swimmingly.

TERRIBLE CASE OF ECZEMA CURED

Body and Face Covered with Itching, Painful Eruption—5 Years of Suffering Beyond Description—Thought Death was Near.

WANTS WORLD TO KNOW OF CURE BY CUTICURA

"No tongue can tell how I suffered for five years with itching and bleeding eczema, until I was cured by the Cuticura Remedies, and I am so grateful I want the world to know what helped me will help others. My body and face were covered with sores. One day it would seem to be better, and then break out again with the most terrible pain and itching. I have been sick several times, but never in my life did I experience such awful suffering as with this eczema. I had made up my mind that death was near at hand, and I longed for that time when I would be laid out. I had tried many different doctors and medicines without success, and my mother brought me the Cuticura Remedies, insisting that I try them. I began to feel better after the first bath with Cuticura Soap, and one application of Cuticura Ointment.

"I continued with the Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment, and have taken four bottles of Cuticura Resolvent, and consider myself well. This was nine years ago and I have had no return of the trouble since. Any person having any doubt about this wonderful cure by the Cuticura Remedies can write to my address, Mrs. Altie Eason, 93 Inn Road, Battle Creek, Mich., Oct. 16, 1909."

The suffering which Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment have alleviated among skin-tortured, disfigured infants and children, and the comfort they have afforded weary and worried parents have led to their adoption in countless homes as a priceless treatment for the skin. Eczema, rashes, and every form of itching, burning, scaly humor are speedily cured by Cuticura, in the majority of cases, when all else fails.

Cuticura Soap (25c), Ointment (50c), Resolvent (50c) and Chocolate Coated Pills (25c) are sold everywhere. Write for Circulars, or to Mrs. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio, Sole Mfrs., 137 Columbus Ave., Boston, Mass. Get Mailed Free, Cuticura Book on Skin Diseases

DR. WAGNER DECLINED.

The committee appointed by the board of trustees of Gettysburg College to present the name of the man whom they consider best qualified for president of that institution recently held a meeting in Harrisburg. The result of the canvass as carried on by the committee among the other members of the board showed a very large majority who preferred Rev. A. E. Wagner, D. D. pastor of the Second Lutheran church of Altoona. Notwithstanding this very gratifying evidence of the board in Dr. Wagner's qualifications for the committee not to give his name any further consideration.

Itch Relieved at Once. That terrible itch disappears with the FIRST DROPS of a simple compound of oil of wintergreen, thymol and glycerine mixed in D. D. D. Prescription. This soothing, healing lotion, used externally kills the eczema germ instantly.

Heretofore the D. D. D. remedy has been sold in $1.00 bottles; but as a special offer, any sufferer in this town who has never tried D. D. D. can now try this remedy in a special bottle at 25c. It cures the itch instantly. WE KNOW THIS. Green's Pharmacy Co., Bellefonte. By mail 5 cents extra.

High Power Gasoline

No Danger

Waverly Gasolines

Waverly Oil Works Co.

Waverly Oil Works Co. Independence, Pa. Pittsburgh, Pa.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

Bulletin. SUMMER VACATIONS.

The time is coming for summer outings. Have you thought about yours yet?

No country on the face of the globe contains so many delightful summer resorts as the United States, with its near neighbor, Canada.

The Pennsylvania Railroad will issue its popular Summer Excursion Book on June 1, and you will find it a wonderful help in plotting out your summer trip.

It contains descriptions of about eight hundred of the leading resorts of North America, list of hotels and boarding houses at these various places, a map, routes and rates from the principal stations on the Pennsylvania Railroad, and other valuable information.

If you have grown tired of the resort you have visited for years, you may make a selection from this book for a stay of a day, a week, a month, or the whole summer.

You may plot out an extended tour covering mountain and seashore, or a fishing trip, or a hunting jaunt, by rail or boat or a combination of both.

Any Ticket Agent of the Pennsylvania Railroad will be glad to furnish a copy of this valuable book for Ten Cents, or it will be mailed you postpaid, on receipt of Twenty-five Cents, by Geo. W. Boyd, General Passenger Agent, Philadelphia, Pa.

JOHNNIE'S NEW PANTS

Little Johnny told his mother that his new pants were much tighter than his skin. His mother said "How could that be Johnny?"

"Well mother I can sit down with the skin and I cannot with these new pants."

This is the trouble with the average ladie's shoe. Come to our store and be fitted with a pair of they are made without lining, you can wear them tight, and we guarantee to give you comfort or refund the money.

FITZEZY SHOES

Yours for Comfort

YEAGER'S SHOE STORE.

SECHLER & COMPANY.

COFFEE

When goods advance on the market the retail price usually follows. But in regard to the recent advance in Coffees we have not followed the ordinary course, either by marking up the price or reducing the quality. We have found a new and more favorable market in which to buy the goods and maintain the high standard of our leaders at 18c, 20c and 25 cents per pound.

If you are using a Coffee at 20 cents per pound try our 18 cent grade.

If you are paying 25 cents for your Coffee try our 20 cent goods.

Or if you are buying a Coffee at 30 cents try the grade of goods we sell at 25 cents per pound.

This is a severe test but we are very confident we can make good. Give us a trial.

Please mention in which paper you saw this advertisement.