Bright, Newy Letters From the Various Sections of the County.

WINGATE.

Mrs. Ella Lucas, of Washington, D. C., is spending some time here with her niece, Miss Besse Way.

L. S. Way, the versatile P. R. R. operator here, and wife, left on Wednesday for an extended pleasure tour of western New York and Penna.

A pleasure seeking party from Osceola composed of W. A. Hall, wife, and charming daughter, Bessie; Elizabeth, Edna and Fred, Henry and Ray Myers, drove across the mountain on Tuesday and spent the night here at the hospitable home of Eli Stere and wife; all report a pleasant trip and enjoyable visit.

Mrs. John I. Lucas spent Wednesday among relatives at Gum Stump and vicinity.

Legio's P. R. R. Italian band, which has been in our village for a few weeks, left on Tuesday for Snow Shoe.

Mrs. James Snyder and son George, spent a few days last week at East Liberty; she was accompanied on her return home by her mother-in-law, Mrs. Mary Snyder, who has been spending some time there with her son William.

Herman Alkey, wife and children, of Lewistown, spent last week here with relatives and friends.

John Smith, Harris Summers and C. F. Warner, the amateur lumbermen, spent some time last week getting timber ready for the addition to Johnny's shop which his large trade demands. Metaphorically speaking, it was some job; ask Harris?

William Eckert's children, of Tyrone, spent Tuesday here; Almedia, Viola and Harry remaining here for several days with their cousin, Ella Davidson.

John Fisher, one of our popular young men, whose ambition is to become a school master, is attending preparatory school at Milesburg; success in your chosen vocation, is the wish of your many friends, Johnnie.

All items for publication, in each ensuing issue, should be given the scribe not later than Monday, 10 a. m.

Geo. Summers and son, after a successful tour of Glen Harris, Gum Stump, Chestnut Grove and Runville, have returned to this vicinity with their thrashing machine and report an excellent crop of all kinds of grain enroute.

Cutting your nose off to spite your face, is the most injurious policy in existence as was verified here.

R. L. Fisher, of Tyrone, is spending a few days here with his mother and wife.

Martin Ryan and J. B. Alexander comprise the sick and injured list of the week.

The Unionville Junior base ball team defeated the Central City Midgets, at Unionville on Saturday, 2-0. Features of the game were the pitching of Emerick for the Juniors and the umpiring of Charley Holt.

Mrs. Lucretia Erhard, of Ardara, Pa., spent some time here with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Clara Idlings.

The Boggs township nimbros, led by Bill Stanley, spent several nights last week ratoon hunting. Billy said if Bunt had not scared at an owl they would have caught one.

In last week's Runville items, "Born to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rodgers on Sept. 7th, a baby boy," should have read Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rodgers.

Tyrone Forge base ball team defeated the Central City nine at Central City on Saturday, 10-8. Owing to the absence of several of the later's star players, and the incongruous umpire, James Gray, who was taken out in the 5th inning and the capable John Bryan substituted. The game was marred somewhat by Martin Ryan, of the Central City nine, being hit by a batted ball during practice and was carried from the field unconscious. A physician was called who revived him in one hour. Features of the game were the batting of Hugg and Jodon, and the coaching of Peters, and the umpiring of Bryan.

Visitors here during the week were, Monday—C. C. Kunes, of Altoona; Tuesday—James Miller, of Bellefonte; Miss Susan Kelly of Latrobe; Wednesday—Mac Hall, of Johnstown; Thursday—Clara J. Warner of Bellefonte.

PINE GROVE MILLS.

Allen Burwell and wife were here several days this week, visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Burwell.

Mrs. Lizzie Randolph and family left on Tuesday morning for Minnesota, to make their future home.

A number of our people attended the funeral of Mrs. Waldo Homan, of Oak Hill, on Monday.

Mrs. Harry Erb, of Fredonia, N. Y., is visiting her mother, Mrs. May Gates, and sister, Mrs. J. L. Reed, of our town.

Tom Crowover, of Manorhill, came over on Monday to view his broad acres on the Branch.

On the sick list this week we are sorry to report George Kelchline and J. G. Hess no better.

A. D. Tanyer, of State College, spent Saturday and Sunday with friends in town.

SPRING CREEK.

G. S. Keller, confined to the house for the past week, is somewhat improved at present.

Ruth Wirtz spent last week at the home of A. W. Witmer, at Hunters Park.

Rev. Ambrose Schmidt, of Bellefonte, filled the pulpit in the Reformed church on Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Fletcher and Mrs. Lucas, of Howard, visited friends in this vicinity.

Mrs. Feider, of Rebersburg, and Mrs. Kline, of Bellefonte, are visiting their sister, Mrs. Caroline Wagner.

W. W. Tibbens and wife of Roopaburg, spent Sunday at the home of John Meckley.

It Saved His Leg.

"All thought I'd lose my leg," writes J. A. Swensen, of Watertown, Wis. "Ten years of eczema, that 15 doctors could cure, had at last laid me up. Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured it, sound and well." Infallible for skin eruptions, Eczema, Salt Rheum, Boils, Fever Sores, Burns, Scalds, Cuts and Piles. 25c. at Green's Pharmacy Co.

Ladies' gun metal button shoes, $2, at Yeager's.

ROCK FORGE—Benner Twp.

All farmers around here are busy cutting corn.

The clover rubbers are around here rubbing seed.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fike gave a reception dinner for their daughter Ida, on Sunday, who was married to George Rider on Thursday. Thirty-five guests were present to partake of the well prepared dinner.

Henry Walter's clover seed has turned out well, making him ten bushels when rubbed.

Bob Walter's wife, nee Nellie Marshall, is helping her mother-in-law, Mrs. Henry Walters, put away her fruit for the winter also is providing for herself to go to house keeping next week. The wedding fever is still catching spring.

—no doctor can cure the dreaded disease. There is still to be another wedding inside of two months. One from Buffalorun and one from Rock, makes two just now, but in two months time will tie up and be called one.

Samuel Detrick is having a prosperous school, as everything is going all right. He knows how to handle children.

Mr. George Behers left here this morning to accompany his son George home, who has been away to the hospital for medical treatment; we will all be glad to see Mr. George come home well again.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hays, of Lemont, were at Rock helping Ira Benner boil apple butter, last week.

Henry Walters and George Shuey are painting for Col. Fred Reynolds at Rockview farms.

Among the visitors at Lewis Marshall on Sunday, were Bob Walters and family, Dan Sheffer, Henry Walters and George Fike and little Johnnie Walters was there too.

SPRING MILLS.

The grange picnic is over; now you hear them say, "Next will be the Bellefonte fair; I am going, are you?" Bryan & Woody's coal yard is well patronized; there never was finer pea and chestnut coal brought here; they also handle lime, crushed stone and the best cement.

It beats the hand how business keeps up and new industries start. Watch and wait for the new hotel and livery to start; between the two, watch and wait.

Berry is an eyesore to the standpaters; they wish him to withdraw from the Keystone Party. Don't let that trouble you any, for he is on the ticket to stay and will be a lively candidate. In this section he is gaining voters every day.

William Allison has the Zettle gang of carpenters making extensive repairs to his mill dam; he has put in an entirely new forebay.

John Snively, the up-to-date farmer, is putting up a new silo that will hold 150 tons of fodder for his cows; he knows what to feed to his cows to bring good results.

Those who went to Gettysburg to see the dedication of the Pennsylvania monument were, Joe Bitner and wife, Nathaniel Brown, John Haagen, J. H. Rishel, H. B. Herring and David Kennedy.

The chestnut crop will be a big one, but the walnuts and hickorynuts will be scarce.

O. T. Corman will run the boarding house at the Bellefonte fair.

John Smith & Bro. will have a fine display of stoves at the fair; if you need one, they will have some bargains to offer you.

Harvey Breon is rushing his new house to completion.

Prof. Moyer has moved his family here from Benesette, and are occupying the Duck house at the end of the footlog; they think it is just the place; so do others.

Seeding is about over and corn cutting is the go.

Bright Barker is at present working for the scribe at West end.

Bright Barker says if he was not such a good christian he would train to take the belt of Johnnie.

The old plug that bosses a lumber job in West Virginia is back and is promanaging and shaking hands with his chums.

Trepass notices are plenty on Samuel's land so that no monied men can travel it. No danger that one can lose a pocketbook.

One month more, then election will be here and that will be on the 8th of November; and on the 10th our High Valley Jacks, that vote the Third party ticket, will be placed on auction and will be offered to the highest and best bidder.

Times are dull and money scarce with some, and the scribe is one of those who has none.

We see that they jalled a fellow for stealing cigars, and he said before—the guilty ones will go unpunished.

All the farmers in this community are through with their harvesting and have begun to cut corn.

School commenced here September 19th, with 39 pupils; teacher Bertha Davidson.

Mrs. Eva Antes, of Altoona, spent several days with her aunt, Mrs. Carrie Flaher.

Raymond Fisher, of Tyrone, is spending a few days here with his wife and mother, and also made a flying trip to Niagara Falls and Buffalo, and reports having had a fine time.

Those who Sundayed here were, Mr. and Mrs. George Hicker and brother, of Altoona; Mrs. A. P. Woodring, of Osceola; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Newkirk, Iona Gill and friend, of Altoona; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gill, of Unionville; Clara Flick and Clara Marshall, of Upper Egypt.

Mrs. Rosie Vaun returned to her home in Sandy Ridge after two weeks' visit with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Flick.

Mrs. D. W. McCloskey returned after a week's visit in Holt's Hollow.

A Man of Iron Nerve.

Indomitable will and tremendous energy are never found where Stomach, Liver, Kidneys and Bowels are out of order. If you want these qualities and the success they bring, use Dr. King's New Life Pills, the matchless regulators, for keen brain and strong body. 25c. at Green's Pharmacy Co.

FALL OPENING

We announce our Second Annual Fall Opening with a deep feeling of gratitude to our many patrons, who have helped to make our store such a grand success. We have received so many kind words—such flattering encouragement—such substantial tokens of hearty approval in the practical shape of public patronage, from all classes in Bellefonte and surrounding country, that words fail to express our gratitude.

We open the Fall season with the grandest stock of

Men's, Youths' and Boys' Clothing

Hats, Caps, Shoes, and Furnishings, ever brought to this city. You are cordially invited to look over our show windows and our stock and by your critical verdict we propose to stand or fall, and as it is with the clothing for men and boy's, so it is with Hats, Shoes, and furnishings. If there be a man or woman at all skeptical concerning the great Bargains we offer in men's and boy's clothing.

Hats, Shoes and Furnishings

They are the people of all the people we want to reach, we want to preach to them the doctrine of true economy and conviction will quickly follow, once they visit us. It is truthful advertising made us what we are, the biggest store, the recognized leaders, the commercial thermometer of the clothing business, the envy of every competitor. We strive incessantly to please you and your patronage is our reward.

Grand Opening Saturday, Oct. 1st

Our display will be a sight worth seeing. You will find here many surprises in the way of new style features and new low prices. We have arranged many special attractions and here they are.
