EDITORIAL.

General election next Tuesday, November 8th.

John K. Tener has never denied the charge that he is the saloon league candidate.

When all the churches are advocating Berry's election, a man can't be far wrong by being with that kind of people.

There are some more lids that need lifting. Tener won't lift 'em if elected—Berry will, you bet, if elected governor.

The Clearfield Republican gives assurance that Berry will have 2000 majority over Tener, and all signs look that way over there.

In order to understand the issues of this campaign you should read the North American every day. They certainly put Tener to the bad.

The duped ones who purchased Tener's stock will sue him for damages. Now will the voters stand by him in the swindle by voting to make him governor?

Berry's exposures sent several capitol looters to premature graves, another bunch to the penitentiary, and others are on the way. Berry made good his pledges to the people.

Don't fall to give Hon. J. C. Meyer a complimentary vote—even if he is on both tickets this year. He was a faithful representative and merits the endorsement of all good people.

Captain Thomas Hays, Republican state senator from Butler-Armstrong district, repudiated John K. Tener and declared for William H. Berry for governor.

Study that election ballot on the inside pages of this issue. In that way you will have no trouble in marking the official ballot when you enter the booth next Tuesday.

The North American exposed the famous Storey cotton swindle and sent a lot of roosters to the penitentiary. By the time they get through with Tener's fake companies, more will wear the stripes.

No matter if you are a Republican, Democrat, Keystone or any other party man—no difference if you do differ with the Centre Democrat in your political views,—we urge all men who read and think to go to the polls next Tuesday and vote.

Every person who votes the Keystone Ticket should remember that if he puts an X in the first column that votes only the state ticket; it does not include Congress, State Senate or Assembly. It is well to remember this or you will miss over half of the local ticket.

Tener gave his name as a banker and congressman to a swindling concern for $5,000 a year. He is the friend of the saloon keepers in Pennsylvania and they to a large extent are financing his campaign. These are facts not disputed. Can a clean upright man conscientiously endorse such a man?

How can John K. Tener, who under oath confesses his utter lack of knowledge of the business of a corporation of which he was the president, expect to properly manage the business of a great Commonwealth if elected to the Governorship? Will not the voters of the State Judge him by his works?

Straw votes look nice in truth, but when the republican machine gets to work they rope in the real votes, that elect men. They get results on election day. For that reason, if you have any convictions and the courage to defend them, turn out and vote on Tuesday, and see that all your neighbors do the same.

Persons who expect to vote the Keystone Ticket should not confuse that with the "Independent Ticket." You may be a little independent in your politics this year but you don't want to monkey with that "Independent" square on the ballot, as that means only a vote for a single office, for Fred Schofield, independent candidate for State Senate.

The platform upon which Berry stands—framed by the convention which nominated him, is clean cut, clear and without ambiguity, upon which any democrat or honest republican can stand without a quibble. The platform was printed entire in the Centre Democrat a few weeks ago, go back to it and study it. The "lid lifter" will be true to it as he was when serving as state treasurer.

The bluff that Democrats and Republicans who vote the Keystone ticket may be disfranchised from voting at the next party primaries, is amazing. The way it looks now there will be hardly enough Democrats and Republicans left to hold their next party primaries. Don't let such slush interfere with you doing your plain duty at the proper time. Never mind about next year—do your duty now.

The constant fake boast of "prosperity" by the high tariff organs does not fatten the farmers of Iowa nor of other states. A dispatch from Chicago says: That the renting farmers of Iowa, the richest agricultural state of the middle west, are actually losing money and that even the land-owners of that state are practically only "breaking even" in this era of high prices, was the burden of testimony given in Chicago before the interstate commerce commission in the rates hearing which affects forty-seven railroads in the Chicago district.

It is simply amusing to hear some of Mr. Berry's enemies declare the ex-state treasurer is running for governor to help Penrose Tener's election. But those jokers forget it is the journals that support Mr. Berry that are the ones most busy and earnest in exposing the Tener Utilities fraudulent stock corporation, and that the North American, a staunch Berry organ, was the one that set the net in which the Penrose candidate, Tener, was caught and exposed, and the same journal is digging down deeper in exposing the Tener stock transactions. Well, that's helping Tener and his sympathy kank! The apologists of Tener now say its all an untruth—that's what they said when Berry exposed the capitol graft.

Divination by the Philadelphia Press has been resorted to as to the result of the forthcoming election in this state for governor. It elects stock-jobber Penrose Tener by a few votes ahead of the combined strength of Berry and Grim. It places Berry second and Grim third. We think the election might as well not come off now—the Press settles it. Its divining rod, however, could not have reached into Poe valley where there are six or seven Berry votes, nor Treaster valley where there are two or three more, nor Frog Hollow where there is a Grim vote—with these counted into the Press returns by divination, it is plain Berry would have about a dozen majority. There will be a recount on November 8th, however. Philadelphia's method of counting will not pass muster this time.

Tener caught a tartar, when he sued the North American for libel because it exposed his transactions in a fraudulent stock scheme. The hearing was had before an alderman a few days ago, and Tener was put through a course of sprouts by the North American's attorney, former Judge Gordon, one of the city's ablest attorneys, in which the Penrose creature got into a deeper hole of guilt than he already was in. He admitted being concerned in the fraudulent corporation, was president of it, etc., but said he knew nothing further about the workings of the poor-sheering stock concern. Tener presented a most pitiable sight over this clinching by attorney Gordon, and the exposing of guilt worse than previously revealed. Well, this Tener Utilities stock gambling operation is only a fitting companion piece to the state capitol robbery exposed by Mr. Berry.

BERRY AGAIN DENIES.

Says He Exclaimed to Grim, "Not on Your Life!" Relative to the statement made at Carlisle by Candidate Grim that he (Berry) had promised to support the nominee of the Allentown convention, Mr. Berry denied last Thursday that he ever made such a promise. Mr. Berry said: "I have answered similar statements before, and the thing is now becoming monotonous. I met Mr. Grim after the State convention adjourned, but he looked to me like a man who was attending a funeral rather than a candidate who had been nominated by his party for the high office of Governor. I congratulated him on his nomination. Grim thanked me and said: 'I suppose you will support me?' I replied: 'Not on your life! I cannot support that ticket.'

Washington, Pa., Nov. 1, 1910. Dear Jim: I will answer your letter at once. It is correct that Tener cannot carry this, his own, county. The church people are against him as he has not been in a church for twelve (12) years, and has no use for the Sabbath day; and as to the late scandal, if he did indeed do that, as was a fraud scheme, then he is not "Smart" enough to be Governor of this great State; and if he did know, then he is certainly not fit to be Governor.

I am Truly, Your Cousin, WM. T. MITCHELL.

Lutherans for Berry. The Lutheran Ministerial Union, in Philadelphia on Monday adopted resolutions in support of Berry and Giboney that had been prepared by a committee consisting of Rev. L. B. Hafer, Rev. Edwin H. Delk and Rev. A. Pohman. In part the resolutions were:

In this campaign the issue is plain. The contest is between morality and conscience, less greed; between honest representative government and the dominance of unprincipled organization.

We therefore appeal to the voters of the State who are of honest purpose and unbiased action to come to the rescue of the same element in this city bound hand and foot by the unholy alliance of two political machines. We implore you to do your utmost by voice and vote for the election of the candidates of the Keystone State ticket, and thus help to bring in the day when we can speak of political affairs among us without a blush.

We appeal to the upright voters of the City of Philadelphia to stand together for Messrs. Berry and Giboney, and prove to the people at large that principle, character and manhood are not dead among us.

A BERRY RALLY.

A Big Gathering at Warriorsmark on Saturday. On Saturday evening, Nov. 5th, at 7 P. M., at Warriorsmark, there will be a "Berry" rally and parade by the Keystone party. This will include part of the Warriorsmark, Centre and Blair counties. The procession will be led by the brass band of Warriorsmark.

After the parade there will be addresses by Rev. H. A. McKelvey, of Port Matilda; Rev. Woodcock, of Birmingham; H. Yost, of Cross Roads, formerly of Philadelphia; R. S. Seeds, of Birmingham, and others.

Everybody invited, come one come all, who are interested in the welfare of the state. With very few exceptions everybody is for Berry; and why should they not be? It is high time that party be forgotten and men vote for those who stand for the best interest of the common people.

Committee—Jacob Mattern, Diller Buck, Samuel Lucas, H. Nearhood, Clayton Burkett, Frank Mattern, Mr. Archer, John Mattern, Mr. Harner, Porter Harpster, Charlie Mats, David Lykens, H. Yost, Mark Chronister, Frank Nearhood, Pierce Geist, E. J. Stover, Harner Wippo, Geo. Gensinger, Harry Nearhood, R. S. Ross, George Harpster, James Wills, Mr. Way, William and John Stine, I. Scott Buck, Blair Waite, R. S. Seeds and Dave Waite.

THE RIGHT MAN.

The qualifications for the office of State Senator are such that the candidate to be selected for this important position in the chief or upper law-making body of the Pennsylvania Legislature should be possessed of the varied knowledge and experience necessary to intelligently represent the diversified interests of this district. Our candidate Dr. Samuel Cooper Stewart, of Clearfield, by reason of his wide experience as a business man and man of affairs generally, has been in close touch and is thoroughly conversant with the wants and needs of this section in the way of loans necessary for the protection of the legal rights of each and every class of his constituents. He has had experience as a farmer, a lumberman, interested in coal, real estate and manufacturing development in his home county and as an employer of labor, and will be in position from close personal knowledge to act and act promptly upon any laws that may be presented at Harrisburg, pertaining to the affairs of this district and the state at large.

In addition to the personal knowledge of the business interests of his district, Dr. Stewart has the necessary ability to most intelligently and successfully represent those interests before any body of men and will be heard from to the very great advantage of the district in the halls of legislation at Harrisburg, as all who know him, both Democrats and Republicans, will readily testify.

Clearfield Dr. Stewart has been closely identified with the progress and manufacturing development of the town. He is a progressive, public spirited citizen and was always in the forefront of any movement tending toward the improvement or betterment of his home town or county. He served as Chief Burgess of Clearfield three different terms.

Dr. Stewart is a man of action at all times—a worker and leader and not a follower. He possesses boundless energy and rare executive ability; and if sent to Harrisburg—which he undoubtedly will be—he will be the Senator from the 34th District, and no man or set of men will be able to control him or handle him in any way. He is no man's man at home nor will he be no man's man at Harrisburg. He has the courage and ability to go to the front at any time or place and make a fight for his rights, and when matters pertaining to the best interests of his constituents are under discussion in the legislative halls, Dr. Stewart will be found in the thickest of the fray, standing by his guns, and with both voice and vote for rights of the people, even before a body of men and women, he will be no man's man at Harrisburg.

TENER WILL BE BEATEN.

The following letter was sent to James I. Thompson, of Lemont by his cousin, Wm. T. Mitchell, of Washington, Pa. It confirms what we hear of the western part of the state being against Tener. The following is the letter:

Washington, Pa., Nov. 1, 1910. Dear Jim: I will answer your letter at once. It is correct that Tener cannot carry this, his own, county. The church people are against him as he has not been in a church for twelve (12) years, and has no use for the Sabbath day; and as to the late scandal, if he did indeed do that, as was a fraud scheme, then he is not "Smart" enough to be Governor of this great State; and if he did know, then he is certainly not fit to be Governor.

ATTEMPT TO BRIBE.

In a statement issued Tuesday by John J. Casey, of Wilkes-Barre, independent candidate for Secretary of Internal Affairs, he declared that upon request he will furnish to John K. Tener, the Penrose Republican gubernatorial nominee, the names of three men who had promised to obtain him an appointment under Tener, if he would withdraw from the Keystone State ticket.

Candidate Casey said the inducement the three men offered was a place on a commission to be formed to "investigate employers' liability and workmen's compensation laws." The last time he was approached he said, was on October 21.

Although Casey would not divulge the names of the men who had attempted to persuade him to desert the Keystone party, he said that one of the men is prominent in business circles of Wilkes-Barre; another is an agent, and the third is an office holder in that city.

That man is a dangerous citizen who so far mistakes means for ends as to become servile in his devotion to his party, and afraid to have it when the party goes wrong—Theodore Roosevelt.

Sudden Demand for Potatoes. E. A. Peters, of Filmore, Centre county, drove to Tyrone one day last week with a load of potatoes. Arriving there late in the evening, he put up at a hotel, leaving his team and wagon at the hotel stable. When he returned to his home on the next morning he discovered that 7 bags containing a bushel and a half each had been stolen from him. Where the potatoes went is uncertain, but Mr. Peters has a strong suspicion that the missing tubers were purloined by one of the several loafers who stay around the place. At any rate, Mr. Peters, who is regular in marketing his produce in Tyrone, will find other and better quarters when he comes again.—Herald.

Presbytery For Berry. Ninety ministers and laymen, representing their churches at the session of the Presbytery of Philadelphia, held in Calvary Presbyterian Mission, Jenkintown, Tuesday, furnished a surprise when the moderator canvassed for the gubernatorial election on next Tuesday.

When the moderator, the Rev. James Williams, pastor of the Abington Presbyterian church, asked for the vote it was given as follows: Tener, none; Grim, none; Berry, 90.

"It was a goose egg for Grim, a smile for Tener, a landslide for Berry."

Mrs. Sarah Custard, of Clintondale, who is nearly 90 years old, is seriously ill with cancer at her home. She is not expected to recover, her age and the nature of the disease precluding any hope of restoration.

Origin of Surnames. Surnames were introduced into England by the Normans and were adopted by the nobility about 1100. The old Normans used Fitz, which signifies son, as Fitzherbert. The Irish used O for grandfather—O'Neal, O'Donnell.

The Scottish Highlander used Mac, as Macdonald, son of Donald. The Welsh used Ap, as Ap Rhys, the son of Rhys, Ap Richard. The prefix Ap eventually was combined with the name of the father; hence Prys, Pritchard, etc. The northern nations added the word son to the father's name, as Williamson. Many of the most common surnames such as Johnson, Wilson, Dyson, Nicholson, etc., were taken by Brabanters and others, Flemings, who were naturalized in the reign of Henry VI, 1455.

The Sycamore. The sycamore has been called the Egyptian fig tree. The date of its being planted in England is not known, but it was very early. Mary, queen of Scots, brought over from France a young sycamore, which she planted in the gardens of Holyrood, and from this have sprung all the beautiful groves of sycamores now to be seen in Scotland.—St. James' Gazette.

His Dilemma. "I'm in a difficulty over my girl." "What's wrong?" "I've been saying such nice things to her that she's getting conceited. If I stop she'll think I don't care for her any longer, and if I go on she'll think she's too good for me."—London Mail.
