Correspondents' Department

By adding to one's good puposes and nourishing the affections which are rightly placed, we shall be able to combat the bad ones.

In Our Churches Next Sabbath. Methodist Episcopal-Pastor R. S. past ten, at Kennedy at half past two, her home past two, and in Howard at half past Reformed-Pastor E. F. Faust will behind her. preach at Salona with special reference to "Harvest Home," at ten o'clock, at Mt. Bethel at half past two, and in Howard at half past seven.

District Sunday School Organization. in session at Milesburg today ad to-Howard borough and Howard, Lib-erty and Curtin townships comprise of the Howard circuit, is president of the Fifth District in the Centre coun- the convention. ty Sunday school organization, had not been formerly organized until last Monday evening, when the pastors and superintendents met at the Reformed parsonage. There were present Revs. E. F. Faust, R. S. Taylor, W. W. Rhoads and W. H. Patterson, and superintendents Thomas Robb, Wm. B. Wilson, W. C. Thompson, L. H. Thompson and White. A permanent organization was effected by choosing the following officers: E. F. Faust, president; Wm. B. Wilson, vice president; Y. C. Thompson, secretary; Mr. White, assistant secretary, and L. H. Thompson treasurer. These officers constitute the executive committee. Arrangements were made for holding to give them greater right as a con- feeble. stituent part of the county organiza-sounded a strong note of thanksgiving anniversary on last Thursday, for the bounties of God, and emphasized the grace of gratitude for all His gifts. Special music for the occasion was rendered by the excellent choir of that congregation. The decorations of the rostrum and pulpit represented all the seasonable products of the soil by specimens, most tastefully arranged by the ladies of the congregation, the effect of which was truly fine. The exceptionally favorable growing season made it easy to find superior specimens of almost everything that grows in the garden, orchard and field, which were arranged to the greatest advantage. Appointed Substitute. Saturday, August 13th, will long remain a red letter day for Ward Confer. because on that day he received bis appointment as substitute mail letter carrier on route No. 1, from this office. Ward is the only son of W. E. Confer, the regular carrier, and has just arrived at age, but being rather than the country secretary. small of stature is generally regarded as a boy. He is an active, energetic, able of filling the place to which he has been appointed. He is now on duty for two weeks, while his father is enjoying his annual vacation.

Miss Rosetta Cooke spent last week O. B. Weaver, of Williamsport, was a musiess visitor in our burg last Fri-Mrs. Frank Thompson, formerly of Beech Creek and Nittany Valley, is wisiting friends in town. Mrs. Elizabeth Lucas and Miss Jennie Fetzer attended a family reunion in Punxsutawney last week. J. K. Johnston, Esq., looked after legal business, and enjoyed a visit with his parents here on Friday. Prof. and Mrs. Harvey Robb, with their family of bright children, are guests of his father, Frederic Robb. Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Allen. of Pittsburg, were week end guests of Mr. and getting along nicely, Mrs. J. Will Mayes, the ladies being Prof. W. F. oder, principal of the Jersey Shore High school, with his bride, were week end guests of his sister, Mrs. E. F. Faust.

John Mokle has been for the past ten days detained at the sick bed of his parents at State College, both of them being dangerously ill.

Edwards Taylor left on Monday last memento of his victory. for Handley, W. Va., where he will enter the service of the Chesapeake & Ohio R. R. Co. as a stenographer. The Misses Lovan Henderson and Mabel Packer returned Saturday af- and Mrs. Wm H. Bruss. Mr. Bruss ternoon from a short visit among friends in the eastern part of this and present, has it set up on his own land Clinton counties.

Miss Lovan Henderson, the chief of corps of exchange girls, returned last was "shy" one hand so he said to his Sunday from her vacation, Miss Mollie nized as one of the competent trained and registered nurses of Philadelphia, bank ties 4 inches thick, 5 feet long. Miss Bertha Knoll, who is recogis spending her vacation with her mother, Mrs. S. O. Knoll.

Oscar M. Lucas, one of the reliable clerks in the R. R. offices at Altoona, came home sick Friday evening, but under the care of his mother and sisters is rapidly recovering. the bedside of his mother at Fiedler on Tuesday and Wednesday, and found very little in her condition upon which to build hope for her recovery. Misses Ruth and Marie Yearick, of Shenandosh; Mr. and Mrs. H. Yearick and Mrs. D. K. Miller, of Lock Haven, and Homer Yearick, of Greensburg. were last week guests in the home of

C. E. Yearick. The ladies' social club essayed a ing were read and approved. Tuesday, September 13, was chosen as the out the great rain caused a speedy date for holding the annual picnic of but the great rain caused a speedy date for holding the annual picnic of and indefinite postponment. But how the club, at Grange Park, Centre Hall.

buckwheat and garden truck. Mrs. Shuman H. Pletcher departed on No. 52, Monday, for a visit covering about a month, with children and other relatives in Philadelphia, New It is hoped that every old soldier

Mrs. Belle Allison Confer, of Butler, Pa., is a guest of her aunt, Miss Mary Allison, on Walnut street.

Harry titzer ,well known here as a boy, and now a trolley conductor in Easton, Pa., is at home for with his mother, Mrs. Marius Miner, Mrs. Katherine McKinney had for her dining guests last Monday, Mrs. Clara Adams, of Milesburg; Mrs. Mary Rishel, of Philadelphia, and Rev. C. Logan McKinney, of Juniata.

Miss Virginia Sands, all of Jersey Shore, were all day guests of Miss turning here in time for Miss Sands Taylor will preach at Curtin at half to take train No. 54 in the evening for Uninted Evangelical—Pastor W. W. ed a flattering call to teach one of the Bhoades will preach at Fairview at advanced grades in the High school half past ten, at Jacksonville at half at Perth Amboy, N. J., the coming visited her Miss Florence Leathers has acceptseason, and thus caused among the many friends she will leave

Miss Edythe Weber and Stuart D. Taylor are delegates from the Howard congregationns to the sub-district Epworth League convention which is

A marked improvement in the condition of Balser Weber is just cause of rejoicing among his friends. A slight degree of sensation has returned to both arm and leg, and on Sunday last he was carreid to the front porch, remaining there a short time without serious inconvenience.

Saturday fast L. C. North, of Lanaster, Pa., shipped to that point from here a car of cattle, containing twenty-two milch cows, seven of them having calves at foot. The cows were side. They came from not only Cenrather better than the average grade tre county, but from Huntingdon and at this point, some of them costing him sixty dollars per head.

Mrs. George Long, who has been a district convention in the near fu- spending the summer with her brother ture, the time and place of which, and nephew, Henry and Arthur Rothwith details will be made public la- rock, of Spring township, returned to ter. There are twelve or fifteen Sun- her home here last Saturday, bringday schools in the district, and it is ing her little niece, Lida, with her. proposed to make them a more ef-fective force for good in their own lo-greatly improved Mrs. Long's health, calities by this organization, and also which had for some time been quite Despite his gray hairs and his seventy years, Jerome A. Confer, of Yarnell, stepped as lively and carried In the Reformed church on Sabbath himself as erectly as though he were morning, pastor E. F. Faust preached ten years younger, when he came on upon the words, "He brought me to Saturday last to visit his aged and the banqueting house, and His banner alling uncle, Michael Confer, who by over me was love." The sermon the way, reached his eightieth birth The sermon the way, reached his eightieth birth eighteenth.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. and the L. T. L. invited the men of their ner. households and their friends to meet T with them at the Methodist parsonage last Thursday evening for social en-joyment and good fellowship. The entertainment ranged through all the variations of oratorical, musical, historical and gustatorial, and genial kindliness, and good will to all pervaded the

The following delegates from here to the eighteenth annual convention of Christian Endeavorers of Centre county, to be held at Pine Grove Mills, Wednesday and Thursday of next Rev. E. F. Faust and the Misses Helen Weber and Gladys Holter, representing the Reformed and Rev. W. W. Rhoades, Mrs. Leon-

UNIONVILLE.

Samuel Deeble, of Shenandoah, visitor at the home of his brother-in- way) from the railroad station in Pennlaw, N. Lindemuth, and during his brief stay succeeded in capturing

Howard Musser, the railroad man of Altoona, spent Sunday with his mother at this place.

Miss Edna Woomer, of Pitcairn, after a week's visit at the Parsons home, the guest of Miss Ruth, left for her home on Monday, and do you know one of our best boys "boo hoo'd" right out.

A large and painful abscess having formed on his side under his arm, Joseph Brugger was again compelled to undergo an operation on Saturday which was successfully accomplished by Dr. John B. Becker, of the Medice Chi Hospital of Philadelphia, and Dr. E. A. Russel of this place. Joe is

As the old veteran, Billy Resides, was hiking it home from Beaver Mills one day last week he saw a large Miss Mary Orr, of Marion, on her one day last week he saw a large way to Bellefonte, Wednesday, was rattler lying across the road in the an over-night guest of Miss Leotta sand. Did Billy run and scream for Bouse. Not on your tin type. He said to himself, "Many a rebel bit the dust at the end of my shooter and if you think I'm skeered I'll show you a trick that will be new to you," whereupon he proceeded to pummel his snakeship until it finally passed in its check. He then stripped it of its mottled coat to which its 13 rattles and a button are attached, and brought it home as a Talk about your good little girls! Here is one that is worth her weight in gold. She is 12 years old and her name is Iva Bruss, daughter of Mr. owns a small portable saw mill and, at where he manufactures bank ties as well as other lumber. On Tuesday he daughter, "Iva, I guess you'll have to Yearick having been her obliging and can't help." "All right papa" she said, and did it well. Just think of it! A Her brother Charley, a few years older fired the engine, while her father did the sawing. That's the kind of girls our country needs, girls who are afraid to turn their hands to anything ame home sick Friday evening, but that is useful and necessary; girls who are not afraid of spoiling their delicate fingers for fear they cannot thump the hodeside of his mother at Fields.

> The Veteran Pionic. The Centre County Veteran Club held an enthusiastic meeting at the office of Squire W. H. Musser at 10 o'clock Friday morning. In the absence of the president, General James A. Beaver, the meeting was presided over by vice president Capt. H. H. Fry. The minutes of the last meet-

The following committees were appointed: George Boal, committee on

York and Washington. Her daughter, in Centre county will make an effort Miss Alice, accompanied her.

LAMAR

Miss Gertrude Yearick, of Hublersburg, and the Messrs, Harry and Charles Mauck, of Nittany, spent Sunday with Ethel Krape.

Mrs. Dr. Huff, of Milesburg, returned home on Saturday afternoon, after a brief visit with her parents, Mr. and being 175. Mrs. H. D. Loveland. Miss Zelma Loveland, of Williamsport, is visiting friends here. Among many who attended the Prof. and Mrs. W. F. Yoder and diss Virginia Sands, all of Jersey Helen Rossman, Bruce Harris and sisters, Blanche and Christine, Florence Leathers last Saturday, re- Alters and wife, John Smith and wife, and Elery Krape and daughter. All report having enjoyed the day. Miss Retta Case, of Williamsport, is the guest of her cousin, Miss Mar-Miss Nora Loveland, of Milesburg visited her many friends here last

Miss Helen Smith, of Bellefonte, is the guest of her cousin, Pauline Raup. the greater part of the summer in the western part of the State, returned home on Friday afternoon, accompan- er, Lock Haven; Mrs. George ied by her brother, Ben, and family, of Indiana county, and her sister, Miss Blanche, of Greensburg.

from Centre Hall. Ray Campbell and brother, Walter, are the guests of their sister, Mrs. Jno.

THE BAILEYVILLE PICNIC.

Was held on Saturday in the pretgrove a short distance from the litle vilage of Baileyville. The day was an ideal one, and it is estimated that there were betwen 3,500 and 4,000 ople scattered around on the hill-Blair counties. It was a day of famfly reunions and the spirit of holiday feastivity prevailed.

The forty-ninth annual reunion of Company E, 45th Regiment, P. V. I., the State Capitol at Harrisburg the was held at the same time and place, nude marble groups executed adding materially to the pleasure of George Gray Barnard, because of the occasion. Eleven members out of demoralizing effect on the youth of the about sixteen living of the original Commonwealth." While the idea is company, with one recruit subsequent- a good one, yet Sen. M. S. Quay's ly added, were present at the reunion statue in the Capitol is about as dis-Saturday, namely: W. H. Musser. W. H. Fry, J. G. Heberling, G. W. Loner, Perry Cupp, Porter Bateman, Henry Irvin, W. H. Poorman, J.R. life was that of a most debasing char-Henry Barto, J. R. Pheasant and W. S. McCurdy. meeting was called to order promptly at 1 o'clock by Capt. W. H. Fry, and devotional exercises conducted by Rev. Miller, of Harrisburg. The first address was delivered by Rev. J. O. McCracken, of Johnstown, in an eloquent and forceful man-

Two base ball games were played during the day, one in the morning will be a number of contests and a between Ballyville and Marengo, regood ball game between the fans of sulting in the defeat of the former by a score of 8-10. The afternoon game was between State College and a mixed team representing Tyrone, wherein the former was victorious by a score of 3-1. Music was furnished throughout the day by the Baileyville band, and was thoroughly enjoyed by the entire assemblage.

State Memorial.

By authority of the Governor of Pennsylvania the Gettysburg Battlefield the Democrat that the wheat crop is Memorial Commission has designated larger and better than anticipated Tuesday, September 27, 1910, as the date for the dedication of the State Memorial at Gettysburg
For the occasion, soldiers of Pennsylvania regiments or other organizations which participated in the Battle of the tion to and from Gettysburg (and the great woodchuck hunter, was a week's public a rate of 1 1/4 cents per mile each sylvania nearest to the homes of each. "Earth pigs". Good catch, ber 24th to September 27th, and good, returning, to each original starting point not later than September 30th.

To arrange for railroad tickets for soldiers entitled to free transportation, and to provide seats for them at the dedication, each such soldier is requested to send to the Commission at once his full name and post-office address, to-gether with the name of the regiment and company in which he served. addressed to the Gettysburg Battlefield Memorial Commission, Post Office Box 533, Philadelphia, Pa.

"Frightful Speed," in 1828. In the year 1828, according to Patent Nuggets, a club of young students at Wellsville, O., arranged to debate the question of railroads then just coming into notice. When they asked the school-board for the use of the schoolinto notice. house, they received the following remarkable reply, which is preserved to this day by Alexander Wells, an aged citizen of that place: "You are welcome to the use of the schoolhouse to debate all proper questions in, but such things as railroads and telegraphs are impossibilities and rank infidelity. There is nothing in the Word of God about them. If God had designed that His intelligent creatures should travel at the frightful speed of 15 miles an hour, by steam, he would clearly have foretold it through His holy prophets. It is a device of Satan to lead immortal souls down to hell."-Pathfinder.

Program for 5th annual Poorman reunion to be held in Kohlbecker's grove, August 27th, 1910: 10:30-Music, welcome prayer, welcome address. memorial. music, dinner at 11:30. Afternoon, 1:30-Music, recitations, cise, dialogue, music, exercise, games and sports, tug of war between married and single men, sack race for boys, shoe lacing contest for boys, nail driv-ing contest for ladies, peanut scramble, pop corn scramble; valuable prizes to be given to the winners in all contests. Come, bring your luncheon and spend a day of real pleasure and sport in one of the most delightful spots in the tate.

The Soldiers' Monument. R. D. Bigelow, who some time ago was given the order for the new soldiers' monument for Philipsburg.

placing the one destroyed during Old Home Week, received a blue print of the same Friday morning, sent on for approval, which shows up in fine shape. The monument will stand over 17 feet high and weigh over 13,000 pounds, will be of solid Barre (Vermont) granite, the statue alone, repre-senting one of the country's brave defenders, being six feet in height. It is expected the monument will be com-pleted and here by the latter part of

When a man has been married six years and still talks back, he's a pretty Independent sort of cuss.

AN ENJOYABLE REUNION.

The Hunter-Bailey-Thomas-Beamer reunion and picnic was held at Agars park Thursday and there was a large number of the descendants present, a onservative estimate of the number

The children enjoyed themselves on the merry-go-round while the young ladies and gentlemen enjoyed themselves on the dancing floor, music being furnished by an orchestra from Lock Haven. The out of town descendants and friends were: Harry Hunter, wife and children, Flemington; Joseph Krape, Milesburg; Walt Smith, Berwick; John Davy, Blanchard; Dr. Edward Smith, Williamsport; E. J. Morrison and wife, Jersey Shore; Mrs. Hettie Shook, Williamsport; Mrs. J. L. Ripka, Williamsport; MissDaisy Hever, Mt. Jewett; Mrs. Lizzie McCafferand family, Bellefonte; Clarence McCafferty and wife, Bellefonte; Mrs. Lucy Baney, Bellefonte; Miss Muffley Miss Kane, Miss Thomas, Howard; Miss Christine Harris, who has spent Mr. J. Shaffer, Flemington; Ralph Bower and family, Williamsport; Mrs. Conser, Lock Haven; Mrs. John Reedand Mrs. W. Thomas, Stewart Crispen and wife, Watsontown; Lester Crispen, DuBois; Clair Miss Nora Smith has returned home Hickoff and family, Lock Haven; Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Shaffer, Benezette, Mrs. Mame Armstrong, Warren.

It was unanimously decided to hold the next reunion at Agar's park in August, 1911, after which the ing officers were elected: I. T. Hunter, president; T. J. Hickoff, secretary; E. J. Morrison, treasurer.

Against Barnard Groups. The Hibernians who closed their State convention at Shamokin, on Friday afternoon adopted a long series of resolutions, among which was the

"As American citizens, and particularly interested in this great State, we seriously protest against the placing in graceful and demoralizing as the group in question. It stands there as a monument to the memory of a man whose

Odd Fellows' Outing. Every Odd Fellow and Rebekah in Penns and Nittany valleys is getting ready for the big union picnic which will be held at Hunter's Park on Monday, September 'th-Labor Day. The various committees are formulating their plans for the great event. There State College and the county seat. The outing will, in a measure, be an Odd Fellows' reunion and a basket picnic

For the races and contests the merhants of State College and Bellefonte have put up some fine prizes, which will be worthy to compete for. In addition to this there will be dancing ah day, the music to be furnished by a first class orchestra.

Threshers over the county report to Good luck for the deserving farmer.

Katz & Co's STORE NEWS

OUR ADVER-TISEMENT NEXT WEEK ALL ABOUT LADIE'S READY-TO-WEAR GAR-MENTS.

WATCH

Katz & Co. BELLEFONTE, PA.

BOYS'

School Suits

ALL READY

THIS WEEK we open up New Boy's Clothes-Sturdy Materials that must please and the wear is the first essential to the Suits in our selecting.

Next comes the very best making and lining obtainable-Every seam we have doubly sewn with silk and then taped to insure no ripping.

From start to finish these Boys' Clothes of ours are built to stand the strains and hardships they are subjected to. If you have never tried them do so now and a revelation in boys' clothes wearing is in store for you. The new weaves in Brown. Gray and Blue are handsome. We are ready.

SPECIAL-Two Lots boys' straight pants suitsages 4 to 16, former prices of one lot $2.50 to $4, now $1.19

The other lot $4.50 to $6.50 now $2.19, Great Bargains for School Wearing.

SIM, THE CLOTHIER