Fletcher when he taught in that vicinity, who has been making his home at Valley Falls, Kansas, of recent years, has returned east, to care for his aged father, who is ninety-three years of age, and needs the care of a faithful son.

A "straw party" of eighteen or twenty young folks, in a big farm wagon, drawn by four horses, came down from Bellefonte, bringing baskets and boxes and hampers of good things with them, last Friday evening, and spent a jolly evening and a part of the next morning at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Williams.

E. E. Way, of Sheppard, Mich., was in town last Tuesday, looking up some of his boyhood friends, of whom he found but very few, for it is nearly a half century since he left these parts for the far west. He was born in the historic old Packer house on the north side of the creek, now owned by John M. Robb, and is a grandson of Eli Packer, who is remembered by some of our older citizens.

The renovating of the old John David Thompson house, which his son William moved from the Main street front to a position on the Walnut street front of the lot, is about completed, and on one of the near future days, Blacksmith William Solt will move into it, placing him very conveniently to his work—just across the street. The house has been enlarged and veneered with our Howard-made brick, and very pleasing in appearance. A bath room has been provided, which will be furnished and equipped next summer, and make it a good, livable house.

A Halloween party was held at the home of Mary Welrick on Monday evening by the "Q. E. C." Thirty-two were present. All were masked and costumed to suit the occasion. The house was decorated with pumpkins and beautiful fall flowers. About ten o'clock the boys each finding a partner, all were invited to the dining room where they unmasked. Sandwiches, cakes and fruit were served. The table was very nicely decorated and pumpkins were used as dishes. All enjoyed themselves with music and playing games until about twelve o'clock when all departed for their homes.

Everybody who knows Howard, knows or knows of "Sam" Diehl, farmer, and "Joe" Diehl, who deals in what Farmer Diehl, and all other farmers, produce, and knows that they are brothers. When George H. and A. Cookman Leathers got their new houses far enough along to plaster, they brought here, from Northumberland, where they are handling real estate, two or three experts to do the work. Pretty soon thereafter letters began coming to our postoffice in numbers, addressed to "Sam" Diehl and "Joe" Diehl, and our good postmaster sent them to farmer "Sam" and huckster "Joe" and then the fun was on. In due time it was discovered that two of the Sunbury plasterers bore the same names—"Sam" Diehl and "Joe" Diehl, and their various letters were being sent to our old Diehls. In due time explanations were made, the entanglement was straightened out, and now the Sunbury Diehls are having all their family correspondence sent with the word "plasterer" added as an aid to identification. As a little coincidence, the Sunbury Diehls are brother-in-laws, "Sam" having married "Joe's" sister, but they are not blood relations in any degree.

At a recent session of the I. O. O. F.'s a vote of thanks was unanimously tendered to Mrs. Laura Kephart, Miss Fred Smith and Miss Martha Zahnizer for especially valuable services rendered at our banquet; also to Misses Ruth Parsons, Margaret Eckert, Elizabeth Musser and Margaret Brugger for services as "waiting maids;" also to Harry Fisher and the committee of management consisting of J. T. Barton, Harry M. Stere and the writer. Those who stayed away missed the time of their life.

To even up matters as to sex, the stork left a fine boy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Sanderson about the same time and Floyd says he wouldn't trade with Jake for ten thousand dollars "to-boot."

A citizen that will put down a concrete walk in front of his residence is a public benefactor, and while it enhances the value of his property at least 10 per cent, it really ought to be reduced in the assessed valuation for taxation purposes. See?

Ah! there! Charley! Who'd a think it? Joined the Benedicts, hey? Well, here's our hand accept our hearty congratulations.

A pretty home wedding occurred at the home of Mrs. Margaret Brugger on Wednesday, Nov. 2nd, at 11 o'clock A. M. when her daughter Miss Elizabeth C. Brugger became the wife of Llewellyn James, of Carlisle, Pa. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. R. S. Oyster in the presence of a goodly number of friends and guests. After the ceremony, a sumptuous dinner which had been previously prepared was partaken of and enjoyed to the utmost limit by all. The happy couple were taken to the hotel where they boarded the 1:05 P. M. train on their honeymoon tour which included Philadelphia, New York and other eastern cities and will eventually land at Lake Helen, Florida, where they will spend the winter. In the spring they will be "at home" in the beautiful city of Carlisle, the permanent residence of the groom. The bride and her sister, Mrs. Nora Decker, of Philadelphia, for the last two seasons, very successfully conducted the St. James hotel at Atlantic City. She is one of the most popular young ladies in this vicinity and the groom is one of the most prominent citizens of Carlisle and the happy pair start out in life under the most favorable circumstances. This was a purely love affair. A case of "Two Souls with but a single thought."

Two hearts that beat as one. May their lives be a perpetual honeymoon.

My trip to Stormtown is postponed until next week. DOMINO.

Ice Plant For Bellefonte.

Plans have been completed where by an ice plant of 10 ton capacity will soon be built in Bellefonte. George Doll is the projector, and the proposed location is near the Nittany Furnace, a short distance beyond the furnace office. Mr. Doll expects to have the foundations completed before winter, and the plant completed and in full operation next spring. A concrete forebay will be built, and a large turbine installed at the old rolling mill dam. A spring nearby will furnish him with the water required in the manufacture of ice. The plant will have a capacity of ten tons every twenty-four hours.

Three Persons Perish.

John Mountain, forty-five, a farmer, and his children were burned to death early on Saturday at their home near New Alexandria. Mountain had escaped from the house, but sacrificed his life when he re-entered the burning building to rescue his children.

The bodies of Mountain's twenty-year-old daughter and six-year-old son were recovered, but the father's has not yet been located. Mountain's wife, a son, aged fifteen, and a man, who was visiting the farmer, escaped without injury. The cause of the fire is unknown.

One of our exchanges makes this remark: The correspondent of a rural paper has sufficient to perform when he or she gives the general happenings of the community they represent, and not to portray the vice and immorality that follow more or less every village, town or city. Of course there may be some exceptions which the scribes can use to the best of their judgment. It is always much better, however, and in fact more desirable to thrust into the background deficiency and error, and bring to the front those things which have a useful quality.

Delige's Hearing.

Thursday morning, November 10th, Albert Delige will be given a hearing, in habeas corpus proceeding before Judge Orvis, at the court house. Delige, as is generally known, was arrested soon after the murder of Mrs. John Handis at Denora, on suspicion of being implicated in the crime.

Loehr, also of Coleville. Mr. Loehr claimed that on Halloween these boys threw stones at his residence, breaking glass in the windows and panels in the door. All but two of the accused youths admitted throwing cabbage stumps, but not one would agree with Mr. Loehr as to their throwing any stones. Squire Brown, however, did not think the evidence sufficient to punish the boys, and after reprimanding them, allowed them to go home, and placed the costs on the county.
