

BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

The heat this week was a few degrees below the others.

Miss Celia Haupt, of Philadelphia, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Haupt.

Home apples are in market at 25c per peck—this is portentous of apple pie and apple dumplings.

Nellie Twitmore, of Montclair, N. J., is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Twitmore.

Mrs. Harry Keller is visiting Mrs. W. C. Stoddard, formerly Miss Caroline Orvis, at Wyncoffe, Pa.

Frank Eckenroth, of Sunbury, was a pleasant guest with relatives and friends here over the Sabbath.

Elaborate preparations are well under way for the Shaeffer-Haze reunion at Hecla Park, Saturday August 13th.

Capt. Roland Curtin, with his family, of Annapolis, are now in Bellefonte at the home of Gen. and Mrs. John I. Curtin.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Frank, of Pitsaun, are pleasant guests at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hamilton.

Mrs. Thomas Murphy returned home the latter part of the week from a visit with relatives and friends in Jersey Shore and Avis.

On Thursday Squire W. H. Musser and wife attended the funeral of William H. Shiffer, at Sunbury, the deceased being a brother of Mrs. Musser's.

Mrs. Adams and little daughter, of Sunbury, have been pleasant guests for the past several days with the former's mother and sisters in Bellefonte.

On Saturday evening, July 23rd, there will be an ice cream and cake festival held on the lawn near Gambler's mill, for the benefit of the U. B. church.

W. F. Ries, of Toledo, Ohio, author of "Men and Moes," will speak on the diamond on Friday evening, July 22nd, at 8 o'clock. His subject will be "Men or Dollars."

The Hugler horse sale on Saturday was not as successful as on former occasions. The stock was all right, but there appears to be no demand for them at this time of the year.

Walter Rankin, of Harrisburg, spent the Sabbath with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William E. Rankin. We are glad to say that Mrs. Rankin is improving nicely from a recent serious illness.

Prof. Clarence A. Garbrick and wife, of Philadelphia, are pleasant visitors at the home of the former's mother, Mrs. Geo. Garbrick on High street. They expect to spend the hot summer months in Bellefonte.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Green, of Los Angeles, Cal. and son, George, are visiting at the Dorsey Green residence, on Buffalo Run. Mr. Green is a brother of Mrs. W. B. Gray, of Bellefonte, and left Centre county twenty-three years ago. This is the first visit home since that time.

Mrs. Thomas A. Shoemaker and her daughter, Martha, and Dr. Collins, with Miss Mary Roder, left Bellefonte on Wednesday for New York City where on Friday they will sail on the boat "Manitou" for an ocean voyage. The trip will be principally for the pleasure of being on the water. It will take them thirteen days to go and ten days to return.

This week William Graf, a cripple, was in Bellefonte, and he says he is on a tour of the world on a wheel chair which he made himself with his left hand. He is fighting his way from one town to another by selling post cards and hose supporters which he makes himself. He has the rheumatism and thinks when he gets to Bellefonte he can be cured. Although badly afflicted he always smiles.

On the coming Sunday there will be special services in the Lutheran church. The rooms have been recently (re)decorated, improved and renovated. The sermon at the morning service will be preached by Rev. W. M. Rieck, of Harrisburg. At the evening service, which will be held at 7:30 o'clock, two addresses will be made, the one by Rev. Wm. M. Rieck, of Millinburg, and the other by Rev. Chas. T. Alken, D. D., president of Susquehanna University. Everybody is welcome.

The annual summer clearance sale at Sim the Clothier's is now on sale at Sim the Clothier's, a period of ten days. Sim informs us that it has been the most successful sale inaugurated since he has been in business. An extra force of clerks was put on, and at that they could not at times wait on all the buyers at the opening. Goods have been cut down to rock bottom, assuring bargains to all who make purchases. The success of his sale lies in giving just what he has advertised.

The Bellefonte schools will open on Monday, September 5th. Joseph R. Shultz, of Sunbury, who last year was the assistant principal in the High school at Jeannette, has been elected to take charge of science and athletics in the Bellefonte High school. He comes to Bellefonte with the best of recommendations. This probably means that the Bellefonte High school will hereafter figure prominently in our athletic sports of various kinds. Prof. Shultz will be the instructor in both gymnasiums for boys and girls.

Joe Loretto, the prosperous Italian who runs the fruit stand on the corner of Allegheny and Bishop streets, met with an accident on Saturday that came near ending his life. He was sitting on the fence watching the horse sale at the Haag Hotel, when he fell backward, striking his spine. He was rendered perfectly helpless, and in that condition was carried home. On Monday evening his condition was such as to make his friends apprehensive of his recovery. He, however, rallied and is now on a fair way to recovery.

Fred Dunham, editor of the Howard Hustler, is in Bellefonte on Tuesday looking over the situation with reference to starting up the Bellefonte Daily. He was inquiring for a good news gatherer. He also stated that in a office a junior Mergenthaler linotype at the cost of $1500. After he had accomplished this he thought he could make the Bellefonte Daily a paying proposition. Fred has the idea and theory all right, but he will discover it takes a "good" man to make them practical. Miss Mary Kelley and brother, Maurice, are still on the job making a thorough canvass as to whether a daily in Bellefonte will really pay. If they find it will they will start a daily.

ROMANCE IN REAL LIFE.

Not for a long time has Phillipsburg enjoyed anything more interestingly romantic than a marriage which occurred in Pittsburg on Wednesday.

Mrs. David Foreman and children were visiting the former's mother, Mrs. Beulah Smith, at Phillipsburg.

Miss Pearl Mewshaw left on Thursday for a visit of several weeks with friends and relatives in Canton, Pa.

Mrs. James Parsons, of Wilkensburg, has been a guest at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lowry.

Mrs. Lew Wallace, of Bellefonte, who had been seriously ill for some time, is now on a fair way of recovery.

Capt. James A. Quigley, father of Henry C. Quigley, Esq., of Bellefonte, has been at his home at Blanchard.

Mrs. Harrison Kline, of Bellefonte, and Mrs. Rebecca Scholl, of Centre Hall, are visiting their sister, Mrs. Wise, at Berwick, who is ill.

Mrs. R. A. Beck and her two children left on Thursday for Hanover where she will visit friends. From there she will go to Maryland.

Mrs. Louise Friedman and daughter, Miss Irene, arrived in Bellefonte on Friday to spend two months with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Holtz.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Robb have returned from their wedding tour. For the present they will make their home with the Robb family, on Bishop street.

Linn Blackford and family are occupying the Joseph house on Logan street, recently vacated by William Beizer, who now resides at the Willows, on Spring Creek.

Milton Kern, the barber, has in his employ James Dugan, formerly an employe in George Graham's barber shop at State College. He has his trunk down to a fine shave.

If you wish to save $5 and the costs don't walk on the P. R. R. tracks in and around Bellefonte. There have been several persons who have gotten into trouble through a little carelessness on their part.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Kline, formerly residing here, have returned to their home in a most comfortable way, having made Watsonstown their home some years ago. Their many friends gave them a glad welcome.

Mrs. John M. Dale, after spending several months at Atlantic City, is again making her home at the Bush House. With her is a daughter, Miss Virginia, who had been a student at a ladies' seminary at Sweet Briar, Virginia, during last winter.

Col. E. R. Chambers, Esq., of Bellefonte, has recovered his health sufficient, as he thinks, to begin the practice of law. To this end he has leased the office formerly occupied by the late Hon. John G. Love. It is to be hoped that Mr. Chambers may live and meet with great success.

Misses Ruth Gamble, Elizabeth Brew, Nancy Hunter, Catharine Allison, Martha Shoemaker and Mary Wardfield, chaperoned by Mrs. A. Allison, called on the Blanchard High school, where they were having a most enjoyable time. They fished and went bathing and ate until they gained a couple of pounds.

Charles F. Hewitt and family, of St. Louis, were arrivals in Bellefonte on Friday for a visit during a portion of the summer. With them are Mrs. John Hewitt and wife, Charles F. Hewitt is general superintendent of the St. Louis City and Suburban railroad, and is one of the prominent and successful residents of the Missouri metropolis.

William B. Kuhn, who holds a responsible position in the main offices of the National Tube company, of Pittsburg, spent Friday with relatives and friends in Bellefonte. William is an old Centre county boy and a graduate of the Bellefonte High school. He is making a week's visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Kuhn, near State College.

Theodore B. Haupt, one of Bellefonte's esteemed citizens, having been in Chicago the last three months, employed as a bricklayer, returned on a short visit to his wife and family here, on Wednesday, July 13th, 1910, at 8 p. m., at the parsonage at Pleasant Gap, by Rev. D. A. Sower, pastor of the Methodist church. Their many friends join in wishing them a long and happy life.

Mrs. Samuel Wallace, of New York City, is visiting in Bellefonte at the home of her sister, Mrs. Emil Joseph. She was joined here on Wednesday of last week by her husband, who remained until Monday when he returned to the city. When he comes to Bellefonte he always has a pleasant time. Mrs. Wallace and little daughter will remain here for several weeks.

On the first of August the partnership between Dr. R. G. H. Hayes and Dr. J. Coburn Rodgers will be dissolved, and the latter will practice his own book. He has rented comfortable offices in the Garman building, on the corner of High and Spring streets, where he will be found after this month. He has made quite an enviable record since coming to Bellefonte and there is hardly any question about his success.

Everything is still right at the Seentle. You go there and pay your little five cents and sit down for almost an hour, and enjoy the interesting pictures thrown on the canvas. Very often you can see things there that would cost you hundreds of dollars to see if you were to take a tour for the purpose of seeing them. Every time there is a picture thrown on the Seentle there is something new to attract your attention and to please your eye. Then the excellent treatment you receive at the hands of manager Brown and his excellent wife goes far to make the entertainments most pleasing. Mr. Brown has something special in store for his patrons in the near future, so be careful that you don't miss it.

Prof. Foster, of the State Zoological department, has made an experiment from one of the mountain farms belonging to Edward Haupt, of Bellefonte. The land lies above Coleville and contains an apple orchard which Prof. Foster claims is one of the best in the State. He says he has examined a large number of orchards in the year and finds but few where fruit is in such a perfect condition as on the Haupt farm. This information coming from such a reliable source makes Mr. Haupt feel as if that mountain farm does amount to something, and that hawks and crows can fly over it without falling down. Hereafter orchard men throughout the State will be taken there and shown what it is to have first class apples and peaches. This is not only a good thing for Mr. Haupt, but the community general will profit more or less by it.

PLAYING FINE BALL.

On last Friday afternoon we were not very optimistic about the Bellefonte base ball team winning laurels in the Mountain League, but since then the horizon seems brighter. They met their Waterloo on their own field at the hands of the Osceola team which is composed mostly of Tri-State players.

They are a good healthy bunch and are in the game to win, to which we find no fault, further than every team ought to be made comply to the salary limit in paying players. Bellefonte has a first class team and on Friday held the Osceola team down to a good score of 2 to 0.

Henry C. Quigley is all right as a lawyer or a good second to go down in Fishing Creek and get his share of the speckled beauties, but when it comes to umpiring a ball game he has forgotten all he ever knew. It has been some time since he was in the swing at Pennsylvania State College, you know, and thus some of his decisions on Friday can be overlooked.

On Saturday the Bellefonte team went to Tyrone where it was defeated by a score of 10 to 5. It was our day off and we felt by the wayside, on Tuesday the Bellefonte team went to Osceola where the boys magnificently redeemed themselves by defeating Osceola by a score of 6 to 4. This was good. Piolette pitched and Ketchline did a good stunt in the field by making Tuesday royals a difficult fly. On Wednesday Bellefonte was defeated by Phillipsburg—score 5 to 7. Since the league started Phillipsburg has been at the foot of the class but the other day Charles Roland, who has the stuff in his socks, went to view the landscape over and returned with five or six Tri-State players. He is going to try to make the other teams eat the dust. When Charles gets hot under the collar things do move.

The next game in Bellefonte will be on Friday afternoon against Phillipsburg. This will be one of the finest games of the season and everybody ought to turn out. It is claimed that Bellefonte furnishes the smallest crowds at the games of any town in the league. This certainly ought not to be. Go out to the ball ground, whoop-er-up and give encouragement to the home team. That's one way of bringing victory. The same day Clearfield plays at Osceola; on Saturday Osceola plays at Phillipsburg; on Monday afternoon Osceola will play in Bellefonte; this will be one of the star games of the season, and 500 people ought to witness it. Each of these teams has won a game with each other, and the third one will be a Tuesday Clearfield plays at Phillipsburg, and Osceola at Bellefonte. On Wednesday Phillipsburg plays at Clearfield and Bellefonte at Osceola. On Thursday Phillipsburg plays at Clearfield and Bellefonte at Clearfield. On Friday Osceola will play at Phillipsburg and Bellefonte at Clearfield. On Saturday, July 30, Phillipsburg will play at Osceola. This will be the closing game.

The following is the standing of the league to date:

Table with 4 columns: Team, W, L, P.C. Osceola 9 2 319, Bellefonte 6 4 560, Clearfield 3 8 323, Phillipsburg 1 7 125.

No Strike. There will be no strike on the Pennsylvania railroad. A peaceful settlement of the differences between the railroad and its conductors and trainmen has been made, and while there are few details of the agreement yet to be worked out everything appears to be smooth sailing, with both officials and men happy over the outcome. Both sides are claiming that the settlement gives them just what they contended for from the start. Sub-committees of the men are engaged with the general superintendent's divisions in working out the details of the application of the principles of the ten hour day as applied to the complex system of runs and rates on all lines east of Pittsburg.

When a fellow has the reputation of being a bad egg don't try to beat him.

WEDDINGS. Welf-Orndorf. Harry S. Wolf and Miss Bessie I. Orndorf, both of Woodward, were united in matrimony Sunday evening, 10th, at the United Evangelical parsonage at Millheim by Rev. W. J. Dice.

Struble-Krape. Clyde I. Struble and Luella B. Krape were united in marriage Wednesday evening, July 13th, 1910, at 8 p. m., at the parsonage at Pleasant Gap, by Rev. D. A. Sower, pastor of the Methodist church. Their many friends join in wishing them a long and happy life.

Mayer-Lucas. On the evening of July 5th, 1910, a quiet affair was celebrated at the home of George B. Lucas, at Runkleville, when his daughter, Dora M., was given away in marriage to Giddens E. Mayer, late of McKeesport, Pa. The nuptials were solemnized by Rev. J. Neplzer, of Snow Shoe Intersection. The couple made a very pleasing appearance, and a social time was enjoyed by all present; the happy couple have our hearty congratulations with a hope of long life and much happiness.

Hay and grain could not have had a more favorable spell of weather for gathering into the barns.

The big picnics and family reunions are on the program to come off from this on to the end of September.

Miss Mollie Weston, of Melbourne, Australia, who is making a tour of the world alone, will arrive in Bellefonte and become the guest of her uncle, Dr. R. L. Weston, secretary of the Y. M. C. A. It is expected that she will remain here for four or five weeks.

The Reporter says that Ex-Representative J. Henry Wetzel, of Bellefonte, was sent to Centre Hall recently by the pike company to locate the line between the township and borough, at which point Pennsylvania Avenue and the Bellefonte pike join. The point designated by Mr. Wetzel does not correspond with that heretofore held to be the dividing line by the borough authorities.

Bellefontes Fourth of July came off so safe and sane, to the delight of everybody, that folks would not object if it came more than once a year. Now why not have an Old Home Week arranged for it would be greeted by all as the right thing and can be a grand success. An Old Home Week has been celebrated in scores of instances within a few years, and which are growing in popularity with each coming year. Bellefonte could make a grand and memorable success of it, and has the history of its and the county's past to build upon for such an interesting occasion. Bellefonte has the reputation of never doing anything by halves.

Don't Delay.

If you got a letter from us last week kindly give the matter your consideration. It may only be for a year or two, but it deserves attention. If it is for several years, you have no excuse for neglecting the bill.

Big Rye. T. M. Richards brought to the Tyrone Herald office Monday evening a sample of the kind of rye now being raised on G. W. Plummer's farm on the hill southeast of Tyrone. The longest stalk measures ten feet two inches and the remaining stalks are about nine and a half feet in height. Mr. Richards says there is on the Plummer farm a ten-acre field of this rye, six acres of which will measure seven feet, and all of it standing so thick and being so heavily headed that cutting it is a matter of some concern.

Short Sues Savage. John F. Short, editor of the Clearfield Republican, has prosecuted Matt. Savage, on the charge of libel. The allegation is that by the unnamed "boodler" to whom Savage referred in a recent number of his paper, the Daily Spirit, he really meant the editor of the Republican who emphatically denies that he ever handled any Berry money.

Perhaps the breezes at the seashore are caused by the people who are blowing in their money.
