EDITORIAL.

The beef trust has raised the price of meat one cent per pound—it is higher than any time before.

The Democratic State convention met at Allentown yesterday and was largely attended. The three prominent candidates for the gubernatorial nomination were Berry, Grim and Munson. A friendly rivalry existed among these aspirants during their canvass and the result has in no way affected these same relations.

The Democrats and insurgent Republicans the other day, in congress, defeated the appropriation of some ten thousand dollars to purchase automobiles for the vice president and one for the vulgar speaker Cannon. Right—let 'em walk, same as the rest' of American citizens who can't buy automobiles with their own money. Both the above fellows are millionaires and made it all in office. Insurgents are of some use after all.

PRIMARY REFLECTIONS.

The Republican primaries held in this county on 4th contain a significant meaning, proving that fully one-third of the Republicans in this county are now in sympathy with the anti-Cannon and anti-Aldrich high tariff conspirators in congress. Patton, who carried the county, was the choice of the stand-patters for congress, and now faces a large per centage of his party who are not in sympathy of all with the company he keeps, and by the votes of the fair-minded Republicans—Emery men—in the district, Patton may be left in a woeful minority at the polls in November. Money was freely spent to aid Patton's candidacy, but that did not influence any conscientious Republican voter. The Emery Republicans and their candidate met with low abuse and misrepresentation from the Patton organs, who did the bidding of the Penrose gangsters, and had not the courage to do what fearless and conscientious advocates of right and justice would consider a sacred duty.

The "Republican" was out and out for the Cannon-Aldrich gang, and belabored Emery because he was endorsed by the Democrats for governor some years ago. Our amiable down town neighbor spits in his own face with the same breath since his own party, at the same primary, placed Hon. Calvin Meyer, the regular Democratic nominee, upon Mr. Dornworth's Republican ticket for assembly, an office of the highest importance in these days of graft, plunder and bribery—just what Emery is standing for, purity and honesty in the public service.

As for the "Gazette," it was simply a weakly Barclay barker, who had to stand aside because of his having been a nonentity in congress. The "Gazette" could create no sentiment by its barkings for Barclay with the hope of having a new lease for P. M. We repeat, the carrying by Patton at the Republican primaries will be different at the polls in November.

DALZELL'S DECLINE.

Dalzell of Pittsburg, one of the autocrat congressmen and high tariff and trust backers, Republican, and for over twenty-five years in the House working for the few rich and to the detriment of the toiling masses, elected to a dozen terms by thousands of majorities each time, at the primaries last week was again nominated (?) by less than 200 majority as per doctored returns. His Republican competitor, Dr. Black, claims he can prove that Dalzell resorted to bribery to make what he claims and he will contest the nomination and prove that bribery was Dalzell's crime to avoid defeat. To fall from thousands of a majority to less than 200, is a big come down for the chief of corruption, and that by bribery! This shows how stand-patism is losing foothold even in hide-bound and stalwart Pittsburg. The situation is the same in a dozen districts in the State where machine Republicans came nigh losing a re-nomination, and the discontent is so great that defeat is sure to be his reward at the polls, next November. The situation is the same in this district, where Patton faces a protest of over three thousand Republican anti-machine voters. Republicans all over the State, and in other States, are revolting against machine rule and its gigantic wrongs in legislating alone for the rich and against the masses.

An actor's ladder to success, one might say, is made up of rounds of applause.

AFTER PUBLISHERS.

The following item is from this week's "Bulletin," of Freeport, Ill., and shows that the Postoffice Department is enforcing the recent ruling regarding delinquent subscribers. In the case of weekly papers the limit is 12 months past due and for daily papers 3 months. It says:

SUBSCRIBERS MUST PAY.

At the recent meeting of the Illinois Daily Newspaper association an address was made by H. M. Bacon, superintendent of the classification division of the Postoffice Department. Supt. Bacon announced that the Illinois publishers would be required to at once put their subscription lists under the regulation of the department, refusing the mails to a subscriber three months in arrears. Failure to comply would mean a citation to appear in Washington and show cause why the privilege to use second-class rates should not be revoked.

Under the strict ruling of the department there is no alternative for the publisher except to exact advance payment from subscribers, this the newspaper association will do. A time limit was fixed upon which all publishers agreed to come within the requirements of the department.

This indicates that the ruling is not only being enforced here, but everywhere, and is not a "set up job" by printers, as some few imagine.

CLEAN UP BELLEFONTE.

Clean up day in Bellefonte which has been appointed for Wednesday and Thursday, the 29th and 30th days of June, means that everyone in the town within the borough limits or outside, owning property or occupying that which belongs to others, is asked to improve the appearance of that same property by cleaning your yards, your front pavements and gutters, your alleys, trimming your trees, cutting your grass and cleaning weeds from vacant lots, and having hauled to the public dumping pit all ashes and rubbish that may have accumulated about your house or stables, after you having burned that part of the accumulation that is burnable. The clean up day is a universal movement throughout the United States and should particularly appeal to the residents of Bellefonte when considering the natural beauty of the town and its surrounding country, and how that same beauty can be enhanced by a few hours work about your home or in lending a helping hand to the neighbor who is unable to do for himself. The children in this vacation time will greatly aid in interest them and arouse their pride, and the results will be gratifying. As Bellefonters, do for Bellefonte and you will not regret time so profitably spent. Signed,

VILLAGE IMPROVEMENT COM.

GRIM NOMINATED.

The Democratic State convention met at Allentown, Pa., on Wednesday, and there was considerable interest manifest over the outcome owing to the uncertainty as to the nomination for governor. Three leading candidates were, Munson, Berry and Grimm. A surprise was sprung on Tuesday by Munson positively withdrawing from the contest, for personal reasons especially his health.

Hon. Webster Grim, of Bucks county, was nominated to head the Democratic State ticket for Governor.

The Platform.

The platform declares the Aldrich-Payne tariff law a fraud and urges further revision of the tariff. The platform was adopted on Wednesday afternoon at the session of the convention and its chief provisions are: Wants the trusts abolished or put under control of law; greater economy in national and State expenses; favors safeguarding the public interests in public lands by conservation laws; declares for income tax; compulsory arbitration of labor disputes; publication of congressional expenses; liberal appropriations for social betterment reforms; the abolishing of party squares to prevent the nomination of minority candidates by the majority party; more power to the railroad commission to enable it to enforce orders.

VOTE FOR SENATOR.

The following figures show the official vote in the 34th Senatorial district:

	Centre	Clear-field	Total
Alexander	490	1271	2061
Reefield	175	1734	1909
Womelsdorff	672	1247	1919

On this vote Mr. Womelsdorff loses the nomination and the district to Mr. Alexander by 142 votes.

Over 6000 Republicans of the district of his mother, Mrs. DeHaas, in Liberty township, and had as part of the dinner new peas and potatoes grown in her garden. The potatoes were larger than hen's eggs. This is a record hard to beat in Bald Eagle valley. Strict out of 12000 did not take the time or the trouble to cast their vote.

About eighteen months ago he suffered from a stroke of paralysis and from that time his life has been slowly ebbing away. He was a man known in the community for his good deeds and kindness toward all those around him. Being a member of the Reformed church he tried to live a Christian life. His age was 68 years, 6 months and 18 days. He is survived by a wife and the following children: Mrs. Newton Yarnell, of Linden Hall; Mrs. George Rowe and Mrs. Andrew Gregg, of Centre Hall, and Enoch Sweeney. Six members of Gregg Post of Bellefonte attended comrade George Sweeney's funeral at Centre Hall yesterday—the deceased was a member of this post.

HASSINGER—One of the families in this community which has been sorely bereaved during the last few months has been that of Mr. and Mrs. Pleasant View, who resides at Pleasant View, near the house of Dr. R. G. H. Hayes. A short time ago one of his daughters died and on Thursday the messenger of death entered the home again and claimed another daughter, Miss Carrie May Hassinger, who was well and favorably known among the residents of that community. She lived an honest, upright, christian life, and was good and kind to those around her. Her age was 25 years and 17 days, all of which was spent at her home. About ten weeks ago she was taken down with tuberculosis, from which the young lady had been a patient sufferer. Surviving her are her parents and the following brothers and one sister: William, Harry, Charles, George, Robert and Joseph, of Bellefonte, and Herbert, of Williamsport. Services were held at the house on Sunday afternoon by Rev. C. W. Winey, pastor of the United Brethren church.

BAYARD—George Bayard died Wednesday morning about 4 o'clock in the Altoona hospital from blood poisoning. About two years ago he ruptured a blood vessel in the ankle of the left leg. Wednesday of last week he was compelled to leave his position as clerk in the Hotel Leroy, at Altoona, and go to the hospital. Everything was done to save his life, but of no avail. The deceased was the son of the late Colonel and Mrs. George A. Bayard and about 35 years ago was born in Bellefonte. He went into Parrish's drug store early in life and learned pharmacy. After getting a fair knowledge of the business he left Bellefonte and secured a position in Clearfield and other places, and finally went to Altoona where he worked in a drug store and afterwards accepted the position of clerk in Hotel Leroy. He was a kind and affable young man; being of a jolly nature his friends were numerous. One special talent he possessed was that for music, and was a fine vocal soloist. The remains will be brought to Bellefonte on the 1:23 train today, when they will be taken to the residence of William Zeller where they will remain until Friday morning when they will be taken to the Episcopal church, from where the funeral will take place at 10:30 o'clock. M. Goldenberg & Co.

About forty-one years ago Mr. Channey moved into Bald Eagle valley and located in Port Matilda where he embarked in the lumbering and agricultural business. In later years he became associated with Budd Thompson in the lumber business, the firm name being Channey & Thompson. In March, 1860, he was united in marriage to Sarah A. Peters at Martha Furnace. To this union were born five children, two of whom have preceded the father to the grave. He is survived by his wife and the following children: H. F. Channey, of Port Matilda; H. L. Channey and W. C. Channey, of Tyrone. Two sisters, Martha Neal, of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Mary Green, of Petersburg, also survive. The funeral services were held Tuesday morning in the Presbyterian church at Port Matilda and were conducted by Rev. Bergen. Interment at Port Matilda.

SUGAR THIEVES.

More Campaign Contributors Convicted of Stealing.

This ends the Government's second attempt to imprison the group of men responsible for the vast underweighting frauds to which the so-called trust has virtually confessed by the restitution of more than $2,000,000 in duty.

Heike is the highest official of the company upon whom blame has been fixed, and he now faces a possible sentence of two years in the Federal penitentiary and a fine of $10,000. He is 65 years old and broken in health and spirit. His counsel, in summing up, declared repeatedly that a prison term meant nothing less than death.

Convicted on all six counts, Gerbracht can be sentenced to 12 years in prison, with a maximum fine of $40,000. Like Heike, he is past middle age, being 63 years old. Several other big fish are yet in the net and will get into the same pickle. Right.

Teddy R. Near Home.

Secretary Cosby, of the Roosevelt reception committee, estimates that between 15,000 and 20,000 persons, comprising local and visiting organizations, will be in line along Fifth avenue, New York, next Saturday afternoon at the time of the parade in honor of Theodore Roosevelt's return. R. A. C. Smith, chairman of the harbor display committee, places the display of boats at something over 100.

JUNE ON THE GREAT LAKES.

Restful, delightful, interesting, and instructing, there is no trip like that on the Great Lakes, those inland seas which form the border line between the United States and Canada. And June is one of the most charming months in the year in which to take the trip.

For comfort the fine passenger steamships of the Anchor Line have no superiors. As well as the palatial ocean greyhounds which plow the Atlantic, their schedule allows sufficient time at all stopping places to enable the traveler to see something of the great lake cities and to view in daylight the most distinctive sights of the lakes, and the scenery which frames them.

The trip through the Detroit River, and through Lake St. Clair, with its great ship canal in the middle of the lake, thence through Lake Huron, the locking of the steamer through the great lock at the Soo, and the passage of the Portage Entry, lake and canal, across the upper end of Michigan are novel and interesting features.

The voyage from Buffalo to Duluth covers over eleven hundred miles in the five days journey. Leaving Buffalo, the steamships Juniata, Tionesta and Octorara, make stops at Erie, Cleveland, Detroit, Mackinac Island, the Soo, Marquette, Houghton and Hancock, and Duluth.

The 1910 season opened on May 31, when the Steamer Tionesta made her first sailing from Buffalo.

The Anchor Line is the Great Lake Annex of the Pennsylvania Railroad, and the service measures up to the high standard set by the "Standard Railroad of America."

An illustrated folder, giving sailing dates of steamers, rates of fare, and other information is in course of preparation, and may be obtained when ready from any Pennsylvania Railroad Ticket Agent, who is also prepared to book passengers who may desire to take this trip through the Great Lakes and back.
