

BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

Dr. Thomas Wilcox and family are spending their vacation at Ocean Grove.
Work on the State road along Allegheny street is now under way as far as Howard street.
Miss Carrie Miller has returned from a month's visit to her sister, Mrs. Irvin, at Buffalo.
The commissioners' sale of furnishings from the Court House, last Saturday, netted over $350.
Miss Alice Gorman, of Canonsburg, Pa., is visiting in Bellefonte at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Nissley, on High street.
There will be services in the Bellefonte St. John's Episcopal church on Sunday, August 20th, at 8 and 11 o'clock a. m.
Mrs. John Knisely, of Bellefonte, is seriously ill with rheumatism at her home on Thomas street. She is being attended by a nurse.
Miss Louise Maitland, of Williamsport, who had been visiting friends in Bellefonte, left for her home on Monday afternoon.
Henry Lutz, wife and daughter, of Illinois, are visiting friends in Buffalo Run and State College. They are having a pleasant time.
Miss Eva Crissman left on Wednesday for New Jersey where she will spend two weeks with Mrs. Walker, formerly Miss Ida Orris.
Knisley and Rhoads, of Bellefonte were awarded the contract for a reinforced concrete bridge of foot span across spring creek in College township.
Mrs. Dominick Judge, who has been ailing with stomach trouble for some time past, was in Philadelphia recently for the purpose of consulting a specialist.
The ladies' auxiliary of the Bellefonte Y. M. C. A. will hold an exchange in the Y. M. C. A. building on Saturday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock.
Miss Mame McGovern, clerk in the insurance office of Oscar Gray, left today for Buffalo, Niagara Falls, N. Y., and Toronto, Canada, where she will spend a well earned vacation.
W. R. Gainfort, 168 east Cortin street, announces that his next short-hand class will open on Thursday evening, September 1st. Those desiring to join will please apply at once.
Mrs. Charles Donachy and children left Bellefonte on Wednesday for Reno where she is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Shnizer, the latter being formerly Miss Adelaide Woodring.
Henry C. Quigley, Esq., left on Sunday afternoon for the Nantuxet Islands, off the coast of Massachusetts, for a visit of about two weeks with his family, when he will accompany them back home again.
Miss Mary Barber, of Washington, D. C., who had been visiting for a week at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Green, left Wednesday for her home. She is a pleasant lady, possessing rare musical ability.
Senator Heiple and Cooney Miller left on Wednesday morning for Frenchville, in Clearfield county, where they attended a large picnic that is the event of the season for that section.
On Friday a committee of the Centre County Veteran Association will meet in the office of Squire W. H. Musser, in Bellefonte, to make arrangements for the annual reunion which will take place some time in September.
The balloon went up on the ball grounds on Tuesday afternoon when Policeman Harry Dukeman went on the diamond and wanted to know what all the fuss was about. He found it to be more mind than anything else. Harry isn't afraid of 'em.
The ladies' aid society of the Bellefonte Lutheran church will hold a missionary social on Thursday evening of next week, at the residence of G. F. Garthoff, on Reynolds avenue. The public is cordially invited to go and have their measure taken and pay the fine. Refreshments will be served.
A. G. Stoll, who has a shoemaker shop and store out near the Bellefonte furnace, is getting along very nicely. He is a good shoemaker and anything given to him along that line will be well done. He keeps a nice line of cigars and tobacco together with groceries of all kinds. Give him a call and be convinced.
Owing to the inability to secure the men desired to address the public at the dedication of the new school building the time fixed for the dedication has been postponed. The time will be fixed later and the public given due notice. The persons desired are on their vacation and cannot be had until sometime in September.
James Haines, who is visiting friends near Jacksonville, was in Bellefonte looking up some of his old friends. He left Centre county fifty years ago for Iowa, and this is his first trip back. He finds that the majority of his relatives and friends have gone the way of all the world. Should he visit the cities of the dead he would find more familiar names than he would elsewhere.
Rev. Elmer Lane Williams, pastor of the Grace Methodist church, of Chicago, is visiting his parents and friends at Martinsburg. A few years ago he was interested in spiritual things about Bellefonte and made a number of excellent addresses here. He went west and has developed into an able and forceful minister of the gospel who has been doing a successful work in Chicago. Out in that section of the States a minister ought to be kept busy.
A number of councilmen being out of town on Monday evening, it was impossible to get enough together to hold the regular meeting, and so it was decided to hold a special meeting at the call of the president. Squire W. H. Musser was present for the purpose of making a speech upon the terrible condition of Lamb street. It is full of ruts, large stones as big as your head, and everything looks as if a Kansas cyclone had passed over the place. Mr. Musser a few years ago has been paid to the alley, near J. L. Spangler's residence, than Lambstreet. His intention was to point out the miserable condition of some of the boardwalks on that thoroughfare. He says that Mrs. William Musser fell on one of the walks and to a certain extent injured herself. Squire was loaded for bear, and we are sorry he didn't get a chance to shoot.

Miss Mary Linn left on Monday afternoon for Harrisburg to visit friends.
E. E. Davis left on Monday afternoon on a business trip to Frankfort, Kentucky.
Miss Harriet Foster, daughter of Mrs. Edward Foster, is visiting friends in Altoona and Juniata.
Mrs. Bellinger, of New York City, with her two children are now in Bellefonte the guests of Mrs. Bellinger's parents, Mrs. and Mrs. J. D. Sourbeck.
Mr. and Mrs. John VanPelt, who had been visiting in Bellefonte, left on Thursday afternoon. The former went home to Spangler, while the latter went to Washington, D. C. to visit her brother, Charles Harris.
James Bayard, who spent several weeks down at Scranton, is home again among his friends. He was selling swings in that city for Jesse Cox, and as the season is over for them, he returned home. Jim thinks Scranton is a great city.
By turning to the inside pages of this issue you will find an important announcement from the firm of Claeser's Underselling Store. They are making a special drive to cut down stock and for that reason they have some real bargains to offer.
S. A. Donachy, who recently spent several weeks in the Williamsport hospital, has returned home again much encouraged over his last operation for necrosis of the jaw. The disease has been checked and the indications now point to a permanent recovery.
On next Sunday, Rev. Samuel McClure, son of Mr. and Mrs. James I. McClure will preach in the Bellefonte United Brethren church. He is a fluent speaker and those who go there to divine service will not be disappointed. We bespeak for him a large congregation.
T. Strawn and family left here last week for the western section of the State where they have been visiting friends in the vicinity of Scottsdale and Somerset county. They left in their automobile and will do considerable touring in that section before returning home.
Mrs. Charles Heiser, of Bellefonte, is on a little pleasant vacation. From here she went to Philadelphia and is now visiting friends in New Jersey. On her return home she expects to stop off a few days in Harrisburg; she is having an excellent time.
Rev. D. G. Brouse, of Warriorsburg, preached two elegant sermons in the Methodist church on Sunday. He is one of the old-time Methodists who believes in preaching the gospel in demonstration of the spirit. He also believes in the hearty "Amen" as coming from the pew. While here he was the guest of Rev. C. C. Shuey.
F. E. Naginy delivered a new Ford touring car to a party over in Mifflin county the past week. In this connection we would mention that while Mrs. Naginy is spending two weeks at Atlantic City, he and "Togo" are keeping house and are getting along admirably. Of course they will continue to be absent about three weeks. The trip will certainly be enjoyed.
Edward Bower, who was clerk in the office of the Bellefonte Lumber Co., was taken to his home at Aaronsburg on Tuesday afternoon. He has been suffering from pneumonia and intermittent fever. If no further complications set in he will recover.
Mrs. William M. Echols, nee Miss Blanche Jacobs, and her little daughter, of Moundsville, W. Va., who had been visiting her mother, Mrs. Florence Jacobs, in Bellefonte, was suddenly called home by the death of her mother-in-law, Mrs. Samuel Echols.
Col. Chandler, of New York, for 18 years in charge of the Salvation Army college, will conduct a special service in their rooms in Bellefonte on Thursday evening, August 18, at 8 o'clock. The public is cordially invited. Services each evening conducted by the officers in charge.
Harold Gardner, of Bellefonte, is going around with a piece of cotton tied on his chin. His friends are not so sure whether it is a boll or whether his best girl scratched him with her pearly white teeth. Whatever it may be they wish that no serious results may follow.
The Gettysburg Cavalry Commission is depending to some extent on Col. John Taylor, of Reedsville, for its supply of young horses. Col. John P. Nicholson, the other day, purchased the fifth colt from Col. Taylor, the price paid for the last one being $175. Col. Taylor is well known in Bellefonte.
On next Sabbath Rev. W. K. Foster, of Jenkintown, Pa., will fill the pulpit in the Bellefonte Presbyterian church. He is an old Centre county boy and his many friends will be glad to hear him. Rev. and Mrs. Foster, with their son, Herbert, have been visiting friends near Stormstown and State College.
Morton M. Moore, sales representative of the Gishel Machine Co. of Madison, Wisconsin, has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Mable, at the Bush House. He is a young man of more than ordinary ability in the business world, and, of course, is making good. His friends in Bellefonte are always glad to see him.
The entertainment and refreshment committee of the ladies' auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. will hold an exchange in the Y. M. C. A. rooms on Saturday, August 20th, at which both delicacies and substantial will be on sale. A liberal patronage is asked for as the proceeds of the exchange is a starting of a fund for the after-summer cleaning of the Y. M. C. A.
Attending the Shaffer-Hazel Reunion last Saturday, at Hecla Park, was a representative of the Hazel connection of Indiana, in the person of Jacob Hazel, of Goshen. Mr. Hazel has been in the Hoozer state many years and is one of its respected citizens. In company with Samuel Hazel of State College, the Democrat was favored with a call from these gentlemen.
On last Saturday a gentleman from Blinburg attended the commissioners' junk sale. He had 250 big plunkers to lay down for the old town clock, but the commissioners, Woodring, Zimmerman and Dunlap, had decreed that it should not leave the county, so Phillipsburg got it at a greatly reduced price. The commissioners were right, as it will be preserved for years by the people of Phillipsburg as one of the interesting relics of the county. The clock is pronounced by experts to be in fine condition, showing but little wear in 54 years, and will be good for 100 years more.
The Brockerhoff mansion, on the corner of Bishop and Spring streets, is nearing completion, after undergoing some extensive improvements throughout. The changes in the exterior, while they preserve the outline of the former building, are quite pleasing in appearance. The large porch and the front entrance are decidedly colonial and give the building a pleasing effect and make it one of the most attractive homes in the town. The interior has been entirely renewed, and the new furnishings that will be placed in it will make the home ideal. Much good taste has been displayed throughout.

RECENT DEATHS.
BARNES:—After an illness of several days, John Barnes, Sr., died about 1:30 o'clock Monday afternoon at the family residence, in Phillipsburg, of cancer of the throat. The wife and most of his children were at the death-bed.
HOOVER:—Alice Hoover died in the Danville hospital about two weeks ago. She was a Potter township charge, demented, and had been in the hospital about eighteen years. Her age was upwards of 55 years. She died of malarial fever, and was a daughter of Charles Hoover, of Coburn, and a resident in Potter of some years made her a charge of that township. Interment at Danville.
ROTE:—Mrs. Fred Rote, of Tyrone, became ill on Saturday night with influenza, pneumonia and she was taken to the Altoona hospital where her life passed away on Sunday. Mrs. Rote's maiden name was Miss Sadie Steele. She was born at Martha Furnace, September 10, 1837, and was aged 72 years, 4 months and 4 days. About eleven years ago she moved with her parents to Tyrone and has resided there ever since.
FLEGAL:—Adam Lever Flegal, one of Phillipsburg's oldest and most highly esteemed residents, passed away Friday evening. His death was the result of Bright's disease and other complications, including bronchitis, with which he had been afflicted for years. The deceased was born in Phillipsburg on June 17, 1828, making his age 82 years, 1 month and 26 days. He was the son of Rev. John Flegal, an old Methodist minister and one of Phillipsburg's pioneers, and the father of twelve children.
TYSON:—Mrs. Lavina Tyson, widow of the late Benjamin Tyson, died at the home of her son, N. D. Tyson, at Greenburr, on Wednesday afternoon, after a prolonged illness due to dropsy. Deceased was 66 years old and survived by two sons and two daughters, as follows: Daniel Tyson, Greenburr; William Tyson, Nittany valley; Mrs. Frank Wolfe, Lewisburg, and Mrs. Fred Sleight, of Nittany valley. Funeral services were conducted in the Reformed church at Greenburr on Friday forenoon by Rev. J. M. Berger, of the Evangelical church, Loganton.
BOOZER:—Mrs. Sarah G. Boozier, died on Saturday afternoon at the home of her son-in-law, Frank Glasgow, at Bellwood, the result of the infirmities of age. The deceased, whose maiden name was Sarah G. Price, was born at Millin, Mifflin county, Pa., February 4, 1825, making her age 84 years, 6 months and 9 days. Much of her earlier life was spent at Potter's Mills, this county, where her husband, John Boozier, deceased, operated a woolen factory. She was a life long member of the Methodist church and a lady of excellent grace. The funeral took place at Bellwood.
YOUNG:—Charles Young, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Young, of Nittany, died in the Clearfield hospital on Monday evening, August 8, after about a week's illness with typhoid fever. He was born at Nittany and was about thirty-two years old. For a number of years past he worked on the railroad with headquarters at Clearfield, and was always an industrious and well liked employee. Surviving him are his wife and three small children; his aged parents, one brother, Arthur, of Clearfield, and the following sisters: Mrs. George Patterson, of Beech Creek; Mrs. George Harpster, of Bellefonte; Miss Maria, at home, and a sister in Pittsburg. The funeral was held from his late home, burial being made at Clearfield.
SNAVELY:—William A. Snavely passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. C. Young, in Kansas City, Kan., Sunday morning, 7th at 11 o'clock. He had been in feeble health for over four years and about a year ago he and his wife went to Kansas City to make their home with Mrs. Young. The deceased was born in Centre county, January 13, 1834, and died July 31, 1910, being 76 years, 6 months and 18 days. He was married to Miss Nancy Rockey, January 4, 1860, and went to Kansas in 1878. They settled in Lincoln county, where they followed farming till 1891, at which time they moved to Huron and Mr. Snavely followed the trade of carpenter as long as he was able to work. He is survived by his widow, six children, twenty grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. The names of the children in the order of their ages is as follows: Mrs. C. W. Young, Kansas City, Kan.; Edgar A. Snavely, St. Joseph, Mo.; Mrs. Nora Purey, Jewell City, Kas.; Harry G. and John L. Huron, Kas.; Frank Snavely, Hill City, Kas. This is the first death in the family and all the children are grown and have families.
FAUBLE:—Martin Fauble, a highly respected citizen, and one of the most progressive merchants of Bellefonte, passed away on Wednesday morning at 8:30 o'clock at his residence on east High street. He had been ailing for several months with kidney trouble and hardening of the arteries. Mr. Fauble came to Bellefonte about the year 1863, at the instance of Abram Baum, who was then a peddler of notions throughout Centre and the adjoining counties. Mr. Fauble, after coming here, associated himself with Mr. Baum in the peddling business, thus traveling together for several years. Finally the deceased went in partnership with Simon Lyon, the late owner of the building on Bishop street, on Bishop street. Later the partnership was dissolved and Mr. Fauble went into S. & A. Loeb's store as a clerk. He was a progressive young man and helped to build up a large trade. Loeb's store at that time was always vigorous and found its place in the county seat. Being of a judicious turn of mind he saved his money until he was able to go into business for himself, choosing the clothing and gents' furnishing business. He first started in a little room in the Ammerhout building on Bishop street. His business began growing and in order to secure larger quarters moved to the room now occupied by George Knisely. From there he moved across the street into the two rooms in the Brockerhoff House. He was always vigorous and found at the place of business up until several months prior to his death. Socially he was a good, genial gentleman, having many friends, who are sorry that his life is ended. He was 66 years of age and of Jewish descent. Early in life he was married to Miss Loeb, sister of the late Simon and Adolph Loeb, who survives him with the following children: Adolph, with whom he was associated in business; Mrs. William Schloss, of Philadelphia; Mrs. William Seal, of Harrisburg; Joseph, of Monacaola City; Miss Mabel, at home; Mrs. Ida Tsag, of Harrisburg, and Miss Rosie at home. The funeral will take place on Friday afternoon; interment in the Hebrew cemetery.

OVER THE COUNTY.

Mr. A. S. Black, of the American Detective Agency, and general manager of the Morrison House, Philadelphia is making his wife, who is Miss Hannah Mary Evert, an extended visit.
C. E. Whipple, of Gorgona, Canal Zone, a civil engineer on the Panama Canal, in company with his brother-in-law, Landford Wood, of Spring Mills, were callers on Wednesday. Mr. Whipple arrived on Monday on a brief vacation. He reports rapid progress on the big ditch Uncle Sam is digging between the two continents.
Vicious bulldogs, belonging to Jacob Cass, attacked Mrs. Charles Sellers, of Waddle, and Miss Bricker, of Bellefonte, while they were driving in the vicinity of Washington. The dogs attempted to jump into the buggy, and finally attacked the horse, biting it severely. Two of the brutes were beaten off, but the third, which had closed its jaws on the horse's head, had to be shot.
