

BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

—Miss Laura Beltz, head nurse of the hospital, is on her vacation, visiting friends at Harrisburg and New York City.
—Mrs. Dominick Judge, of Bellefonte, is not recovering very fast from her sickness, the trouble being with her stomach.
—Mr. and Mrs. A. Katz returned on Sunday evening from a month's vacation at the sea shore, much benefited by the outing.
—A chess and checker tournament will be held in the Y. M. C. A. on Saturday evening. Fifteen young men will be in the contest.
—Morris Tucker, wife and son, William, of Akron, Ohio, who had been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Donahy, have left for their home.
—Charles McClure, Esq., of Philadelphia, was a recent visitor in Bellefonte at the residence of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James I. McClure.
—Mrs. C. T. Arnold, of Boston, and Mrs. L. B. Harvey, of Philadelphia, are guests of their parents, Judge and Mrs. Ellis L. Orvis, on Linn street.
—Fred Beezer, of Patton, brother of George Beezer, of Bellefonte, is the father of a big boy that tips the scales at 15 pounds. What do you think of that?
—G. W. Rumberger, of Unionville, better known as "Domino," our versatile correspondent, has been keeping the books straight for the Bellefonte Lumber Co. the past three weeks.
—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kirk and Joseph Kirk, and Mrs. Lever, of Philadelphia, are expected to come to Bellefonte today and become guests of Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Kirk, on High street.
—Every old maid and spinster in Centre county would avoid reading an important article on page 3, third column, of this issue. A few married women may also be offended by it.
—John Noll, son of Emanuel, of Bellefonte, has again been elected superintendent of Manual Training in the Altoona public schools at a salary of $1,500 a year. That's not so bad.
—Mrs. Roy, wife of Rev. Charles A. Roy, who had been visiting her sister, Mrs. Samuel Donahy, left Bellefonte on Wednesday for Portland, Oregon, after a few days spent here with friends.
—Rev. C. W. Winey, pastor of the Bellefonte United Brethren church, wife and baby, have returned home after a pleasant visit with relatives and friends in Juniata and Snyder counties.
—Herb Auman, of Bellefonte, is the father of another big bouncing boy. This makes three boys, which means when he goes to farming he will not need to hunt around for harvest hands.
—Miss Marquette and Daniel Keller, daughter and son of W. H. Keller, of Lancaster, who had been making an extended visit at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Keller, left for their home on Wednesday.
—John Smith, the hustling furniture dealer from Spring Mills, was in town on Tuesday. He predicts a large "berry" crop in Pennsylvania in November. No better Democrats even grow than those Smith brothers.
—On Sunday there will be communion in the Bellefonte United Brethren church. The pastor, Rev. C. W. Winey, will be present and all members of the church ought to make an earnest effort to be in their place of worship.
—Rev. Victor Royer, of Mercersburg, Franklin county, was a caller at this office on Wednesday. He and his family have been spending their vacation at Spring Mills. Rev. Royer has an excellent charge and is getting along nicely.
—Mrs. Pickle, wife of Harry Pickle, and her two children, of Millersville, have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilber Twimire, on Water street. By the way, her husband was in the Keystone Party convention that placed W. H. Berry in the field.
—Just recently Roland Miller sold his large black team of horses to a lumber operator for a good price, because they were good horses. Roland then went up to Reuben Crust, on Buffalo Run, and secured a fine team, the horses being but six years of age.
—On Thursday Hon. J. C. Meyer, wife and daughter, Edna, were in Altoona. In the evening Mr. Meyer was initiated into the Order of the Mystic Shrine. They have a beautiful temple up in the railroad town and this event was more than an ordinary one.
—On Wednesday afternoon James C. Furst, Esq., and his sister, Mrs. John Curtin, left on the same train Harry Keller and wife, Mrs. Tam. Lane and Miss Mary Thomas left for Buffalo, Niagara Falls, and a trip to the St. Lawrence.
—"Billy" Shope and Russel Jury, of Bellefonte, have been walking around the town as though they are walking on stilts. The reason they are holding their heads so high is that the stork brought a big fat boy. Now grandfathers Reynolds Shope and Jacob Jury are ready to cut a melon.
—Miss Christina and Anna Blanchard and Miss Youngman, of Lock Haven, were in Bellefonte on Monday night attending a dance. The Misses Blanchard took with them their little nieces, daughters of Dr. George Green, who had been visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Green, on Buffalo Run.
—Mr. and Mrs. Johnston Hall and Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. VonTackey, of Titusville, Pa., drove from Titusville to Bellefonte in a Pierce Arrow car. Mr. Hall is an extensive real estate and oil man and Mr. VonTackey is the Republican candidate for legislature in Crawford county this fall. While here they were the guests of W. Harrison Walker, at the Bush House. They drove to the Penn. Cave, State College and other places of interest.
—J. Zimmerman, brother of county commissioner Harry E. Zimmerman, of Valley Falls, Kansas, sent east a paper giving an account of James N. Pike's farm, located in Thomas county, Kansas. This year he had over 100,000 bushels of No. 3 head wheat. The net profits from the ranch this year will exceed $55,000. Mr. Pike says he is going to make the place bring him in an annual income of $100,000. The soil is of a black loam and easily plowed and worked. Mr. Pike says he will bring the large farm up to his mark or quit the game.

—Remember the Odd Fellows' picnic at Hunter Park on Monday.
—William Kautz left Bellefonte on Tuesday for Cleveland and Detroit.
—Miss Ida Crommiller, of Scotia, is stenographer in the law office of E. R. Chambers, Esq.
—Mrs. R. B. Taylor is recovering from the accident she met with last week by tramping on a needle.
—Miss Emily Valentine, who had been a guest of Miss Emily Natt, on Curtin street, left on Monday for Nantucket, Mass.
—F. D. Ray, Jr., of New York City, is now a guest at the Hotel Wayne, H. S. Ray, at the Brockerhoff House. He will remain here for about one week.
—Dr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Wilcox arrived from their summer vacation on Thursday. The former occupied his pulpit on Sunday as usual.
—Mrs. Levi Nagle and Miss Mattie L. Schmidt, of Washington, D. C., have been guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Ambrose Schmidt, on Spring street.
—Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Shaffer, of Huntingdon, are new visiting friends in Bellefonte. It is some time since they were here, and thus their friends are glad to see them.
—The street committee certainly do neglect the condition of important thoroughfares in our town. Many country roads are better than some of our streets and crossings.
—On next Sabbath Dr. J. Allison Platts will again occupy his pulpit in the Bellefonte Presbyterian church. In the evening the service will commence at 7:30 o'clock instead of 6:30.
—Gladstone Taylor left Bellefonte on Monday for Northumberland where he secured an excellent position. He secured a position with the Pennsylvania State Police, who is hustling the large P. R. R. yards at that place.
—Apples are selling at from 40 to 60 cents per bushel—just as you happen to meet a vendor. Some ask 80 cents. Nice home peaches were sold on the street last week at 75 cents per basket.
—Melvin R. Clark and his wife, of Williamsport, spent several days in Bellefonte recently as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. U. Reamer. Mr. Clark is a nephew of Mr. Reamer, and while here had a delightful time.
—Mrs. Thomas A. Shoemaker, her two children, Martha and Collins, and Miss Roder, who spent five weeks in day Phillipsburg, returned to Bellefonte on Wednesday. They will be on the ocean for ten days.
—Mrs. Harris Mann, of Lewistown, who had been spending three weeks of her vacation in Bellefonte, at the residence of her father, W. T. Speer, left on Saturday for her home. While here she had an enjoyable time.
—Lieut. James Taylor returned recently from the Philippines, and is now in hospital in San Francisco. About a year ago the lieutenant was assigned to a post in the Philippines. The nature of his ailment is not definitely known.
—Miss Della Cross, sister of Mrs. H. S. Taylor, who has been spending much of her time in Bellefonte, will journey to a beautiful city of Denver, Colo., where she will make her home with her aunt, Mrs. Johnston, who was formerly Mrs. Lloyd, of Phillipsburg.
—Mr. and Mrs. George Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Harry and Miss Agnes Snyder, all of Lock Haven, made up a party to Bellefonte on Saturday and spent Saturday night and Sunday with the former's brother, John Raymond, and family. They returned to their home on Sunday evening.
—John Cherry, wife and children, with Joseph Thal, left on Sunday for Montgomery to visit Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Black, Mrs. Cherry's parents. While there John and Joe will do their best to catch all the bass from the Susquehanna river. The former is all right when it comes to getting trout from our local streams, but his friends are waiting patiently to hear how he has done with the more tricky fish.
—On Saturday H. W. Tate and wife with Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Garman and Miss Harmer, of Philadelphia, sister of Mrs. Tate, went over to Clearfield in the Doctor's automobile. They returned on Monday feeling jubilant as they had made the trip without any mishap. What makes the Doctor forget his Methodism is a big puncheon along the road on a hot day. Nature, however, was kind to him on this trip, as the weather was delightful.
—James Tarves, a representative of the Vermont Marble Co., who has been here since the second of June, has just completed placing the marble on the stairs, corridors and the closets in the Hotel House. He is a mechanic of ability, who spent the time in giving to our people a first class job in every sense of the word. The workmanship is not only up-to-date but the quality of the marble is beautiful and makes a fine showing. Mr. Tarves claims he has put up hundreds of jobs all over the country, but none any better than he did here.
—Going to the scenic is like a good dose of nerve—it traces up and gives you a new lease of life. Work and no play generally make Johnny a dull boy. A little change of scenes is what make you feel like living. Well, you have this at the scenic, because every night you get there is something new, interesting and attractive. There is nothing there to offend anybody but rather everything to please and the pictures often bring a smile and then a tear. The pictures are much better than they were a month ago, and have been greatly admired by the large crowds that go there. Thomas A. Edison, the inventor, has about perfected a machine that will make the moving picture talk. Just as soon as this kind of a picture is placed on the market you may come to the conclusion that Mr. Brown will be after it hot foot.
—On Wednesday evening of last week Mrs. A. J. Cook, of Bellefonte, tried to give her husband a surprise on his birthday anniversary. She invited twelve of his most intimate friends to come and join with him, and while Mrs. Cook was preparing for the festive occasion her husband began "smelling a rat," and then the cat was left out of the bag. It was really a shame to deprive Mrs. Cook the pleasure of giving her husband a surprise, because a woman always prides herself on keeping a secret. However, the occasion proved a most delightful one, which both Mr. and Mrs. Cook will always remember. Mrs. Cook has been one of Bellefonte's foremost business men and for years had charge of Berwin & White's large coal interests, but for the last few years has been living retired. It is hoped that both Mr. and Mrs. Cook may live to enjoy many more happy events, but hereafter Mrs. Cook will have to make preparations for them away from home, knowing that her husband is sort of a detective.

—S. B. Miller is visiting his old home in Ohio this week.
—Oscar Wetzel and family have returned from their southern trip.
—Katz & Co. have an important advertisement on page 4 of this issue.
—Katz & Co. have something special to say this week in regard to ladies' coats. See page 4.
—Col. Emanuel Noll, our efficient baggage master, spent a short time with friends in Tyrone on Monday.
—Charles Zingle has been appointed valuation assessor of Snow Shoe borough in place of Lemuel Watson who moved away.
—Squire W. J. Carlin, of Rebersburg, was in Bellefonte on Tuesday settling up the Heller estate of which he is the administrator.
—Miss Ruth Garman on Saturday returned from Williamsport where she had been spending several weeks in the family of Isaac Maitland.
BASE BALL NOTES.
The base ball season is nearing the close and the Bellefonte team will have to come down off the perch as a consequence for the moment. The boys made a strong fight to win but they couldn't make it, as the Osceola fans made up their minds that the championship belonged to them and that's the whole story in a nutshell. On Saturday Bellefonte played two games here with Clearfield. In the morning Bellefonte won out by a score of 9 to 5. In the afternoon Bellefonte lost by a score of 3 to 1. On Monday morning the score between Bellefonte and Osceola was 11 to 5 in favor of Osceola. In the afternoon game of the season took place between these two teams when Bellefonte downed them by a score of 6 to 5. Everybody was excited and began to think the pennant was in sight, although it could only be won on a narrow margin. On Tuesday Phillipsburg defeated Clearfield by a score of 9 to 0. On Wednesday Bellefonte went to Osceola with the expectation of winning if it was in the wood. It was, of course, one of the decisive battles and evidently Osceola had the whole armor on for the fray. The final score was 11 to 1 in favor of Osceola. This practically means that Bellefonte must be satisfied if it gets second place. Bellefonte plays Osceola today again and the appearances are not the most favorable for Bellefonte. On Wednesday Phillipsburg defeated Clearfield by a score of 4 to 3. Bellefonte winds up its part of the schedule by playing two games at Phillipsburg. If they win one of these games Bellefonte takes second place. On Saturday Clearfield plays Phillipsburg which is the last game of the season.
The following is the standing of the clubs:
Osceola W. L. P. C.
Bellefonte 26 15 634
Clearfield 21 18 539
Phillipsburg 19 19 560
Korman-Shuey.
On Tuesday, 23rd, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Shuey, well known residents of State College, invited their intimate friends and neighbors to their handsome new home to assist in welcoming the return of their only daughter, Mrs. Nancy Greer, of Phillipsburg, to Bellefonte. Mr. Irvin Korman, of Oak Hall, upon the arrival of the excursion train from the Business Men's Picnic the happy couple were met at the depot by the callithumpian band, headed by Diamond Dick, drawing the carriages and the happy couple their safe transportation home. Upon their arrival home, mirth and music were the order of the evening, participated in by all the happy guests until a late hour, when light refreshments were served to all. At a late hour the guests departed, but the happy couple many pleasant and prosperous years. The bride is a popular young lady, known for her many amiable qualities, and is well qualified to grace the home over which she will preside. The groom is a young man of sterling qualities and perfectly competent to provide a substantial home for his bride. A noteworthy feature of the event was the presence at and the evident enjoyment of the occasion by the respective surviving grandparents of the bride, to wit the venerable William Taylor, grandfather, of Pine Grove Mills; and the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Shuey, of near town, whose combined ages total 247 years. Wake up, ye brides, and tell us who can beat this record for ancestral longevity at your wedding reception.
Black Rockefeller.
An old-fashioned Arkansas darkey, one of those proud to call himself "nigger," stood up in the second day's session of the Negro Business Men's League at New York on Thursday and vowed that he "wouldn't change places with Mr. Theodore Roosevelt, big a man as he is."
"Come with us, you niggers," he told the New York negroes, "where the air is free and God is good, and where, if there is any gumption in you, you can have more in a year than you ever earned in all your life before. If you haven't a dollar I'll give you a farm and a chance. Come out to Arkansas."
The speaker was introduced by Booker T. Washington, as Scott Bond, of Madison, Ark.
"How much are you worth?" asked an inquisitive delegate.
"Well," he said, "down in Arkansas they tax us 50 cents on every $1000. I pay a few dollars less than $2000 a year."
A little arithmetic shows that this tax represents a capital appraised at nearly $4,000,000, consisting, Scott Bond said, of his own farm, 18 farms rented to other negroes, cotton gins, 29 general stores, and live stock.
"Who do you raise?" asked a woman delegate.
"On my place," was the reply, "I raise mules, corn, cotton, tobacco and boys and girls."
Wall Street Gets The Lead.
New York dispatch to the Chicago Record Herald: Thefts from two New York banks, made known within the last week, have compelled the attention of the American Bankers' Association to this class of crime. In the last five years more than $18,000,000 has been embezzled from banks and trust companies in the United States.
In a majority of cases the money stolen from banks is lost in stock gambling in Wall Street. Thus went the $900,000 that John H. Lowery said he took from the Utica City National bank. It was said recently by the president of a surety company that many thefts are committed in banks that never reach the ears of the public.
That it is not worth your while to talk religion to the man in Bellefonte whose mind is set on nothing but the Almighty dollar.

RECENT DEATHS.

KNOSFINGER:—After a brief illness Mrs. Henry Knosfinger, of near Pleasant Gap, died Friday afternoon, at the age of 28. Interment was made Sunday afternoon at Pleasant Gap. The services being attended by members of the Knights of the Golden Eagle, the deceased having been a member of the Lady's Temple. Two small children—a son and daughter—survive.
RAYMOND:—Clarence, eldest son of William Raymond, of near Linden Hall, died Sunday morning Aug. 23, after an illness of several weeks of typhoid fever. Had he lived until Oct. 5 he would have been 25 years old. The deceased was a consistent member of the United Evangelical church and served as superintendent of the Sabbath school. Interment was made at Bolsburg, Wednesday morning, the Rev. S. A. Snyder, officiating.
MOKLE:—William Mokle, of near Houersville, died Sunday evening about 6 o'clock, after a prolonged illness with rheumatism and a complication of diseases. He stood high in the esteem of the citizen of College township. Early in life he joined the Evangelical church and lived a true christian life. He is survived by a wife, son, John, of Howard, and Mrs. Fred Smith, of State College; also a sister, Mrs. Julia Williams, of Lemont. The funeral took place on Wednesday morning.
WOLFE:—The death of Mrs. George William Wolfe occurred at her home near Fiedler, on Wednesday morning of last week after an illness of some months from dropsy and other ailments. Interment was made Saturday, at Woodward. The deceased's maiden name was Elizabeth Hosterman, and is survived by her husband and four children, namely, Thomas, at Woodward; Charles, at Agonburg; Sumner, at Howard; and Mrs. Edw. Glantz, at Fiedler. Her age was sixty-nine years.
WITMER:—In last issue the Democrat announced the death of Catherine Witmer. A letter from Los Angeles, Cal., says: "Catherine Witmer was the eldest daughter of George and Sarah Witmer, born in Miles township, near Rebersburg, Sept. 24, 1817. She was a sister of Henry Corman, Mrs. Jacob Brumgard, Mrs. Reuben Meyer and Mrs. Rebecca Sparr, all of whom have passed away. Incidentally I want to say that up to the time she died she was a true christian. She last read the Democrat regularly, and was always interested in the news."
BATHURST:—Mrs. Sarah Bathurst, 80 years of age, who fell in front of Sheffer's store on the day Robin's circus was in Bellefonte, died on Wednesday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Nancy Greer, at Pittsburg. After she left the Bellefonte hospital she was taken to the Smoky City. Before the accident she was quite an active lady for her age. The shock she received was too much for her nervous system. She was a good old lady and had many friends here who will be sorry to hear of her death. She is survived by the following children: John, of Blanchard; Patton, William and Mrs. Charles Spierly, of Bellefonte; Rachael Bathurst and Mrs. Nancy Greer, of Pittsburg; and Mrs. John McCauslin, of McCoy's Iron Works.
HAYES:—John R. Hayes, who was a former sheriff of Stephenson county, Ill., died at his home in Chicago, aged seventy years. Death resulted from pneumonia and he was in a hospital for six weeks. His wife, two sons and a daughter survive. Interment in Freeport, Ill. Mr. Hayes was born in Centre county, Pa., going to Stephenson county with his parents, Samuel and Mary Hayes, in 1844. The four children were: John, of Blanchard; Patton, William and Mrs. Charles Spierly, of Bellefonte; Rachael Bathurst and Mrs. Nancy Greer, of Pittsburg; and Mrs. John McCauslin, of McCoy's Iron Works.
BAUER:—Mrs. Catherine Bauer, many years ago a resident of Bellefonte, but late of Shamokin, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Mollie Gortner, of that place, on Friday evening Aug. 19, following a lingering illness of three weeks. Deceased was aged at the time of her death about 74 years. She was twice married, her first husband being John Morrison, of Bellefonte, who died many years ago. Following his demise she was united in marriage to Peter Bauer, who also preceded her to the grave. From Bellefonte the family moved to Williamsport, where they lived for over twenty-five years. She was a consistent christian woman and for many years a faithful member of the Catholic church. Surviving are three sons and one daughter: Peter Bauer, of Williamsport; John, of Chicago; Fred, of New York; and Mrs. Gortner, of Shamokin. Funeral services were held from her late home and the remains were brought to Bellefonte on Tuesday afternoon. Interment will be made in the Catholic cemetery direct from the train.
MILES:—Miss Susan Miles, one of the oldest and best known ladies of Milesburg, died at her home in that place on Tuesday evening, August 23, at 4 o'clock. This day morning. She was a daughter of James and Rachel Valentine Miles Miles and was born at Milesburg for on April 2nd, 1832, hence was 78 years, 5 months and 23 days old. Her mother was a sister of Isaac Miller and Mrs. William A. Thomas, deceased. She died when the subject of this notice was quite young and she was taken by her aunt, Mrs. Joseph Green, who cared for and raised her as a daughter. She never married but cared for her adopted father and mother while they lived and after their death she and her adopted brother, the late J. Miles Green, kept house together in the old Joseph Miles homestead, which belonged to her. She was a sufferer with rheumatism since childhood but her indomitable will kept her alive and able to arouse until a short time ago. She was a faithful daughter, a loving sister and an unselfish, christian woman. The funeral was held on Saturday.
COLLINS:—Mrs. Catherine Collins, wife of Rev. J. Frank Collins, pastor of the Forge Free Methodist church, died on Saturday morning about 3 o'clock, at her home in Bush. Addition to her illness she had been ill for the past year and on several occasions had severe attacks of heart failure. On Saturday morning she was sitting on a chair and after administering to the comfort of his wife, Rev. Collins threw himself on the bed to take a little rest. He had only been there a short time when he heard a clutch at the bed post and on raising up found his wife had collapsed and was dying. In a short time life was

Turn the "Standpaters" Out.

The Pittsburgh Post predicts the congressional and gubernatorial elections in November will show Democratic gains all over the country. This is a Democratic year and all Democrats should watch developments with reading the grand, old reliable morning "Post." Its resources for obtaining and printing all the news are not equalled by any other paper. Notify your newswriter.

The members of the Axemann Sunday school will hold their next Saturday night, September 3, near the church, for the benefit of the pastor. Everybody is invited.
