CLINTONDALE.

Roy Ohl, one of the leading clerks in the Penn Traffic store, at Johnstown, was home on a few days' vacation.

Mrs. Clara Maurer and Mrs. George Ohl were elected delegates to the 16th annual convention of the Clinton Co. Christian Endeavor Union, which was held in the Christian church at Mill Hill on Thursday, June 7th. The consequence of the wise selection of delegates was a most excellent and carefully prepared report given by Mrs. Ohl on Sunday evening.

Mrs. Kaul and Mrs. Pletcher, of Howard, were guests at the home of their brother, Ambrose Holter, on Sunday.

Mrs. Clara Maurer and guest, Miss Lourie Gussallus, spent Tuesday at the home of Thomas Heitman, at Mackeyville.

The Misses Ida and Bessie Nicholas, of Williamsport, have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leah Bierly for the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Williamson, of Jersey Shore, spent several days during the past week with their daughter, Mrs. George Ohl.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Shilling and daughter have returned to their home in Juniata after spending several weeks with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Shilling, of Kryder, and Mrs. Annie Rossman, of this place.

The Evangelical Sunday school of this place will hold its annual picnic at Hecla Park, August 6th. Everybody is cordially invited to go along.

Mrs. George Wolfe and children, of Bellevue, O., returned home on Saturday after spending a month with her parents; her sister, Miss Lottie Keister, accompanied her and will spend the remainder of the summer with her brother and sister in the west.

Mrs. Annie Rossman was suddenly called to Milton on Tuesday on account of the serious illness of her sister, Mrs. Adam Krebs.

ZION.

Don't forget the festival on Saturday night, July 16th, for the benefit of the Evangelical church. All are cordially invited.

Harry Smith, who is employed at the Altoona car shops, spent the 4th with his parents.

Communion service was well attended in the Reformed church on Sunday morning. There were six taken into the church, namely: Lottie Kaufman, Edna Vonada, Bertha Rider, Pearl Shaffer, Mary Corman and Chas. Vonada.

Mrs. Mervin Kuhn and little daughter Mildred, of Boalsburg, are spending a few days at the home of Foster Sharer's.

The Union Sunday school will hold their picnic July 30th at Hecla Park. All are cordially invited.

Grace Sharer, Amanda Delrick, Frank and John Hockman spent the 4th at Watkin's Glen, N. Y. They report having a very nice time.

Mrs. Julia Showers who has been ill for some time, is improving slowly.

The Lutheran Reunion.

The annual Lutheran reunion will be held at Lakemont park on Thursday, July 21 and the committee from the central part of the state, in which district the Lutherans celebrate at this resort, are preparing an elaborate program for the event.

Special railroad rates will be secured to carry members of the Lutheran faith to Altoona and then they will be transported to the park over the Logan Valley electric railway line to the scene of the big time that day. A number of speakers will be in attendance and will deliver addresses.

Lancaster county farmers say they will have the best hay and wheat crop in twenty-five years. They are jubilant.

Most of our correspondents mention the hay crop good and housed in fine condition. The recent rains will ensure a good crop of corn, the earth having all the needed moisture.

Centre Hall is having a new building erected. The Runkle hotel and the meat market. It is to be a two-story frame with brick casing.

At a meeting of the Ferguson township school board the following teachers were elected for the ensuing school term: Pine Grove Mills—H.N. Walker, grammar; Edna Ward, primary; Kepler—Leslie Gates, Gladys—Kathryn Bollinger, Belleville—W. C. Weaver, grammar; Nancy Heberling, primary; Tadpole—Foster Barr, Gatesburg—Florence Kepler, Maringo—Henry Walker, Centre—Alexander Bowersox, White Hall—Edward Elms, Oak Grove—Verna Martin, Krumline—Alfaretta Sensor. No teacher was chosen for the township high school. The officers of the board are H. M. Krebs, president; Jacob Neldigh, secretary; J. F. Meyers, treasurer.

Most of the large cities of the country have forbidden the sale of films to be used in moving picture shows, of the recent brutal prize fight between Jeffries and Johnson. That sounds healthy. The next step should be to make it unlawful to have a prize fight anywhere within the United States. It is simply a brutal and disgusting repeat of the gladiatorial slaughters in the ancient arena of the Romans. It is a disgrace to American civilization to pick up and exhibit what has centuries ago died out with the ancients. Foot ball should be placed in the same category as prize fighting.

The Fourth of 1910 is the first time since yesteryear that Bellefonte streets were clean and clear of spent fireworks and other fireworks or by general law and boro ordinance of the fire cracker traffic and use of same, worked to entire satisfaction and intent and as one ingredient to a safe and sane Fourth. The days of the fire cracker nuisance are a thing of the past in scores of towns.

UNIONVILLE.

Toner Calhoun and Chet Morrison, two Altoonites, are home on a short visit.

Rev. Elmer Williams, pastor of Grace street church, Chicago and brother of Commissioners' clerk E. J. Williams, with his family, was a recent visitor at the home of the latter.

On last Tuesday evening, at the regular monthly session of the school board, J. S. Fox was elected to teach the grammar school and Miss Harriet Turner, teacher of the primary school, and the term was fixed at 8 months. The prospect for a profitable school term is flattering.

Mr. and Mrs. John Shadle are rejoicing over the arrival of a fine boy baby.—His name is No. 6.

Joseph Cedars, Jr. of Bellefonte, spent several days at the McDonnell hospitable home.

On last Saturday in driving from Phillipsburg to Unionville by way of the "Rattlesnake," a short distance above the spring, Grant Smith saw a huge black bear coming towards him in the middle of the road. His horse became restive and for a time Grant thought there was going to be "trouble in the household," but an unceremonious yell from Mr. Smith had the desired effect and Mr. Bruin turned off into the wood. The bear evidently had been wounded, as he was carrying one of his front feet in a sling. He estimated his weight to be at least 350 pounds.

"Put me off at Buffalo" sang Dr. W. U. Irvin on last Friday morning as he boarded the 9:10 A. M. train, and that's just where they did put him off. He returned home on Tuesday evening being much recuperated in health for his short visit.

It seems to me its about time for our local newspapers to get out of the old rut and climb on the band wagon, and keep up with the procession if they don't care to be in the van. I think to their old custom of depriving thousands of their subscribers of their weekly news, on Fourth of July and Christmas weeks, by closing their rendezvous and all hands striking out on a general bust. To the general newspaper reader, there is no city paper that can take the place of our local papers, and if we must wait two weeks for our county paper, when it comes we find it mouldy and stale and we loose interest in it. Now you Watchman, Gazette, Republican, Democrat, Reporter, Journal, Hustler, &c., sit up and take notice.

On last Friday evening at the station, Master James McDonnell, son of foreman, P. J. McDonnell, "just for fun" climbed on another boy's bicycle and took a sneak around a couple of squares, also "just for fun." This made the other boy (whose name I have failed to learn) angry and he ran up Apple street, thinking he would intercept him which he did just as he came around the corner of Main street to Apple street, and just between the Cadwallader home and J.L. Barton's, the owner made a rush for his byke, grabbed the handle bar, throwing Master James to the ground with great force, his head striking a stone or some other hard substance rendering him unconscious. The boy, who is a relative of the Cambridges, took his bike and struck for home leaving James lie where he fell, not knowing how badly he was hurt. He was discovered by Mrs. Susan Stere, who heard him moaning. She did not know him, but hastened to summon help. She met Mrs. McDonald and her daughter Margaret and told them, and they hastening to his assistance, were shocked to find it to be their son and brother. Other help soon arrived and the boy was carried to his home. Dr. Russell was sent for and did all he could to revive the boy to consciousness and relieve his suffering, but he remained in a semi-conscious state for several days, but I am glad to say at this writing that he is in a fair way for recovery.

The funeral of Mrs. B. W. Rumberger, of Hublersburg, which took place here on July 2, was a very large one. She had gone west to Elk City, Oklahoma, on a visit to her two sons, Wilbur and Guyer, sometime in May. On her way home she was taken sick on the train and was compelled to stop off at Winfield, Kansas. Her husband was telegraphed for who started on first train for that place, and arrived there a few hours before she passed away, but she was too near death's door to know him. Her remains were brought home on last Friday and taken to her home at Hublersburg where services were held by the Rev. Fleck, of the Lutheran church, and on Saturday morning the funeral cortege arrived here on the 9:22 train and her body taken to the upper burial place from the R. R. station where a large number of conveyances were in waiting to convey the friends to the grave yard. She was a daughter of the late Henry Iddings, who was well known in this county, and was the last one of that esteemed family. She leaves to survive her, her husband and the following children: Guyer and Wilbur, of Elk City, Okla.; D. Rhoads, of Altoona; Mary K. A., nurse in the Williamsport hospital; Rosa, a student in a business college at Lancaster, and Miss Nellie at home. She was a most estimable woman, one of whom nothing but good words can be said, and she will be greatly missed by her family and neighbors. Rest in peace.

Raymond Emery, a dear, little 5-months-old child of Mr. and Mrs. I. P. Dunkle, died at their home in Pittsburg last Friday and was brought here for interment on Saturday. The funeral took place from the home of Mrs. Dunkle's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Emrick, on Sunday at two o'clock. Services were held at the house, conducted by the Rev. Oyler, assisted by the Rev. James Pratt. Mr. Dunkle formerly resided at Curtin and was a son of the late Thomas Dunkle, of that place.

Horse Sale. On next Saturday, July 16th, Edward Hugler will sell a carload of fine unbroken Western horses in the yards of the Hotel Haag. Mr. Hugler—who is known to be of the highest authority and integrity—assures horse fanciers that this lot is a superb one, made up of the best 3 and 4-year-olds ever shipped, and each will weigh 1400 lbs when matured; also a registered Percheron stallion—the best Blue Ribbon Dappled Gray Show Horse living.

Car will arrive on the 14th or 15th and horses can be seen in yards of Hotel Haag. Call and look them over. If contemplating buying a horse don't neglect this rare opportunity to get just what you need at a very reasonable figure.

A Small Child. A baby weighing twenty-eight ounces was born to Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Stahlman, of DuBois, a few days ago. The child could be placed in a pint measure without crowding, or could be rested in the palm of the hand without difficulty. He is perfectly formed and gives evidence of being strong. The father stands six feet high and weighs over 150 pounds. The mother weighs 150.

WEDDINGS.

Flick-Mayes.

On June 15th Mr. Geo. B. Flick, of Yarnell, and Miss Hattie B. Mayes, of Bellefonte, were married at the Evangelical parsonage by Rev. J. P. Hoyer. They will make their home in the vicinity of Johnstown, where Mr. Mayes is employed.

Ardery-Williams.

George E. Ardery and Verna E. Williams were married in Tyrone on June 20, at 11:30 A. M., at the home of Mrs. Peters, the bride's aunt, by Rev. W. H. Ellis, pastor of the Baptist church at Martha Furnace. Both the contracting parties reside at Martha Furnace.

Gehret-Sloey.

About noon on Friday George F. Gehret and Miss Ada Sloey went to the office of Justice of the Peace W. H. Musser where they were joined in happy wedlock. The groom is an industrious young man and is an efficient clerk in George Miller's hardware store. The bride is an attractive young lady and will make a most excellent helpmate.

Council-Hartman.

A quiet wedding was performed Friday morning at his office, when Justice Henry D. Brown united in wedlock on Friday morning, Reuben H. Council and Jennie E. Hartman, both of Lock Haven. They returned to their home town on the afternoon train, where the congratulations of their friends and best wishes for much happiness and future success doubtless awaited them.

Mattern-LaPorte.

Miss Jessie LaPorte, the accomplished and very estimable young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Hunter LaPorte, of Tyrone, formerly of Phillipsburg, was married on Wednesday morning of last week at 7 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents. The wedding was of an unostentatious character, and attended by only the immediate families of the happy couple, who departed in an automobile on their honeymoon. On their return they will take up housekeeping at Warriorsmark, where the groom, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Mattern, and a very excellent young man, is engaged in the mercantile business.

Gardner-Williams.

The citizens of Blanchard enjoyed a very enthusiastic celebration of the Fourth of July. Two of their highly esteemed young people, Miss Lulu B. Gardner and Mrs. John N. Williams, had quietly slipped away to Milesburg where Rev. J. B. Eldridge tied the matrimonial knot. Returning, the groom is employed by the Harbison-Walker Brick Co. at Monument. The bride is one of our best girls, and is well suited for a life companion. Their many friends wish for them a long life with unbounded happiness and success.

Woodring-Reese.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Reese at Port Matilda, Pa. on Wednesday, June 29th at 3 o'clock P. M., when their daughter, Miss Kathryn, became the bride of Mr. G. C. Woodring, of Tyrone. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Stein of Tyrone. The bride looked charming in a fine creation of eyelid embroidery and mechin lace, made en-train, the tulle veil was held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. The bride was given away by her father and was attended by Miss Marie Hoover, of Williamsport, Miss Amy Haines, of Rosister, Miss Margaret Nearhook, of Warriorsmark, and Miss Edna Reese, sister of the bride, as bridesmaids. Mrs. J. M. Williams, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Misses Hoover and Haines wore light blue and white carnations, Misses Nearhook and Reese wore white and carried pink carnations. Mrs. Williams wore white and carried a bouquet of sweet peas. The groom wore the conventional black and was attended by Mr. E. C. Grant, of Warriorsmark. The bridal party entered to the strains of Lohengrin, played by Mrs. Calvin Jones of Phillipsburg. The house was beautifully decorated with ferns, evergreens and roses. The bride received many useful and handsome presents. Immediately after the ceremony the bride received the congratulations of her friends after which a sumptuous wedding dinner was served, and the bride and groom left on an extended tour to Atlantic City and Philadelphia. On their return home they will reside in Tyrone. Among the out of town guests were: Mrs. J. E. Daisey, son and daughter, of DuBois; Mrs. F. C. Mulien, son and daughter, of Curwensville; Mrs. J. B. Parson, of Benore; Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Turner, of Springdale; Mrs. Robert Robison, of Altoona; Mr. and Mrs. Grant Hoover, of Williamsport; Mrs. John McNamara and daughters, of Rosister; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hoover, of Julian; Miss Anna Eastman, of Uniontown; Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Rabert, of Snow Shoe; Mrs. Kathryn Burkett, of Fillmore.

WINGATE.

Those who attended the family reunion at George W. Sumner's on July 3rd, and were included in the family group photo, were: Sylvester, Oscar and Claude, wives and families, and Mrs. Green Watson and family, of Wingate; R. M. Sumners, wife and son, of Tyrone; David Wyland, of Altoona; Jasper Holt and wife, of Flemington; Mary and Criss Sumners, of Phillipsburg.

Those who desire to read Wingate items of June 30th issue please refer to Mackeyville items, commencing with sixth item.

L. S. Way spent a few days at Tyrone last week, filling a position in the dispatcher of trains' office.
