Page 4.

The Centre Democrat. FRED KURTZ. SR., Editor CHAS. R. KURTZ. Editor and Proprietor.

> W. FRANCIS SPEER. Associate Editor.

WORN CIRCULATION OVER 5,500

7 ERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION : $1.50 PER YEAR SUBSCRIPTION. Persons who send or bring the money to the office and pay in advance. $1 per year

Published weekly every Thursday morning. Entered in the postoffice at Bellefonte, Pa., as second chass ma ter.

The date your subscription expires is plainly printed on the label bearing your name. All credits are given by a chaoge of label the first issue of each month. Watch that, after you remit. We send no receipts unless by special request. Watch date on your label. Subscriptions changing postoffice address, and not notifying us, are liable for same. Subscriptions will be continued, unless other-wise directed. tions, and answering it with specific e directed.

We employ no collector. You are expected to sendor bring the money to this office.

EDITORIAL.

Tener says he is innocent of the matter charged in the North American a few days ago, that he was a principal in a fraudulent corporation. Of course he would say so-that's what everyone of the guilty capitol thieves said. It won't wash away.

It is now reported that "Penrose laughs", at the charges brought boss has to meet the charges of the infamous capitol steal.

STATE CAMPAIGN NOTES.

During the past two weeks the Keystone party has gained such headway that Penrose has become alarmed, and in order to hold his political grip is doing everything possible to check this growing independent sentiment, but his efforts are proving in vain. In the early days of the campaign.

er in the transaction. through the tactics of the gang, this movement was looked upon by many as simply a scheme on the part of a petrated upon a public man without few so-called disgruntled politicians petrated upon a public man without attempted counteraction of the same political parties, but when the true force and detail. The matter canpurpose of the Keystone organization not be brushed aside as campaign became known, and the crookedness vilification. No man of even ordinary connected with the Allentown and spirit would endure such an attach Harrisburg conventions became an established fact, people all over the state rose in revolt and as in our late civil struggle men rallied round the flag, standing shoulder to shoulder in defense of their countries liberty reof party politics religious gardless creed or nature's hues, so today men all over the state, regardless of party lines are joining in one grand rally for Methodist church which was attendthe overthrow of bossism, and when this has been accomplished then will they deem it proper to pursue the even tenure of their way as "straight" of the liquor question in the present

THE CENTRE DEMOCRAT, BELLEFONTE, PA.

AS

CHEAP

AS THE

CHEAPEST

Poor oil cannot give good light. There is no

flicker, no odor, no soot

FAMILY FAVORITE OIL

is used. This triple-refined lamp oil costs no more than theinferior kinds-and saves you no end of trouble. Get it from your dealer's-it is there in barrels shipped direct from our refin-

Waverly Oll Works Co.

where

BAR TAKES ACTION.

Requests Disbarment of C. O. Tem-pleton by Big Majority. A meeting of the Blair County Bar John K. Tener does not seem conscious of the awlful character of the Association was held at the court house, Hollidaysburg, Monday mornaccusations made against him by the Philadelphia "North American." These court ing, for the purpose of taking action charges contain specifications and names and dates and amounts, with a on the proceedings instituted for the disbarment of Chambers Orr Temple detailed history of alleged transacton, of Tyrone.

TENER'S INTEGRITY ASSAILED.

thorough inspection of them.

ed to be blamless and open.

tions.

From Pittsburg Post:

tions that make so compact a story that if presented to a grand jury un-der oath by a reputable witness, would A report was rendered by the com-mittee on grievances which found that Mr. Templeton had been guilty of ten insure an indictment, might some crime be found involved. But whethdistinct acts of unprofessional conduct constituting the offenses of emer these damning allegations, true or bezzlement and forgery, and unani-mously recommended his expulsion false, do or do not state any existent offense, their reflection upon the infrom the Bar. Mr. Templeton declintegrity of Mr. Tener as a business man is direct. No citizen can avoid ed to appear before the committee to defend himself. They cannot be met by any cursory denian nor by reference to a past life, claim-E. H. Flick, Esq., argued that the action of the association in expelling Templeton in advance of his trial in Nothing the criminal courts was unwise, and calculated to prejudice his cause at the trial. J. D. Hicks, Esq. stated that it was the opinion of Templeton's family physician that he was insane. but the most particular refutation, tak-ing each item of the marshaled asserproof of falsity, or providing ample explanation, can suffice. The committee's report and recom "The Post" has had no part in pro-curing or formulating these accusa-tions. It performs only its duty in mendation were adopted by a vote of 31 to 4. The report of the association was presented to Judge Thomas J. Baldrige on Wednesday morning, giving them added publicity, and it will as gladly print whatever Mr. with a request that a decree of dis Tener may offer in the way of specific response to the charges thus made barment be entered. Certificates of without equivocation, and with the this decree will then be sent to the itemized precision of court records. "The Post" may add, with all sin-cerity, that it would prefer gladly to announce Mr. Tener's entire excul-Last Thursday we had a call from pation from their blackening force. These charges are, as the telegraph of Ebensburg and Messrs. Al. Irvin, columns have revealed, that Mr. Ten-er permitted the use of his name as whom are Nittany valley boys, who president of a corporation and accept- were home on a brief vacation. Mr. ed stock from it, and that its pros-pectus was of the familiar get-rich-quick species of the bogus. It is of prosperity. Mr. Martin some years Casey and other Keystone leadalleged that this organization was ago when a student out of college ers, made as late as last December, and wrote the Westinghouse firm at Wil- From against his man Friday Tener. Of that the statement of $2,000,000 fully kensburg that he wanted a position. course, it is the only way a gangster paid-up stock was wholly false, the back that he should were delivered, while the new party boss has to meet the charges of the worthless assets of four bankrupt state at what salary. Mr. Martin was heralded as the savor of the comcorporations being utilized to inflate informed them that he had not asked monwealth. North American. Penrose shed no the new venture, designed to prey up-tears when his pals committed the big nest record always justly avail-big nest record al capitol robbery, for they were his right-hand men in swelling his cam-right-hand men in swelling his cam-from the presidency "long ago." But ondary matter. This original reply paign fund to debauch elections, by it is charged that this resignation did brought him a position on short nomoney stolen from the state in the not take place until tast May, when tice, as large houses are looking more for men who want to learn the busias a gubernatorial candidate. It is ness than those who are only looking ing in Jaffa Ter further alleged that no record is found ahead for the sake of a salary. To of his resignation as a director as late make a long story short, Mr. Martin on November 8. as September 22 last, while letters was started in on a very modest sal-and circulars were still scattered with his name as president flaunted. The and in the course of a few "North American" apends to these short years he has been rapidly allegations, so well dovetailed with advanced until he has a large de-dates of suspicious coincidence, some partment under his superintendency and receives a salary that is way up. The point is, the young man who will alleged details of the promoter's record of the chief associate of Mr. Tendo his work right, will always be ap-In these modern days of journalism preciated, and the salary will come as

Did Not Worry About Salary.

WEDDINGS.

Bowmaster-Huey. James A Bowmaster and Rae E. Huey, both of State College were married by the Rev. E. H. Witman, Saturday evening, Sept. 24, at the residence of Mr. Grazier at Bellwood.

Wyland-Smith.

Miss Elizabeth Wyland, of Lewistown, was united in marriage to Henry M. Smith, son of J. C. Smith, fonte brought a gold watch to the store and Russel Blair at once recog-nized it as the missing timepiece, by unmistakable marks. Mr. Blair at once called Mr. Wood-

PITTSBURG, PA. Also makers of Waverly Special Auto Oil and Waverly Gasolines. ALTOONA STIRRED UP. Anti-Penrose Sermons Were Preached in Churches. Monday evening a big political mass meeting of the Keystone party, the entire town Was From almost every pulpit in Altoona on Sunday, anti-Penrose sermons Grim, while Dr. A. E. Wagner at the Second Lutheran church and Rev. H. L. Bowlby before the First Presbyterian congregation both urged the voters to turn out to the mass meet-ing in Jaffa Temple on Monday even ing and then vote down the machine

eries.

A Long-Lost Watch. In 1906 a gold watch belonging to the late Mrs. John A. Woodward, of Howard, was left at Blair & Co's jewelry store for repairs. During the holiday season it, with other watches, was packed away in the safe for at tention later. A short time afterwards the watch was missing and no one could account for its disappearance, although Mr. Blair always had some suspicions that he could not confirm

Mrs. Woodward, after a prolonged illness, died at her home in Howard last Thursday evening. Among other things she mentioned was that if the lost watch, which she prized highly, should ever be found it should revert to a member of the family.

Blair & Co. always kept a close lookout for this watch and on Saturday an Italian employed near Belle-fonte brought a gold watch to the store and Russel Blair at once recoghardware firm of J. C. Smith & Son. Silvius-McKelvey. On Monday morning at 11:30 o'clock a quiet wedding ceremony was Mr. Blair at once called Mr. Wood-With other goods, yellow sugar 5c; Mr. Blair at once called Mr. Wood-With other goods, yellow sugar 5c; Soft and Granulated 5½c; Arbuckle Coffee, 16c.

Joseph Bros & Co.

Come in and see our excellent stock of Tailor Made Shirtwaists. To those who know the value of a Joseph recommendation, no further explanation will be necessary.

Thursday, October 20, 1910.

Our Ladies Cloak Department is being greatly augmented by daily arrivals of the Latest Styles of Long Coats and Suits.

Joseph Bros & Co.

42 Years in Business.

"The Time, The Place and the Girl." Every smoker does not know that That rare combination of delight-National Cigar Stands are to be found music, witty dialogue, originality in drug stores only. As agencies are theme, brilliant lyrics, a clever established in the ratio of but one of theme, brilliant lyrics, a clever ompany, beautiful musical chorus, stand to every four drug stores, only and a scenic environment which has the most prominent druggists can sebeen described as a dream of scintil-lating iridescent color, are said to be National brands. Green's Pharmacy cure the right to handle the famous ome of the qualities responsible for Co. operate a National Cigar Stand the phenominal success of that pi-quant musical mixture, "The Time, The Place and the Girl," which will and are now featuring "Cuba-Roma. Clear Havana 5c. cigar. A typical example of National quality.

famous attraction Bellefonte has ever had.

Harrisburg.

J. S. GILLIAM, Prop.

BARGAINS IN EVERY DEPART-MENT:

Prints, 5, 6 and 6 1/2 c Ginghams. 5, 6, 7 and 8½c. Ginghams. 5, 6, 7 and 8½c. 4-4 Bro. ottons, 5, 6½ and 7c. Hill Bleached Cottons, 8½c. Outing Flannels, 6½, 8 and 10c. Blankets, single bed, 50c a pair. Blankets, double bed, 75, 98 and $1.39 per pair.

Haps, 75, 98, $1.25 and $2.00. Ladies' Wrappers, 98c. Ladies' Kimonas, short, 15 and 50c. Ladies' Kimonas, long, 50c and $1. Sweaters, 25, 48, 75, 98 to $2.75. Towels, 19-42 Huck, only 10c. Pillow Silns, 12c. Shoets, 72-90, 42c. Pillow Slips, 12c; Sheets, 72-90, 42c. Belts, 10, 15, 25 and 50c. New Collars, 10, 15, 25 and 75c. With other goods, yellow sugar 5c;

and make "HOW TO GET THEM Money Bet Service. Fees Reasonable. Nighest References JOSHUA R. H. POTTS 306 Ninth St., Washington, D. C. U. S. and Foreign Patents 529 Chestrast St., Philadelphia. 340 Dearborn St., Chico

Horse Blankets, Robes, Harness, Etc.

You can't get away from the fact that we are headquarters for the famous 5-A Horse Blankets, and the best Robes in the market.

Our stock is larger this season than ever. Sizes this year are all large and fine in finish. All of these goods are made for wear, and bought direct from factory.

You have the benefit of low prices if you buy now. You will save money by buying from us, as we can give very close prices on all goods.

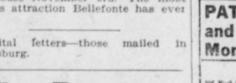

Our Harness stock is very large. You can have the advantage of making selection by calling early.

James Schofield, be the attraction at the Garman Op-era House November 3rd. The most Capital fetters-those mailed in Republicans or "straight" Der P. T. Barnum Said the time and all the people some of Senate. As Hon. J. C. Meyer is en-the time, but you can't fool all the dorsed by both parties, and has put people all the time, and the voters in himself squarely on record as favor-Pennsylvania have reached this con-clusion regarding the political sit-uation. The Republican convention no question as to supporting his canwas nothing more than a great rati-fication meeting. The delegates did In renot know whom they were to vote for until within ten hours of the time the convention was called, and then Doctor Penrose said, "I have selected John K. Tener for candidate for Gov-mittee of five from Centre county, consisting of Dr. Wilcox, A. Luken-bach and Rev. C. C. Shuey, of Belle-fonte; Rev. Shultz, of Pine Grove Mills, and Rev Snyder, of Centre Hall, were choren to confer with a similar wise with the Allentown convention. were chosen to confer with a similar committee of Clearfield county at an Wm. H. Berry was the logical choice early date, as to what candidate of the Democrats over the state, but would best represent their interests Penrose, Guffy and Hall knew Berry's and should receive their endorsement. strength and said, "No." Tener Unpopular At Home.

with wonderful tnthusiasm, but when ing down to the point, he dwelt on you remember that these reports are the record and fitness of the present all compiled at headquarters and gubernatorial candidates. In subwritten in the most glowing terms by stance he said among the three promihired newspaper men, the holes in nent candidates Tener and Grim the skimmer become very visible. As were the acknowledged tools of the a matter of fact the way the voters over the state are turning down the two Penrose gubernatorial candi-emphatically endorsed the candidacy dates is most discouraging. To be sure in some places they have had good crowds, but they are manufact-The Centre county ministerial Asured. Brass bands, fireworks, free sociation, and the Anti-Saloon League trolley tickets and office holders and mean to be active between this and seekers are all resorted to in an effort election day, and no doubt the result to make the enthusiam appear genu-ine, and still the masses do not warm vote is counted.

Probably nowhere in the state is the Keystone ticket more popular than in Washington County, Tener's own county. Many of the leading newspapers have come out openly for Berry and Gibboney, and a Presby-terian minister in Charleroi, Tener's home town, has declared from the pulpit that Tener has signed almost 50 liquor license applications in his own town and that he will be defeated in his own county. Farmers Are Interested.

As a usual thing the rural districts are very indifferent regarding elec-tions, and many times there are enough "stay at homes" to change results. However this year the farmers are realizing the great opportun-ity to rout the gang, and they will play an important part by getting out all over the state in full force for the Keystone ticket.

In almost every county there are Keystone organizations, and the encouraging reports received from var-tous chairmen show that the enthusiasm is confined to no one section, but is universal and the general cry is "give the people a voice." All of the four Keystone state candidates have The opportunity been scheduled for speeches every day until the end of the campaign, day and from present indications nothing short of a miracle can prevent the people from regaining control in Pennsylvania through the Keystone party on November 8th.

A Berry Banner. When the Democratic campaign party was touring through Pennsval-ley, on Monday, a large flag was sus-pended across the pike at Penn Hall with Berry's name attached to it in large letters. This was the only thing that dampened the ardor of the party. Everywhere they were re-ceived by cordial greetings. It is a rare opportunity to have a guberna-torial candidate tour that section, and the event attracted some attention.

"straight" Democrats. | campaign, and as to what course | P. T. Barnum Said should be pursued in reference to lo-you can fool some of the people all cal candidates for the Assembly and In regard to State Senator, a com-

ENDORSED BERRY.

Monday afternon the ministerium of Centre county held a session in the no such assault as this could be per- fast as he deserves.

In the evening a good audience as-sembled in the Methodist church to If the gang papers are to be relied upon, it would look as though Tener and Grim were received everywhere He made a strong address, and com-

AN EFFORT FOR FUSION.

have been frequent rumors in the papers of a movement on foot to have both the Democratic and Keystone Party State tickets withdraw in the hope of combining on a single fusion ticket. On Tuesday morning Grim gave out an interview intimating that he was willing to withdraw if the Democratic State Committee deemed advisable for the sake of saving Pennsylvania from the grip of Pen-rose and Tener. (Something he formerry refused with contempt.)

Whether this is a piece of political strategy to win lost prestige, or an earnest effort, remains to be seen. We are suspicious of its sincerity. There is much speculation in the papers, but up to the time of going to press no definite conclusion has been reached.

Such a movement, entered into sincerely, and earnestly executed, will save Pennsylvania from the contamination of a proven swindler filling the highest executive office in the

The opportunity remains open un-til Monday, and until then we say: God save our Commonwealth!

An Honest Job. The Barnard statues, that will grace the main entrance to the Capitol, will be in place sometime in December, according to word received in New York. This is the only honest job in-the entire capitol of graft, and an ef-fort was made to euchre him out of his pay, The sculptor is a son of a former Presbyterian minister of Belle-fonte, Revi Bärnard, and both father and son are well and favorably re-membered here.

-Bill McFarlane left to-day for Lock Haven, on a pleasure trip.

performed in the parlors of the Ar-lington hotel, Tyrone, when Miss her body then was awaiting the final Nammy A. McKelvey, of Bellefonte, and Clyde V. Silvius, of Sunbury, were he purchased the watch from a pawn. The Italian claimed that married by Rev. Harry A. McKelvey, broker at No. 313 Mulberry of Port Matilda, a brother of the bride. New York, several years ago, He liv-Owing to the mother of the bride be-ing seriously ill at their home on East His name is James Brano, and is a Lamb street, they deferred the wed- section hand on the Bellefonte Central ding trip until later. The bride is a R. R. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Mc-Kelvey and is a popular young lady. ly told, it is not only unusual, but a most remarkable coincidence. The groom holds a fine position in the H. R. R. shops at Sunbury, where they expect to make their future home

Harrison M. Crane, - Port Matilda Belva L. Williams, - Port Matilda Chas. C. Gilbert. - - Wolf's Store Jennie E. Confer. - - - Loganton Lemuel T. Rupert, - - Beech Creek ernor." Sybilla DeHaas, - - - Blanchard Clyde V. Silvins, - - - Sunbury had little, if Nancy K. McKelvey, - - Bellefonte but now Harry Harpster, - Penna. Furnace Edith Inchoff, - - - State College Benjamin Levin, - - Sandy Ridge Bessie Ziff. - - - - Philipsburg

headquarters. It may turn out like adelphia; they can't vote more than the promise of an abundant catch of are registered. We can roll up 300,trout last season. Game and fish 000 majority outside of the city and seem to be getting scarcer in spite of go down there and swamp the whole all the pains taken by the state au- bunch of crooks." thorities, and sportsmen find them-selves disappointed in lashing the streams and hunting for larger game During the past few days there in mountain territory. Bears alone ave been frequent rumors in the pa- seem to be on the increase, while deer and other four-footed game are seem-

Rededicated Church.

Rev. Rollin S. Taylor, was assisted by Rev. W. P. Shriner, D. D. Rev. A. D. Bateman, of Mill Hall and Beech Creek churches, and by other minis-ters of the gospel. The entire indebt-edness incurred in making the improvements was subscribed.

For Great and Small.

A guarantee is contained in each box of Sexine Pills, so that any person needing a remedy for any form of nerve weakness, and to produce per-fect and restful sleep, can buy these pills without risking a cent. These great nerve and manhood builders are sold by C. M. Parrish. Bellefonte, Pa., where they sell all the principal rem-edies and do not substitute. edies and do not substitute.

while working in the forge at Curtin iron works. While employed cutting scrap iron his left arm got caught in the shears and the wrist was badly cut, severing the large artery and several leaders. He came to Belle-fonte to have the injury dressed. 1123.

Tener and the gangsters say the charges in the North American about Tener's connection with a swindling corporation, are untrue. Of course that's what they say, and is simply what these worthies said when Berry exposed the enormous capitol steals.

If the return of the watch is correct-Berry Sangunine. Marriage Licenses. John Harter. - - - Spring Mills Blanche V. Stover. - - Spring Mills Blanche V. Stover. - - Spring Mills Blanche V. Stover. - Spring Mills

15,000 persons heard the campaigners. Mr. Berry, while slightly hoarse, had lots of enthusiasm and was repeatedly cheered. He told how he would clean things up if I am elected Gov-He said that when nominated he Sunbury had little, if any, hope of being elected, ,after campaigning in twenty-eight counties, he doesn't see how he can be defeated. He's going to carry twenty-four of these counties, he said, and in three of them he could name the Keystone party will poll nine-thenths of the entire vote. He has Keystone victory figured out in this way: He said: "They have Hunting Luck. Hunters thus far, have not had the luck that was prophesied from game only 235,000 voters registered in Phil-

Big Balloon Wrecked.

Walter Wellman who, with five companions, started from Atlantic City in an enormous dirigable airship on Saturday to cross the Atlan-tic ocean was rescued 375 miles east of Norfolk, Va., on Tuesday. The Sunday was a most important day airship was disabled and they sum-in the history of the Methodists of moned help by wireless telegraphy. and were successfully taken aboard

Special Meeting. Major and Mrs. John Richard, of Philadelphia, will conduct a special meeting in the Salvation Army hall on Friday night, October 21st, at 8 o'clock. Everybody is welcome.

---Willis Wyland, of Bellefonte, is in Jersey Shore seeking employment. Willin, at one time, was with Katz & Co., of this place.

-On Saturday afternoon about 4 o'clock as Stewart Hampton was walking down Allegheny street at Aikens corner he met James Ross-Aikens corner he met James Ross-man and Mike Meyers, of Coleville, both of whom were jiggered. In passin them he got in an altercation with them which ended in a fight. When Hampton saw that he was in for it, he cut loose on Rossman and down he went, and next Mr. Meyers went down. Then Meyers got up and heren kicking Hampton in the ribs. began kicking Hampton in the ribs, this kept up for a few minutes until they were arrested and Meyers and Rossman were taken before Squire Brown who fined them $5, each, or 15 days in the cooler. They were sent

About the only time a man objects to being overrated is when he pays his taxes.

When everything else falls a man can become a critic

Gilliam's Dept Store

Bellefonte, Pa. Spring Street.

Every consideration given to either an outright purchase or margin ac-count. Call or address our Mr. F. L. Marantette, Brockerhoff House, Belle-fonte, Pa., for any special information. He will be pleased togive immed-ate and personal attention to the execution of any order for either the purchase or sale of any active stock or bond.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD Bulletin.

OPENING OF THE GREAT PENNSYL-VANIA STATION IN NEW YORK.

On Sunday, November 27, full train service will be inaugurated by the Pennsylvania Railroad to and from its new station at Seventh Avenue and Thirty-second Street, New York City.

The location of the Pennsylvania Station, one block from Broadway, two blocks from Fifth Avenue, is in the heart of the hotel, club, and theatre district of Manhattan. Within a short radius are located the majority of the big retail stores and restaurants. The Seventh Avenue surface cars and the Eighth Avenue surface cars pass its doors; the Thirty-fourth Street surface cars (crosstown) pass its Thirty-fourth Street entrance, and stations of the Sixth Avenue Elevated and Hudson and Manhattan Tubes are a short block from its main entrance.

Time tables showing the service to and from the Pennsylvania Station are now being arranged, and may be obtained at Ticket Offices before the opening of the Station.

Connections will be made at Manhattan Transfer (near Newark) with local trains to and from the downtown stations by way of Jersey City, so that downtown New York passengers. who desire may continue to use the Cortlandt and Desbrosses Street Stations and the Hudson Terminal Station of the Hudson and Manhattan tubes.

Arm Badly Injured. On Wednesday of last week Craig Crossmeyer had his arm badly injured

Beech Creek, who rededicated their remodeled and enlarged church with appropriate ceremonies. The pastor,