

BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

-Rev. P. E. Paul has returned to the A. M. E. charge in Bellefonte. -Arthur Ward, who has been away from Bellefonte all summer, is visiting his parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Ward. -Solomon Peck, of Nittany, was an agreeable caller. Sol knows some of ye olden times that he can tell with interest to listeners. -John F. Potter, formerly of Milesburg, but now of Philadelphia, is visiting at the home of his cousin, Mrs. Hutchinson, on Howard street. -Dennis Lose, of Pennsylvania, paid his respects to the Democrat sanctum on Monday evening and inspected the wonders of our linotype, and is filling a seat as juror. -Mrs. Jacob Shirk, of Pine street, Bellefonte, and Bertha Campbell, who resides near Roopsburg, took advantage of the cheap excursion to Niagara Falls on Wednesday. -Gorton's minstrels always attract a large house when they come to Bellefonte. They are good musicians and always put up a fine program—coming next Wednesday evening. -What a delightful fall we are having, comes from all lips. Field work has progressed upon the farms to fondest wishes of the farmers, and everything is in trim for bringing good crops in 1911. Truly, Providence seems to be smiling upon its children. -On Tuesday evening a dance was held in honor of Miss Della Cross, sister of Mrs. H. S. Taylor, who is about to leave Old Pennsylvania and go to Denver, Colo., where she will make her future home. She is a most excellent young lady. -"Billy" McGowan, of near Roopsburg, has a two-seated carriage for sale. The owner is selling the conveyance is that he wants to buy an automobile, as a horse is too "thunder-in" slow. After he gets tired of the automobile he is going to get an air ship. -Arthur Kimpfort, who was on the board of his back for several days with stomach trouble, is again at his desk in the prothonotary's office. He looks a little pale about the face, but he will get along all right from this out. Butter milk is just the thing. -Merchant Joseph Katz, of Lewisport, spent several days in Bellefonte this week as the guest of his brother, William Katz. He says business in the old town is getting better gradually, and the indications are that in a very short time things over there will be booming. -Mrs. Charles C. Livingstone, accompanied by Miss Mildred Wetzel of Sunbury, are visiting in Bellefonte the guests of Mrs. Livingstone's father, Thomas Rishel, and other friends. Miss Wetzel is one of the obliging telephone operators in that city, and is here on a little vacation. -Miss Kate Hunter, of Pittsburg, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. William T. Speer, on West High in Bellefonte. Miss Hunter, who is very well known here, Mrs. Speer, who had been at Sunbury for several weeks, arrived home on Monday afternoon. -Hammond Sechler was to Philadelphia this week where he attended a session of the leaders of the Keystone party, and came back highly encouraged over the character of the men he found interested in the movement, and the progress being made towards purging the political conditions in the Keystone State. -Among our callers on Wednesday was D. O. Downing, of Taylor township, who is evidently a good farmer, for he is raising 219 bushels of buckwheat from eight acres. Mr. Downing also reminded us that he will be a candidate for sheriff and will try for the nomination of sheriff on the republican ticket next year. -At 10:30 o'clock Monday morning a slight fire occurred at the home of Joseph Kelleher in the Beaver & Hoy row. It was the result of a defective fuse and created a big scare. The fire department was called out but didn't render any service because the flames were extinguished by the neighbors before the fire companies had gotten there. The damage was slight. -Mr. and Mrs. Robt. A. Cassidy, of Canton, Ohio, are spending the week in and about Bellefonte among relatives and friends. Mr. Cassidy came east to attend the Gettysburg gathering of old soldiers, being a member of the famous 69th regiment, and furnished us this week an excellent account of their reunion at that place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Grenoble, who some years ago were prominent residents of Spring Mills. -S. D. Ray, of Bellefonte, has placed in the Bellefonte Shirt Factory a number of new machines, of modern equipment, which will materially aid him in getting out better work more promptly. Mr. Ray is deserving of much praise for the success he has made in his business as it is one which makes money circulate freely. A girl, you know, must have ribbons, hats and other garments at her money goes almost as fast as she gets it. -S. H. Williams, of Bellefonte, has his hand tied up as a result of having it scratched at a barbed wire fence. He was also repairing the lock on his stable when the back of the hand was slightly injured. He paid no particular attention to the wound until it began to fester, and then he began to wake up to the fact that he would have to do something or it might cause him trouble. His hand pains him, but he thinks he will have no further trouble. -About the 19th of this month Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Gibby, both of whom have friends in Bellefonte, will sail for England, where they will spend some time. Mr. Gibby is a native of England, and after being ten years in this country is going back again to see his folks at home. Mrs. Gibby is Miss Peters, of Hecla Park, and crossing the ocean will be a new experience to her. This week Mr. Gibby has several attractions on the fair ground among which is the merry-go-round. -A rumor indirectly came to our ears that Dr. W. W. Feidt, of Bellefonte, was about to abandon his practice here and go to State College to put out his shingle. We have been reliably informed that Dr. Feidt had, at no time, any notion of leaving Bellefonte. He has built up a good practice here and has no intentions of doing anything but sticking to it. Dr. Feidt is erecting a double brick house at State College for an investment, and it is possible that somebody simply imagined that he was going there to live.

-The streets of Bellefonte are pretty well paved up now—ready for the fall season. -W. A. Alexander, of Centre Hall, was called to our sanctum; he is serving as a juror this week. -Dr. Thomas Orblson has been visiting at the residence of his mother, Mrs. Nannie Orblson, on Spring street. -Miss Annie Hoffer, of Phillipsburg, is in Bellefonte the guest of her grandfather, C. T. Gerberich, on street. -Hon. William C. Heinle arrived home on Monday from a two-weeks' business trip to Philadelphia and New York City. -State Superintendent of Public Instruction Nathan C. Schaeffer proclaimed Friday, Oct. 28, as the autumnal Arbor day. -E. M. Huyett, of Centre Hall, left on Monday for West Virginia where he and Andrew McNeill have large lumber interests. -The many friends of J. H. McKelvy, of Lamb street, will be sorry to know that he is confined to his home by illness. -J. D. Meyer, formerly of Bellefonte, but now of Altoona, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Meyer, of Centre Hall. He spent a short time with his friends in Bellefonte during the afternoon. -When Frank Nagney, of Bellefonte, was in Detroit, Mich., last week he kindly remembered some of his friends here by sending them souvenir postal cards of a unique character. W. Harrison Walker says Frank has an eye for the artistic. -Last Sabbath Dr. J. Allison Platts, pastor of the Bellefonte Presbyterian church, occupied the pulpit in the Bethany Presbyterian church, Philadelphia. He went there in response to an invitation of the congregation and, it is said, were well pleased with his sermons. -Gilbert Meyers, formerly a student of the Bellefonte Academy, but now a member of the Freshman class at State College, spent Saturday, Sunday and Monday in Bellefonte. "Shord" has such a strong attachment here that it is hard for him to break away, even for five days. However, he is always a welcome guest. -Friday evening the Red Men will have a special meeting in their hall on the third floor of the Centre County Bank building. It is earnestly requested that all members be present and bring with them a contribution of up of chiefs. After the refreshments will be served, and a good social time is expected. -While crossing the porch to enter her home Thursday evening, Mrs. William Green, colored, did not notice that a trap door in the porch leading to the cellar had been left open, and fell to the floor below, sustaining a fracture of the hip. She was taken to the Bellefonte hospital, where she is now resting as comfortably as could be expected. -Peter Keichline, the green grocer, man, is again laid up with a sore leg, for several weeks has been unable to be at his place of business. For a number of years Mr. Keichline has been afflicted with a sore leg. At times he thinks it is all right, when suddenly a wound opens up and for a time it becomes a running sore. This time it is taking a little longer to heal than usual. He, however, is improving. -Miss Elsie Haagen, of Beech Creek, but who has many friends in Bellefonte, was a big winner in the voting contest of the Clinton county Times and had the privilege of naming the chaparral who will accompany the three winners on their trip to Bermuda. Miss Haagen had a total vote of 257,825, or over eighty thousand more than the next highest vote. The trip will last two weeks. -On Friday H. E. Schreckengast, of Spring Mills, has in Bellefonte made a pleasant call at this office to state that he was going to act again as auctioneer at public sales, and anything entrusted to him along this line would receive the very best attention about the face, neck and arms. Medical attention was at once summoned and while she has since suffered considerably from the pain of the injury, it is not probable that the injury will prove serious or be permanent. -Rev. Richard Crittenden, one of the best citizens of Bellefonte, has been critically ill at his home on Linn street. His wife, Charlotte, and Lillian, are at his bedside. Many prayers have been offered for his recovery, but if his time is up there is nobody in Bellefonte better prepared to go into eternity than he. His life has been spent in the Home Mission field, distributing Bibles tracts and establishing Sunday schools in the parts of Pennsylvania where the gospel was unknown. Like Paul, of old, he fought a good fight, and there is laid up for him treasures in Heaven that shine more brightly than the gold and gems of earth. While this is true, it is to be hoped he may be spared to continue his good work on earth, thereby being the instrument of saving many more souls, thus adding more gems to his crown. -The attraction on last Friday evening at the Scenic was Uncle Tom's Cabin. It was something very pretty and entertaining, and as natural as though it had been played on the stage by a real company. The scenery was much finer than could be produced in the ordinary country opera house. The only drawback was the audible voices of the players were not heard. Everybody, however, is so familiar with the play that the audience could almost tell what was being said. Notwithstanding this disadvantage the audience could not help but be deeply impressed with the beautiful interpretation of the old and familiar story. The day is not far distant when talking pictures will be the rage, and then for a small sum of money you will be able to witness the great plays of the day, and know what is going on. Manager Brown is to be congratulated for bringing such pictures to Bellefonte at an extra expense.

-Mrs. Joseph Haupt, of Tyrone, is visiting relatives and friends in Bellefonte. -Miss Lizzie Longwell, of Bellefonte, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. George Boal in Washington, D. C. -Miss Ethel Igon, of Tyrone, is visiting her friend Miss Florence Hamilton on Penn street. -Miss Mayne Geisinger has returned home after spending a week with friends in Altoona. -Miss Holly Beach, daughter of Rev. Sylvester Beach, is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. N. Robinson. -Malcolm Waite, who is employed by the P. R. Co., at Pitsburgh, is at present visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Waite. -Dr. J. W. Coolidge, of Passadena, Cal., arrived in Bellefonte Tuesday to visit in the families of L. A. Schaeffer and S. D. Ray, they being brother-in-laws. -Miss Sallie Ulrich, who had been making his home at Milesburg, is now visiting in Bellefonte with her sister, Mrs. L. H. Gettig. She expects to make Spring Mills her future home. -Harry Taylor, agent for the Adams Express Co., in Bellefonte, and wife, are taking a vacation by visiting friends in Washington, D. C., Baltimore, Md., and other cities. His place here is being filled by Frank Miller, of Tyrone, formerly of this place. -Mrs. Rhoades, wife of the late Daniel Rhoades, is critically ill at her residence on west Linn street. They have two nurses employed, thus they are by her side night and day. On Wednesday Joseph Rhoades, of Altoona, came down to see his mother. -H. S. Orris, of Milesburg, a veteran of the Civil war, favored the Democrat sanctum with a call. Mr. Orris was one of a mess of twelve in the army. Of these only three are living, being himself, Herman Miller and Frank Hunter. In the first battle they were in, four out of this mess of twelve were killed. -John Smith, of Spring Mills, one of the most successful business men in the county, and who is a genial, good fellow, is spending the week in Bellefonte. He is mostly on the fair ground where he has an attractive display of stoves. In the evening he circulates among his many friends here, and is having a pleasant time. -On Wednesday Charles Gehrett, who resides on South Allegheny street, was arrested by officer Daly Justice. When sober Charley is as good as you make them, but when filled with whiskey he becomes a dangerous man. The reason for his arrest was for using a revolver in a peevish way until his family became afraid lest he would do them bodily harm. He had better cut it out, as it may some day cause him more trouble than he is having now. -Just think of it! In one week the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Bellefonte hospital cleared over $1000 from the rummage sale last week, and a few private subscriptions. Saturday evening the balance was sold at auction. Some fellows bought enough neckties to make them feel like they had the balance of their cents to spend. The ladies labored hard and diligently, thus they deserve much credit. In return the ladies wish to thank everybody who contributed to its success. -For sometime Prof. James R. Hughes has been trying to devise a machine whereby he can get them stand on the "Huggs" brand of lumber, which is badly needed. He has finally solved the knotty question by getting Andy McNeill, the lumberman, to present him enough lumber to build it. Messrs. B. and Lambert, contractors, have volunteered to make the plans and specifications and get out the bill of lumber for the same. He is now looking for a man who will put it up for nothing. After it is erected Ed. Eckeroth is going to paint it free gratis.

RECENT DEATHS. -James F. Redding, at one time a resident of Phillipsburg, having been employed at a flourer, Hughes & Co.'s planing mill, died Tuesday at his home in Binghamton, N. Y., the result of tuberculosis. -On Friday, Sept. 23, at her home at Economy, Pa., Florence Beal, died after an illness of several years, aged 24 years. Deceased was a daughter of A. M. Yenrick, of Woodward. The remains were taken to Woodward for interment in the Union cemetery at that place. -David Matthew Shutt, the 13-weeks old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Shutt, died on Sunday morning at about 4 o'clock from indigestion, after an illness of about two weeks. Everything was done to save the little boy but now he is in Heaven. This was the second child the parents have laid away. The funeral took place on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, from their home on Howard street. Interment in Union cemetery. -After suffering for several years with kidney trouble Hiram Fry, a well known resident of Pitsburgh, died at Shingletown on Sunday night, Sept. 25. He was born near Rock Springs and was seventy-four years old. Surviving him are the following children: Frank, Wilson, Henry, Nora, Effie, Mary, Agnes, Sarah Alice and Nancy. He also leaves one sister, Orlando Thomas, of Shingletown. Burial was made at Boalsburg. -Charles Benjamin Franklin Baney, a brother of Mrs. Joanna Grenoble, of Madisonburg, died at his home in Lock Haven on Sunday, Sept. 24, after a lingering illness with consumption. He was born near Lamar and was fifty-four years old. He was a brick presser by occupation and during his life worked at Woodland, Clearfield county, and Mill Hall. He is survived by his wife and a number of children, as well as several brothers and sisters. The funeral was held on Wednesday, the remains being taken to Woodland for burial. -On Thursday Sept. 23, Mrs. Waldo Homan died at her home at Oak Hall and her death was an unusually sad one. Less than a month ago she was up and around as usual when she had an attack of stomach trouble which with other complications, caused her death. She was only eighteen years of age and was born near Pine Hall, being a daughter of Mrs. David H. Krebs. About eleven months ago she was married to Waldo Homan who survives with his little baby son. She also leaves her parents and two young brothers. She was a member of the Lutheran church. Burial was made in the Pine Hall cemetery. -Mrs. Joseph Bryant, of Bellefonte, died on Sunday night at 12:40 o'clock at her home on east Lamb street. She had been ill for about four weeks with something like Bright's disease. Her age was 57 years, 9 months and 7 days. She possessed a warm, sympathetic heart and was always willing to do a kindness for those who needed her assistance. Her maiden name was Miss Susan Stratton, who lived in this vicinity most of her life. She is survived by her husband and three children: Mrs. Hester Cruse, Samuel Bryant, and Mrs. William Felmeier, all of Bellefonte; also by a sister and a brother: Mrs. William Bryant, of Bellefonte, and William Stratton, of Arnold. The funeral took place on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Interment in the Union cemetery. COUNCIL MEETING. -There was nothing doing at council Monday night. Everybody was as quiet as a mouse, although if Dominick Judge, chairman of the street committee, had mentioned the High street bridge, there might have been some fun, but he didn't, and everybody went home with sober thoughts. Mr. Judge however, reported the repairs of the sink hole on Howard street, by Henry Tibbens, whose charge was $10. He also reported the laying of several cross-ings in the borough and the collecting of $10 each from John Blanchard and Levi Simmonds for tapping the sewer. -Mr. Grim, chairman of the market committee, reported $9.30 collected as market fees for the month of September. -J. Thomas Mitchell, solicitor for the borough, reported that he had received $100 from Arthur Brown, manager of the Brown estate, as part payment on the pavement which was laid under the High street in front of the Brandt House. A note was given for the balance of the account. -A communication from the fire department was read, stating that an election of officers had been held when James Seibels was chosen chief, Frank Doll, fire assistant, and Charles Anderson second assistant. -John J. Bower, chief burgess, reported that during the month of September he had collected $20 in fines and licenses and $20 in costs. Treasurer Gehrett reported $907.54 in the treasury. -Harry Keller evidently believes in the old-time maxim, "Better late than never," as he dropped in and had hardly gotten himself seated when President Harper tapped his gavel for adjournment. The reason for this was that council was only in session about fifteen minutes, while on many other occasions they are there for a couple of hours. AUCTIONEERS. -L. FRANK MAYES, Lemont, Pa.
