RICH AUTOIST IN JAIL

Convicted on Nearly Fatal Smash In to Farm Wagon. Wealth, reckless disregard and severity of punishment, vied with each the millionaire joy-rider, of Morris-town, Thursday last, when he was sentenced to nine months at hard labor in the Montgomery county jail.

With this sentence, which the en ormity of the offense allowed the court to make a warning example to all guilty of follies with the automobile, went a stinging lecture a fine of $250 and the costs of the prosecu-

Dyer had been convicted October 15, of aggravated assualt and battery, the charge being preferred by District Attorney Larzelere. The case was based on a joy ride which Dyer took on the evening of September 10, with a Hotel Hartranft maid, Minerva Snyder, and a male companion. Wit-nesses said at the trial that Dyer drove his machine up Main street, through the town and into the township of West Norristown at 40 miles an hour. At the corner of the Whitehall road, right under an electric light, Dyer's auto crashed into a white horse attached to a carriage occupied Walter Smith and wife, of Phoenixville. The machine was running so fast that it tore off the front legs of the horse and plowed its way beneath the newspaper man about it, and the the carriage, coming out the rear. The horse had to be killed, and the Smiths were so seriously hurt that for they were barely able to attend the

As soon as Dyer reached his position within the bar enclosure, Judge Weand began his sentence thus: "W. Gordon Dyer, the jury has con-battery. You seriously injured a man ed, paid up, and renewed for another and a woman, demolished their car-riage and killed their horse.

"I hope this will be a lesson to you and to others who recklessly use their automobiles in violating the automobile laws of the state. Some of these drivers act as if the man with his horse and wagon had no right to use the highway. It is not my intention to sentence you for the offences of others, but I hope it will be a warning to them.

"The sentence of the court is that you, W. Gordon Dyer, pay a fine of $250 to the commonwealth; pay the costs of prosecution, and undergo imprisonment, at labor, in the Montgomery county jail, for a period of nine months from this date, and stand committed until sentence is complied

Dyer kept his nerve during the trying ordeal, except for a fidgeting of other in giving impressiveness to the law's vengeance on W. Gordon Dyer, the millionaire joy-rider, of Morrisas if in a trance until Sheriff Chaunas if in a trance until Sheriff Chaun-cey J. Buckley stepped forward, and third set of triplets, the latest to her laying his hand upon the defendant's shoulder announced. "Come on."

Not Sorry For Blunder.

"If my friends hadn't blundered in thinking I was doomed victim of conumption, I might not be alive now,' writes D. T. Sanders, of Harrodsburg, Ky., "but for years they saw every attempt to cure a lung-racking cough fail. At last I tried Dr. King's New Discovery. The effect was wonderful. It soon stopped the cough and I am now in better health than I have had for years. This wonderful lifesaver is an unrivaled remedy for coughs, colds, lagrippe, asthma, croup, hemorrhages, whooping cough or weak lungs. 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free. Mother of 17 Declares It Is No Crime to Have Children.

"It is a sin not to have children-every woman should have five or six," declares Mrs. William G. Clark, of Cleveland, O., mother of 17, including three sets of triplets. Mrs. Clark brood, bringing the total of her children in the 21 years of her married life to 17. Saturday afternoon she did the family washing, and scorns a woman who could not do as well. Mrs. Clark was married when 12 years old to Theodore Ridiker, several years her senior. To Mr. and Mrs. Ridiker were born seven children—two sets of twins and one of triplets. Then Mr. Ridiker died. Two years later Mrs. Ridiker wedded William G. Clark, a blacksmith. Two sets of triplets and two sets of twins have blessed this union. "No girl should marry until she is old enough to assume the duties of a mother," says Mrs. Clark.
