BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

-Mrs. Joseph Kelleher and children, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday and Monday in Tyrone. -Miss Grace Mitchell left on Monday afternoon for St. David, a suburb of Philadelphia. -William Miller, Sr., who is em-his family in Bellefonte. -On Saturday night Miss Helen Smith, of Bellefonte, entertained a number of her young friends at din-

Fred Blanchard, of Chicago, is and Mrs. James Solt, of Logar street, visiting his friends in Bellefonte and at Lock Haven. He is getting along fever. nicely in the Windy City.

-The Misses Bible, daughers of Mr. and Mrs. George Bible, who had kin's Gienn, where they had been visbeen visiting their sister, Mrs. Russel iting friends.

Blair, in Bellefonte, have left for their —Mrs. Horace Musser has returned home in Philadelphia.

-Frank Rowe, son of J. C. Rowe, of Bellefonte, has secured a good position severe illness. in Akron, Ohio. Frank is a pretty active fellow and will do the right thing if given half a chance. -Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brown, of New York City, with their two children, are visiting in Bellefonte at the home York City, with their two children, are visiting in Bellefonte at the home of Mrs. Brown's parents, Mr. and McNeil left Bellefonte for Atlantic Mrs. Howard Spangler, on Bishop -Maurice Yeager, of Bellefonte, has secured a position as traveling salesman for the Clearfield Wooden Ware Co., whose operations are at Clearfield. His friends here wish for him much success. -John Gordon Miller, one of the employes in the Potter-Hoy hardware store, has been quite ill with typhoid fever in the Bellefonte hospital. He resides on the third floor of Crider's Exchange, and became sick on Thurs-

—Edward Haupt, of Bellefonte, has Wall Street and Pierpont Morgan skinned a mile. A couple of days ago he returned from the fair at Mans-field. Pa., where he cleared up $600 in two weeks. That's giving John Rockefeller a jar.

-The second big attraction at Garman's opera house will be "Uncle Dave Holcomb" on Monday and Tuesday evenings of next week. It is here two nights to give the people who attend the Centre County Fair a chance to see something good and up-to-date.

-On Friday there will be an interesting football game on Hughes' field between the State College High school and the Bellefonte High school. As this is the opening of the footbah season here it should be well attended. The teams are evenly matched, and thus it will be interesting.

-On Sunday a Hungarian was trying to learn how to operate the elevator at the Bellefonte Furnace when he became dizzy and fell a distance of sixty feet down the elevator pit. He was taken to the Bellefonte hospital where it was found he was not injured further than being badly bruised.

-On Friday afternoon the Presby* terians of Bellefonte held a meeting. About a year ago the pastor's salary was raised from $2000 to $2500. Finding that the finances for the year were running short, the salary was reduced again to $2000. It was also suggested that some needed repairs be made to the church the morning at 9:30 o'clock, special services, consisting of recitations and singing, will be held in the Sunday school; at 10:20, in the auditorium, there will be a church debt rally, at which it is confidently believed that the entire debt will be wiped out. All are cordially invited.

-About thirty persons left Bellefonte on Monday for Gettysburg to attend the dedication of the monumen to the memory of the Pennsylvania soldiers of the Civil war. Twenty of these were old veterans, among whom were the following: S. H. Williams, Amos Garbrick, Emanuel Noll, W. H. ylor, Joseph Alters, James Kreps, V. Miller, Herman Miller, Charles Eckenroth, of Bellefonte; David Shivery, of Stormstown; Harry Lair, of and William Grenoble, of Pleasant Gap.

-On Tuesday afternoon W. E. Mustrain at the Bellefonte station. He left Centre county twenty-four years 'ago, and this is his first trip back since that time. During these years Mr. Musser has roamed all over the far west. In western Kansas he took up a section of 640 acres of land which he improved and sold at a good price. Mr. Musser was met at the train by H. B. Herring of near Spring Mills, who at one time resided in Kansas, and who still owns large possessions there consisting of farm and woodland

-On Wednesday C. K. Hicklen, of the Bellefonte First National Bank. accompanied his daughter, Miss mary Hicklen, to Luthersville, Md., ten miles from Baltimore, where she en-tered as a student the Maryland College for women. Mr. Hicklen will mond, driver on Philip Beezer's meat spend a couple days at the National wagon, came near reading his title in Brotherly Love, where he will spend a few days with Mrs. Mary Peters and daughter. When he returns in ten days he may be able to tell his friends

-Rev. Samuel McClure gave his Bellefonte friends goodbye on Thurs-day and left on his journey across the continent to San Francisco, where, with Mr. Auman, of Circleville, Ohio, and Mr. Meriam, of Bayonne, N. J., will labor as missionaries under the China Inland Mission They will first go to Nankin China, where they will spend six months in the University learning the language. From there they will be assigned to some terri

-Several months ago Mrs. Collins, wife of Rev. J. F. Collins, pastor of the Bellefonte Free Methodist church, died very suddenly, leaving three small children-a son and two daughters. On Monday afternoon the father took them to Gery, N. Y, where he placed them in an orphanage where they will secure a good education. In several years from now the oldest girl will

-Miss Byrd Noll is visiting Mrs William Echoes, of Mounsville, W. Va. -John McNickols, of Bellefonte, has secured a position with T. A. Shoemaker, at Northumberland.

-Miss Jane Harper and Helen Ceader will resume their dancing sloyed at Tyrone, spent Sunday with class during the first week of October. -Mrs. Patsy Stuart and daughter, Miss Margaret Stuart, left Bellefonte Thursday morning for Hagerstown, Md.

-Miss Clara Solt, daughter of Mr

-Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Murray and family have returned from Wat-

-Mrs. Horace Musser has returned helped to nurse her mother through a need in Bellefonte. -Mrs. Charles P. Taylor of Pit-been as good as it might be.

weeks. -The annual meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of the Young Men's Christian Association will be held at the association Monday evening, October 3rd, at half-past seven. -Thursday is publication day at the Centre Democrat office, all patrons attending the fair that day are welcome to stop in and see a modern newspaper being printed and mailed. -Charles Morris has leased the Harper residence on Linn street and will soon make that their home. As pre-viously stated, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Morris, will spend their winter at the Bush House. -The management of the Centre County Fair has decided again this year to observe a children's day on fair free of charge. -Charles Moran, who for the last eight years had been one of the courteous clerks in Yearger's Shoe store, has accepted a position as a traveling agent for the Western Shoe co., of St Paul, Minn. He left Bellefonte on Sunday for the purpose of reporting for instructions.

-John Shaughenssy, who for nine teen long years has been a glass blower in Fairmont, Indiana, has been visiting his aged parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shaughenssy, in Bellefonte His mother has been in rather delicate health and he came here to see her. He is the same old Johnny.

-On Friday Miss Lucile and Kittle Hays, of Union City, Pa., left the home Mr. and Mrs. D. I. Williard, in Rellefonte, for Baltimore where they entered a ladies' college. While on their route there they spent several days very pleasantly here. They are nieces of Mr. Williard, and are fine young ladies.

Bullock, the clothier. This means that -Next Sunday will be Rally Day in the United Evangelical church. In regular seige of swearing while trypossession by April 1st.

will stay while at college and thirty others take their meals. One room in -The will of the late Hamilton D. Hemler, a prominent banker of Harris-burg, was filed the other day. Of an estate valued at $150,000 the sum of $6,000 was left to each of his six daughters and $300 to his wife in addition to ample provision already made for her, the balance of the estate to be held in trust ten years. ser, of Boise, Idaho, stepped from the Hemler's widow above referred to prior to her marriage to him was Mrs. J. D. Scravendyke, for a number of years a resident of Bellefonte.

-Jacob Marks and Clayton Brown, of Bellefonte, are thinking of opening up a gold mine at Pennsylvania State College. We mean a moving picture show. They are both genial good fellows who would make her go if they take a notion to make the venture. However, to get a prominent location for a building up there will cost almost the price of a good farm, but what's the "dif." The proposition seems to be a good one and that's all that is necessary. If the scheme goes through Mr. Marks will have charge.

-The other afternoon John Ray-Capital interviewing President Taft the sky. When the train from Tyrone days he may be able to tell his friends have here whether it will be Tenner, Grim hasn't very much hair on his head but in the interest of systematic benefit good measure.

This puts the congregation on good cence on Tuesday.

Charles Poorman, of Coleville, footing, and both paster and people then he dies he should will officer Justice about $10,000 of his coin.

-Robert Roberts, of Burwindale, Clearfield county, a former employer menting with artifical limbs, and it event was a testimonial to the good of the Potter-Hoy hardware Co., armay not be long until you will see work accomplished under Rev. Barry's they will set sail for China where they rived in Bellefonte on Saturday afterrived in Bellefonte on Saturday afternoon and spent Sunday with his lady ful with what mechanism these limbs | Next Sunday morning Rev. Hower, |
Next Sunday morning Rev. Hower, |
Next Sunday morning Rev. Hower, |
Description of the Bellefonte United Evanfriend. He, of course, had a few min- are constructed which make it posutes to gaze on his other friends. Being in the salt business he is, therefore, getting to be a pretty well pre-knee is perfectly natural and even the served young man. We mean he is feet have joints in them that conform from debt. tory. Mr. McClure is making a big-getting better looking, and the young to anything he might step on. James sacrifice, as he is promised no stated lady who looks up on him as the idol Wian, of Bellefonte, paid $100 for an salary, and will have to endure many of her heart isn't to be biamed a blamartificial limb but the stub of his leg ed bit. "Bobby" is always a welcome is too short to give perfect satisfac- a chauffeur at George Beezer's garguest in Bellefonte, and his friends tion, are glad to hear of his success.

Thomas Van Tries, of Bellefonte, was in the court house as a peacock is of return, and when in the vicinity of the the loser of $1000 by the failure of its feathers, and he has a right to be. Lutheran church at Pleasant Gap, the Senator W. O. Templeton, of Tyrone. It has the appearance of the private car skidded on the muddy road and The mortgage, in question, wasn't on office in a large banking concern on turned turtle. The boys after hard Mrs. Templeton's residence, but on Wall Street, New York City. On the work, extricated themselves from unthe home of Miss Alice Templeton, a floor is a green brussels carpet and der the car, and after thoroughly ex-

-Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lonsbury are visiting Mr. Lonsbury's mother, at trons next week who may be attending Corning, N. Y. the fair. -Mrs. Daniel Showers of Bellefonte, fever. -Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morris, of Wayne, Pa., have been guests at the church on Sunday evening. former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Morris, on Linn street.

-Walter Garrity, of the Seven Mts., left on Tuesday for Philadelphia. was in town the other day-everybody likes to shake hands with Walter; he's a wholesouled fellow all through.

-In order to give Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morris possession of the Har-per house, on Linn street. Misses ill for two weeks, is again back to Lulu and Jennie Harper will take work as stenographer in the rooms with Mrs. Dr. Hibler, on Al-fice of W. Harrison Walker. legheny street.

-If you come to the fair next week you will be welcomed if you call at the Centre Democrat—no matter if you are in arrears on your subscrip--that will make your visit all the more interesting.

-Henry Sowers and family, of Scotia, moved to Bellefonte on Tuesday where Mr. Sowers has already found frs. Horace Musser has returned employment. He is an industrious from St. Louis, Mo., where she gentleman and that is the kind we

-On Thursday Mrs. Clement Dale and daughter, Ethel, left for Baltimore, cairn, is visiting in Bellefonte for the benefit of her health which has not been as good as it might be.

Md., where the latter entered the Woman's college, Mrs. Dale then went to Philadelphia where she will spend a month with friends.

-James Davis who entered Susque McNeil left Bellefonte for Atlantic hanna University at the opening of City, where they will spend several the school term, became quite ill on Sunday and was sent to his home at Bellefonte. He is a son of J. M. Davis, proprietor of the Garman House. -The peach crop of this county was a fairly good one and has about petered out with this week. Prices for home peaches were higher than in Baltimore or Philadelphia, and our home growers of the fruit, and especially the retailers, obtained profitable prices.

-Potatoes that are brought in to curb market and vended from teams on the streets, show up of fine quality and a plentiful crop in this county. Apples come in also from the local orchards, and are fine and plenty, ex- jail for appearance at court. cept in a few localities. The same may be said of all truck in general.

—On Tuesday morning conductor Ross Parker, of the Bellefonte Central Railroad, became the father of a lit-Wednesday, October 5th, when all children accompanied by parents or guardians will be admitteed to the tle boy, and Ross is much elated over the fact that the stork left a boy instead of a girl this time. If he was a Pittsburg, has awarded to Lew Wallittle confused in taking tickets on lace, of Bellefonte the contract for the Tuesday morning this was the cause. brick work for the new boiler shop at

-Leroy Leathers, of Howard, was in attendance at court this week and weather comes. pleasant experience they had at his fly reunions are about closed out for extensive damage. Fortunately no one was injured, and the house did not take fire.

-H. B. Aikey, of Lewistown, was a pleasant caller at this office on Tues-day, although he came to Centre counon a very important mission. Saturday evening. Sept. 17th, a little son, eleven months old died from cholera infantum. The remains were brought to Curtin on Tuesday of last week and buried in the cemetery at The Gault house, on East Curtin that place. Otherwise he is getting en's Auxiliary of the Young Men's children, came down from Altoons, street, now occupied by Donald Potter, thus been purchased by John M. sided in Centre county.

-S E Wetvel of Carthage Mo present visiting in Bellefonte at the cers will be elected and plans for the regular seige of swearing while trying to get another house and then moving in order to give Mr. Bullock possession by April 1st.

present visiting in Bellefonte at the home of his brother, John Wetzel, on of the 212 members are urged to be present.

Wetzel lived out on the frontier and present. possession by April 1st.

Father O'Hanlon, of Bellefonte who looks after the spiritual welfare of the students at State College who for members of the Cathelic church.

Father O'Hanlon, of Bellefonte a cowboy. He rode a spirited bronco and often went down into Mexico. He says the cowboy is not half as bad as ed hardwood floors, attractive stair.

GEISE:—Mrs. Sarah Geise died on are members of the Catholic church, has furnished a fraternity house at that place where twelve of "his boys" of a real cowboy is not half as bad as ed hardwood floors, attractive stairtee members of the Catholic church, he is painted, and most of them are cases and well furnished and equipped that place where twelve of "his boys" of a real cowboy is exceedingly inmenument to the enterprise of the trying to interest some of our people in the manufacture and marketing of several useful devices for which he recently was granted patents. One is journals on railway car axles. His ideas appear to have merit in them and will be put on the market if he can secure the proper financial aid.

latter comes to pass.

who several months ago had both his legs cut off by the cars on the Bellefonte Central Railroad, is now experi- can do more spiritual work. This walking around. It is wonder- pastorate. Poorman to walk. The bend in the indebtedness out there. So that ah knee is perfectly natural and even the our churches will be practically free

-We will be glad to see our "pay".

-Edward Owens and family, of is at Niagara Falls, nursing a niece Bellefonte, spent Sunday with friends through a serious attack of typhoid at Snydertown.

-Miss Rachael Shuey sang a pretty solo in the Bellefonte Methodist

-Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morris, who had been visiting friends in Bellefonte -Harris Heylman of Indiana, arrived in Bellefonte on Wednesday afternoon and became a guest of his parents on Curtin street.

work as stenographer in the law of--On Monday Miss Welsh and Mrs. Ross, of Altoona, who had been visiting at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Morris, on Linn street, left for their homes. -Our old and esteemed friend, church, Henry Rossman, of Tusseyville, gave our sanctum a call and announces all things in O. K. condition in that part of the kingdom.

-If you are attending the fair next week it will be a good time to stop in and pay your "respects" to the editor. He is always glad to welcome his friends and "pay"-trons.

-Among the many presents given to Rev. Samuel McClure who starts today for China was a handsome gold watch and a check, the gift of W. P. Humes and his sister, Miss Myra. -Josh Folk acted as a special officer at the court house this week to direct people to the various offices and apartments and to see that the main corrider was kept clean from mud and tobacco spit. -John P. Height, of Altoona, was a pleasant caller at this office on Thursday. He was on his way to visit his son at Lemont. He had been ill, but he has regained his health and is feeling like a young man. -At a hearing before Justice Musser, on Saturday evening, J. A. B. Miller was charged with making threats against his wife. The was in Mr. Miller being committed to -Winfield Meeker, of Richmond, W. Va., was a caller at this office on Wed-

he is in the lumber business. -The Pittsburg Construction Co., of His family now consists of three Renovo, for the P. R. R. The build-daughters and two sons.

—Lerov Leathers, of Howard, was This will keep Lew busy until cold -The great local picnics and famhome on Sunday evening during a 1910, and all passed off delightfully severe thundergust when a flash of and enjoyably in the extreme to all lightning struck their home and came participats. The winding up will be down the stove pipe tearing things up next week when the County Fair is generally in the kitchen, but doing no to come off, and the streets will be no lined with lasses gay. -On Wednesday evening at o'clock the Lutheran Synod, of Pennsylvania, convened in Bellefonte Lutheran church. On next Sabbath the pulpits in the various churches in the the temples of worship should be well filled.

the Association on Monday evening. October 3rd, at half past seven. Offi-sons of Bellefonte and

BURNED CHURCH MORTGAGE.

On Sunday morning the Lutheran -What's the use? That is the con-clusion that Mr. and Mrs. Harve Grif-themselves from a debt which had been the Civil war, died at her home in -What's the use? That is the con- congregation of Bellefonte liberated fith have arrived at. They have a nice hanging over them for years. As an Blanchard about 7 o'clock Friday evproperty near Axeman, and they had introduction, the handsome new altar, about decided to sell it and make their home among the hum and bustle of ry, and friends, was dedicated to the Philadelphia. Often times a man's second thoughts are the best so after reconsidering the matter they have decided to make some repairs at the old home, at Axemann, and move there and, perhaps die there, but we by James H. Potter and Frank Craw wife of Frank Kunes, of Blanchard; trust it will be many years before the ford; new vestment for the altar, Miss Laura, Lottie Robb. This was followed by The fall meeting of the Huntingdon Presbytery will be held in the Presbyterian church at Recedsville on October 3rd and 4th. One of the important matters will be the election of the burned a morigage which portant matters will be the election of the held against the church. Ten years commissioners to the Spread of Press of the Spread of the Spread of Press of the S mond, driver on Philip Beezer's meat commissioners to the Synod of Penn- ago it was given for $2000, which had wagon, came near reading his title in sylvania which will meet in Wilkins- been reduced some since. Isaac Miller, the sky. When the train from Tyrone burg on October 25th. Rev. J. Allison the Bellefonte contractor. gave his Capital interviewing President Tarm was pulling in he attempted to drive and "Teddy" if he is there. From was pulling in he attempted to drive and "Teddy" if he is there. From was pulling in he attempted to drive Platts will preside at a meeting on promise that when the time came to Monday evening, October 3rd, cele-burn the mortgage he wanted to give brating the twenty-fifth anniversary the last $100. Isaac being a man of Justice grabbed the bridle and held the horses back there would have been a widow in Bellefonte. All right, John James A. Beaver will make the report which was wrapped in a $1 bill for

-Charles Poorman, of Coleville, footing, and both paster and people

siable for an unfortunate man like Mr. gelical church, expects to cancel the Wreck at Pleasant Gap.

On Tuesday afternoon Eugene Goss, This week W. G. Runkle, the Dis- "Billy" Tyson, of Tyrone, to Bellefonte -Last week we stated that Dr trict Attorney, is as proud of his office in time to take the 4:44 train. On his RECENT DEATHS.

LAMEY: -Oliver Lamey, a well-known man of near Booneville, died at that place on Monday morning of emorrhages, aged about 28 Deceased is survived by his wife and two children.

HARKNESS:-Mrs. H. P. Harkness, Altoona, a sister-in-law of Mrs Robert Irwin, of Bellefonte died on Wednesday of last 'week after six week's illness with a complication of diseases. Most of her life until her marriage in 1890 was spent in Reading. Since that time she lived in Altoona.

HOUSER:-Mary Lucille, the nine onth's old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Houser, died at eight o'clock on Wednesday morning, of last week. The child had been sickly for many weeks and its death is the third in this young couple's brief married life. The funeral was held Thursday at 2:30 o'clock from the Catholic ROSS:-Florence Ross died Wednesday, 21 inst., at her home in Economy, beyond Pittsburg. She was a daughter of Allen Yearick, near Woodward, this county, and a granddaughter of Michael Hess of Haines township. Her age was 73 years, 1 month and 7 days, Interment at Woodward.

HAINES:-Two deaths in one day was the sad affliction on the Haines family, well known in Boggs township. On Sunday night, Sept. 18, Dorsey Haines, who was a liveryman at Woodland, died after a brief illness, aged 39 years, 6 months and 11 days Three hours after the death of Haines word was received that his sister Mary, aged 15 years, had passed away at the home of her father, in Boggs township. Mr. Haines' death was due to typhoid fever. His sister had been ill with tuberculosis.

CARTWRIGHT:-Daniel wright, who has long resided at Philipsburg, died Friday morning, the result of typhoid fever, with which he has been ill for several weeks. A couresult ple of his children, now recovering. were first taken down with the same disease, and the bereavement now through which the family is called to pass in the death of the husband and father makes the affliction a very sore one, and appeals to the sympathy of the community. The deceased, whose death will be mourned by many friends was aged 54 years, 5 months and 14 Besides his wife, he leaves sevdays. eral children

BENSON:-At the home of her daughter, near Fairbrook, Centre county, Mrs. Sarah E. Benson died early on Monday morning, aged 73 Mrs. Benson was born and reared in Huntingdon county. She was twice widowed, her second husband, James A. Benson, having died at Pinecroft, in May 1909. Eight children survive her Her last illness was short. She had planned a visit to the home of her son, J. H. Colobine, but nstead of the plan being carried out her remains were brought there and funeral services were held on Wednesday. Interment will be made in Antis cemetery beside her husband.

CANN:-Wilbur Cann, son of Wm. town will be supplied by ministers and Annie Cann of Altoons died at and Mrs. John A. Kline, at Centre
Mills on Sunday night. Mrs. Cann
Mills on Sunday night and four old. O. F. Stover, Rebersbury. from the Synod. On this account all the home of shis grand-parents, Mr on Saturday. The child seemed to suffer and Dr. Frank, of Millheim, was called and all that medical shill. do was done for the baby, but Sunday evening he took convulsions from which he never recovered. The funeral took place on Tuesday. Inter-

Wednesday evening at her home Centre Hall, aged 67 years. of a real cowboy is exceedingly in- monument to the enterprise of the health had been frail for fifteen years, until death called her hence. others take their meals. One room in the house is set aside for Father was in town this week attending to business and among other things was well attended. One of the several feature was a daughter of Jacob Wagner, deceased, and leaves a husband, David there. recently was granted patents. One is contractor. They found everything an improved pipe wrench, and another a device for automatically oiling the place in about two weeks.

In the contractor of the place in about two weeks.

In the contractor of the place will take a device for automatically oiling the place in about two weeks. about four weeks ago. Interment on Saturday morning at Centre Hall; services at the house.

BOWMAN:-Mrs. Hettie Bowman, ening. Several weeks ago her mind became affected and for 18 days pre-ceding her demise she refused to take Laura, wife of Charles Kunes, of Blanchard; Miss Mary and Milton, at home. The funeral took place Sunday at 2 o'clock. Services in the Baptist After church. Interment in the Baptist SECRIST:-The death of Chas. M. Secrist, son of Mr. and Mrs. Secrist, of Millhelm, occurred at his home at Spring Mills Thursday morning at 3 o'clock, after an illness of four weeks of typhoid fever. Deceased was aged 27 years, 4 months and 28 days. leaves to survive a wife and infant daughter. Charlie Secrist, as he was known to everybody, was a fine young man; steady and industrious in his habits; a miller by trade, he held a responsible position in the Allison Brothers' Mills at Spring Mills at the time of his death. He was the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Secrist, of Millheim, and his death at such an early age bears very hard upon them. Interment was made in Fairview cemetery at Millheim.

DAVID:-Jenkins David, one of the most popular residents of Snow Shoe, died last Thursday evening at his home at that place. He had been sufhome at that place. He had been suffering for some time with Brights diesase which finally caused his death. Being but 44 years of age he was in the full vigor of his manhood and influence. The deceased had many good qualities and winning ways that made him a man among men, and in his death Snow Shoe loses a valuable citizen. He was a contractor for the citizen. He was a contractor for the Lehigh Valley Coal Co. by whom he was held in the highest esteem. He associated himself with the Presbyterian church and tried to live an upsecure a good education. In several years from now the oldest girl will be able to keep house for her papa. It was quite sad to think that such a nice household should be broken up, and the children given over to others to raise. However, the home is a good one and they will receive the best of care. From Gery, Rev. Collins came back to Bradford. Pa., where he is attending the annual conference.

the home of Miss Alice Templeton, a floor is a green brussels carpet and the furniture is heavy antique oak, type-dependent to five an up-definition of the furniture is heavy antique oak, type-dependent to consisting of a writing desk, type-will desk, ty friend. Surviving him are a wife and -Feature extraordinary - Friday night, 30th, the Scenic will reproduce the soul-stirring play, "Uncle Tom's Cabin." Three reels, superbly acted and excellently photographed by the years, Vitagraph Co.

—Announcement is made of the marriage of Mrs. Mabel Hazel, of Ni-agara Falls, N. Y., to Mr. Edson Parks Hill, of Syracuse, N. Y., on Satur-day, September 24, 1910. Mrs. Hills was formerly Miss Mabel Otto. Bellefonte, daughter of Hamilton Otto. deceased, of Bellefonte.

SEVERAL VALUABLE FARMS FOR SALE

As selling agent for the owners, I have the following to offer for a limited time only; 202 acres in Buffaio Run Valley, 5 miles from Bellefonte. Lime stone land, all clear but about thirty acres. Splendid place to open limestone quarry for burning agricultural lime. Large house and barrs buildings in splendid condition practically new. One of the finest orchards of fruitin the County. About 1000 bus, of select; fruit will be sold from the place this year. Short distance from P. R. R. Station. The owner's figure in this farm, I consider exceptionally low.

owner's figure in this farm, I consider exceptionally low.

Another Buffalo Run farm, near the above, close to R. R. has running water, good buildings, contains about 215 acres, 100 of it clear. Contains about 300 rods of the famous No. vein of the high grade limestone used by the lime operators at Bellefonte. This farm is offered low it sold onickly. fered low, if sold quickly, 175 acres to 280 acres, to suit purchaser, of a. 175 acres to 280 acres, to suit purchaser, of a fine farm located within one and one-half miles. of Bellefonte. Extra large barn, good house and outbuildings. Artesian well of never failing water; good fruit. The land is limestone soil, with a good quarry open for burning lime. This farm is a splendid producer and considering its location and buildings and equipment, is one af the finest properties in Central Centre County. It is offered at a little more than half the price asked for adjoining properties and wont be on my hands long.

Another good farm located 4 3.4 miles Fast of Another good farm located 4 3-4 miles East of Bellefonte, in Nittany Valley, containing about 246 acres, about 140 of which is clear. Has the No 1 vein of Bellefonte limestone and quarry opened in to it. The land is all limestone soil. Has running water to the door and sufficient elevation to pipe it through the house. Good house and barn, both large and roomy. Has an extra set of buildings, house, barn, and summerhouse which are also in excellent shape. The way farms are selling, this one is worth $1500. way farms are selling, this one is worth $1500 more than the owner asks for it.

350 Acres located in the heart of Bald Eagle Valiey, 200 of which is splended farm land smooth, clean land, lying high enough to es-cape the wash of Spring floods. Running water, buildings less than il years old. This farm showed as good crops this season as could be found in Centre County. It is offered at a very

I have other properties which may interest prospective purchasers. There is no specu-lation in these properties as I sell at the owners, figures as agent for them, and have taken somepains to get the price right before placing them on my list. Parties will be conveyed to properties from here at my expense.

ROBERT F. HUNTER.

Commercial Phone at Residence.

SALE REGISTER

SATURDAY, OCT. 1-On the premises of the late John Heverly, in Howard boro, lot of household goods, Sale at 1 p. m. Hayes:

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 20—1 mile east of Curtin. G. C. Harvey will sell 5 horses, 3 good cows, 15 head young cattle. Swiss bull, 42 head of hogs, 12 sheep and a full line of farm implements. Sale at 10 o'clock. L. Frank Mayes. Auct.

Penny a Word Adv.

Any subscriber can insert a want advertise-nent in this column one issue free, if it does not exceed 25 words; charges to others, one cent a word, first issue, no advertisement less. but exceed 25 words; charges to others, one cent a word, first issue, no advertisement less than 25 cents; two issues 46 cents; three issues 50 cents. No advertisements will be answered from this office.

FOR SALE-Two good cows. Inquire of Charles Bilger, Pleasant Gap. Pa.

mare, fast walker and traveler. A. E. Rupp, Boalsburg. FOR SALE-Two year old black colt bred from Aaronsburg, Pa FOR SALE—Sweet apples for applebatter thickering 4c per bushel. Samuel S. Fravel. Beliefonte-2.

FOR SALE—A platform spring wagon good as new-for one or two borses. Apply to Alf Witherite, Runville.

FOR RENT-Barber shop for rent under Garman House, the best location in town, apply D. Garman Estate, 24-17

FOR RENT-Booms formly used as restaurent under the Garman Building on High St. apply D. Garman Fatate. 24-15 W ANTED-Semente to take % int. in a valuable patent. For further information address W. H. Snavley, Spring Mills route 2.

FOR RATE—A large number of 2nd hand trac-tion engines, saw mill engines and boilers will be sold at a sacrafice at C. M. Gramlys machine shors. Rebersburg, Pa. 2716.

FOR SALE-2 pairs, high fired fox bound pups 3 months old. Will be on exhibition at the Bellefonte Fair. G. E. Haupt, Bellefonte.

LADIES-card $3 a day making sofa pillows: sent anywhere prepaid: beautiful pillow 14x14 free with outfit: proposition, advice, ets., 190, No postals at swertd. Harvey Co., 413-56 Co-lumbus, New Haven, Cond. FOR SALE—Poultry of the following varieties:
blooded steek: Buff Plymouth Rocks. Buff Orpingtons. Rhode Island Reds. White Minoreas.
and White Plymouth Rocks. Signed. Heelm.
Park Poultry Co.

Park Poultry Co. FOR SALE—1 good dwelling bouse, 1go rd borse buggy and barness. 1 colt 4 month, old 1 pair of computing scales, 1 self measuring oil tank capacity 120 gal. 1 good room stove base-heater. Toner A. Hugg. Milesburg.

FOR SALE-General store in the village of Fiedler with acetylene plant and steam heat. Buyer can have possession at once Goodreasons for selling. For full particulars inquire of G, W. Wolf, Fiedler, Pa. 371f

FOR SALE-No. 1 cedar shingles, flooring, bearing oriling, and all siding, sheathing boards, ceiling, and all kinds building lumber at lowest prices. Esti-mates for new buildings promptly furnished. Call on Bell phone, or write J. B. Mayes, Mgr. Watsontowp Door & Sash Co., Lemont.

MONEY WANTED—Can place several loans, of $2.500 as first mortgage on improved real estate in Centre county, at 6 per cent, interest, Ample security. Consult us at once if you are in position to invest your money. Inquire of John M. Gray & Son. insurance agents. Bellefonte. Pa.

MEN WANTED—age 18 to 35, for firemen $100:
monthly, and brakeman $80, on railroads in Bellefonte vicinity, Experience unnecessary; nastrike. Promotion to engineers—conductors.
Railroad employing headquarters—over 500 men sent to positions monthly. State age; send stamp. Railway Association, Dept. 467—227
Monroe Street. Brooklyn, N. Y. x38

NOTICE.—All persons are hereby cautioned not to buy nor in any way remove from the premises of Mrs Josephine Davis, at Moshannon Ps. now occupied by Harry Yeager, the hay or any part of it which is now in the barn of said premises as is not to be removed from the premises unless by the written order of the said owner. T. D. Weaver, J. P. Agent. x39

FOR SALE—Valuable revi Estate in Union ville Boro a tract of land consisting of leacres under culivation. Thereon erected a brick dwelling house, bank barn, orchard of choice fruit. This will make a desirable home or a profitable investment, also is interest in flouring mill at Unionville boro. For price and terms inquire of D. Buck, Fleming, Pa; or Katherine Buck, Lock Haven, Pa. x39.