Operator Breaks Leg. Ray Bullock, operator at "C. K." tower between the Beech Creek and Eagleville stations on the Bald Eagle Valley railroad, had the misfortune tobreak his leg on Wednesday, Oct, 26th. Kessinger, and the latter's son, Clayton, were hauling corn from the field, when the wagon on which Mr. Bullock was riding struck a ditch, causing the vehicle to rock back and forth. Mr. Bullock, in his struggle to keep the bags of corn from falling off, in some manner got his foot between the rubber block and the wheels resulting in a fracture of the leg about three inches above the ankle, the foot being twisted to one side. The injury will keep Mr. Bullock off duty at the tower for some time.

The Thompson reunion held at Philipsburg on Saturday afternoon last proved to be a delightful gathering of friends and relatives. Among those who attended and added to the enjoyment of the occasion were: Dr. S. W. Harshbarger, wife and son; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thompson, of Port Matilda.

175 acres to 280 acres, to suit purchaser, of a fine farm located within one and one-half miles of Bellefonte. Extra large barn, good house and outbuildings. Artesian well of never failing water; good fruit. The land is limestone soil, with a good quarry open for burning lime. This farm is a spiendid producer and considering its location and buildings and equipment, is one af the finest properties in Central Centre County. It is offered at a little more than half the price asked for adjoining properties and wont be on my hands long.

Another good farm located 4 2-4 miles East of Bellefonte, in Nittany Valley, containing about. 246 acres, about 140 of which is clear. Has the No 1 vein of Bellefonte limestone and sufficient elevation to pipe it through the house. Good house and barn, both large and roomy. Has an extra set of buildings, house, barn, and summerhouse which are also in excellent shape. The way farms are selling, this one is worth $1500 more than the owner asks for it.

nore than the owner asks for it.

350 Acres located in the heart of Bald Eagle Valley, 200 of which is spiended farm land smooth, clean land, lying high enough to escape the wash of Spring floods. Running water, buildings less than il years old. This farm showed as good crops this season as could be found in Centre County. It is offered at a very

found in Centre County.

I have other properties which may interest prospective purchasers. There is no speculation in these properties as I seal at the owners, figures as agent for them, and have taken some pains to get the price right before placing them on my list. Parties will be conveyed to properties from here at my expense.
