EDITORIAL.

"P" stands for Penrose and also for porkbarrel, and "T" stands for Tener and tariff. The combination is a happy one for those interested.

We do not see why strikes for better wages continue in numerous sections, thousands without employment, and prices for food beyond the reach of the laboring classes, etc.; we say, we don't see why this unfortunate state of affairs, for over three years, still prevails, and yet, Bryan is not President.

For stealing a banana off a huckster wagon, Frank Pennewell, a Chester negro was Monday sentenced to two years in the county jail at Media and to pay a fine of $10 and costs. Pennewell says he took the banana for a joke. Foolish fellow, why didn't he go to Harrisburg and arrange for a steal of thousands and get clear?

There is one fact becoming more apparent with each year-Centre $2, at Yeager's. county is gradually advancing in having good roads, and inside of two or three years we hope to see the end of keeping up roads., There is not a living soul that is not interested in having good roads and finds pleasure in dress the absence of ruts and breakers.

A BATTLE ROYAL.

On Tuesday the republican state convention met in New York and Teddy Roosevelt won a signal victory over Vice-President Sherman for chairman. He had a majority of 125 which meant that the progressive idea has won its greatest victory of the with a sulky temper and a penchant campaign, by completely unhorsing for gay attire. the political bosses and "standpatters" who for years have ruled that state, strikingly, corrupting its legislation and defying the wishes of the people.

Published Without Comment). If your heart longs for beauty, Look Snyder County over, That the immates do their duty Is seen in their fields of clover.

It's mountains they are many That some before a mortal's eye, Below them are fine scenery With the Susquehanna flowing by.

The inmates of the county, In God they put their trust For the scenery all over the county Shows that their tools do not rust.

For all along the river, can be seen Fields of wheat, corn and clover. By mortal eye can be seen. Good farming is done the county over.

Some people look for beauty Wherever they perchance to go, But the inmates of Snyder County do their duty For its fields do plainly show.

That the inmates live by wisdome For they labor the live long day For we can see the alternation When they are taking in their hay.

Many Counties look beautiful, But Snyder County takes the lead The inmates are dutiful The natives are mostly farmers And of the finest kind They have no use for charmers, For industry is in their mind.-

The golden brown of wooded hills Has left the trees; and stark and bare

Those sentinels above the rills Will turn their flanks where chill blasts flare.

The velvet carpet of the vales. Beneath a coverlet of snow,

Shall hidden lie; and piercing wails Of Winter's tempets fircely blow,

- The birds are silent and the nest We loved to watch in yonder tree

The sylvan glade no longer lures The maid and lover to the glen; The hunter, in his lodge, secures

His household from the wind and rain.

The violet and daffodil,

The pansy, lily and the rose, Are gone; and in their stead, but chill.

Now gathers all within its throes.

ORCHARD MEETINGS.

The fall orchard meetings publicly announced to be held in the orchards of Mr. Benj. Limbert, in Brush Valley, Madisonburg, and at the large near fruit farm of Col. W. Fred Reynolds, of Bellefonte, were two events that, though not largely attended, were of considerable importance to the county and especially to those specially in-terested in the growing of fine fruit. The orchards selected for the holding of these meetings had been under the care the past season of the Diricit care the past season of the Division of Zoology, Dept. of Agriculture and it was for the purpose of showing there what had been accomplished by adopting modern orchard methods such as pruning, spraying, cultivating and fertilizing. It is safe to say, there need be no doubt in the minds of the public or any who may be the possessors of fruit trees as to the importance of this work, or the benefits arising Abundant evidence can be therefrom. supplied from every orchard in the State where similar work was conducted this year to prove the fact that modern orchard methods practically applied are successful methods. Messrs. T. C. Foster and R. P. Allaman, both of whom represent the Dept, of Agriculture, were present and fully explained all the points leading to the practical as above mentioned. If Teddy Roosevelt were a voter in Pennsylvania we would see what he would do to the political bosses who have been conspiring together and manipulating the two great parties for their selfish ends. Pennsylvania needs a thorough cleaning out-it is to recover from its fatigue worse than New York ever was, and if the manhood of Pennsylvania asserts itself this fall the job will be effectually done by the Keystone or ganization.

It is up to every voter-the people always get what they want.
