Samuel Harvey Bennison Who died at his home in this place on Sunday May 15, was born in Bellefonte, March 5, 1844, going with his family to Mill Hall in 1845, and to a farm in Nittany valley, Clinton county, in 1857. February 10, 1862, he was enlisted in "H" company, 55th Regt., Penna. Vols. His first commission came to him June 16, 1864, when he was made 2nd Lieutenant. On Oct. 16, of the same year, he was com-missioned 1st Lieutenant, and June 4, 1865, he received his captain's commission, and was mustered out of serwice on the first of July, having served almost three and a half years, and achieved an enviable reputation for bravery and faithfulness to duty. In 1868, Oct. 18, Captain Bennison married Miss Margaret, daughter of his near neighbor, the well known Perry W. McDowell, and began farming on one of his father-in-law's farms in Marion township, Centre county. To them the following children, who with Mrs. Bennison, survive him, were born: Perry McD., Pittsburg; (Jennie) Mrs. G. R. Worrick, Mackeyville; Robert H., Nittany; Guy C. and Dean Bennington, Washington State; (Bertha) Mrs. John S. Holter, Johnson-burg; (Emma) Mrs. H. M. McClintock, Atlantic City; (Nellie) Mrs. W. J. Torrance, Oklahoma; Miss Helen, Howard; and John, who died in infancy and was buried in the Jacksonville churchyard, where his father was lain beside him. He is also surwived by the following brothers and The Misses Jane and Mary, misters: and Mrs. W. R. Gardner, Howard; George C., DuBois; and Mrs. Sarah B. Sweeney, Pittsburg. He was a successful farmer, and in 1905 abandoned the business and moved Howard where he lived a retired life. When the First National Bank of Howard was organized he became its president, and held the place until he died. Captain Bennison was a man of positive opinions, usually based upon broad intelligence, but was con-servative in his expression of them. His business judgment was good, and his advice in business affairs often sought for. His fairness and integare fully attested by the fact that while living in Marion township, though in the midst of a large adverse majority, he was successively elected school director until he had served some thirteen years. His disposition was kindly, and he had the faculty of making and retaining warm friendships. In politics he was an active died May 19th. 1919, being aged 73 and consistent Republican. Griest, who preceded her a little over three years Mrs. Griest, whose maiden name was Catherman, was born in Hartle-ton, Union county, April 27, 1837, and to A. J. Griest in Tyrone by the Rev. Wm. A. Houck, Nov. 20th, 1861, to which union five children were born, three sons and two daughters, as follows: Edward M., of Philipsburg; Charles R., of Barnsboro; Harry R., of Mt. Union; Gertrude and Mary E., at home. All of whom stood around the death bed of their beloved mother, and witnessed the passing of her spirit from death to life everlasting. She was a patient sufferer from a compli-cation of diseases for over three months, and everything that medical science and loving hands could do for her was done, but it seemed that the edict had gone forth and she answered the summons, "Well done, good and faithful servant, come up higher.' Her end was calm and peaceful as the setting of a summer's sun. She was a life-long member of the Presbyterian church, a woman of rare christian character,, a woman whose whole life-work—whole heart and soul—was cenloved mother. Interment in upper cemetery. The following prominent citizens from a distance attended the funeral: Miss Eila McCan, E. C. Poorman, M. J. Watt, John H. Miller and B. T. Frazier, all of Tyrone; Mr. and Mrs. Penn Griest, of New Castle; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Smith of Phonethers. and H. C. Prutzman, of Barnsboro, A number of others whose names we failed to procure. OLD HOME WEEK SUGGESTIONS.

Let us have Old Home Week in Bellefonte. The New England idea of an "old home week" is a good one, when former residents may make return visits and the community have a general reunion and jollitication, has spread over the whole country. Why spread over the whole country. Why not have an Old Home Week in Bellefonte this summer? We can do it if everybody puts their shoulder to the wheel. The Bellefonte Protective Association might properly take the matter in hand and, at least, start the ball rolling. It can be judicially gotten up without going too deep in any one person's pocketbook.

Here is a sort of program that could be followed with necessary changes: The week might open on Sunday by the pastors of the several churches preaching sermons appropriate to the occasion. In the evening a sacred band concert could be held on the dia-mond. On Monday there could be a general reception in the armory where book should be provided for registration. Monday evening an address of welcome, mingled with some historical facts with reference to the town. On, say Tuesday morning, the court house could be dedicated and in the afternoon a big game of ball at Hughes' athletic field. Wednesday the new High school could be dedicated, with an address of some kind in the evening or a dance. Thursday there should be a big parade in which everybody should join. The day could be filled with another baseball game or something else. On Friday there could be an excursion to Penn-sylvania State College where quite a number of Centre countians have graduated. It would be interesting to them to mark the contrast between twenty years ago and the Saturday could be enjoyed by the vis-itors seeking their friends or driving Penn Cave or Hecla Park. There could be a fireman's parade or an auto parade that would have features thet would help to entertain the crowds. We only offer this as a suggestion and
