Correspondents' Department

with an occasional hoary frost retarded the growth of vegetation. Lutheran church on Sunday morn-Most of the clover is very short; corn ing. is small and yellow for want of sunshine and warmer weather.

about the cutworms cutting off the present. corn and garden vegetables; some of We a Children's Day exercises were held in the Reformed church on Sunday morning at 10:30, conducted by the pastor, Rev. H. I. Crow. The audience was not very large, owing to rain, but the exercises were good and the places. The new walk from the center of the the exercises were good and the pieces rendered by the little folks were fine. Due credit to Miss Mary Struble for way, and when completed will make her painstaking in preparing them for quite an improvement to the town. the occasion.

Our supervisors are busy crushing stone and making roads under the direction of Pawney, with N. J. Hockman as his assistant. One day last week while a party of well rendered. Bellefonters were coming up the pike enjoying an auto ride they struck a Mrs. Ida Glossner, of this place, were pig below our village which swirled seen driving through town on Suntheir auto sidewise, striking the fence and putting their machine out of com- time They telephoned to town for help, and the repair crew were soon on hand, putting it in shape, after which the jolly party drove away none at Pitcairn. the worse for the delay; and the pig is doing all right too and no doubt will grow and wax fat. It was a Ford touring car with a lady driving it.

Our sick are Roy Garbrick, who has eryesipelas, but we are glad to say he is on the mend; John Hoy, a son of J. A. Hoy, who has been living at Jersey Shore for several years, had an self. operation performed for appendicitis at the hospital on Friday of last week. He stood the operation very well and is getting along as well as can be

The retiring school board made its settlement on the 6th, found their finances in good shape. The new board organized and elected most of the teachers, a list of which will be given later.

The Zion ball team crossed bats with Coleville on Saturday between trains, on the diamond at Hecla Park. At the close of the game the teams stood 8 to 4 in favor of Zion; they feel now as if they were not afraid to tackle anything in the base ball line.

The farmers' meeting under the auspices of the Grange, was held in the Grange hall on Tuesday evening, the 7th inst. There was a fair audience present, and the speakers were Creasy, and say Herr and Frain, who in turn gave our people a talk on what the order has done for the farmer—financially, so-cially and educationally, and advised all the farmers to join in and help the good work along.

John Bubb, wife and daughter, Mar-tha, spent Sunday afternoon at the of Edmund Bubb and family. Mrs. Daniel Royer and Mrs. Treas-ter, of Lewistown, spent one day last week with the former's mother, Mrs. Susan Long.

Miss Annie Renninger, of Spring Mills, spent a few days with her sis-ter, Mrs. J. H. Moyer. Mrs. William Searson and children, of near State College, spent the great-part of last week with her parents Orvis Harner and wife spent Sunday evening with friends at Potters

Mrs. E. T. Jordan and children and Mrs. Virginia Rehm, of Buchanan, Mich., were royally entertained by Mrs. H. C. Gettig on Wednesday of Gilbert Deitzel, wife and children, of Avis, spent some time visiting friends and relatives in this communalso at State College, it being Mrs. Deitzel's former home Next Sunday evenig, June 19, Children's Day will be observed in the U. E. church at Zion. All are cordially invited to attent this service.

MILLHEIM.

Mrs. Brown, of Lock Haven, and Mrs. Moyer, of Williamsport, are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Walter, on east Main street.

Mrs. Emma Tracy, of New York City, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Mary Kleckner, of this place.

Mrs. Ray Stover and her bright lit-tle daughter, Mary Rebecca, are spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Confer.

Wheat and all the other crops look very promising in this part of the val-

On Sunday evening, June 19, there will be Children's Day services held in the United Evangelical church in this place. A good program is being prepared; do not miss it. The work on A. Kessler's new store is being rushed as quickly as possible and is almost ready for the bricklay-A. Walter is building an extension to his barn on Main street.

SKUNK HOLLOW-Penn Twp. There will be Children's Day ser-vice at Paradise church on Sunday evening, June 19; all are cordially invit-ed to attend. W. B. says next will be pappys' day.

be pappys' day.

Harry Auman, who was on the sick list, is about again.

Fred Auman and wife, of Skunk Hollow, spent Friday in Poe valley, the guest of Henry Lingle.

Rumor is there will be another wedding in the near future; just ask C. U. he can tell.

he can tell. Clyde Bressler called on his lady friend, Jennie Wolf.

friend, Jennie Wolf.

M. C. Vonada sold his gray horse to a fire company in Lock Haven. Now hut der Mike ken gray mare.

Sam Lingle is crushing stones; Sam knows how to make good roads.

Olin Jamison and family spent Saturday afternoon with Mrs. Jamison's parents, Ezra Finkle's.

Hon. John A. Daley transacted bus-iness in Lock Haven on Wednesday. Frederick Robb and two daughters, Mrs. Hall and Miss Emma, grandson Edwin Robb, and Mrs. John Baney, of Howard, spent Tuesday in our vicinity.
Mr. Foot, the hustling book agent of Bellefonte, transacted business with our school board on Saturday.

I wish to make a correction regarding the Children's service held at the Christian church. It will be Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. June 19.

Christian church. It will be Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock, June 19.

Mrs. William Wensel is spending this week at State College visiting her daughter, Mrs. B. H. Bottenhorn.

Miss Maude Daley was a week end visitor at Yarnell.

visitor at Yarnell.

Mrs. N. J. Packer is on the sick list; we hope for her speedy recovery.

BOALSBURG.

Quite a number of accidents hap-pened in our town last week. Afred Rupp had the misfortune to break his his way to tak Hall are in when his herse took fight and upset the buggy. was if resulted in the above accident him were found broken. Also little Bud life. Harro had the misfontune to fall from a highchair and sprain his arm.

Mrs. Laura Bricker's house caught Lots of rain and little sunshine, and fire one day last week, but the fire was rather cold for this time of the year, put out before much damage was done. Children's services were held in the small and yellow for want of sun-hine and warmer weather.

Farmers are complaining very much

The funeral of J. Wesley Meyers was largely attended; quite a number of relatives from other places were

We are sorry to note the serious the corn is being cut off the second illness of Mrs. Sara Rankin at her home here.

Boalsburg No. 2. The entertainment held in the Reformed church on Sunday evening was an entire success. The program was George Alkey, of Coopertown, and They report a fine day evening.

Joseph Johnson, of Altoona, is vis-Nellie Rathmell is visiting friends

Our town was well represented at the festival at Nittany on Saturday

Our supervisors have been busy repairing the roads for the past few That a certain young man of this town fears a lady larger than him-

How about it, Boliver? That a certain young man of this town can turn a team and wagon on a five cent piece. He had better apply for a permanent position. Harry Wian was very pleasantly entertained by his lady and Pearl Hoy, over Sunday.

SNOW SHOE.

Art Shank and wife, of Conemaugh, are visiting at the home of their parents.

The Misses Sweeneys, of Pitsburg. are visiting at the home of Mrs. James Henry Sinclair lost one of his horses on Thursday of last week.

We noticed in the Unionville items last week of cutworms eating off peach trees. We here give a very good way of getting rid of this little fellow: Catch each worm, throw him over the fence and say "Go to your next neighbor." Ask "Buckie" Lucas. The Children's Day exercise held in the M. E. church on Sunday night was well attended and highly appreclated by all. The participants and those who trained them deserve to be highly commended. Invitations have been received for marriage of Miss Maude Budinger to Harry Mann, of Mill Hall, in the M. E. church, on June 29. Mr. Maun and Frank Shop have completed the new light in Budinger's store; this makes it almost as bright as day in the room.

Who said, "Wake up, Snow Shoe!" We are getting on our feet again. We that twenty new he built between here and Clarence, the upper side of the grove to be cut out and will soon begin work for a beautiful has secured the lot next to O. J. Harm ad will soon begin work for a beautiful house. The saw mill is ready to start and the grading for a brick plant is moving forward rapidly.

LAMAR.

Mrs. Aadam Yearick and daughter, Mrs. Walter Pifer, visited friends and relatives in Madisonburg over Sun-

Mrs. H. D. Loveland visited her daughter, Mrs. Helen Williamson, of Antes Fort, a few days last week. Quite a number of our people aturday evening; all report a good time and a good crowd present.

Mrs. C. R. Lloyd, of Crabtree, Westmoreland county, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Harris. Mrs. J. E. Alters and children were Bellefonte visitors one day last week. Edwin Conser, father and brother, Miss Dorman, of Flemington, is vis-Miss Dorman, of Flemington, is vis-iting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. having taken place last Monday. William Watson.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ferree were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ellery Krape's.

PLEASANT GAP. The old rains are very hard on the corn, but the wheat and oats are very

W. H. Noll, Jr., & Bro. put a new show case in their store which improves the store very much. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lee attended the funeral of Mrs. Tate, at Bellefonte. last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Meyer are very proud over the arrival of a young son.

A. D. Smeltzer had the misfortune of losing one of his colts which got out and strayed to the mountains.

Far Gentral and James Mayor Jerus Earl Gentzel and James Meyer drove to Pleasant Gap in a two-horse spring wagen one evening last week to deliver a pack of post cards. BURDENS LIFTED.

From Bellefonte Backs—Relief Proved By Lapse of Time.
Backache is a heavy burden; Nervousness wears one out Rheumatic pain; urinary ills; All are kidney burdens— Daily effects of kidney weakness. to use to cure the symptoms, Doan's Kidney Pills cure kidney ills; Prove it by your neighbor's case. Here's Bellefonte testimony.

The story of a permanent cure.

Mrs. James Corl, 361 E. Bishop Street, Beliefonte, Pa., says: "A number of my family used Doan's Kidney Pills in 1907, procuring them from Green's Pharmacy Co. and a complete cure from backache and kidney com-plaint was received. At that time we publicly endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills

Remember the name-Doan's and take no other.

CLINTONDALE.

Word has been received here that Rev. Charles Albert Schwenk, former Bright, principal of our High school, married last Thursday, June 2, to Miss Margaret Haas, of Winona Lake, Ind. His many friends of this place wish him much happiness for his future

On Wednesday, June 8, Prof. Ira W. McCloskey, of Lock Haven, superintendent of Clinton county schools, conducted the annual teachers' examination at this place which was very well

Miss Maude Sweeley, one of Mackeyville's young brides-elect, was the guest of Miss Rose Walker on Thurs-

The Misses Isabella and Evelyn Huston were Bellefonte visitor's during the past week. Miss Margaret Bitner, of Bitumen, spent Wednesday of this week with her friend, Helen Rossman. Prof. B. H. Houseworth, of Selinsgrove, who has just finished a most uccessful term as principal of the Jersey Shore High school, called on his many friends here Friday. Mrs. C. R. Rossman entertained the following guests at dinner on Thursday: Mrs. J. C., Mr. Perry and Miss Mary Wilson, of Salona, and Mrs. Mary Wilson, of Salona, and Mrs. Frank Carner and children, Madge and Mae, of Hublersburg. Rudolph Krape, a member of the senior class at State College, is spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W .W. Krape. Mrs. Lloyd Maurer entertained her niece, Agnes Gunsallus, of Mackey-were held in the Evangelical church we got him?" Sunday evening, were a marked success. A large crowd was in attendance and showed their appreciation by contributing freely toward the home

Mrs. Swartz, of Beech Creek, and Mrs. Saxon, of Lock Haven, visited at the home of Joseph Green a few days Mrs. William Barner, of Avis, transacted business in our town on Satur-

AARONSBURG.

A. C. Mingle and family, of Belle-fonte, were down on their auto last the home of Fehl's, at that place. her son: "John, what do you think?" Mrs. Maggie Houser and daughters. "I leave it to you, mother." "I make of Bellefonte, are the welcome guests it spades," was the reply. Prof. R. U. Wasson, who is employ- Now Its the Opposite.

ing at Bellefonte and Axemann a few Illinois. Mrs. Shoemaker, of Lock Haven, has ome to spend some time with her Lis-pleasure trip in their auto to State Both had Titles College one day last week.

M. J. Deshler. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Philips took a scarce."

fruit ville, where they are carpentering for liar in the State.

Clymer Stover, of Lewistown, and Mrs. John Grenoble, of Burnham, were over on their automobile and visited their father at the home of George Mrs. John Duncan, of Lewisburg, spent one day last week at the home of Mrs. Forster's, who is under the Mrs. George Winters and daughter, of Smullton, visited her parents, William Haffley's, the greater part of last LIVONIA.

Mrs. Mary Fargus and daughter, Helen, visited their relatives at this place last week. Mrs. Ella Conser and three children spent two weeks at Jersey Shore.
William Long, an old time friend and neighbor, who had spent his life of Livonia, visited him a few days last in this vicinity until three years ago week. Miss Margaret Tweed, of Nittany, his daughter, Mrs. William Douty, died visited Miss Ethel Krape over Sun-day. at Forest Hill, and was brought back to this place for burial beside his wife

Leslie Stover, wife and baby spent Sunday at the old home. Samuel Conser is visiting his son, Edwin, at Lamar. Mrs. Lucinda Gilbert was a guest at George Stover's last week.

A Woman's Great Idea. Is how to make herself attractive. But, without health, it is hard for her to be lovely in face, form or temper. A weak, sickly woman will be nervous and irritable. Constipation and kidand irritable. Constipation and kidney poisons show in pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. But Electric Bitters always proves a godsend to women who want health, beauty and friends. They regulate stomach, liver and kidneys, purify the blood; give strong nerves, bright eyes, pure breath, smooth, velvety skin, lovely complexion, good health. Try them, 50 cents at Green's Pharmacy Co., Bellefonte.

Town Clock Weight Fell.
Friday evening the 1050-pound weight of the town clock on the Clinton court house at Lock Haven, slipped from its moorings and came crashing through the floor and ceiling in to the county superintendent's office on the first floor of the building. On its way it broke off a joist 3x8 inches in thickness besides the floor Relief is but temporary if the cause boards and celling having first being met by about 4 feet of sand which had been placed there by the builders to check its progress in the event it might fall.

Topless Potatoes-No Bugs. Parks Murtiff, proprietor of the St. Charles Hotel, Lewistown, owns a farm in the vicinity of Burnham Park, and his farmer called him over and in-formed him that he was grownig top-formed him that he was grownig top-less potatoes.

An investigation proved that two rows, supposed to have been Early Rose seed, were absolutely without sign of stalks; yet there are roots, with potatoes the size of large shell-barks in the rows. The farmer says its a good thing, as it will fool the

A philosopher once declared that we live in thoughts, not years. He was probably thinking of a woman af-ter she reaches thirty.

FACT, FUN AND FANCY.

Sparkling Paragraphs—Se-lected and Original.

Not For That Purpose.

A littleboy was looking very intently into a shop window where some mod-els were placed to show off ladies' coswhen suddenly he asked: they sell those ladies in case a mother dies, and the fellow wants to buy another one?

Must Wait for Him.

A man was being taken in a cart to be place where he was to be hanged. The road was filled with people crowding to the execution. The cart proceeded slowly and the mob fought to get ahead of it and reach the place early. Seeing this the doomed man stood up and shouted to them: "You don't need to hurry that way; the fun won't begin till I get there.

And Father Agreed. Home study for Tommy had just himself to regular hours. one evening his father said: "Tommy, I am not at all pleased with the report your mother gives me of your conduct today." "No, father, I knowed you wouldn't be, and I told her so. But she went right away and made the report. Just like a woman, ain't Yes, Dear, or Smaller. Elliott, attending his first wedding. The Difference. was a most interested observer. The white gown and long veil of the bride apparently increased her size, while the evening clothes of the rather diminutive groom made him seem still Mrs. Jane Tolbert, of Nittany, spent smaller. The disparity of size immed-thursday with her sister-in-law, Mrs. lately attracted Elliott's attention, and aning over, he said in excited tones: The Children's Day exercises which "Mother, was father that little when

All Were Guilty.

A paper in a good sized town in Michigan recently published this item: The business man in this town who writer had better quit or we will pub-ish his name." The next day 37 busness men called at the office, paid up their subscriptions and left behind them 37 columns of advertising, and told the editor not to pay any attention to foolish stories.

Made it Spades. The father of a family, all of whom were devotees of bridge, and much given to talking the game and holding Wednesday and took supper at the home of E. G. Mingle's.

Miss Della Louden, of Huntingdon, visited Rev. B. R. M. Sheeder at the difference of opinion as to whether he Lutheran parsonage.

Ed Fehl and A. S. Stover have gone cremated. In the course of the disshould be buried in the family plot or to Renovo to do some paper hanging cussion the mother said weepingly to in the home of Fehl's, at that place. her son: "John, what do you think?"

ed at State College, spent a few days while Jay Gould was traveling on the bis home at this place. Mrs. Sue Rote visited friends liv- for dinner at a little town in Southern Illinois. The party ate some eggs among other things, and when the bill great railroad magnate remarked that J. C. Meyer and family, of Belleconte, and Prof. Twitmire, of State Section, to which the restaurant keeper replied: "No, sir, eggs are plenty enough; but Jay Gould's are mighty

An old fisherman while fishing one A large umber of our young people day was surprised at hearing a voice A large umber of our young people tendered their friend, Miss Rebecca Guisewite, a surprise party on her sixteenth birthday. After the everting was spent in a most delightful manner, they were callel to the dining room to partake of some of the most delicious cakes, ice cream and fruit works. After the everting was a stranger, and this was the onversation: "How's luck, old man?" "Well, pretty fair: I caught 47 yesterday and 17 today so far." "Do you know what I am?" "Don't believe I do." "Well, I am the game wayden. Forty is the limit." "Mr. Forty is the limit." Earnest Stover and son, Ray, have gone with James Werts to Tussey- am?" 'No." "Well, I am the biggest warden.

much to the motorist. In the use of Waverly Brands

Stoveyou are guaranteed the greatest possible efficiency —instantaneous, power-ful, clean explosion—free-dom from earbon deposits on spark plugs or in cylinders—ready ignition. Your dealer will supply you. Waverly Oil Works Co.

Motor-

76°-

Pittsburg, . Pa.

A. E. SCHAD

20 Allegheny Street,

Bellefonte, Pa Pluming, Steam and Gas Fitting.

Tinning and Spouting in all its Branches.

Ranges in all styles.

Agent for Colt Acetylene Plants Estimates furnished in any line of our work.

Why Take Alcohol?

Are you thin, pale, easily tired, lack your usual vigor and strength? Then your digestion must be poor, your blood thin, your nerves weak. You need a tonic and alterative. You need Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the only Sarsaparilla entirely free from alcohol. We believe your doctor would endorse these statements, or we would not make them. Ask him and find out. Follow his advice. J.C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

The endorsement of your doctor will certainly greatly increase your confidence in Ayer's Pills as a family laxative. Liver pills. All vegetable. Ask your doctor about them.

An Irishman being late one morning. wishing to get to work as soon as possible, in dressing put his overalls on backwards. While carrying a hod of mortar up to the fourth story of a building he slipped and fell to the pavement below. His fellow work-men, on seeing him fall, rushed to his As they came up Pat was lying in a heap on the pavement. They shook Pat and said, "Say, Pat, are you hurt?" "Not much," said Pat. "Well" if you are not hurt, you are pretty badly twisted.

An old woman noted for her facial misfortune was languidly loitering along a back country road, she was met by a man driving a high spirited team. On approaching the woman, the horses became frightened and suddenly stopped. "Please, ma'am," said the driver, "would you be so kind as to turn around until I can get past? My horses are afraid." "I'm no uglier than you are," the old woman retorted, angrily. "Yes," said the man, "I'm aware of that; but you're in front of the team and I'm Raising the Dough. Mrs. Jones went on a visit Friday afternoon and told her husband, John, to mind the baby. When she returned she found a woeful expression on John's face, while he was busily feeding the baby with something. investigation she found that that some thing was some yeast cakes, and the was devouring them with all its might. "For goodness sakes, John, look at the baby! What do you mean feeding it yeast cakes? The pooring will die!" "Well," said John, thing will die!"" "the baby swallowel my last quarter,

Who Will Answer? "Now, children," said the history teacher, in her most impressive manner, "I wish you to remember that the time to ask questions in my class is whenever anything is said which you wish explained. Do not wait until the time comes for recitation and then did not understand when I talked." tist is quite prosperous.

and I'm trying to raise the dough."

"Yes'm," chorused the scholars, cheer-fully. "Very well," said the teacher, "we will begin today with James I, who came after Elizabeth." The new scholar raised his hand. "What is it?" asked the teacher graciously. made him come after her?" asked the new scholar eagerly. The Late Jem Bangs.

Mister Edatur: Jem Bangs, we are sorry to stait, has deseized. He de-parted this Life last munday at the age of 23. He went 4th without any struggle, and sich is life. TuDay we are as pepper grass, mighty smart, to Morrer we are cut down like a cow-cumber of the ground. Jem kept a nice stoar, which his wife now waits on. His virchews was numerous to behold. We never saw him put sand in his sugar, though he had a big sand bar in front of his house; Nor water in his milk, though the river runs past his dore. Pece to his remains; He leaves a wife, 8 children, a cow, 4 horses, a grocery stoar and quadropets to mourn his loss, but in the splendid langwidge of the poit, his loss is there eternal gane.

Its Different in Philipsburg. The Clearfield Steam Co., with the first of June, drew the fires from under their boilers and the damp, chilly weather is causing no little discomfort on the part of their patrons. It's different here, our steam company paying no attention to the expiration of the paying season, which expired on June 1st, but is still furnishing its patrons with the heat free of cost. We appreciate this generosity on the part of the local company, says the Philipsburg Journal.

Bellefonte wouldn't scold if similar-

Bass Season.

The bass season opened in the State yesterday and will continue until November 20. The law limits the num-ber caught to 12 in one day and the length to eight inches. Though leading a hand-to-mouth existence, yet as a general thing a den-

It's the Jar More than the Recipe

Therefore, the best results in preserving are possible only when you use the Atlas E-Z Seal Jar. Buy these jars of your dealer as well as quality. The Atlas E-Z Seal Jar is extra quality glass; smooth on top and an instant sealer.

before the fruit season comes on and be ready to preserve appearance

HAZEL-ATLAS GLASS CO. Wheeling, W. Va.

-and so does every other well-dressed man here. They're the smartest shoes that money can buy-exact reproductions of expensive metropolitan custom models. They're made in quartersizes, giving you an exact fit. Regal Shoes are the greatest shoe values in the world—that's why we sell them. Let us show you the new Spring styles.

$350 $400 and $500

A. C. MINGLE, Bellefont, Pa.