

BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

Thad. Hamilton left on Wednesday on a business trip to Lock Haven. Among the guests in Bellefonte this week were Misses Ruth and Mary Yearick, of Lock Haven. Miss Francis Ellmore is visiting at the pleasant residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Rankin, on Curtin street. Dillen, who had been playing on the Bellefonte base ball team, has been released, and on Wednesday afternoon went to Patton. Miss Martha McEntire, of Williamsburg, who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Yeager, left on Wednesday for her home. Mrs. R. B. Taylor was unfortunate in stepping on a needle and it penetrated the foot enough to require an operation at the hospital on Monday for its removal. Mr. and Mrs. M. I. Gardner are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hoke and Miss Bula Wian, of Hanover, at their residence on High street. They expect to remain for about a week. Prof. James A. Shook is spending several days with his friends in Tyrone. Mr. Shook leaves this evening for Pottstown, where he will be one of the instructors in the High school. Margaret and Rosella Seibert, of Wilkensburg, Pa., two vivacious young misses who were visiting Miss Anna Love, at Williams siding, in Nittany valley, were pleasant callers the past week. Fred Sourbeck, of Latrobe, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Sourbeck, on Bishop street. For the last few days they have been holding a family reunion, as all the children are home. Mrs. Nancy Greer, who for some time has been taking care of her mother Mrs. Sarah Galt, at the home of Mrs. Greer, on Spring street, has accepted a similar position with Frank Sasserman. Dorsey Struble and wife, of State College, spent several days last week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Watson Struble near Rock. Miss Lillian Orblison, of Northfield, is a guest in Bellefonte at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Nannie Orblison, on Spring street. Mr. and Mrs. George Boal, of Washington, D. C., have been spending their vacation in Bellefonte at the home of Mrs. Longwell, on Spring st. B. E. Stamm and Mrs. Stamm, of Altoona, former Centre countians, now on a visit to their native home, were pleasant callers in the Democrat sanctum. The Lutherans are preparing for the approaching meeting of the synod in this place which will hold its sessions here in the latter part of September. Lawrence Hoover, of Philadelphia, better known among his friends in Bellefonte as "Mike," has been visiting friends here. He is just the same old boy. The Susquehanna Synod of the Lutheran church will hold its sessions in the Lutheran church of this place, beginning on Wednesday, September 28th, next. Frank Bartley, the liverman, has purchased a second-hand Buick touring car from drugist Meek, of State College, and will use the car in connection with his livery business. Mr. and Mrs. G. Willard Hall, of Bellefonte, were recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Huffman, at Williamsport; of course, they took a ride in Mr. Huffman's automobile. Next month Randolph Daggett, son of W. F. DaDgett, will enter the Mercersburg Academy as a student. He became tired of having to shoulder a gun every day at a Military Academy. In September Miss Mary Hicklen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cheney Hicklen, and Miss Alice Lowery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lowery, will enter the Woman's College at Lutherville. One of Peter Mendis' children is suffering with what is thought to be an attack of infantile paralysis, the disease that is giving the medical fraternity so much concern and of late has been attacking so many children in the large cities. On Saturday Charles Casbeer, the Bellefonte jeweler, left for Somerset, where he attended a family reunion and joined his wife who had been visiting there for several weeks. After having a fine time among his relatives he returned home on Wednesday. There will be a large delegation from Bellefonte to attend the picnic at Boalsburg on Friday. Nearly all of them are going there to hear ex-treasurer Berry speak on the issues involved in the present campaign, and explain why the Keystone Party was organized. Friday evening, August 19th, was the regular meeting night of the Royal Neighbors of America. After a short order of business the evening was spent socially; a number of guests were present. Refreshments were served and a good time in general was had by all present. Miss Lillian Walker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Miles Walker, left on Saturday for Philadelphia where she will spend several weeks in looking up the styles of fall and winter millinery. From there she will go to West Chester where she will again take charge of the millinery department in large store. As stated in a recent issue of the Centre Democrat, the brick piled on the diamond have been rejected by the State Highway Department as inferior for street paving purposes. This being the case, contractor R. B. Taylor sold the two piles to Lewis Wallace who will use them for building purposes for which they will answer nicely. The ladies aid society of the Bellefonte Lutheran church will hold a measuring sociable this evening, at the residence of G. F. Garthoff, on Reynolds' avenue. The public is cordially invited to go and have their measure taken and pay the fine. Refreshments will be served. Mr. Hart's chorus will be present and add to the pleasures of the sociable. Fred Thompson, formerly of Bellefonte but now of Harrisburg, who has been spending his vacation here, left today for Philadelphia where he was accompanied by Edward Murphy, a colored policeman of that city. On Sunday they drove over to Penn Cave, but no inducement could be offered to Mr. Murphy to enter the watery cavern. He was afraid something might happen to the boat or the dog-gone thing might cave in before he had gotten out. Grant Hoover, of Williamsport, was a caller in this office on Friday. He is still in the insurance business, and is hustling around with the same vigor as of old. While Grant is a Republican of many years' standing, he says that this year he will most certainly be casting his vote with the Keystone Party, and that he finds that to be the sentiment over the State. He thinks there will be a surprise in store for the politicians in the November elections.

Mrs. John Porter Lyon, of Bellefonte, is visiting friends in Brooklyn, N. Y. Maurice Yeager has resigned as superintendent of the Yeager Swine Company. Miss Nettie Newman, the Bellefonte seamstress, is suffering from nervous prostration. Mrs. Clark Herman, of State College, (nee Stover, of Aaronsburg) gave our sanctum a call. Mrs. Alfred Gordon and her two children and Miss Alm Kitchener, of Philadelphia, are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Grauer on Linn street. Class No. 6 of the U. B. church will hold a sale of cakes, bread, pies, rolls, and ice cream, in the ladies' aid room, adjoining the church. The public is invited. Mrs. James Noonan and daughter, Margaret, are now at the Foster cottage on Monday evening. In company they are the guests of Mrs. Noonan's sister, Mrs. Melven. A silver medal contest will be held in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium Thursday evening, August 25th, at 8 o'clock, under the auspices of the Loyal Temperance Legion. You are invited. James McKnight, a popular commercial traveler well known in Bellefonte, disappeared August 7th from his home on Philadelphia street. Three days ago his body was found floating in the Schuylkill river. John Sourbeck, of Philadelphia, arrived in Bellefonte on Monday. His purpose here was to help his father, J. D. Sourbeck, who had a stand at the Business Men's Picnic on Tuesday. When it comes down to selling corn crisp, John is a hustler. I. J. Dreese placed an order with F. E. Naginney for a new Ford touring car on Tuesday evening. In company with Jim Baum and Homer Barnes, Mr. Naginney started for Philadelphia to bring the car here. They may be home sometime today. Frank Shaughnessy, who holds a clerical position with the Pittsburg Street Railway Company, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shaughnessy, on Howard street. This is his first visit here for several years and naturally his friends are glad to see him. Mrs. Lewis H. Gettig and her two children, Ethel and Donald, are now in Crestline, Ohio, where Miss Ethel will remain the guest of her uncle for an indefinite time. Mrs. Gettig and Donald will stop at Pittsburg on their way home. They expect to reach Bellefonte in time for Donald to start in school. Edward Hill and family have moved from north Allegheny street in to one of the Crider houses on east Lamb street. Howard Spangler and family moved from east Logan street into their own house on Bishop street, which has been rebuilt since its damage by fire some time ago, and William Beizer and wife have moved into the house vacated by the Spanglers. Miss Mollie Prince, of Crafton, Pa., a sister of Mrs. Donald Potter, was taken suddenly ill while attending a dance at Hecla Park, last Friday. The next day she was hurried to the hospital where she underwent an operation for appendicitis, by Dr. Scobring, who found her ailment so far advanced as to make her condition most critical. Since then she has been improving nicely. This week Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Shuey left on their annual outing for Bobcaygeon, Ont., Canada, where Mr. Shuey will spend two weeks fishing. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Johnson. This is certainly a delightful trip that each year is thoroughly enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Shuey. It is hoped that this fishing expedition will not be the means of making Mr. Johnson becoming untruthful. The J. F. Garthoff home is entertaining some pleasant visitors: Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Walker, of Wilkensburg, the former a nephew and the latter a niece, daughter of George B. Haines, of Rebersburg. Miles township is the native home of these visitors and their many friends and relatives are giving them a pleasant time during their stay. Also, Mrs. Hefflinger, of Reading, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Garthoff, and having a pleasant time. John A. Hosterman, of Centre Hill, returned recently from South Dakota, and he was considerably impressed with the country that he had decided to make that his future home. Mr. Hosterman is tenant on the large farm belonging to W. H. Meyer, of Centre Hill, and is one of a class of farmers who do things thoroughly. There is little doubt that South Dakota is presenting fine opportunities for farmers of the type of Mr. Hosterman. He will be accompanied by his son-in-law, Frank Confer, who lives with him on the Meyer farm. Do you go to the scenic every night? If not, why not? On Friday evening there was a big automobile race that created considerable excitement among the spectators. Everybody was enthused over the event. It was something that not very many people in the house ever witnessed. Then, too, it only costs the small sum of five cents. Then there were other nice pictures that made the entertainment cheap. Manager Brown keeps a good lookout for everything that's going, so that he can always give to his patrons something new and up-to-date. If you follow the crowd you will surely get there.

The brothers and sisters of the deceased were as follows: Henry, aged 80; Mrs. Sallie Brungart, aged 80.

COURT HOUSE LIGHT ENOUGH.

On Saturday Samuel Evans, photographer for the Canton Area & Metal company, of Canton, Ohio, was in Bellefonte taking photographs of the various offices in the Court House with the object of having the same put in the new catalogue which the company is getting out. This company put in all the metal furniture in the Court House, such as filing cases and desks, thus they are very anxious of getting the pictures of the same. Mr. Evans has traveled from across the ocean, and from the lakes to the gulf, and he says that in all his travels he never came across a repaired court house that is the equal of the one which is just receiving the finishing touches in Bellefonte. He thinks the interior is perfectly magnificent. It has been remarked repeatedly that the new addition was put back too far into the hill, thus making the rooms dark and dreary. Mr. Evans told a representative of the Centre Democrat that the people didn't know what they were talking about when they said the offices would be dark. To prove they are not he came here Saturday morning with the intention of putting in all of Saturday and Sunday taking the pictures, but when he set his camera he found that with a little hustle he could do the work in a little over half day. He says that it took fifteen hours to make an exposure that was worth anything. It is not unusual for him to wait eight hours for an exposure in public buildings similar to this one. On account of the excellent light in these offices Mr. Evans finished up his work in twenty-four hours sooner than he expected. We found him to be a very pleasant gentleman and a photographer of more than ordinary ability.

Woman Kills Big Rattler.

Armed with a clothes prop, Mrs. Adam Wynn of near Oriole, Nippenose valley, killed a monster rattlesnake at her home Monday. The snake had 18 rattles. Mrs. Wynn was preparing to hang up Monday's washing in the back yard. She stepped out of the kitchen door with a heavy basket of clothes, and nearly walked directly on the snake. Throwing down the basket, she seized a clothes prop nearby and alone succeeded in killing the snake. It is one of the largest ever killed in that section.
