

FACT, FUN AND FANCY.

Bright, Sparkling Paragraphs—Selected and Original.

It's when a man is never sick that his doctor knows him well.

One thing sure, a good bit of the trouble in this world is home-made.

The worst feature of a good memory is that doesn't enable us to forget our troubles.

A certain editor wrote to a rival editor, calling him an ass, and then signed it "Yours fraternally."

There is one respect in which a man resembles a fish. He can avoid a lot of trouble by keeping his mouth shut.

"Say," said the editor's little son, as he entered a store, "do you keep knives?" "Oh, yes," replied the storekeeper, "we've kept them for years."

"Well," returned the boy, starting for the door, "just advertise, and then you won't keep them so long."

Men who sell their goods by short measure or light weight are no better than the ordinary sneak thief.

They are not as good, for the thief is frequently driven to crime by dire necessity. There is a salty penalty in law against such "selling."

Mrs. Hen was in tears; one of her little ones had been sacrificed to make a repairing clergyman.

"Cheer up, madam," said the rooster, comfortingly. "You should rejoice that your son is entering the ministry. He was poorly qualified for a lay member, anyhow."

Was Well Supplied. It is very detrimental to the conversation if you play bridge while talking.

A certain gentleman once entered a room and walked up to a lady who was reply engrossed in correcting her score.

"How d'ye do, Mrs. So and so?" he exclaimed. "I have just met your children with the nurse. By the way, how many have you got?"

The lady looked up and replied, "Sixteen above and twenty-four below."

Three is a crowd, and there were three: He, the parlor lamp and she; Two is company, and no doubt, That is why the lamp went out.

The Whole Thing. When the Abernathy boys arrived in New York from their ride from Oklahoma to meet Col. Roosevelt upon his return to this country last June they met and had a talk with Kermit Roosevelt in a hotel lobby.

"What kind of a man do you think your father is?" asked one of the youthful Rough Riders.

"Well," replied Kermit, judicially, "father is the sort of a fellow who wants to be the bride at a wedding and the corpse at a funeral."

Tell us not in mournful numbers Life is but an empty dream; That we blot out all the skum milk And the trusts get all the cream.

Life is earnest, so get busy; Swing your uppercut and jab; When good things are flying by you, Just reach out and take a grab.

It Makes a Difference. A prominent lawyer of New York city once overheard the following conversation between two boys of the street:

"Say, Harry, what's the best way to teach a girl how to swim?" asked the younger one.

"Come off, she's my sister."

"Aw, push her off de dock."

He Was Happy. A local editor's wife, whose husband had been dead some years, went to a medium who had produced the spirit of her dead husband.

"My dear John," said the widow to the spirit, "are you happy now?"

"I am very happy," John replied.

"Happier than you were on earth with me?" she asked.

"Yes," was the answer; "I am far happier now than I was on earth with you."

"Tell me, John, what is it like in Heaven?"

"Heaven!" said John, "I'm not in heaven."

Had Her Way. "Conductor!" exclaimed an irate woman. "I told you I wanted to get off at Prairie avenue!"

"But, madam—"

"Don't say any more! I know all about the car being full, and you can't remember where everybody wants to get off. I've heard those excuses before."

"But, madam, I—"

"I'll surely regret you, sir; and for your impudence, too!"

She alighted, the conductor rang his bell, and as the car started he said politely, touching his cap:

"In very sorry, madam, but Prairie avenue is half a mile farther on."

Cooking For Ministers. Mary was a buxom country lass, and her father was an upright deacon in a Connecticut village.

Mary's plan for joining the boys and girls in a nutting party was frustrated by the unexpected arrival of a number of the "brethren" on their way to conference, for whom Mary had to stay at home and get dinner.

Her already ruffled temper was increased by the reverend visitors themselves, who sat around the stove and in the way. One of the good ministers noticed the wrathful impatience and desiring to rebuke the sinful manifestations said, sternly, "Mary, what do you think will be your occupation in hell?"

She replied: "Pretty much the same as it is on earth, cooking for ministers."

A Thorough Job. "I want you to clean my windows," said the village shopkeeper to Pat, the champion window cleaner.

"Do you think you can do it while I am gone out for an hour or so?"

"Ye, sorr," says Pat, "and glad of the job!"

While the shopkeeper was gone Pat set to work with a will and completed the job with a vengeance.

"Pat," said the shopkeeper on his return, after glancing at the cleaner's work approvingly, "you've done the job well. Why, there isn't a speck to be seen on the window pane. Here's your money and a quarter extra."

"I'm glad yer satisfied with it," said Pat nervously pocketing the money.

"Of course I am. I can hardly believe there is any glass there at all, it looks so clean."

"Well, begorra there isn't," replied Pat, moving rapidly towards the door.

"Both me and the ladder fell through the pane when I started."

OVER THE COUNTY.

If you are having sale this fall, it will be a mistake if you do not have the same advertised in our sale register.

Boalsburg is beautified by the installation of a modern gasoline lighting system. Six large gasoline lights will be placed in the streets.

Eighteen hundred and twenty-five bushels of corn were husked from 14 acres on the farm of J. Elmer Royer, at Old Fort. That's doing some, Elmer—go up head.

D. A. Grove, of near Lemont, will sell the live stock and farm implements of Harry Shreffler, on the Wistar farm in College township, on or about the first of December.

Revival services are now in progress in the Methodist church, Milesburg, every evening, except Saturday at 7:30 o'clock; Sunday evening at 7 o'clock.—R. Skyles Oyler, Pastor.

We see from an Altamont, Kansas paper, that at the recent dedication of the I. O. O. F. hall, Rev. J. A. Bright, P. G. M. of Topeka, delivered the dedication address. Rev. Bright is a native of Aaronburg.

Picked apples have been selling from wagons at forty to fifty cents per bushel. Extra fine are bringing a higher figure. Cabbage is very plenty and selling from wagons at five cents per head, and in larger lots at three and four cents.

Rev. C. L. Thurgood, prohibition candidate for congress in the Thirty-first district, has left the country and returned to his former home in Australia. He didn't think the congressional nomination was any reason why he should delay his going.

David Dorman, of Fiedler, while hunting raccoons one night recently, saw his dog barking up a tree. Going closer he espied what he took to be a "coon" in the tree and, taking aim, fired. The animal dropped and proved to be a bear instead of a "coon."

The snow storm last Thursday evening struck parts of this county. On the Pennsylvania side there were three inches of snow, as reported from Millheim. At Scranton there were 15 inches, and in some other eastern counties even fifteen inches by reports.

Says the Millheim Journal: Peter A. Breen, of Penn township, Saturday brought a head of cabbage to the Journal office that tipped the beam at 22 pounds and is 44 inches in circumference. It is certainly a monster mass of cabbage and would fill a good sized crock with sauer kraut.

Between seven and eight hundred barrels of cider have been the output thus far this season from the cider mill of H. Frank Kessinger at Earleville. The biggest day's work at the mill was when forty wagon loads of apples were ground and pressed, turning out one hundred and eight barrels of cider.

Mrs. G. M. Bower, who with the help of her sons, for a number of years has been farming the Fielder farm, in Penn township, will make sale in the spring. After the sale Mrs. Bower expects to make her home with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Rishel, and Wilbur Bruce and Herbert will locate in Illinois.

Stephen Smith, of Philadelphia, has been visiting in Centre county for the past week. He was in Centre Hall for a short time and then went to Tusseyville where he spent a few days with his mother. Mr. Smith is one of Uncle Sam's trusted mail clerks his run being between New York and Washington, D. C.

Miss Sara McClenahan, of Centre Hall, who has been in a Harrisburg hospital suffering from a broken hip bone, caused by falling from a street car while in the latter city, is improving nicely and expects to leave the hospital in a short time. She, however, may not return to her home in Centre Hall for some weeks.

Clyde Smith, who for a number of years was connected with the American Union Telephone Company, in this section, is now located at Elyria, Ohio, where he is doing special work installing switch boards for telephone exchanges and has an elegant position. He has been home the past week owing to the recent death of his father, Isaac Smith at Centre Hall.

Harry R. Wagner, of Georesvalley, had a bad fall from a telephone pole on which he was working in Centre Hall, on Saturday of last week. Mr. Wagner was up a distance of about 25 feet when in some manner his hold slipped and he fell to the ground. The accident happened in front of H. C. Shirk's residence. Although his side was badly bruised Mr. Wagner gamely went to work on the following Tuesday morning, and since then, no serious results have developed.

Sunday afternoon, of last week the dwelling house of James Weaver was totally destroyed by fire at Georesvalley. The house was built about five years ago, and was located about one mile south of Synagogue church. A stove, a few dishes and a little wadded goods was all that was saved. Mr. and Mrs. Weaver were visiting among neighbors in Decker Valley, and when they came home their house was discovered to be on fire. No cause of the fire can be given.

Rev. B. R. M. Sheeder will on November 21st resign his pastorate of the Aaronburg charge and move to Clarion, Clarion county, where he will assume a similar relation with the Lutheran body of that place. Rev. Sheeder has been pastor of his present charge for more than eight years, and during that time has endeavored himself to the hearts of the people in that territory, who are loath to see him go. The Aaronburg charge is now in want of a pastor. The appointments embrace Aaronburg, Coburn, St. Paul's Millheim and Penn Hall.

Isaac Shawver, proprietor of the Millheim hotel, had an exciting experience recently. In trying to pass an automobile with his horse on the Millheim and Coburn turnpike, below the Elk creek school house the horse frightened and ran away. The buggy in which Mr. Shawver and a companion were riding, was upset, throwing them both out. The shafts were torn from the buggy and the horse ran as far as the Pine Creek Mills, where he was caught. Neither of the men was injured, but the buggy was considerably wrecked. Mr. Shawver claims that the chauffeur who was in charge of the auto did not turn out sufficiently so that he could pass nor did he slack his speed as the law directs.

A GREAT REVIVAL.

All evangelistic records in this country have been broken by the marvelous success attained during the six weeks religious campaign in New Castle, Pa., by Evangelist "Billy" Sunday, which has just come to a close. He secured a total of 6,535 converts, and his freewill offering reached the enormous sum of $13,198. He received a draft for that amount when he departed the past week to begin a similar campaign at Waterloo, Ia. There were just 6,535 converts when the actual week's campaign closed, but Sunday could not bear to leave and remained another day, when 300 more were added to the total. This is by far the greatest number ever secured in any religious campaign in this country. Of these 1,050 were secured upon what was to have been the closing day, and 518 of them came during the closing evening meeting. Every church in the city will receive scores of new members as a result, and active church work will be pushed. Nearly every church will have to be enlarged to accommodate the flood of new members.

The converts are all enthusiastic and are preparing to do active work. They come from all classes, and a Men's Personal Work league has been proposed to meet weekly and plan personal work to secure yet other converts.

Not Sorry For Blunder. "If my friends hadn't blundered in thinking I was doomed victim of consumption, I might not be alive now," writes D. T. Sanders, of Harrodsburg, Ky., "but for years they saw every attempt to cure a lung-racking cough fail. At last I tried Dr. King's New Discovery. The effect was wonderful. It soon stopped the cough and I am now in better health than I have had for years. This wonderful lifesaver is an unrivaled remedy for coughs, colds, lagrippe, asthma, croup, hemorrhages, whooping cough or weak lungs. 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Green's Pharmacy Co., Bellefonte, Pa.

Hunting Accident. Louis Krumbine and Patrick Carricks were out hunting the other day in the woods near Ashville, Cambria county. Krumbine shot at a pheasant but unfortunately the full load of shot hit Carrick in the back, he being about twenty yards distant and being hidden by the bushes. The shooting was entirely accidental. It is not thought that Carrick is fatally injured.

WHAT CURES ECZEMA? We have had so many inquiries lately regarding Eczema and other skin diseases, that we are glad to make our answer public. After careful investigation we have found that a simple wash of Oil of Wintergreen, as compounded in D. D. D., can be relied upon. We would not make this statement to our patrons, friends and neighbors unless we were sure of it—and although there are many so-called Eczema remedies sold, we ourselves unhesitatingly recommend D. D. D. Prescription.

Because—We know that it gives instant relief to that torturing itch.

Because—D. D. D. starts the cure at the foundation of the trouble.

Because—it cleanses, soothes and heals the skin.

Because—it enables Nature to repair the ravages of disease.

Because—the records of ten years of complete cures of thousands of the most serious cases show that D. D. D. is today recognized as the absolutely reliable Eczema Cure.

Drop into our store today, just to appear to be at all frightened, except Green's Pharmacy Co., Bellefonte, Pa.

Girls Boycott Stingy Boys. Twenty-two girls of the High school at Sylvia, Kan., comprising almost the entire younger social set of the town, have formed an "Anti-Tightwad club," its purpose being to boycott the young men who can walk bravely by an ice cream parlor without inviting their companions to a "treat."

A set of rules forbids the members being seen in company with any young men boycotted by the club. The girls are 14 to 18 years old. Meanwhile the boys have their heads together over a set of resolutions which contain such words as "Judge," "popcorn," etc.

Netted $5,000. The recent fair held at Lock Haven for the benefit of the city hospital, was decidedly a success, netting $5,000. The citizens in general responded nobly to the cause, while outsiders also aided.

This shows what a community can do when they make an effort for a worthy institution.

If Green's Pharmacy Co. didn't believe that a Black and White 5c. cigar was pretty near perfection, they would stop talking about it—but if they did a lot of others would still do it, because their customers are satisfied and keep coming back. Green's Pharmacy Co. is a member of the National Cigar Stand Company, consisting of three thousand prominent American druggists who have concentrated their cigar departments and buy as a unit. The result is they have in their National case cigar values far above and beyond anything Bellefonte has ever seen.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed, you have a running nose, imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and the tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever, also cause out of the ear caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous membrane. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness cured by giving the medicine sold by Hall's Catarrh Cure, sent by express, free.
