GOVERNORS OF PENNSYLVANIA.

Portraits of Each Accompanied by Brief Biographical Sketch-Will be Published in Order, One Each Week.

ROBERT EMORY PATTISON—1883-1887—1891-1895.

Robert Emory Pattison was the son of a Methodist Episcopal clergyman and was born in 1850 at Quantico, Md., where his father was stationed at the time. He was educated in the public schools in Philadelphia and afterward studied law under the Hon. Lewis C. Cassidy. He was admitted to the bar in 1872. Five years later he was elected comptroller of Philadelphia. He was only twenty-seven years of age at the time, and so successful was his administration that he was re-elected in 1880 by a large majority. Mr. Pattison made a whirlwind campaign when he ran for governor the first time, covering 1,400 miles and speaking in forty counties in two weeks' time. He was elected by a plurality of over 40,000. Four years later he was reelected. Each time he was the candidate of the Democratic party. He was defeated for governor in 1902.
