

BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

—Miss Ella Altera, of this place is sojourning at Spring Mills a few days this week.
—Miss Belle Weaver, stenographer for Gettig, Bower & Zerby, has returned from her vacation.
—On Monday a son of George Waite, of Bellefonte, was playing with matches when they ignited and the boy was badly burned about the face.
—R. B. Taylor and family spent Sunday at Penn Cave. They were taken over in George Beezer's large automobile. It was a delightful trip.
—Mrs. Harry Wert, of west end of Brushvalley, left on Monday for Illinois to visit her son and see that western country, and will remain some six weeks.
—Rev. D. R. P. Barry, of Hartleton, who spent several days in Bellefonte this week as the guest of his son, Rev. Fred Barry, left on Wednesday for his home.
—Mrs. Edward Latham, of Harrisburg, is visiting in Bellefonte at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Newton Haupt. She expects to remain for ten days.
—Miss Carrie Harper left on Monday for Philadelphia. From there she will take a little trip up along the New England coast. She expects to be absent several weeks.
—Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, of Mercer, are rejoicing over the arrival of a young son in their family recently. Mrs. Thompson was formerly Miss Mae Bryan, daughter of John Bryan, of this place.
—Miss Anna Reynolds, daughter of postmaster Reynolds, of Reedsville, is a pleasant guest of Miss Mary Hicklen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Hicklen, at their home on Logan street. She will return home on Monday.
—Homer Decker and county commissioner John Dunlap will leave for Erie on Friday morning, on Saturday, they will represent the local order of Moose in an Inter-State convention between Southern New York and Northern Pennsylvania.
—The second quarterly communion service will be held in the local United Evangelical church next Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Rev. J. C. Reese, presiding elder of Centre District, will be present and preach the Word. Quarterly conference, Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.
—Dr. Elio Meek and friend, Mrs. Keedy, of Johnstown, spent Sunday in Bellefonte at the residence of her parents, Hon. and Mrs. P. Gray Meek. They left on Monday morning. Olie Meek, of Philadelphia, brother of the Senator, is now spending a brief vacation in Bellefonte and on Buffalo Run with his sisters.
—This week Chaney Hicklen, of Bellefonte, received a business letter from Frank H. Gamel, formerly a Y. M. C. A. secretary in Bellefonte. He is now pastor of the Presbyterian church at Lake City, Iowa. He is a smart young man, well versed in everything necessary to make him a minister of great promise. His many friends will be glad to hear from him.
—George T. Bush and sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Calloway, arrived on Sunday in New York City from their trip around the world. The former reached Bellefonte on Monday while his sister stopped off at Jersey Shore to see friends. George is as full of his trip as he can well get. He is a close observer and saw more than a majority of the crowd he was with. His story of the trip is exceedingly interesting.
—Mrs. Russell Jury, who possesses special talent for playing the piano, and who for a couple of years had been delighting the large audiences at the scenic by her skillful playing, has resigned. Her place is being filled by her sister, Miss Gertrude Long, of Tyrone, who is also a gifted musician. Showing that there is a musical streak running through the Long family. Her playing is greatly appreciated. For the present she is making her home in the pleasant family of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Jury.
—Prof. Ira McCloskey, superintendent of the public schools of Clinton county, was a visitor in Bellefonte on Monday morning. He was on his way to State College to visit a number of the Clinton county teachers who are attending the teachers' summer school now being held at that place. Prof. McCloskey keeps in close touch on the teachers of the adjoining counties which is a guarantee that the very best service is being rendered. At one time Prof. McCloskey was a teacher in the Centre county schools and therefore our people have an interest in his success.
—Rev. Richard Crittenden and wife returned to Bellefonte on Tuesday evening after a delightful sojourn of five weeks with friends in Brooklyn, Bethlehem and Allentown. In Wednesday's issue of the Philadelphia Press Rev. Crittenden had an article highly commending the action of the Roman Catholic church for the benevolent feeling it has shown toward the World's Sunday school convention held at Edinburgh, Scotland, recently. The article is well written and will receive considerable attention from the readers of the Press.
—Among the visitors in Bellefonte on Monday were W. T. Fye and Lloya Haines, of Howard. They fell into the hands of county commissioner John Dunlap, who piloted them through the practically new court house. They were very much pleased with the general appearance of the whole interior. At one time in five minutes a satisfactory inspection of the court house could be made, but now an hour can be spent there very profitably, but you must have a guide or you may get lost or miss something. Before returning home Messrs. Fye and Haines were pleasant callers at this office where Mr. Fye dropped some of his good elegant money.
—On Wednesday night of last week about 11 o'clock, Mr. and Mrs. Buck and Mr. and Mrs. Kern, of Cincinnati, Ohio, arrived in Bellefonte in an automobile and have since been guests of Mr. Kern's brothers, Milton and Frank Kern. They left the Ohio city on Sunday morning about 10 o'clock, thus the trip, counting frequent stops, was made in about three days. While here they have been making frequent trips, one to Penn Cave, Millheim and other places of interest. On Wednesday of this week they started on their way back, going by the way of Atlantic City, Philadelphia, New York City and Buffalo, N. Y. They are very pleasant people and while here had a delightful time.
—W. Harrison Walker, Esq., left on Friday for Titusville.
—S. M. Bell, a prominent business man of Boalsburg, was here on Monday and paid us a visit.
—The records of the Board of Health show that Bellefonte has not for many months been as free of disease as it is at present.
—Communion services in the Lutheran church next Sabbath, morning and evening. Preparatory services on Friday evening previous.
—A wagonload of apples on the streets on Monday were sold at fifty cents per bushel. The fruit is turning out more plentiful than supposed earlier in the spring.
—Landlord W. L. Dagggett of the Bush House, left on Monday for Atlantic City where he joined his wife and two sons who have been at this popular resort for the last two weeks.
—Mr. and Mrs. L. Freeman arrived in Bellefonte the other day from Cambridge Springs and will make an indefinite visit at the home of Mrs. Freeman's mother Mrs. Isaac Long-acre.
—Miss Elizabeth Blanchard left on Monday afternoon for Lenox, Mass., where she will conduct a sale of baskets made in the basket shop of this place, and which are in great demand all over the country.
—Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Reynolds, son and daughter, of Lancaster, have been guests of Col. and Mrs. W. Fred Reynolds and family and on Wednesday evening of last week Mr. Reynolds was the guest of honor at a stag party given at the Country Club.
—Mrs. Hoffer, who went to Atlantic City two months ago, has returned to Bellefonte accompanied by her granddaughter, Miss Ellen Hayes, and Miss Mary Tyler, a school friend of Ellen's from Hagerstown, Md. Miss Tyler is a grand-niece of President Tyler.
—Al Garman with his Ford car was in town on Sunday. Later Bert Bayard joined him and they started on a tour through the eastern part of the State. Mr. Garman has traveled three thousand miles without touching a tire, which is an unusual record.
—Robert McKnight, Jr., and family, of Philadelphia, are visiting his sisters on Buffalo Run. For years his father was superintendent of the Bellefonte gas works. While in this vicinity Robert makes frequent trips to Bellefonte where his old friends are glad to meet and chat with him.
—We received the past week a copy of the Toronto Globe, sent us through the kindness of Dr. VanTres, who is spending several weeks at Buffalo, Chautauque Lake, and parts of Canada. He returned home on Monday and had a most enjoyable trip. His exercise at Chautauque proved most interesting to him.
—One of the happiest young men in Bellefonte is Charles Hughes, the mixologist at the Garman House. No doubt he would sooner have had a big boy, but a girl will answer all purposes. He arrived Friday night of last day in the week. Many of the greatest events in history have occurred on Friday, so some day that bright, interesting young girl may be a queen.
—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hewitt and young son, of St. Louis, Mo., are at present guests of Mr. Hewitt's parents, Rev. and Mrs. John Hewitt, on Lamb street. Mr. Hewitt is quite a prominent person in St. Louis, being the general superintendent of the St. Louis Island Suburban Railway company. He likes the most as Ben Franklin, or the Greenly would say, he's growing up with the western country, which means prosperity. His friends here are glad to see him.
—Charles Trippe, familiarly known here as "Ben," has been spending a few days in Bellefonte as the guest of his sister, Mrs. Yeager, on the corner of Spruce street. At one time he was agent here for the Adams Express Co., but since he has been on the road as a salesman. He would study a long time before going into an office again. He handles most of the output of the Bellefonte Match factory, and his territory is mostly in New York State. He's a good, loyal fellow, and his friends are always glad to see him.
—The coolest place in Bellefonte during these hot evenings is just at the scenic, since Manager Brown has put in the large exhaust fan, run by electricity, there is positively no heat for people remaining away from this popular place of amusement. Besides the fan making the room cool it draws out all the impure air so that there is no danger of getting drowsy and inclined to sleep. You are as fresh and as bright when you come out as when you went in. This is sort of an expensive luxury, but Mr. Brown has demonstrated quite often that there is nothing too good for the patrons of the scenic. The pictures are growing better nightly and you can't afford to miss them.
—During the month of August, Dr. J. Allison Platts, pastor of the Bellefonte Presbyterian church, will be away on his vacation. He will spend a short time in Philadelphia and then go to Elmira, N. Y., where he will visit his cousins. During his absence the church will be open two Sundays for services. The first Sunday the pulpit will be occupied by Dr. D. W. Wood, of Gettysburg, brother of Judge Woods, of Lewistown, who caused Mifflin county to go dry, and of whom so much comment has been made. The pulpit will be occupied on the third Sunday by Rev. W. K. Foster, of Jenkintown, a gentleman who is well and favorably known here. The church will be closed on the second and fourth Sundays.
—We don't mean to be sacrilegious or to discountenance any good the Salvation Army may be doing in Bellefonte, but an amusing little incident took place in front of the Bush House which is worthy of note. Three ladies of the Army were holding their usual evening services, one of which held the bass drum. The man with the hurdy-gurdy soon made his appearance on the scene because he thought he could pick up some pennies and nickles. The ladies spanked up and the contest was on between the hurdy-gurdy, the bass drum and the women's voices. There was no let-up, the women holding their own, although under a higher pressure of nerve force than the man, because all he had to do was to turn the crank. The situation was laughable and amused a large crowd. Finally a policeman made the man with the hurdy-gurdy take a sneak and the ladies continued their services. This is one time when women's rights prevailed.

—Terrific thunder gust last night, with hail and 1 inch rain.
—Mrs. Hugh N. Crider is spending this week in Tyrone with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Freeman.
—Mrs. J. A. Barnhart and daughter, of Bellefonte, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Barnhart's mother, at Punxsutawney.
—Mrs. George B. Johnston and four children, of Beaver Falls, have arrived in Bellefonte and will be for an indefinite time with her mother, Mrs. J. A. Alkens.
—Mrs. Harry Dawson, of Philadelphia, and her little daughter, are now in Bellefonte, expecting to spend some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Cherry.
—Ogden Mallin, of Bellefonte, is doing special work in the county commissioners' office this week. He is a good mechanic and expects the work in a satisfactory manner.
—James J. Steinkirchner and Joseph Steinkirchner, both of Newton, Kansas, and cousins, are in Bellefonte guests of their aunts, Mrs. Joseph Ceader and Mrs. Joseph Fox.
—Miss Winifred M. Gates, stenographer for Henry C. Quigley, Harry Keller and J. Thomas Mitchell, attorneys, spent a portion of her vacation with relatives in Lemont last week.
—There will be a festival held at Pleasant View school house on Saturday evening, July 30th for the benefit of the Evangelical church. All invited. Ice cream and cake will be served.
—Miss Florence Peters, who was in Bellefonte visiting Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Ray and family, returned to her home in Lancaster. She was accompanied by Miss Mary Ray, who will spend some time at the Peters home.
—The Garbrick restaurant, at the lower corner of the Crider block, has changed proprietors. John Trafford is the new host and he knows how to serve the appetites of his guests to a T. Give Mr. Trafford a trial and you will agree to what we say.
—H. U. Tibbens and family, of Wheeling, W. Va., arrived in Bellefonte on Monday afternoon and are guests of Mr. Tibbens' aunt, Mrs. Jane Brown, on Howard street. As usual, they are in the best of health and will enjoy their annual vacation.
—Dr. Ambrose M. Schmidt, pastor of the Bellefonte Reformed church, left on Monday for Lancaster where he will attend a Spiritual Conference. After that he expects to go to Ocean Grove to spend several days. Because of his absence the church will be closed next Sabbath.
—On Monday George H. Hazel and family left for near Greensburg Pa., where he will take charge of a farm. He was formerly employed at the Nittany furnace, but the farmer to whom the man is making the money now, he thought he would try his luck. His friends hope to hear of his success.
—On Thursday J. Grover Solt was working on the scaffolding at the New Bellefonte A. M. E. church. The scaffolding was a distance of eighteen feet to the ground. Mr. Solt was pretty badly bruised and shaken up but fortunately no bones were broken. He was on the job on Friday, still feeling a little sore.
—Prof. John Harrison, formerly a teacher in the Bellefonte public schools, but who had been teaching for several years in the schools at Jersey Shore, is practically a physical wreck. Chaney Hicklen spent Sunday with the family and found Mr. Harrison in a serious condition mentally. After things were all over, Mr. Harrison said he was suffering from paralysis. His recovery is doubtful.
—County commissioner Zimmerman when asked on Monday what disposition would be made of the old town clock, he stated it would be put up at public sale at the corner of Spruce and Spruce streets. The interior of the clock house necessitated the moving away of some of the old furniture and their equipment which will be disposed of to the highest bidder. There will be desks, chairs, carpets, hats, racks, filing cases and fifty other things will be the bill of sale. There will be some bargains.
—William Bartly, an aged citizen of Bellefonte, had been spending part of the summer on his farm, along the Jacksonville road, siding his son in getting the crops cut and in the barn. On Wednesday afternoon, of last week, he was on a load of hay and on going over a small bridge one of the wheels of the wagon slipped off. Mr. Bartly was thrown off the load to the ground. His injuries consisted in having two ribs broken, and he was otherwise injured. He was given the proper medical aid at the home and is getting along as well as can be expected.
—On Monday Senator P. Gray Meek and wife left for Hecla Park where they are temporarily located in the old McMillan home. As the saying goes, they are out camping, thus getting away from the cares and anxieties of the home for a short time. The interior of the house is nicely papered and everything is an improvement over the tent that is generally used for occasions like this kind. The Country Club, who had been occupying the house for some time, moved recently to make room for Mr. and Mrs. Meek. In a few weeks the club expect to occupy their new home which is a beautiful building, well adapted for the club's use.
—The other day George Chambers, the Bellefonte tailor, was washing his dog and it became obstreperous, when George struck the canine across the mouth with his left hand. The result was that a deep gash was cut in the fleshy part of the hand by coming in contact with the dog's teeth. It bled freely and it was some time before he succeeded in getting it stopped. He afterwards put turpentine on the wound which had a tendency of lessening the pain and keeping it from swelling to any great extent. He is now not feeling any bad effects from the wound but the safest plan would be to shoot the dog and show his hand to some good physician. A dog bite isn't to be fooled with, especially in Dog Days.
—Among the greatly afflicted people of Bellefonte is Samuel A. Donachy, formerly superintendent of the Pennsylvania Match works. As has been previously stated he became a victim of the dreaded disease, necrosis. Several times he was compelled to submit to an operation for the removal of pieces of the jaw bone. On Friday the jaw bone broke, leaving his chin sort of crooked or lop-sided. It has been giving him considerable pain, and on Monday afternoon he and his wife left for the Williamsport hospital where he is again submitted to another operation. It is very difficult to surmise the outcome, but it is to be hoped that something can be done to give him permanent relief.

—Ladies' $2.00 Oxfords reduced to $1.50 at Yeager's.
—Sunday was a scorcher—thermometer registered 97 degrees at 3 in the afternoon.
—If you are in arrears over a year on subscription you are liable to miss this paper, unless you pay up.
—Mrs. J. C. Ward and two daughters, of Pittsburg, are visiting at the Ward home on Curtin street.
—Thomas Rishel, of Bellefonte, went to Jersey Shore on Saturday where he met his daughter and visited friends over Sabbath.
—300 delinquent subscribers will be cut from our mailing list during the month of August. We don't care for subscribers who are not willing to pay within a reasonable time for the papers they are reading.
—R. P. Miller, James Krape and Stewart Flack, of Bellefonte; Miss Burd Ross and Lizzie Gill, of Pleasant Gap, were among those who went on the P. R. R. excursion to Niagara Falls on Wednesday.
—Owing to our linotype being out of commission several hours due to irregular electric power while changes were being made on the lines, and some trouble with the molting process we were delayed this week and in consequence many news items were omitted.
—Methodist Day is being had today in the park near Altoona. Bellefonte is being represented by Dr. Thomas Wilcox and daughter, and Rev. C. C. Shuey. Mrs. Andrew J. Swartz, Rev. Sower and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Belget, of Pleasant Gap, are also present.
—Martin Fauble, the Bellefonte merchant, who has been seriously ill for the last month or more, is gradually growing weaker and the dissolution of the soul and body is not far distant. It is reported that in addition to his heart trouble he has contracted pneumonia. His case is so critical that the members of his family have been hurriedly summoned home.
—Misses Margaret and Mary Thomas, daughters of Supt. F. H. Thomas, who have been in the Bellefonte hospital since Thursday suffering some malady, are not much improved. It is thought now that they are suffering from typhoid fever which they contracted while on their recent trip to Colorado. They are both popular young ladies in this community and their many friends hope for their recovery.
—Who put the big fish on the top of the Court House dome? Why, it was Jack Gentzel and Charles Houser. It is about four feet long, made of copper, and exceedingly heavy. It's a Japanese trick to put the fish in its place, but Jack and Charles were equal for the occasion. Jack says that it is so high up there that John Dunlap, "Billy" Hurley, Dave Foreman and others look like ants walking around on the pavement. The fish and ball, on the spire have been nicely bronzed which makes a beautiful effect. The top of the dome has been painted black and the dome proper will be white.
—Sunday morning, Samuel McClure, son of Mr. and Mrs. James J. McClure, very acceptably filled the pulpit in the Bellefonte Presbyterian church. This was his initial debut before a large congregation and he clearly demonstrated that preaching the gospel was a well chosen occupation. His discourse showed much thought and was delivered in a way that was pleasing to his hearers. He is a student, just out of Princeton, so that he has time to develop into a first class minister. In September Mr. McClure will sail for China where he goes as a missionary. He has thoroughly equipped himself for the work and there is no question but what his influence will be felt in that far off country.
