

FACT, FUN AND FANCY.

Bright, Sparkling Paragraphs—Selected and Original.

WHY NOT TAKE THE REINS?
If fifty men did all the work
And gave the price to five;
And let those five make all the rules
You'd say the fifty men were fools,
'Tuit to be alive.

And if you heard complaining cries
From fifty brawny men,
Blaming the five for graft and greed,
Injustice, cruelty indeed—
What would you call them then?
Not by their own superior force
Do five on fifty live;
But by election and assent—
And privilege of government—Powers that the fifty give.

If fifty men are really fools—
And five have all the brains—
The five must rule as now we find.
But if the fifty have the mind—
Why don't they take the reins?

Not all the fans that can be crowded Into the baseball grounds can keep The flies out.

It doesn't by any means follow that The pugilist who is fieked wants his opponent to knock the spots off him.

Perhaps the reason a society girl throws a fellow overboard is because he isn't in the swim.

Mary had a little lamb;
You see she couldn't buy
A very big chunk, just because Meat is so very high.

Out of Her Class.
Young Husband—Did you make those biscuits, my dear?
His Wife—Yes, darling.
Her Husband—Well, I'd rather you would not make any more, sweetheart.
His Wife—Why not, my love?
Her Husband—Because, angle mine, you are too light for such heavy work.

No Such Luck.
A truly eloquent parson had been preaching for an hour or so on the immortality of the soul. "I looked at the mountains," he declared, "and could not help thinking: 'Beautiful as you are you will be destroyed, while my soul will not.' I gazed upon the ocean and cried: 'Mighty as you are you will eventually dry up, but I not I!'"

Overlooked the Judge.
Two lawyers before a Supreme court judge recently got into a wrangle. At last of the disputants, losing control over his emotions, exclaimed to his opponent:
"Sir, you are, I think, the biggest ass that I ever had the misfortune to set eyes upon."
"Order, order!" said the judge gravely. "You seem to forget that I am in the room."

He Knew Jimmie.
"Johnnie," said the teacher, "if Jimmie, you five cents and agreed to pay you a penny a day, how much would he owe you at the end of five days?"
"Five cents."
"Oh, four, you don't know a thing about arithmetic," said the teacher.
"Johnnie nodded. "No, but I know a whole lot about Jimmie."
Six to the Dozen.
A couple of Irishmen were standing in front of a fruit stand and one of them happened to notice some extra large grape fruit on it.
"Begorra," said he, "them's big brances, ain't they?"
His friend looked in wonder at the fruit.
"Them's sure the biggest I ver saw."
He answered. "Sure it wouldn't take many of them to make a dozen."

Obeys Instructions.
A highly nervous citizen called on his physician and asked him for medical advice.
"Take a tonic and dismiss from your mind all that tends to worry you," said the doctor.
Several months afterward the patient received a bill from the physician asking him remit $15, and answered it thus:
"Dear Doctor—I have taken a tonic and your advice. Your bill tends to worry me, so I dismiss it from my mind."

No Scruples.
A cow puncher was being examined for jury in the murder trial of his former "boss." "Carker," said the judge sternly, "before I can admit you on this jury I must inquire whether you have expressed or formed any opinion as to the guilt or innocence of this yer prisoner."
"No, sir," responded Carker, "I hev not."
"And you hev no conscientious scruples against capital punishment?"
"No yer honor," replied the cow puncher, "not in this case."
The Difference.
An Irishman boarded the train at Woodssocket, S. D., and said to the conductor: "How far is it from Woodssocket to Mitchell?"
"It is 29 miles from Woodssocket to Mitchell."
"Thankee, sir, and now how far is it from Mitchell to Woodssocket?"
"Why, you darn fool, didn't I tell you it was 29 miles from Woodssocket to Mitchell? Do you suppose it is any farther from Woodssocket to Mitchell?"
"Sure an I don't know, I know it is a deal farther from New Years to Christmas than from Christmas to New Years."
A Deadlock Settled.
A group of workmen were arguing during the dinner hour. A deadlock had been reached when one of the men on the losing side turned to a mate who had remained silent through the whole debate.
"Here, Bill," he said, "you're pretty good on an argument. What's your opinion?"
"I ain't goin' to say," returned Bill.
"I thrashed the matter out before with Tom Jones."
"Ah," said the other artfully, hoping to entice him into the fray, "and what did you arrive at?"
"Well, e-venchually," answered Bill,
"Tom he arrived at the hospital and I arrived at the police station."
Give Him Hell.
One of the stories which Justice Brewer was fond of telling was used by him to show the high regard for the law in Kansas. He used to tell of a justice of the peace who owned a farm in that state which bordered on Missouri. One day the justice was sitting on a fence built directly on the state line, superintending some work which his son and a farm hand were doing. The son and his companion engaged in a dispute which ended in a fist fight. The justice of the peace watched the encounter for a few minutes and then shouted in a loud voice:
"Gentlemen in the name of the law of the state of Kansas and by virtue of my authority I command you to desist."
Just then the rail broke and the justice of the peace landed in Missouri.
Rising quickly he shouted: "Give him hell, son, I have lost my jurisdiction."

GOVERNORS OF PENNSYLVANIA.

Portraits of Each Accompanied by Brief Biographical Sketch—Will be Published in Order, One Each Week.

JAMES ADDAMS BEAVER—1887-1891.

James Addams Beaver was born in 1837 at Millerstown, a descendant of a Palatine settler. He was admitted to the bar in 1859 and began the practice of law at Bellefonte. When the civil war broke out he was commis- sioned first lieutenant of the Second Pennsylvania volunteers. He was pro- moted at various times for gallant conduct on the battlefield, especially for his bravery at Cold Harbor as a brigade commander, and was brevetted brig- adier general. He lost his right leg at Reams Station, Va., Aug. 25, 1864. In 1881 Mr. Beaver received the Republican caucus nomination for United States senator, but was defeated. The following year he was defeated as the Republican candidate for governor. Still undaunted, he was in 1886 again the Republican candidate for governor and was elected by a large majority. He was appointed in 1895 to fill a vacancy on the state supreme court bench and was elected for the full term the following year and still holds that position.

WHAT WOMEN CAN DO.

The Phillipsburg Ledger says that Miss Anna Johnson, who a number of years since was a teacher in the Phillipsburg schools, leaving here to enter upon deaconess work under the auspices of the Methodist church, of which she belonged. Rather recently she has held the position as instructor in agriculture and manual training in the Chadock school for boys in Illi- nois. The responsibility and hard work the position entailed began to tell upon her, and in company with a friend, Miss Johnson went to Nevada and took up adjoining quarter sections of land near the Colorado line. They built exactly on the line dividing their claims, so that they are practically one house, while fulfilling the require- ments of living on their own land. Their land irrigated from Lake Tahoe some 40 miles distant, and the soil is very fertile and productive, growing anything desired, even melons. These enterprising women are their own farmers and are getting their land under cultivation as fast as is desirable. We read of women doing just what Miss Johnson and her friend are, but it adds to the interest of the story when the principals are personally known to us and Miss Johnson's eastern friends will wish for her the greatest kind of success in her enterprise. She is what is rare among women, skilled in grafting and pruning, and we need not be surprised to learn in the future that she is numbered among the great fruit growers of the west.

ELKS' STATE ASSOCIATION.

The fourth annual convention of the Pennsylvania State Elk's Reunion as- sociation at Bradford came to an end Thursday evening with a fancy ball at the Exchange Lyceum.

The business session held in the forenoon was most harmonious. The state officers elected are as follows: President, Frank Steble, Altoona; first vice president, John I. Mathias, Mahanoy City; second vice president, James A. Smyth, Renovo; third vice president, H. H. Black, Bradford; secretary, W. W. Margardie, Cory; treasurer, George F. Falkenstein, McKeesport; executive committee, H. W. Ochse, Etna; Carl Egelin, Kane; John J. Koeper, Easton; R. R. Gray, Williamsport; W. C. Thorne, York.

The reunion, which is now closed, was honored by the presence of Grand Exalted Ruler August Herrmann, of Cincinnati, O. Speaking before the delegates, he stated that he expected to visit a number of the smaller lodges during the coming year and hoped to derive great benefit from these visits. He expressed himself as being heartily in accord with the state association as the time is approaching when these associations will play an important part in Elkdom. The present Grand Lodge reunions are expensive and many are prevented from attending them on that account.

Central Firemen.

The convention of the Central Penn- sylvania Volunteer Firemen's associa- tion held at Osceola Mills, closed Thursday evening. DuBois was an easy winner of the 1911 convention.

The officers elected for 1911 are: Harry Taitinger, of DuBois, pres- ident; W. C. Langford, of Houtzdale, secretary, and Frank Grebe, of Phil- ladelphia, treasurer.

The hub and hub race was a tie be- tween DuBois and Houtzdale, and by agreement the purses were divided. Postage was awarded first prize for the best uniformed company. Phil- ladelphia the largest and best appearing company. Rescue hose, of Curwens- ville, won the first prize for the best drilled company. The prize for the best band was awarded to DuBois.

Religious Meetings.

A series of meetings will be held in Hunter's Park beginning Sabbath eve- ning, August 28th, and continuing over the following Sabbath. Meeting each evening at 7:45.

On Sunday, September 4th, there will be an all day meeting, the first service to begin at 10 a. m.; bring your basket along and stay all day. Rev. A. J. Hill, of Bradford, Pa., and Rev. G. J. Kelley, of Unionville, are expected to help in the meeting. Take your coat and lantern along, you may need them. Rev. J. F. Collins.

Little Girl May Reunite Asters.

The friends of Colonel John Jacob Astor and Mrs. Ava Willing Astor, whose divorce in the past has been a sensation of the year, are filled with expectancy and hope over the possi- bility of a reconciliation that seems imminent. The little daughter of the couple, Muriel Astor, eight years old, is being pointed to as the peace mes- senger.

The little girl makes her home with Mrs. Astor, in accordance with the agreement at the time of the separation and divorce, but writes to her father each week. The last of these missives is said to have been most pathetic, and to have reflected all the sorrow that can come into a child's life when parents are estranged.

"Mamma is so unhappy," Colonel Astor's little daughter wrote with childlike frankness. The message was only a part of a sentence in a long letter, and the friends are won- dering if it will not be sufficient to un- do the work of the divorce courts.

Colonel Astor evidently cherishes the letter, for he is known to be carry- ing it about with him and to have shown it to several of his most inti- mate friends.

40,000 Notaries.

The creation of an army of 40,000 notaries public was authorized by the Postoffice department last week, in accordance with legislation enacted during the past session of congress. All carriers of the rural delivery mail service are now required by the de- partment to execute vouchers for Uni- ted States pensioners residing on their routes, for which service they are to receive twenty-five cents for each voucher.

What She Would Do.

A modern dude with narrow strip- ed clothes, saddle colored shoes, a loud necktie, hair parted over his nose, and smoking a cigarette, addressed his best girl thus, "If you were me and I was you, what would you do?" She hesitatedly said with a smile, "I would take off that hideous tie, put that cigarette in the stove, part my hair on one side, then pray to God for brains."

Don't Break Down.

Severe strains on the vital organs, like strains on machinery, cause break-downs. You can't over-tax stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels or nerves without serious danger to your- self. If you are weak or run-down, or under strain of any kind, take Electric Bitters the matchless, tonic medicine. Mrs. J. E. Van de Sande, of Kirkland, Ill., writes: "That I did not break down while enduring a most severe strain, for three months, is due wholly to Electric Bitters." Use them and en- joy health and strength. Satisfaction positively guaranteed. 50c. at Green's Pharmacy Co.

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION SUBMITTED TO THE CITIZENS OF THIS COMMONWEALTH FOR THEIR APPROVAL OR REJECTION, BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA, AND PUBLISHED BY ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF THE COMMONWEALTH IN PURSUANCE OF ARTICLE XVII OF THE CONSTITUTION.

Number One.
A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION
Proposing an amendment to section twenty-six of article five of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the following amendment to section twenty-six of article five of the Constitution of Pennsylvania be, and the same is hereby proposed, in accordance with the eighteenth article thereof:—
That section 26 of Article V., which reads as follows: "Section 26. All laws relating to courts shall be general and of uniform operation throughout the organization, jurisdiction, and powers of all courts of the same class or grade, so far as regulated by law, and the force and effect of the process and judgments of such courts, shall be uniform; but, notwithstanding any provision of this Constitution, the General Assembly shall have full power to establish new courts, from time to time, as the same may be needed in any city or county, and to prescribe the powers and jurisdiction thereof, and to increase the number of judges in any courts now existing or hereafter created or to reorganize the same, or to vest in other courts the jurisdiction theretofore exercised by courts not of record, and to abolish the same wherever they may be deemed necessary for the orderly and efficient administration of justice."

ROBERT McAFEE,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

Number Two.
RESOLUTION
Proposing an amendment to the Consti- tution of the Commonwealth of Penn- sylvania, so as to eliminate the require- ment of payment of taxes as a qualifi- cation of the right to vote. Resolved (if the House of Representa- tives concur), That the following amend- ment to the Constitution of the Com- monwealth of Pennsylvania be, and the same is hereby proposed, in accordance with the eighteenth article thereof:—
That section one of article eight be amended, by striking out the fourth numbered paragraph thereof, so that the said section shall read as follows:—
Section 1. Every male citizen twenty- one years of age, possessing the follow- ing qualifications, shall be entitled to vote at all elections, subject however to such laws as may be enacted by the General Assembly:—
First. He shall have been a citizen of the United States at least one month immediately preceding the election.
Second. He shall have resided in the State one year (or if, having previously been a qualified elector or native-born citizen of the State, he shall have re- moved therefrom and returned within six months), immediately preceding the election.
Third. He shall have resided in the election district where he shall offer to vote at least two months immediately preceding the election.
A true copy of Resolution No. 2.
ROBERT McAFEE,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

Number Three.
A JOINT RESOLUTION
Proposing an amendment to the Consti- tution of the Commonwealth of Penn- sylvania, so as to consolidate the courts of common pleas of Allegheny County. Section 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in Gen- eral Assembly, That the following amend- ment to the Constitution of Penn- sylvania be, and the same is hereby pro- posed, in accordance with the eighteenth article thereof:—
That section six of article five be amended, by striking out the said sec- tion, and inserting in place thereof the following:—
Section 6. In the county of Philadel- phia all the jurisdiction and powers now vested in the district courts and courts of common pleas, subject to such changes as may be made by this Constitution or by law, shall be in Philadelphia vested in one court, to be known as the court of common pleas of Philadelphia, and the said court shall be composed of three judges each. The said courts in Philadelphia shall be designated respec- tively as the court of common pleas num- ber one, number two, number three, number four, and number five, but the number of said courts may be by law increased, from time to time, and shall be in like manner designated by successive numbers. The number of judges in any of said courts, or in any court where the establishment of an additional court may be authorized by law, may be in- creased, from time to time, and when- ever such increase shall amount in the whole to three, such three judges shall compose a distinct and separate court as aforesaid, which shall be numbered as aforesaid. In Philadelphia all suits shall be instituted in the said courts of com- mon pleas without designating the num- ber of the said court, and the several courts shall distribute and apportion the business among them in such manner as shall be provided by rules of court, and each court to which any suit shall be thus assigned, shall have exclusive juris- diction thereof, subject to change of venue, as shall be provided by law.

In the county of Allegheny all the jurisdiction and powers now vested in the several numbered courts of common pleas, composed of one court of com- mon pleas, composed of all the judges in commission in said courts. Such juris- diction and powers shall extend to all proceedings at law and in equity which shall have been instituted in the several numbered courts, and shall be subject to such changes as may be made by law, and subject to which any suit shall be assigned by law. The president judge of said court shall be selected as provided by law. The number of judges in said court may be by law increased from three to three, and the amendment shall take effect on the first day of January suc- ceeding its adoption.

ROBERT McAFEE,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

Number Four.
A JOINT RESOLUTION
Proposing an amendment to section eight, article nine, of the Constitution of Pen- sylvania. Section 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in Gen- eral Assembly met, That the following is pro- posed as an amendment to the Consti- tution of the Commonwealth of Penn- sylvania, in accordance with the provisions of the eighteenth article thereof:—
Amendment to Article Nine, Section 1.
Section 1. Amend section eight, article nine, of the Constitution of Pennsylvania, which reads as follows:—
"Section 1. The debt of any county, city, borough, township, school district, or other municipality or incorporated district, except as herein provided, shall never exceed seven per centum upon the assessed value of the taxable property therein, in or shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt, or increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two per centum upon such assessed valuation of property, without the assent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law; but any city, the debt of which now exceeds seven per centum of such assessed valuation, may be authorized by law to increase the same three per centum, in the aggregate, at any one time, upon such valuation," so as to read as follows:—

Section 1. The debt of any county, city, borough, township, school district, or other municipality or incorporated district, except as herein provided, shall never exceed seven per centum upon the assessed value of the taxable property therein, nor shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt, or increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two per centum upon such assessed valuation of property, without the assent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law; but any city, the debt of which now exceeds seven per centum of such assessed valuation, may be authorized by law to in- crease the same three per centum, in the aggregate, at any one time, upon such valuation, except that any debt or debts hereinafter incurred by the city and county of Philadelphia for the construction and development of subways for transit purposes, or for the construction of wharves and docks, or the reclamation of land to be used in the construction of a system of wharves and docks, as public improvements, owned or to be owned by said city and county of Philadelphia, and which shall yield to the city and county of Philadelphia current net revenue in ex- cess of the interest on said debt or debts and of the annual installment of principal for the cancellation of said debt or debts, may be excluded in ascertaining the power of the city and county of Philadelphia to become otherwise indebted. Provided, That a sinking fund for their cancellation shall be established and maintained.
