THE NEWS IN CONDENSED FORM FROM ALL PARTS OF THE COUNTY

WINGATE.

Ell Stere will hold a lawn fete for the benefit of the telephone, on Saturday evening, June 18th, on the P. R. R. lawn here. Don't forget the date and also bring your friends.

Chas. McLaughlin has in his lot here a pear tree containing pears and is now in blossom for the second time this season.

Raymond Fisher, employed by the P. R. R. Co., at Tyrone, returned home on Friday with a badly cut head.

Mrs. John Smith, Mrs. Mary Brown and Mrs. Leander Bumgardner are on the sick list; and James Snyder and son, George, and Harry Haines comprise the injured list of the week.

Veris Way and sister, Myra, of Stormstown, spent a few days here last week with their brother, L. S. Way and wife.

Theresa Watson, who has been visiting her mother and friends here, left on Monday for Bellefonte and vicinity.

Marlin Ragen, one of our up-to-date young men, received the appointment as P. R. R. extra telegraph operator last week.

John T. Haines, one of our esteemed and venerable citizens, desires to express his sincere thanks to his many friends who remembered him by post card shower on his 68th birthday on Friday.

L. S. Way, the jovial and efficient second trick P. R. R. operator here, was called to Tyrone last week to fill a higher position in the main office there. More power to you, Zeb.

R. M. McLaughlin and Thomas Summers, two of our star ball players, spent Sunday evening with friends at Curtin.

Everybody is invited to attend the rehearsals of the Children's Day service and help make the same a success.

Mrs. John Benner and daughter, of Chicago, are spending some time here with her sister, Mrs. Henry Estrict. You never miss the water until the pump is broken was illustrated here last week.

Harry Haines, who has been employed by a lumber firm at Pentfield, Pa., returned home on Wednesday with his foot cut.

Clara J. Warner, of Bellefonte, spent a few days here last week.

Charles B. Harnish, of Tyrone, Sundayed at his home here.

Joseph Fisher and brother, John, spent a few days last week with relatives and friends at Tyrone, Bellwood and various points.

Mrs. Thomas Murray, who has been confined to her home by her illness for several months, is able to be out doors again.

LEMONT.

Lemont citizens and surrounding neighborhood are very much pleased to know that Dr. C. F. Allen, of Halifax, Pa., has leased the Dr. Dale home and will locate in Lemont for the practice of his profession, on Wednesday, June 15th. The doctor comes to his new home highly recommended as a physician and surgeon.

Monday evening of last week J. B. Mayes, of Lemont, received a telegram from Dwight, Ill., saying his brother, R. H. Mayes, of that place, passed away on Sunday forenoon, June 13th. The deceased was the seventh and youngest son of John and Eleanor Mayes, and was born at or near Centre Furnace, June 25, 1859.

Lemont is going to have a building boom. Mrs. De Dale has just had a number of building lots surveyed from her farm, adjoining town. Several lots are already sold with more to follow.

E. C. Ross is having the big house on the corner repainted, together with the outbuildings; with this improvement only three houses in Lemont are now unpaired. We hope these will also take on the new dress.

Schreck Bros. are certainly doing a nice business in supplying many fine wagons and carriages from their new plant.

Mrs. William Williams, who was badly hurt by being thrown from her buggy on Decoration Day, is rapidly recovering.

J. B. Mayes returned home on Wednesday evening after spending a week in Milton and Watsonstown visiting.

VALLEY VIEW.

William Shadle fell from a cherry tree last week and received serious injuries from which he is slowly recovering.

David Knox failed to induce water to flow into his new well, so now he is trying to compel it to come in by using a force pump. We all wish him success.

Carl Garbick and wife are doing a prosperous business in this place, selling all kinds of merchandise and straw hats.

The stone quarries somewhat resemble a duck pond. When the laborers paddle around in the mud they can hardly suppress the "quack, quack." How about it, Christ.

Harvey Bradley, wife and baby have been on the sick list for several days, but all are improving.

H. Bradley got fourteen chickens out of thirteen eggs. Don't that beat the incubator? Call and see them.

Mrs. James Rowan returned home this week from a visit to her father's in Houersville.

James Rowan seems to be the busiest man around here.

SOBER.

Miss Annie Auman, of near Coburn, spent Saturday at U. G. Auman's.

M. C. Vonada, wife and daughter, Marion, also Mrs. J. J. Gentzel, attended the funeral of Mrs. Cook Cook, at Lock Haven last Monday.

Miss Furi Auman made a business trip to Aaronsburg on Thursday.

Benjamin Shaffer, who is working at State College, was home over Sunday.

Two of our young ladies expect to take a trip to Pittsburg in the near future. There must be some attraction out there.

Ezra Confer and Andrew Sheesley are busy making paper wood for Uriah Auman.

TYLERSVILLE.

Our base ball team went to Loganston on Saturday and came back defeated. This was their first defeat for the season. They played good ball all right, but were outclassed by Loganston's hitting strength.

Samuel Smith, Roy Weaver and Floyd Miller attended teachers' examination at Clintonville on Wednesday.

A. S. Greeninger was a business visitor at Loganston on Saturday.

The I. O. O. F. of Rebersburg together with the P. O. E. of A. P. place will have their decoration exercises on Saturday.

WADDLE.

Miss Clara Watson, of Bush Hollow, was an over Sunday visitor at the Pownell home here.

Miss Laura Confer, of Snow Shoe, is spending some time here with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Yarnell.

Rev. Eldridge and wife, of Milesburg, were callers at this place recently.

Seymour Confer, who has been confined to his bed with rheumatism, is improving.

Mrs. J. A. Confer has returned to her home here after several weeks' stay with her daughter, at Beech Creek.

Martin Fetzer and bride, of Altoona, came down last week to visit relatives at this place, and on Friday night our band of calthumpians gave them a brilliant serenade. Of course everything went off lovely and there were no stones thrown. Ears are well cared for now.

The sick of our community are improving.

Misses Anna and Bessie Shank, accompanied by their uncle, Jonathan Packer, left Tuesday for St. Louis where Miss Bessie will enter the St. Louis sanitarium for treatment.

Floyd Breth and Clyde Poorman, accompanied by their lady friends, Cynthia Boyer and Lizzie Breth, attended the festival at Howard on Saturday night.

A party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Shank on Friday evening, in honor of their daughter, Bessie, previous to her departure for St. Louis. Those present were: Carrie Wensel, Delpha Yarnell, Lucetta Heaton, Esther Wooster, Trixie Confer, Marcella Boyer, Sara Shawley, Amber Confer, Nora Walker, Myrtle Heaton, Anna and Bessie Shank, Ralph Malone, Aaron Fetzer, Milford Cox, Claire Shawley, Oscar Wensel, Clement Shope, John Shank, Gledon Fetzer and Fred Kessling.

Preaching service in the U. B. church on next Sunday evening at 8 p. m., by Rev. Hamilton.

H. O. Miller spent last week in Howard with his moving picture show, and reports good success.

BENORE.

Quite a number of our Scotia people attended commencement on Monday.

Miss Margaret Young is spending a week with her uncle, P. E. Hicks.

Miss Stella Williams spent a few days last week with Ruth Cronmiller at Lemont.

The Scotia band held a concert in the grove on Sunday afternoon. The music was fine.

Hettie and Viola Lauffer spent Sunday with their brother, J. E. Lauffer, at Buffalo Run.

Thomas G. Haugh visited his parents week, at State College.

Harry Bottorf, of Runville, visited his sick mother a few days last week.

Some of the young people attended the Children's Day services at Fillmore on Saturday evening.

Mrs. Blanche Mattern is attending commencement at State College this week.

Thomas and Marie Haugh entertained a number of their friends last Monday evening; they spent the evening playing games, singing and music, after which a delicious repast was served. Those present from State College were: Messrs. Louis Michner, Dan Perdy, Arthur Fisher, Dean Cameron, from Benore: Misses Margaret Eoup, Ina Cronmiller, Grace Farber, Henrietta Lauffer, Viola Lauffer, Anna Reed, Harry Pennington, Malvin Lykens, Roy Mattern, Ethel Shively; everyone had a glorious time.

RUNVILLE.

Clyde Dutrom and wife, of Centre Hall, also Adam Reish and wife, of Zion, were guests of the Louck family on Saturday.

Austin Lucas and family, of Altoona, came down from that city on Saturday to visit among friends.

Thomas Griffiths and two children, Daley and Reuben, of Phillipsburg, spent Friday at the home of Mrs. Jayne Lucas's.

Mrs. Ida Poorman transacted business in Bellefonte on Saturday.

E. S. Bennett, of Pennfield, spent the Sabbath with his family.

Thomas Shawley, of Pleasant Valley, was a canvassing agent on our streets last week.

A few nights recently two gentlemen of Bellefonte were seen wending their way along "Lovers Lane," there to meet two fair damsels of the same town. Of course they thought no one would see them coming in the back way, but they are fool, and this isn't the first time they were caught.

If automobiles and horses could talk, they could tell some of the married ladies of Bellefonte some secrets they would like to know.

MADISONSBURG.

Miles Breen and Walter Heckman were seen in town on Saturday evening; although the boys make regular visits to this place on Saturday evenings, we cannot learn the attraction.

The schools in this township were given out last week, and were assigned to the same teachers as the previous year.

Katie Yearick and mother visited at the home of Adam Vonada on Sunday evening.

Maude Fiedler spent a pleasant Sunday evening with her friend, Miss Daugherty, at the home of J. B. Hazel.

The fishermen of this place are not doing much fishing at present, they are all waiting on warm weather.

On Saturday evening a week ago there was a sidewalk concert held in front of the home of J. J. Gramley. The party did fine, only the party that hadn't the game got the blame for it.

Mrs. T. B. Everett, who has been on the sick list for some time, is slowly improving.

George Showers had his family out for a drive with the few horse on Sunday afternoon.

FILLMORE.

The Epworth League will hold a festival next Saturday evening in the churchyard, and will serve strawberries and all the delicacies of the season. All are invited.

We are still having lots of wet weather and the farmers cannot work their corn and potatoes.

Ed Taylor, our huckster, has made several extra trips to State College with chickens and turkeys this week on account of commencement.

There will be a couple of our young men going up to the moon some of these days. How about it, Harry and Paul?

SPRING MILLS.

Too much rainy weather for the farmers' corn is not good; it is not growing much and there will not be any grain cut by July 4th.

Ed Brown caught a fine California trout on Saturday and it measured 18 1-2 inches and weighed 2 1-2 lbs. was a beauty. The fishermen are many and the fish are few.

The extra station agent is getting very popular in his business. If you have a satchel or suit case left in the station ten minutes, he will charge you ten cents—that is if you pay it. Shame on such accommodating agents. They ought to be reported to headquarters. This station has had the reputation for kind and obliging officials.

Mrs. T. M. Gramley and daughter, Orpha, spent a day in Centre Hall.

Warren Corl, wife and daughter, Bertha, of Reading, spent a couple of days with Smith Bros. Mr. Corl is agent for Luton chewing gum, of Reading.

John Rishel, the hustling merchant, is always to the front with the up-to-date styles of dress goods.

H. B. Hening, William Pealer and John Smith, were to Wolfe's Store to view a bridge. A new bridge was recommended.

Wilbur Rishel, of Montgomery, had a breakdown with his auto. He had to leave it here for a week till he got the repairs.

Mr. Robert Finkle, while driving race, his horse became unmanageable and ran off. No one was hurt but the buggy was badly damaged. Women take warning and don't run races.

Spring Mills No. 2

The school directors elected the following teachers for the ensuing year: Spring Mills High school—U. A. Moyer; grammar school—S. G. Walker; intermediate school—A. L. Duck; primary—M. T. Zuber; Penn Hall—Ella Condy; Cross—Rohas—William Haney; Beaver Dam—C. E. Royer; Farmers' Mills—Harry Brunhart; Logan—Harry Hubler; Murray—Theresa Rachau; Hoy—Rev. Haney; Polk Hill—Roy Corman; Decker—Cora Brown; Mountain—Bruce Hagan; Pike—not decided.

There are still some cases of measles here.

C. C. Bartges, our expert violinist, furnished the violin music for the Evangelical Children's Day service at Farmers Mills last Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Corfan are recovering from an attack of the grippe. Dr. Braucht has beautified his home by having all the buildings repainted. The talk of the weather at present is too much rain.

H. F. Rossmas sells new potatoes at 35 cents per peck.

PINE GROVE MILLS.

John Ripka and daughter returned home on Monday after a short visit in Altoona.

The Reid sisters are having their home beautified by a fresh coat of paint; J. O. Smith and son are doing the work.

Last Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Heberling gave a reception in honor of their son, Musser, and wife; they entertained about twenty guests.

Mr. Wesley, while playing in the back yard at her home, Anna Krebs, daughter of N. T. Krebs, fell from a box and broke her arm, but we are glad to report that she is getting along very nicely.

Emory Johnson, of Phillipsburg, was a caller in our town a few days last week; on his return he was accompanied by R. G. Markie, who expects to make that place his home for a while.

J. W. Sunday attended the encampment of the G. A. R. at Harrisburg last week.

Ralph Rishel, of Boalsburg, was here last Wednesday doing some photographic work for George Smith.

Miss Grace Dale returned home on Saturday after a pleasant visit at Pittsburg.

Miss Mary and Elizabeth Everts are spending a few weeks at Oak Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Goss, of Brookville, are visiting with Mrs. Rebecca Ard.

Mrs. Edward Gentzel and sons, of Linden Hall, spent Monday with her sister, Mrs. Calvin Bailey.

Mrs. J. N. Everts and Mrs. H. N. Walker and son spent Thursday with A. C. Peters and wife, at Oak Hall.

Samuel Hartzler, of Pittsburg, was a pleasant caller at the J. N. Everts home on Monday evening.

Mrs. Samuel Goss and children, of Junata, are visiting with William Goss and family.

A number of people from this place are attending commencement at State College this week.

JULIAN.

The new fence which has been placed around the Julian cemetery makes a nice appearance and was badly needed.

Quite a number attended the Children's Day service at Martha on Sunday evening from this place. They reported that the exercises were fine.

The M. E. church will hold a festival in the near future; date will be given later.

Fishing is becoming a popular pastime with some of our young ladies.

Elmer Williams, who has been employed on the railroad here for the past three years, has moved his family to Milesburg, he being promoted to watchman at Bellefonte station.

Mr. Williams is a good trustworthy employee and we wish him success in his new field of labor.

Services next Sunday as follows: At the U. B. church at 10:30 a. m., by Rev. Swank; and at the M. E. church at 7:30 p. m., by Rev. Ake.

There will be Children's Day exercises held in the M. E. church Sunday evening, June 25.
