EDITORIAL.

Not a state election was held this summer, but what the standpatters, got a black eye, and it was kept up to this week when Maine made the hair fly and Vermont gave 'em a bloody nose.

How queer, that the G. O. P. organs are busying themselves in venomous attacks upon Berry. And why? Just because he was the only one to lift the lid and show there was astounding corruption; his Berry's, action, was the means of landing republican leaders in states prison and more yet to go there.

At a public assembly a short time ago, where Mr. Scully was one of the speakers, in the presence of Mr. Tener, candidate for governor, Mr. Scully produced the record of candidate Tener's votes in congress, and showed thereby that Penrose's man did not cast a single vote in favor of the farmer, or workman—and when through, he turned to Mr. Tener and asked him whether he had any explanation to make or to deny the truthfulness of the record as produced. Tener sat dumb and speechless. It was the undeniable truth.

A GOOD NOMINATION.

Among our callers last Thursday was Dr. S. C. Stewart, of Clearfield, who is the present nominee on the Democratic ticket for State Senate, or Mr. Dimellings' successor in the district. We found the nominee a "live wire," one who was a full-fledged candidate and in the field to win. Dr Stewart is a man of fine appearance, far above the average in intelligence, who impresses you that he is every inch a man, and one who is fully capable for the important office to which he was nominated. He comes to the voters of the district with the highest commendation from his people, and wherever he has gone he has made a most favorable impression thus far in the campaign.

We are also informed that in his section the factional differences in the party in Clearfield county are practically obliterated, as all the contending elements will unite on the candidacy of this man. Further, there is a popular sentiment for him that will not be confined to the lines of the political parties, and a fine complimentary vote will be assured him at the election, sufficient to carry that county.

While he is engaged in the practice of his profession, it is his intention to make a close canvass of the district in the remaining portion of the campaign, and as he may not see everybody, will visit as many as it is possible. We also wish to compliment the senatorial conference for the good judgment they displayed in this instance, as they have practically brought victory out of what was considered a certain defeat.

We are satisfied that the election of Dr. Stewart would bring credit to this district, and for that reason we urge all persons to give him their support for he would be a prominent, influential and useful man in the state senate who would be far beyond reproach and has the ability to fill the important position.

LICKED TO A FRAZZLE.

President Taft will hereafter draw no distinction between insurgent and regular Republicans in the distribution of federal patronage. This was made clear in a recent letter from the president to certain Iowa insurgent leaders and was made public by Private Secretary Norton.

In this course the president indicates that he is but bowing to the wishes of the majority of the people and this new policy looks to the healing of the breach between the progressive and regular Republicans. All party leaders will be treated alike as Republicans in the matter of federal support.

The above is the substance of the letter sent out, after the returns came in from Maine, Washington and Illinois. It has taken a long time for the head-strong president to realize that his course in working with men like Cannon and Aldrich would react. The result of the recent elections has been a bitter lesson to his egotism, and the result appears to have completely soaked through his thick hide, that after all this is a government by the people, and not for the special interests.

President Taft deserves no credit for this announcement, because the insurgent leaders, whom he ridiculed and denounced repeatedly, have literally swept the country, and Taft thereby was completely licked into submission. He cries for peace, because his administration thus far has been repudiated by the people, upon whom he forced an infamous tariff measure.

It certainly is a humiliating spectacle to see our big president get "down on all fours" to the insurgents and apologize, take back his threats and political bribes that were spurned by patriotic men, and actually beg for peace.

Like a big bully, swollen with power and patronage, he has been "licked" to a frazzle. He deserved it and got what he merited; from this time on the general public may anticipate a little more consideration from the gentlemen at the White House.

NATION'S WAR EXPENDITURES

But by far the most serious single cause of our greatly increasing expenditures is the cost of maintaining and enlarging our military establishments. The total appropriations for the army, navy, fortifications and military academy for 1910 were $248,832,714.72, while the appropriations for the same purposes for 1897 were only $61,688,477.29. The appropriations for 1910 exceeding those for 1897 by over 400 per cent. The total appropriations for all other purposes, exclusive of postal expenditures, for 1897 were $315,253,968.90, while for 1910 there were $560,876,772.40, or an increase of 178 per cent. In other words, the percentage of increase in expenditures for preparations for war is more than double the percentage of increase in all other expenditures, including past wars.

During the fiscal year 1909 we expended in preparation for war, that is, for our army, navy, fortifications, other objects made necessary by our present policy, 35.4 per cent of our entire revenue for that year, exclusive of postal receipts; and on account of past wars we expended 32 per cent of our total revenues, or for both purposes 71.4 per cent, leaving only 28.6 per cent for all other governmental purposes outside of the postal service. While it is practically impossible to reduce our expenditures on account of past wars, it is possible to reduce very greatly our expenditures in preparation for war, without jeopardizing in the least our national safety, and it is to be hoped that the enlightened intelligence of the people will, in the not distant future, demand that we cease this reckless waste indulged in merely for the gratification of an unwarranted national pride.—Congressman Tawney in American Review.

Partisanship Now Unnecessary.
Altoona Tribune, a decent republican paper well says: "These are days when it is no longer necessary to succeed in politics that a man be a pronounced partisan. Quite the contrary. The most devoted partisan of whom this country has knowledge now is 'Uncle Joe' Cannon and there remains no one poor enough to do him reverence today. Beginning with taking umbrage at his meeting the country has concluded to try some other plan of running the national house of representatives aside from that known as Cannonism, and at this writing it looks as though the non-partisan furor now possessing the country is going to give the democratic control of the next congress. That will mean much less today than it would have meant a few years ago, for republicans and democrats are so intermingled these days that it's extremely difficult to distinguish between the progressives and the reactionaries of the two organizations.

Another For Heinle.
The Smithport Democrat, of McKean county, has this to say:
"Hon. W. C. Heinle, of Bellefonte, the Democratic nominee for Congress in this district, during his short stay in Smithport last week made a most favorable impression. Mr. Heinle is a gentleman of commanding presence, and of most engaging manners—a candidate who is well calculated to take well with the voters of the district. Mr. Heinle served his district in the State Senate in an able and highly satisfactory manner to his constituents, and he is endowed with those attributes that will fit him for Congressional honors."

GETTYSBURG MONUMENT.

Pennsylvania's memorial monument at Gettysburg will be dedicated on September 27, when all of the State's veterans participated in the battle of Gettysburg will be present. Governor Stuart, Adjutant General Stewart, Bruce Ricketts and others, it is expected, will make addresses, although the program for the occasion is not yet complete. It is not likely that the National Guard will turn out, although some companies may be taken along to add to the impressiveness of the scene. The last Legislature appropriated $10,000 to pay the expenses incident to the dedication.

The monument is just now being finished. The State has appropriated $150,000 for its erection. It stands on the third-day battlefield, near the National monument to the regulars, which was dedicated two years ago by President Taft, and can be plainly seen for miles.

The memorial is of light gray Barre granite. Seventy sculptors, including some in Europe, took part in the competition for the sculpture work on the monument, which was won by Samuel Murray, of Philadelphia. The "Angel of Victory," which crowns the monument, is 20 feet 5 inches in height. The angel is shown holding aloft a sword in her right hand and clasps in her left a branch of palm, symbolic of victory.

On the four sides of the memorial are bronze tablets designed by Murray, commemorating respectively the "Artillery," "Infantry," "Cavalry" and "Signal Service." The architectural part of the monument is the work of William C. Cotrell. It consists of a double arch of granite surmounted by a dome, the height of the whole being 108 feet.

On the bronze tablets about the base of the memorial is the complete roster of every officer and soldier in the Pennsylvania organizations on duty during the battle.

WEDDINGS.

John Neuman, who had the misfortune of breaking his leg, is able to be around again.

Mrs. Ellen S. Burrell left on Monday afternoon for Grampian, Clearfield county, where she expects to remain a while.

Most farmers are done sowing—next will be corn cutting.

R. E. Wert, formerly of this place, but now of Winslow, Ill., is on the sick list.

H. W. Wert started to hull clover seed last week.

Jared Frederick, who is staying at the home of Jared Erie, is quite poorly.

Sunday School Convention.
"The State Sunday School Convention to be held in Altoona, October 12, 13 and 14, promises to be a great one. The Pastors Congress, the Synod, Congress and the Organized Adult Bible Class Congress are unique features and will draw a large attendance.

Centre county is entitled to 30 delegates. The credential cards, card orders for reduced rates on railroads and entertainment cards can be secured from L. W. Nuttall, Phillipsburg, County Secretary."

DRAWN INTO THE MESHES.

In the financial flurry caused by Senator C. O. Templeton at Tyrone, for which he is now under arrest for forgery, two of Bellefonte's residents were caught and it is probable they will be losers. The first is Mrs. Harry Walkey, nee Miss Emma Krider. Several years ago Mr. Templeton settled up the Krider estate at Warriors-mark and $600 was left with him to invest. How much Mrs. Walkey will get out of it is a question.

During her life time Mrs. Dr. Thomas Van Tries, second wife of Dr. Van Tries, loaned Mr. Templeton $1000, when a mortgage was given on their home at Tyrone. It was pruned by Mrs. Templeton in whose name the property is recorded. Dr. Van Tries became a little uneasy and went to Tyrone to see how his claim stood and found that Mrs. Templeton's name to the mortgage was a forgery. How much of the money the estate will get back cannot be estimated at time.

Templeton Suits Entered.

Two suits were entered in court by Attorney H. A. Davis against Chambers O. Templeton, on Saturday morning. Mrs. Mary Boyer sues to recover $1,000, alleging that she gave this amount to Mr. Templeton, for investment purposes. He turned over two notes to her, one for $500, signed by J. D. Hileman; and one for $500, signed by C. O. Cowher. She alleges, that he represented to her, that these debtors were responsible Sinking Valley farmers, and that she has since learned, that the notes are forgeries, and that Templeton has appropriated the money to his own use. E. J. Kennedy sues to recover $2,418, on a similar cause of action. These were the alleged forged notes, that were turned over to him; James C. and James R. Crawford, $200; Mrs. Frances S. Weyer and James Rosebury, $470; J. M. Crawford, $500; J. B. Johnson, $500.—Herald.

Dies After Fortieth Stroke.

A case which for over a half century has been a puzzle to many of the most prominent physicians of the county came to an end on Thursday evening in Altoona with the death of Charles M. Forbes, 61 years old, at his home after having suffered 42 strokes of paralysis. He had been practically helpless from boyhood.

For the Center County Nags.

One of the interesting features at the county fair will be the race on Friday open to all horses owned in Centre county. There will be no entry fee, three heats, half mile. This invariably proves one of the interesting events to see the local sports drive their fancy steeds around the course. A liberal purse has been set aside for this event.

$3.50 Kidney Cures Weak Kidneys, Free

Relieves Urinary and Kidney Troubles, Backache, Straining, Swelling, Etc.

Stops Pain in the Bladder Kidneys and Back.

Wouldn't it be nice within a week or so to begin to say goodbye forever to the scalding, dribbling, straining, or too frequent passage of urine; the forehead and back-of-the-head aches; the stitches and pains in the back; the growing muscle weakness; spots before the eyes; yellow skin sluggish bowels; swollen eyelids or ankles; leg cramps; unnatural short breath; sleeplessness and the despondency?
I have a recipe for these troubles that you can depend on, and if you want to make a quick recovery you ought to write and get a copy of it. Many a doctor would charge you $3.50 just for writing this prescription, but I have it and will be glad to send it to you entirely free. Just drop me a line like this: Dr. A. E. Robinson, K319 Lock Building, Detroit, Mich. and I will send it by return mail in a plain envelope. As you will see when you get it this recipe contains only pure, harmless remedies, but it has great healing and pain-conquering power.
It will quickly show its power once you use it, so I think you had better see what it is worth today. I will send you a copy free if you can use it and cure yourself at once.
