

Correspondents' Department

Bright, Newsy Letters From the Various Sections of the County.

PORT MATILDA.

Winter is coming—snowed quite a squall here on Saturday. On Sunday morning the ground looked quite white with flakes.

Another of our young men, H. M. Crain got all tied up in a knot a few weeks ago, all on the sly. Over a week ago they left on this honeymoon trip and came back again on Monday of last week. The boys were ready with their saws and gave him a royal welcome that evening. On Wednesday evening the band serenaded Mr. Crain and wife, and were treated to ice cream, cake, candy, cigars, and a nice sum of money. Harrison was one of the members of the band until he had to quit on account of throat trouble, so that the boys tried their best to show their best regards to him on this occasion. The bride was Miss Belva Williams, sister of the Williams Bros., who are the millers of our town. We wish them a long and happy voyage on the sea of life, and may the sea always be calm, and their vessels never drift apart.

On Oct. 19th, a social gathering was held at the home of Geo. R. Price. The following persons were present: Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Martz, Mrs. S. D. Miller and daughter, of Altoona; Mrs. A. S. Thatcher, of New York City; and Mrs. H. M. Wendel, of Lewisburg. Mrs. Thatcher is a cousin of Mrs. Price and this is the first time that these two ladies ever saw each other. A very enjoyable time was had at this gathering. The combined weight of five of the ladies was 929 pounds. This was rather a heavy-weight gathering.

We are requested to state that an oyster supper and general supper will be served in Reeses' Hall, Nov. 13, 1910, by the Port Matilda Baptist church. Ice cream, cake, and other delicacies will be served. Come one, come all and help swell the coffers of this church. The proceeds are for the benefit of the church.

We find a boy, Ray Cowher, got his leg cut badly, on one of the teeth of their saw, that they used on Monday evening at the serenade. It caused a very ugly wound. He has been hobbling to school with it every day this week. That shows pluck, hence we know that he will soon be all right again.

Some one told us the other day that we would have another wedding soon on Church street. How about it, Ethel?

Some of our old hunters are beginning to rub the rust off their flint locks thinking how near deer season is to us. Their greatest difficulty, though, is to find out where the deer have migrated. I know of four crowds that camped back on the Alleghenies, that did not get a hair, and only one deer was seen by the whole crowd. They are as scarce as hens' teeth around these diggings now. Too many crowds, from Pittsburgh, Clearfield, Blair Co., and other places, have been coming here to hunt, and the consequence is the deer are about a thing of the past. Three of these hunting clubs are going elsewhere this season, as they were teetotally discouraged in their hunt on the old hunting ground.

WINGATE.

Sara Boob and lady friend, of Lock Haven, spent last week at the home of her parents, Daniel Boob. Glad to see you Sara.

Marcella Harnish, after being housed up for the last week, is able to be out and around again and will soon resume her post behind the counter.

Martin Harnish and wife, of Tyrone, spent a few days here with his father, J. M. Harnish.

Edna Hall and Edith Priestley, two of Osceola Mills' charming young ladies, spent Thursday here at the home of Eli Stere.

C. F. Warner, one of our popular and jolly young men, after spending some time here with his grandparents left on Tuesday for Greensburg. Frank, if you see this, send me your address.

Born:—On last Sunday a week, the home of David Eastight was brought to a house of joy over the arrival of a baby girl.

Geo. Stere, wife and son, of Altoona, spent several days at the home of his parents here.

Married: Miss Maud Murray and Aaron Long, on last Wednesday evening left for Bellefonte, where they were quietly united in the holy bonds of matrimony and returned to her home here where supper awaited them, and after the evening train and church services were over, the boys gathered in the usual manner and furnished lots of noise. After the serenade they were treated to cigars and the choicest of candy, each one wished the happy pair a long and prosperous life.

Our blacksmith is improving his shop by building an addition to it, in order to handle the increase in business. Jonnie is there with the goods and everybody is finding it out.

FILLMORE.

Some of our farmers are done husking corn, but there is lots of it to do yet.

The little snow blizzard which passed over our town on Saturday scared some of our people; they thought winter was here.

The M. E. church of Fillmore will hold an ice cream social at the home of Mrs. Joseph Eckley, on Saturday night, November 5; all are invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Green Heaton and little grandson, of Pleasant Gap, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Hueys on Sunday.

Mal Houser and his crew, of Houserville, are doing a big business through our vicinity with their clover rubber.

Stuart Rockey, of Altoona, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Rockey.

Fillmore has two of the champion corn huskers, they can husk a hundred bushels a day and do their house work; they are Mrs. Anna Marshall and Mrs. Cyrus Huey. Bent that if you can.

LIVONIA.

William Tyson and family were guests of George Stover last Sunday.

Arctura Delong is spending a few weeks with friends at Milton.

Reuben Stover who has been on the sick list for several weeks is slowly improving.

Mrs. Roy Snook is spending some time at the Wills Eye hospital in Philadelphia.

Mrs. John Wirth is quite ill at present suffering from neuritis and other complaints.

REBERSBURG.

GRAMLEY.—Death has again entered our community and taken away an aged mother, Mrs. Reuben Gramley. Funeral services were held on Saturday morning in the Lutheran church. She leaves to mourn her death three children, viz., Mrs. Luther Gulswite, of Harrisburg, Pa.; Mrs. George Ocker, Lewisburg, Pa.; and Clark M., of this place. Mrs. Gramley was 74 years old, a faithful member of the Lutheran church for many years and will be missed in all departments of church work.

Dr. Scott Burd and wife, of Bellefonte, Pa., attended the funeral of Mrs. Reuben Gramley.

Daily Day services were observed in the Lutheran church on Sunday which was largely attended. These services were begun in the Sunday school and continued in the preaching service. Various addresses were given among which were the following: Miss Byrd Stover, on Mission Band work; Prof. E. M. Brungard, Dr. Scott Burd and Rev. Chas. Wolfe, by Mrs. W. J. Calvin on Missionary convention held at State College; Mrs. M. C. Haines on S. S. convention held at Altoona. Music by the children.

Mrs. C. H. Gramly, who has been confined to her bed for some time with a slight attack of typhoid fever, we are glad to say, is improving.

A hallows party was held in the old Weber shop on Friday evening by the young folks of this town. All reported having a fine time.

T. M. Gramly and wife, of Spring Mills, were seen on our streets on Saturday.

H. G. Hubler, who is teaching school near Centre Hall, spent Sunday under the parental roof.

AARONSBURG.

Doctor Liebe, wife and mother-in-law, aged 90 years, from Centre Hall and Mrs. Cummings from Spring Mills, spent one day last week very pleasantly at the home of Mrs. E. J. Deshlers.

Mrs. Deshler has just received the sad news of the death of her cousin, William H. Deshler, who will be buried at his home, No. 542 Allentown, Pa.

Ralph Stover and his wife attended the funeral of the lady's cousin, Miss Ilgen on Sunday, at Greensburg, Sugar valley.

Mrs. Nancy Herman, from State College, spent a few days with her brother, A. S. Stover.

John Kerstetter, from Greensburg, spent a few days with his sister Eva, at the home of Walter Orwiga.

Rev. W. D. Donats returned home on Saturday. He preached a fine German sermon on Sunday morning.

Mrs. Myria, nee Burd, and children from Altoona, was the welcome guest of her uncle Jacob Bahm on North 2nd street.

Mrs. Amelia Summers, one of our aged ladies, was agreeably surprised on Saturday, when her son David from Altoona and her sister, Mrs. Herman from Middleburg, came to pay her a visit for a few days. Mrs. Hosterman and Mrs. Corman, both nieces, of Woodward, lady spent the Sabbath with her.

Ruth Swabb spent Saturday at Coburn, with her brother-in-law, Ezra Burd.

NITTANY.

Miss Maud Smith, of Renovo, visited her friend Miss Edna Gunsallus here, last week.

Rev. Dice, of Millheim, preached a very able sermon at the parsonage rally on Saturday night. He also baptized the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rev. Bingman; the rally was largely attended and a nice sum was raised towards building a parsonage.

William Tweed, who is employed in New York, is visiting his parents and many friends here.

Mrs. John Fisher visited friends at Beech Creek last week.

Quite a number of our young people attended Literary Society, at Clintonville, one evening last week and report having had a fine time.

Some of our farmers are through husking corn which is a good crop.

The sick of our community are some better at this writing.

Mrs. Jennie Long and son and daughter, and Mrs. Charles Decker and baby, were Lock Haven visitors on Saturday.

Bob Allison says he don't care whether school keeps or not as he has his corn away and he don't go to school.

John Williams has papered his house throughout which adds greatly to the appearance.

It won't be long till you can hear the squeal of the porkers.

Send your news to the scribe and it will be sent in for publication.

ROCK VIEW.

Most of the farmers of our view are done threshing.

Miss Mary Fravel is sewing at Jacob Hoy's this week.

Paul Emehizer has been H. K. Grove's right hand man this week.

Prof. Etter visited our schools on Friday and gave the pupils some very good advice.

We noticed in last week's paper that pigs are very expensive—why there was one purchased in our View for 1 cent.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Hoy were over Sunday guests at Unionville.

Mr. and Mrs. William Ross, of Pleasant Gap, spent Sunday at James Neese's.

WADDLE.

Miss Myrtle Sellers is visiting friends in Phillipsburg.

John Stevenson, operator at Unionville, spent Saturday and Sunday with his parents.

Bond Hartsock, of Cleveland, Ohio, spent a few days with his aged grandmother, Mrs. Eliza Hartsock, who has been very poorly for some time.

Mrs. Jennie Jackson and little son, of Juniata, is visiting her brother, George Clark.

W. P. Parsons and wife, of Julian, spent Sunday with Mrs. George Stevenson.

ZION.

Quite a few of the farmers have their corn away, but there is quite a lot yet to husk; there is a good yield and the quality is good.

The hunting season is on and our base ball enthusiasts have dropped the lot and are devoting their spare time at hunting.

The reaper Death, invaded our community twice within a week. The first to be taken was the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Workman. The clods had scarcely settled on the infant's grave when the sad news reached us that our neighbor John P. Rockey, had been called to the great beyond. (See obituary column.)

Charley Shaffer, of Bellefonte, was home for dinner on Sunday and attended services in the afternoon, after which he hoofed it back to town. He enjoys country air and said walking was fine.

J. B. Stover and J. A. Weaver were to Hublersburg on Saturday, looking up the tax collector. Well they met that gentleman and he just cleaned them up.

H. T. Truckenmiller with his crew of men, are busy putting down the foundations for his building near town.

Fred W. Hines put down a concrete porch. He says lumber is scarce and stones are plenty.

Say John, the next time you want to attend a cow sale you had better look in your almanac and see when it is. You were just one week too quick.

A hallows party was held in the old Weber shop on Friday evening by the young folks of this town. All reported having a fine time.

T. M. Gramly and wife, of Spring Mills, were seen on our streets on Saturday.

H. G. Hubler, who is teaching school near Centre Hall, spent Sunday under the parental roof.

Rev. W. D. Donats returned home on Saturday. He preached a fine German sermon on Sunday morning.

Mrs. Myria, nee Burd, and children from Altoona, was the welcome guest of her uncle Jacob Bahm on North 2nd street.

Mrs. Amelia Summers, one of our aged ladies, was agreeably surprised on Saturday, when her son David from Altoona and her sister, Mrs. Herman from Middleburg, came to pay her a visit for a few days. Mrs. Hosterman and Mrs. Corman, both nieces, of Woodward, lady spent the Sabbath with her.

Ruth Swabb spent Saturday at Coburn, with her brother-in-law, Ezra Burd.

John Kerstetter, from Greensburg, spent a few days with his sister Eva, at the home of Walter Orwiga.

Rev. W. D. Donats returned home on Saturday. He preached a fine German sermon on Sunday morning.

Mrs. Myria, nee Burd, and children from Altoona, was the welcome guest of her uncle Jacob Bahm on North 2nd street.

Mrs. Amelia Summers, one of our aged ladies, was agreeably surprised on Saturday, when her son David from Altoona and her sister, Mrs. Herman from Middleburg, came to pay her a visit for a few days. Mrs. Hosterman and Mrs. Corman, both nieces, of Woodward, lady spent the Sabbath with her.

Ruth Swabb spent Saturday at Coburn, with her brother-in-law, Ezra Burd.

John Kerstetter, from Greensburg, spent a few days with his sister Eva, at the home of Walter Orwiga.

Rev. W. D. Donats returned home on Saturday. He preached a fine German sermon on Sunday morning.

Mrs. Myria, nee Burd, and children from Altoona, was the welcome guest of her uncle Jacob Bahm on North 2nd street.

Mrs. Amelia Summers, one of our aged ladies, was agreeably surprised on Saturday, when her son David from Altoona and her sister, Mrs. Herman from Middleburg, came to pay her a visit for a few days. Mrs. Hosterman and Mrs. Corman, both nieces, of Woodward, lady spent the Sabbath with her.

Ruth Swabb spent Saturday at Coburn, with her brother-in-law, Ezra Burd.

John Kerstetter, from Greensburg, spent a few days with his sister Eva, at the home of Walter Orwiga.

Rev. W. D. Donats returned home on Saturday. He preached a fine German sermon on Sunday morning.

Mrs. Myria, nee Burd, and children from Altoona, was the welcome guest of her uncle Jacob Bahm on North 2nd street.

Mrs. Amelia Summers, one of our aged ladies, was agreeably surprised on Saturday, when her son David from Altoona and her sister, Mrs. Herman from Middleburg, came to pay her a visit for a few days. Mrs. Hosterman and Mrs. Corman, both nieces, of Woodward, lady spent the Sabbath with her.

Ruth Swabb spent Saturday at Coburn, with her brother-in-law, Ezra Burd.

John Kerstetter, from Greensburg, spent a few days with his sister Eva, at the home of Walter Orwiga.

Rev. W. D. Donats returned home on Saturday. He preached a fine German sermon on Sunday morning.

Mrs. Myria, nee Burd, and children from Altoona, was the welcome guest of her uncle Jacob Bahm on North 2nd street.

Mrs. Amelia Summers, one of our aged ladies, was agreeably surprised on Saturday, when her son David from Altoona and her sister, Mrs. Herman from Middleburg, came to pay her a visit for a few days. Mrs. Hosterman and Mrs. Corman, both nieces, of Woodward, lady spent the Sabbath with her.

Ruth Swabb spent Saturday at Coburn, with her brother-in-law, Ezra Burd.

John Kerstetter, from Greensburg, spent a few days with his sister Eva, at the home of Walter Orwiga.

Rev. W. D. Donats returned home on Saturday. He preached a fine German sermon on Sunday morning.

Mrs. Myria, nee Burd, and children from Altoona, was the welcome guest of her uncle Jacob Bahm on North 2nd street.

Mrs. Amelia Summers, one of our aged ladies, was agreeably surprised on Saturday, when her son David from Altoona and her sister, Mrs. Herman from Middleburg, came to pay her a visit for a few days. Mrs. Hosterman and Mrs. Corman, both nieces, of Woodward, lady spent the Sabbath with her.

Ruth Swabb spent Saturday at Coburn, with her brother-in-law, Ezra Burd.

John Kerstetter, from Greensburg, spent a few days with his sister Eva, at the home of Walter Orwiga.

Rev. W. D. Donats returned home on Saturday. He preached a fine German sermon on Sunday morning.

Mrs. Myria, nee Burd, and children from Altoona, was the welcome guest of her uncle Jacob Bahm on North 2nd street.

Mrs. Amelia Summers, one of our aged ladies, was agreeably surprised on Saturday, when her son David from Altoona and her sister, Mrs. Herman from Middleburg, came to pay her a visit for a few days. Mrs. Hosterman and Mrs. Corman, both nieces, of Woodward, lady spent the Sabbath with her.

Ruth Swabb spent Saturday at Coburn, with her brother-in-law, Ezra Burd.

John Kerstetter, from Greensburg, spent a few days with his sister Eva, at the home of Walter Orwiga.

Rev. W. D. Donats returned home on Saturday. He preached a fine German sermon on Sunday morning.

Mrs. Myria, nee Burd, and children from Altoona, was the welcome guest of her uncle Jacob Bahm on North 2nd street.

Mrs. Amelia Summers, one of our aged ladies, was agreeably surprised on Saturday, when her son David from Altoona and her sister, Mrs. Herman from Middleburg, came to pay her a visit for a few days. Mrs. Hosterman and Mrs. Corman, both nieces, of Woodward, lady spent the Sabbath with her.

Ruth Swabb spent Saturday at Coburn, with her brother-in-law, Ezra Burd.

John Kerstetter, from Greensburg, spent a few days with his sister Eva, at the home of Walter Orwiga.

Rev. W. D. Donats returned home on Saturday. He preached a fine German sermon on Sunday morning.

Mrs. Myria, nee Burd, and children from Altoona, was the welcome guest of her uncle Jacob Bahm on North 2nd street.

Mrs. Amelia Summers, one of our aged ladies, was agreeably surprised on Saturday, when her son David from Altoona and her sister, Mrs. Herman from Middleburg, came to pay her a visit for a few days. Mrs. Hosterman and Mrs. Corman, both nieces, of Woodward, lady spent the Sabbath with her.

Ruth Swabb spent Saturday at Coburn, with her brother-in-law, Ezra Burd.

John Kerstetter, from Greensburg, spent a few days with his sister Eva, at the home of Walter Orwiga.

Rev. W. D. Donats returned home on Saturday. He preached a fine German sermon on Sunday morning.

Mrs. Myria, nee Burd, and children from Altoona, was the welcome guest of her uncle Jacob Bahm on North 2nd street.

Mrs. Amelia Summers, one of our aged ladies, was agreeably surprised on Saturday, when her son David from Altoona and her sister, Mrs. Herman from Middleburg, came to pay her a visit for a few days. Mrs. Hosterman and Mrs. Corman, both nieces, of Woodward, lady spent the Sabbath with her.

Ruth Swabb spent Saturday at Coburn, with her brother-in-law, Ezra Burd.

John Kerstetter, from Greensburg, spent a few days with his sister Eva, at the home of Walter Orwiga.

Rev. W. D. Donats returned home on Saturday. He preached a fine German sermon on Sunday morning.

Mrs. Myria, nee Burd, and children from Altoona, was the welcome guest of her uncle Jacob Bahm on North 2nd street.

Mrs. Amelia Summers, one of our aged ladies, was agreeably surprised on Saturday, when her son David from Altoona and her sister, Mrs. Herman from Middleburg, came to pay her a visit for a few days. Mrs. Hosterman and Mrs. Corman, both nieces, of Woodward, lady spent the Sabbath with her.

Ruth Swabb spent Saturday at Coburn, with her brother-in-law, Ezra Burd.

John Kerstetter, from Greensburg, spent a few days with his sister Eva, at the home of Walter Orwiga.

Rev. W. D. Donats returned home on Saturday. He preached a fine German sermon on Sunday morning.

Mrs. Myria, nee Burd, and children from Altoona, was the welcome guest of her uncle Jacob Bahm on North 2nd street.

Mrs. Amelia Summers, one of our aged ladies, was agreeably surprised on Saturday, when her son David from Altoona and her sister, Mrs. Herman from Middleburg, came to pay her a visit for a few days. Mrs. Hosterman and Mrs. Corman, both nieces, of Woodward, lady spent the Sabbath with her.

Ruth Swabb spent Saturday at Coburn, with her brother-in-law, Ezra Burd.

John Kerstetter, from Greensburg, spent a few days with his sister Eva, at the home of Walter Orwiga.

Rev. W. D. Donats returned home on Saturday. He preached a fine German sermon on Sunday morning.

Mrs. Myria, nee Burd, and children from Altoona, was the welcome guest of her uncle Jacob Bahm on North 2nd street.

Mrs. Amelia Summers, one of our aged ladies, was agreeably surprised on Saturday, when her son David from Altoona and her sister, Mrs. Herman from Middleburg, came to pay her a visit for a few days. Mrs. Hosterman and Mrs. Corman, both nieces, of Woodward, lady spent the Sabbath with her.

Ruth Swabb spent Saturday at Coburn, with her brother-in-law, Ezra Burd.

John Kerstetter, from Greensburg, spent a few days with his sister Eva, at the home of Walter Orwiga.

Rev. W. D. Donats returned home on Saturday. He preached a fine German sermon on Sunday morning.

Mrs. Myria, nee Burd, and children from Altoona, was the welcome guest of her uncle Jacob Bahm on North 2nd street.

Mrs. Amelia Summers, one of our aged ladies, was agreeably surprised on Saturday, when her son David from Altoona and her sister, Mrs. Herman from Middleburg, came to pay her a visit for a few days. Mrs. Hosterman and Mrs. Corman, both nieces, of Woodward, lady spent the Sabbath with her.

Ruth Swabb spent Saturday at Coburn, with her brother-in-law, Ezra Burd.

John Kerstetter, from Greensburg, spent a few days with his sister Eva, at the home of Walter Orwiga.

Rev. W. D. Donats returned home on Saturday. He preached a fine German sermon on Sunday morning.

Mrs. Myria, nee Burd, and children from Altoona, was the welcome guest of her uncle Jacob Bahm on North 2nd street.

Mrs. Amelia Summers, one of our aged ladies, was agreeably surprised on Saturday, when her son David from Altoona and her sister, Mrs. Herman from Middleburg, came to pay her a visit for a few days. Mrs. Hosterman and Mrs. Corman, both nieces, of Woodward, lady spent the Sabbath with her.

Ruth Swabb spent Saturday at Coburn, with her brother-in-law, Ezra Burd.

John Kerstetter, from Greensburg, spent a few days with his sister Eva, at the home of Walter Orwiga.

Rev. W. D. Donats returned home on Saturday. He preached a fine German sermon on Sunday morning.

Mrs. Myria, nee Burd, and children from Altoona, was the welcome guest of her uncle Jacob Bahm on North 2nd street.

Mrs. Amelia Summers, one of our aged ladies, was agreeably surprised on Saturday, when her son David from Altoona and her sister, Mrs. Herman from Middleburg, came to pay her a visit for a few days. Mrs. Hosterman and Mrs. Corman, both nieces, of Woodward, lady spent the Sabbath with her.

Ruth Swabb spent Saturday at Coburn, with her brother-in-law, Ezra Burd.

John Kerstetter, from Greensburg, spent a few days with his sister Eva, at the home of Walter Orwiga.

Rev. W. D. Donats returned home on Saturday. He preached a fine German sermon on Sunday morning.

Mrs. Myria, nee Burd, and children from Altoona, was the welcome guest of her uncle Jacob Bahm on North 2nd street.

Mrs. Amelia Summers, one of our aged ladies, was agreeably surprised on Saturday, when her son David from Altoona and her sister, Mrs. Herman from Middleburg, came to pay her a visit for a few days. Mrs. Hosterman and Mrs. Corman, both nieces, of Woodward, lady spent the Sabbath with her.

Ruth Swabb spent Saturday at Coburn, with her brother-in-law, Ezra Burd.

John Kerstetter, from Greensburg, spent a few days with his sister Eva, at the home of Walter Orwiga.

Rev. W. D. Donats returned home on Saturday. He preached a fine German sermon on Sunday morning.

Mrs. Myria, nee Burd, and children from Altoona, was the welcome guest of her uncle Jacob Bahm on North 2nd street.

Mrs. Amelia Summers, one of our aged ladies, was agreeably surprised on Saturday, when her son David from Altoona and her sister, Mrs. Herman from Middleburg, came to pay her a visit for a few days. Mrs. Hosterman and Mrs. Corman, both nieces, of Woodward, lady spent the Sabbath with her.

Ruth Swabb spent Saturday at Coburn, with her brother-in-law, Ezra Burd.

John Kerstetter, from Greensburg, spent a few days with his sister Eva, at the home of Walter Orwiga.

Rev. W. D. Donats returned home on Saturday. He preached a fine German sermon on Sunday morning.

Mrs. Myria