$1 Road Tax Not Assessable.

Many parties disagree over the uestion of the $1 road tax assessment. In order to gettle the question definite-ly. Daniel Straw, of Julian, wrote the State Highway Department regarding the question in dispute and on August 20th he received the following reply

Mr. Daniel Straw, Julian: Dear Sir: -- Answering your letter of the 19th, would say that the Act of May 13, 1909, amends the law approved April 12, 1905, and the one dollar additional tax is no longer assessable or collectable from the township taxpayers. * *

ARMSTRONG:-Abraham L. Armstrong died Wednesday afternoon at about 1 o'clock at his home on Water street, Bellefonte. He had been ill for about one year with a complication of diseases, having not been able to work for six months. He was born at Pleas-ant Gap and a number of years ago moved to Bellefonte where he was employed at the Bush House as a mixologist. Several months ago he resigned his position at the Bush House and went to Greensburg where he secured what he thought was a better position. His health continued to fail and he returned home and for fourteen weeks was in bed. He was always a big. stout, robust-looking man, whose appearance indicated that he might live until an old age, but appearances are awful deceiving many times. Mr Armstrong possessed a big heart and stood ready at all times to render assistance to those who were in need. He was the kind of a man who would share the last crust with his friends. Being of a jolly disposition, his kindness and goodness of heart will be missed. He was 51 years of age and is survived by a wife and three chil-dren: Curtin, Mary and Irene, all at home; also by the following sisters and brothers: Mrs. Etta Kramer, of Big Peach Crop.

Reports from Snyder county other districts say that the peach crop this year wil be enormous and the fruit will be good. One Snyder county' dealer said that he would ship at
