EDITORIAL.

It was a common querry about the Brokerhoff House on Saturday evening as to whether anyone was selling life insurance or securities.

Tener is actually the most servile humbug for Penrose and gang to put in the governor's chair, two terms in congress prove him to have been a perfect non-entity in that body-all his votes were in the Penrose line of measures, and in favor of trusts high tariffs and to enrich the rich and impoverish the toiling masses. His record can not be shown to have been anything else. A chestnut he would lift the lid. He did, and the post instead would not have been any thieves were sent to jail. He was true worse.

who has met Dr. Everybody Stewart, of Clearfield county, has been most favorably impressed with that gentleman as an ideal selection to represent us in the state senate. A man well educated, of wide experience and acquaintance with men of affairs, a man of rare culture, he would soon gain prestige and be an influence in that body that would gain recognition, and thus be of some importance to his people and the varied interests in this part of the state. When such men lay aside their business to accept a nomination they merit consideration. He is far different from the average plotting, pleading, begging office seeker, running over the district begging people to boost him in an office which too frequently is incapable of filling. The state senate is not too big for men like Dr. Stewart. It is a privilege to vote for Citizens of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, can you vote to put such a man as Tener in the gubernatorial chair, being the creature of boss Penrose? Haven't the machine rule of the boss gang?

INFORMATION WANTED.

In glancing over the Centre Hall Reporter last week a spicy paragraph was found in the account of Senator Grim's brief stay in that place while he was touring our county accompanied by a party of prominent democrats. The Reporter says:

"Mr. Grim is a thorough gentleman, he has a clean record, he is not a booze-hister, neither is he a shister lawyer nor a boodle politician. Un-fortunately for Candidate Grim he does not have the selection of his panions nor the arrangements of

The Watchman says the following composed that party with Grim:

"Thomas H. Greevy, our nominee for Lieutenant Governor, Dr. Samuel for Lieutenant Governor, Dr. Samuel C. Stewart nominee for Senator, Mr. Praig, of the Philadelphia Record staff, county chairman A. B. Kimport, Hon. John Noll, I. J. Dreese, Col. H. S. Taylor, S. D. Gettig, W. D. Zerby, J. M. Cunningham and several othera."

The query naturally is which of the above are the "booze-histers," the "shister lawyer" and the "boodle polician". According to the Reporter e above are a bad bunch.

Death of Ex-Governor Hill.

After an illness of several weeks David Bennett Hill, the famous Democratic leader, a former Governor of New York and an United States senator from the Empire state, died at his home, Woolfort's Roost, in the Farmers suburbs or Albany, N. Y., at 3:45 Sheeder.

The late Governor Hill, who coined the famous phrase "I am a Democrat, was born at Havana, N. Y., in 1843 and was admitted to the bar in 1864. He immediately became active in politics and became famous as a political speaker. In the Democratic National convention in 1900 he made a bril-liant speech seconding the nomination of William J. Bryan for the pres-

Entered in the postomice at Bellefonte, Pa. as second-class ma ter.

A peculiar trait of Senator Hill was his confirmed hatred of women. He never married. His ultimate ambition was to be president of the United States, but his failure in this direction brought forth no bitterness. He said philosophically that he believed he was the only man who had had the "presidential bee" and got over it.

Vote Conscientiously. On Saturday the Altoona Tribune, one of the leading Republican organs in Pennsylvania, says the voters of Blair county owe a duty to the state and to themselves on election day. They should take pains to thoroughly inform themselves concerning the character and capacity of the persons asking for their suffrages. And then they should follow the dictates of conscience when they go into the booth to mark their ballets.

The Tribune is fair enough in admonishing the voters to vote for the man of character, but the editor surely does not mean Tener whose recent exposure by the North American places him among the men without character. Grim is a democrat whose nomination came through the same channels as that of Tener, so he is not quite the right stripe. candidate left is Berry whose character is unquestioned. He promised when a candidate for office, if elected, to his promise.
