Their's something kind of hearty-like about the atmosphere...

In Our Churches Next Sabbath.

Christian Chapel—Rev. W. H. Patterson will preach at half past seven.

The Schenck Reunion.

One hundred and fourteen years ago the first member of the now numerous Schenck family arrived in this neighborhood...

Additional delegates to the Pine Grove Mills C. E. convention are, Wm. and L. C. Thompson, of the Evangelical church, and Mrs. W. L. Harvey, and Miss Trenia Fletcher, from the Christian Chapel congregation.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward McEntire, of Williamsport, spent last week touring this section of the State in their auto and on their way home, Saturday, stopped in town long enough to make calls upon several of their old time friends.

Miss Katharine Glenn, a daughter of "Andy" Glenn, well known some years ago in the west end of the town, is now a resident of Cleveland, O.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Glass and son, Thomas, of Altoona, spent the last days of the week with the H. A. Moore family. Mrs. Glass is a niece of Mrs. Moore's.

The serious condition of his wife's health prevented Squire A. A. Fletcher from attending the big reunion last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Holter has returned from her sojourn with her sister, Miss Maud Hopkins, at Birmingham.

Edward Williams, of Williamsport, was a Monday and Tuesday guest of his cousin, Mrs. Walker.

Miss Ruth Parsons will attend the Bellefonte High school during the coming term.

Three pretty young daughters of Larry Brislin, formerly of this place, but now of Tyrone, are having the time of the lives visiting friends in this place. The oldest is named Miss Snow Shoe Brislin—funny name, that.

Harold Irwin, son of Mr. Lew Irwin, of Buffalo, N. Y., after several weeks' visit at the home of his uncle, Doc, the special guest of his cousin, Boyd, left for home on Monday. Harold is a rather prepossessing kid, and when he wasn't riding with the Doctor in his "Ought-to-mow-Bill," he put in much of his time watching the pretty young girls, with which our town is blessed, as they paraded the streets.

After the delightful sensation experienced in riding on the merry-go-round at the Williams picnic on last Saturday, Mrs. Saddle Emerick, Mrs. Annie E. Stere and Mrs. John Biddle have concluded to buy one for themselves, provided they can procure a place to "set it up" on, in the town.

After all the fuss and feathers the Centre Democrat is still "it."

Howard J. Peters, the tonsorial artist, has a live 3-foot rattlesnake in his shop window. It was captured by the bold and intrepid Wm. Keathley after the nasty varmint struck him in his boot, leaving one of its fangs stick in the boot. The black beauty has nine rattles.

Who, every evening takes his tramps through out our streets and lights the lamp, and always wears the same old hat, and takes the Centre Democrat? Milt Peters!
