Bright, Newsy Letters From the Various Sections of the County.

PORT MATILDA.

A birthday greeting as held on November the 4th, at the home of J. C. Marks in honor of his daughter Anck. The event was both pleasant and interesting; a portion of the guests present were Rev. Ake, pastor of the M. E. church, and wife; Rev. McKelvey, pastor of the U. B. church and wife. Mrs. A. J. Johnson, Mrs. Oscar Johnson, Miss Bessie Marks, Mrs. Cora Fink, Miss Lillian Osman, Samuel Osman, J. M. Marks, and others. The program of the day was filled by instrumental music, social conversation and side spliffs. The most attractive feature of the even was the dinner which was gotten up to the standard of perfection and appreciated by all, judging from the manner in which the tables vanished. Thus the occasion was enjoyed until late in the evening, when all retired to their homes with a showing of appreciation.

Our farmers have cribbed a large yield of excellent corn and with the storing away of a good crop of potatoes their fall work is about concluded.

William Rhodes and two sons, of Pleasant Hill, have finished their work on the farm and, as usual, have commenced their winter job mining coal.

Hunting season has opened up with a continuous bang daily, Sundays included.

C. Reese has moved his steam saw mill from Bald Eagle to Flat Rock; the location is a good one and with Jacob Moyer as sawyer and Lew Reese freeman he should be able to turn out lumber rapidly.

Cider making has, with few exceptions, closed down for this season. Harry Reese, who for a year or longer has been travelling over the far western states, spending the greater portion of his time in and near Buhl, Idaho, where he has land interests, is visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Reese, residing in the Cove, expecting to return westward in early spring.

James Stott, of Phillipsburg, has opened up a large railroad-tie job, on the Allegheny mountain on the Jacob Miller warrant and survey.

Walter Reese, employed in the Westing house Electric works, at Pittsburg, is spending his vacation in the Cove with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Reese.

Abe Cowher, of Sandy Ridge, Sundayed with his father, Jos. Cowher and sister Fannie.

HUBLERSBURG.

Mrs. Martha Carner has been entertaining two jolly, young hunters the past week, her son, Chas. Carner, of Roaring Branch, and Royal McCracken, of Williamsport; also her nephew, James Wilson, of Salona.

Mrs. Emma Straub, of Lock Haven, visited several days last week with her mother, Mrs. J. H. Sharp.

Miss Erna Kessinger, of Nittany, spent several days of this week around town.

Miss Olive Wilson, of Hayes Run, spent Sunday with her parents here.

Mrs. Mary Clevenstine, of Hublersburg, visited for several days in Bellefonte with her son, Harry Clevenstine.

We noticed Elias Markle was home for the election.

Mrs. Eva Markle, entertained her mother, Mrs. Blerley and sister Regina, of Parvin, one day last week.

Mrs. Fryberger and little grandson, of Altoona, are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Miller over Sunday.

Among the visitors over Sunday, from out-of-town, were Messrs. Lloyd and Ward Markle, of State College; Alton Deitrick, of Benner township; and Roy Decker, of Muncy.

Mrs. T. L. Kessinger made a trip to Bellefonte one day last week on account of the serious illness of her sister, Mrs. Chambers.

Mrs. Link Swartz and Mrs. Jose Emerick made a business trip to Bellefonte last Monday.

Mrs. W. E. Kessinger and daughter Myrtle, of Nittany, visited with Mrs. Jas. Rathmell, last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas Taylor visited several days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Carner.

J. G. Rathmell, a former Hublersburg boy, now in the U. S. Navy, has been transferred from the Celtic to the Battleship Vermont, having a crew of 980 men. He is now enroute to England and France.

ZION.

Farmers are busy finishing their corn and fodder before it winters up. Our village folks are busy raking leaves, cleaning their yards and gardens, and disposing of all flth and rubbish before winter sets in. Good idea.

J. Kane, our village smithy, is getting a handle on this cold weather. Jim's trade covers a large territory, and when roughing time comes, will be ready with several hundred pairs of shoes, ready to nail on.

The Nittany Telephone Co. has added three more phones to the Zion exchange on the Ridge line.

Several days ago while out hunting, Edgar Lutz was the lucky chap, to get a twelve-pound turkey.

Mrs. Julia Showers is not much improved.

Next week the Zion hunting party will hit away to their old hunting grounds. We wish them success, as they came home empty handed last year. A little venison after the political land-slide will be quite stimulating to some of them.

There is much covered yet to be threshed; the weather has been very unfavorable for several weeks for out door threshing, the yield is not very good.

BOALSBURG.

A country church institute was held in the Presbyterian church last Saturday. Rev. Morrison, of New York, conducted the services.

The State College water company is busy digging ditch and laying pipes from the Reitz gap just east of town.

Halloween was observed here by a few of the boys and girls.

Mrs. William Meyers spent Saturday at Centre Hill, looking up the winter styles in hats.

Mrs. Annie Zeigler, of State College, spent several days with friends here last week.

The funeral of Mrs. Henry Houts was held here on Tuesday forenoon. Services were held in the Lutheran church of which she was one of the oldest members.

Mrs. Ada Charles has been on the sick list the past week.

NITTANY.

We are glad to note that James Gunsallus, who had been so critically ill is some better at this writing. We hope for his speedy recovery.

We are sorry to note that Mrs. Perry Wehner has not been so well the past week; she has been suffering with neuralgia. Mrs. William Mauck stays about the same. These two ladies are both housed up on account of poor health.

Mr. and Mrs. Stover, of Ridgeway, were the guests of the latter's parents, James Gunsallus and wife, the past week. Mrs. Henry McCloskey, of Mackeyville, also spent part of the week at the same place helping take care of their sick father.

We noticed Ed. Green and wife, of Howard, on our streets on Sunday.

Ed. Vonada and family, of near Jacksonville, visited Ira Ohl and family on Sunday.

Our sports have been bringing in quite a number of rabbits and turkeys.

Miss Pearl Wehner, of Lamar, was the guest of her uncle, G. W. Tolbert and wife on Sunday; and Mrs. William Wehner, of Lamar, was the guest of Mrs. Perry Wehner.

Charles Mauck, who had been employed in Trenton, N. J., has returned home for the winter.

William Tweed, who is employed in New York, is visiting his parents and many friends here.

Harry Yearick and family, of Ridgeway, were the guests of the former's parents, Israel Yearick and family, quite recently.

On Nov. 25th, Thanksgiving night, the Ladies Aid society will hold a chicken and noodle supper at the home of Miss Mittie Winkelman; they will also serve ice cream and cake and other delicacies of the season. Everybody is cordially invited to attend on Nov. 25th.

Our men who are employ at Wadde were home for election.

Glenn Rogers, who is teaching at Munson, was seen passing through our town Sunday with an automobile party of ladies and gentlemen.

Election passed off very quietly here with a fair turn out.

Mrs. Charley Gunsallus and family visited friends in Beech Creek over Sunday.

Miss Blanche Wasson visited friends in Howard over Sunday.

Lawrence Ohl came home and says he expects to stay around here for a while.

Boyd Yearick has gone to Ridgeway to visit his brother Harry.

James Nolan and W. J. Mauck attended a large sale across the mountains one day the past week.

WOLFS STORE.

Mrs. Clarence Brunhart spent last week with her parents at Eastville, Clinton county, Pa.

Last week while helping to haul in cornfodder John Brungart fell from a loaded wagon and had the misfortune to dislocate his left wrist. It was soon again put in place, but as a result John now carries his arm in a handkerchief.

Corn-husking is over, the crop having been a fairly good one. Butchering will be next.

D. B. Weaver's sons purchased a 10-horse power gasoline engine to run the rolls in their mill at times when water is low. This is something that was wanting long ago, and especially at this time. Many cisterns are empty and wells have gone dry compelling some farmers to haul water and drive their cattle.

Next Saturday A. L. Gilbert will have a sale and will soon be packing goods and making preparations to move to Texas. W. A. Brungart and W. A. J. Korman will also have sale in early December.

Mr. Reuben Stover, proprietor of the "Stover's Inn" at Livonia, is seriously ill.

Manassees Gilbert and wife, from Rebersburg, spent last Sunday at Livonia.

Threshing is over and we dare say the oats crop has been the heaviest for a quarter of a century. We quote the following: A. R. Wolfe threshed 1261 bushels, H. H. Royer 1503, W. A. Brungart 1200, W. H. Zeigler 941, George Smith 981, Elmer Wolfe 945. Total average per acre 47 bushels.

ROCK FORGE.

Ice was on the standing pools one-half inch, on Monday morning.

Altoe Deitrick, the Rock Forge school teacher, left here on Friday for his home at Hublersburg to spend Sunday with his parents.

Pigs—to buy them at your price and to sell them at our price; we will soon own Rockview and Bellefonte, too.

A great many of our people took the first day of hunting season and report same very scarce around Rock.

There are some fine fattening hogs through Rock, and the majority of the farmers have from 5 to 9 hogs to kill.

Orrie Mulharger, Col. Reynolds' teamster, is now busy hauling peach baskets and storing them away in the barn for next year's crop.

H. E. Walters took a buggy ride over to Buffalo Run to West Rider on Sunday and took the daughter for a drive.

Col. Reynolds is having his men busy planting apple trees in his orchard; we hope lots of peaches and apples, as he supplies so many families with fruit.

George Rhears has quite a crop of turnips and beets this year, but he says his cabbage and apples are scarce.

Applebutter will be high in price as very few people had any apples for butter this year.

ROCK VIEW.

There is yet a great deal of corn to husk; think some people will get cold fingers.

Mrs. Susan Saul was taken to the Bellefonte hospital for an operation on Monday.

Miss Pearl Hoy is spending the week at State College.

Miss Mamie Dale spent Sunday at State College.

Mr. and Mrs. Elnas Stamm spent Sunday with the latter's sister, Mrs. Cornelius Musser.

S. H. Hoy is done husking corn.

Miss Armella Nease enjoyed a drive to Pleasant Gap Sunday evening.

Merrill Kerstetter, of Zion, was in our View buying cows this week.

Rabbits are very plentiful around here as one person can go out in the morning and come in at noon with four nice ones.

STATE COLLEGE.

The St. Bonaface foot ball team were here on Saturday and received a defeat by the score of 36-0. They were well built men but did not have the action for our fast team.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel W. Miller, from Lock Haven, spent several days with friends and relatives. They departed on Friday for home.

A good game of foot ball was played last Friday by the State College high school team and the State College freshmen. The score stood 7-5 in favor of the High school. The game was closely watched by the varsity team of the coach Hollnbeck.

The State College water company is engaged in digging and laying pipes from a stream in Reitz's gap near Boalsburg, which, when completed, will supply both towns with water.

Turkeys are very plenty in our farming communities and the price should be such as to enable each family with one for Thanksgiving day.

A large number of rabbits have been reported killed since the opening of the season; some turkeys have been brought to town but loss in number than last year at this time.

By the appearance of Sunday's weather winter is coming this way. The corn crop being a large one this year, the greater portion remains yet to be husked. The price from the field is 50 cents per bushel.

Mrs. Ephraim Dietz, of the Theta Xi I Fraternity, spent part of last Saturday in Howard.

Mr. James A. Rice is laid up with the grippe.

The Lutheran parsonage will be completed this month. The Rev. I. S. Samsaman is rooming at T. McCormick's till his house is completed.

Mrs. Ira C. Johnson had the misfortune of spraining her ankle on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Kline, of Howard, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. J. W. Beck.

This Friday Pennsylvania day will be observed here. The exercises of the day will consist of a short program in the auditorium, an inspection of the buildings, laboratories, shops and campus, a review of the cadets, about 900 in number, and a game of foot ball between the sophomores and the freshmen classes. A lively game is looking forward to.

On Friday night the Freshmen and Sophomore wrestling match came off. The sophomores winning in every man but the heavy weight. The freshmen in that class got the decision in two bouts for aggressiveness.

Henry Lowery, of Bellefonte, attended here on Saturday with several members of his family. He has a house under headway for Mrs. Buttz.

JULIAN.

Mrs. W. P. Parsons is spending a couple of weeks at Greensburg visiting her sister, Mrs. Gott.

Mrs. Jane Parsons, wife of John Parsons, died last Thursday morning at 8 o'clock after an illness of nearly a year. She was born June 25, 1825.

Funeral services conducted at her late residence Saturday morning at 10 o'clock by her pastor, Rev. Ake, of the M. E. church of which she was a member for many years. She leaves to mourn her loss her aged husband and two sons; George W. of Williamsport, Pa., and William B., of Unionville, Interment at Dix Run cemetery.

Up to this date the pastor was assigned to the U. B. church at this place by the conference has failed to make his appearance. Next Sabbath will make nine weeks without a pastor. Why he does not show up or explain is a mystery.

J. E. Davis, wife and little daughter Nacy, of Altoona, spent Sunday with Mrs. I. F. Davis at this place.

Mrs. J. P. Anderson, of Emporium, Pa., who has been spending several weeks with her son Dr. R. G. Anderson, of Barnesboro, Pa., stopped off for a week's visit with her mother, Mrs. J. F. Tallheim.

Miss Cella McCor, of Phillipsburg, spent last week visiting her sister Mrs. J. C. Nason.

Samuel McGinley, who is employed at the Tyrone Forge, spent Saturday and Sunday with his family at this place.

PLUMGROVE—Union Twp.

Most of our farmers have finished husking corn, and have commenced to butcher.

Samuel Mitchell, of Phillipsburg; Bob Flick, of Bellegrove; and Clair Poorman, of Runville, Sundayed at Joseph Mitchell's.

P. B. Iddings left on Sunday for Pineira and Johnstown, where he will spend several days among his daughters.

Our pacers are seen on the track up Egypt quite often. What are the attractions, boys?

Mrs. Alice Balmer, of Pittsburg, is spending a few days here with her parents.

Anybody wanting to know who are the best ball players at Plumgrove, ask T. S.

Carrie Fisher, and Grace Boob took in "Old Folk's day" at the Baptist church in Millersburg on Sunday.

Anybody desiring to see some large turpins, call at D. Boob's, One weighing 144 oz.

Mrs. Roy Alexander, of Pitcairn, is spending some time here with her parents.

Eliamada Hoover, of Tyrone, is spending several days with her mother.

Blair Fisher and friend, of Tyrone, has come home a few days to hunt.

Mrs. C. C. Kline and family started on Monday for Lock Haven, where they will spend a few days with their aunt.

WEST BRUSHVALLEY.

The most of our farmers are through husking corn.

There was no hallowe'en done in this vicinity.

Rev. J. B. McLaughlin closed his protracted meeting with two converts.

A large flock of wild geese were seen flying toward the south in the form of a letter A, which signifies cold weather, and we have it too.

Murray school has been papered inside, which adds very much to its beauty.

Miss Margaret Chandler, who has been visiting a few weeks at Wm. Craters, has returned to Axemans, where she will spend a few weeks.

We have people in this vicinity that try to do other people's business but if they would mind their own business and not concern themselves about others they would have enough to do.

AARONSBURG.

Matt Swabb, formerly of this place, but for many years a policeman of Johnstown, has come to spend a few days with his mother and one of his friends, Mr. Brown, to visit his sister, Mrs. Lee and brother Jim, and to finish with a few days hunting.

We are all glad to say that Gurney Wert is slowly improving.

Mrs. Sara Shreffler, one of our aged ladies, we are sorry, for Millinburg, where she will spend the winter months with her sister, Mrs. Boyer.

One of our enterprising young men John Durst, living on North Second Street, is improving his home by having it weatherboarded, by carpenter John Hains. We say, more follow suite.

Bell Springer and her girl friend, Mae Musser, spent the Sabbath, with her grandma Shreffler, and with Mae's uncle, Howard Acker.

Bertha Musser is home from Bellefonte over Sunday, under the parental roof.

Roll Kreamer, one of our up-to-date carpenters bought a home from Zach Thomas on North Second Street, for $200. The home formerly was the property of Lydia Frank, deceased.

Michael Ream is moving in the house of the Jacob Bover heirs, on North Second Street, on Tuesday.

Orvis Gramley, who was employed by his cousin, Milton Stover for the last four years returned home last week to resume his studies.

Sparr Wert and his mother were to Tusseyville a few days last week.

Lula Winkelblech and daughter Ruth, also Miss Klizzie Swabb spent Saturday at Coburn with Ezra Burds. Mrs. Rob Burd is spending a few weeks with her cousin Wm. Burd, at Wolfe Chapel.

FILLMORE.

We have been having some cold and stormy weather.

Most of our farmers are about done with their corn; all report having a good crop.

Hamill Huey, of Orviston, is visiting at the home of his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. James Huey.

The social, which was held at the home of Mrs. Joseph Eckley, on last Saturday evening, was well attended.

Those who have been sick are able to be around again.

I told you some weeks ago about the big corn, turpins and pumpkins that Jammie Huey had. I was at his home one day last week and he showed me a pumpkin about the size of a nail keg. It weighed 65 pounds and a stalk of cabbage which had seven heads on it.

C. C. Huey has started a meat market, and he has some very fine meat. If he comes your way see what fine goods he has.

Some of our farmers are done hauling in their fodder, while others are not done husking corn.

Roy Whitmer, formerly of this place, but now of Johnstown, is spending his vacation with his parents at this place.

The festival held at the home of Joe Eckley's was well attended.

J. C. Rockey, Stewart Rockey, Christ Lowery and Ed. Taylor were out hunting last Tuesday and got eleven rabbits, but of course the rabbits were blind ones.

Gilbert Young is on the sick list.

The C. M. Kephart heirs have remodelled their house where Joe Eckley lives.

Eclipse of the Moon, Nov. 16.

There will be a total eclipse of the moon Wednesday evening, November 16. The eclipse will begin at 5:44 P. M. and is visible throughout this part of the country.

Cured Splint

"I have used Sloan's Liniment on a fine mare for splint and cured her. This makes the third horse I've cured.

Have recommended it to my neighbors and they say it is fine. I find it the best Liniment I ever used. I keep on hand your Sure Colic Cure for myself and neighbors, and I can certainly recommend it for Colic."—S. E. SMITH, McDonough, Ga.

Cured Thrush.

MR. R. W. PARKER, of Bristol, Ind., R. No. 2, writes:—"I have used, lots of your Liniment for horses and myself. It is the best Liniment in the world. I cured one of my horses of thrush. Her feet were rotten; the frogs came out; she laid down most of the time. I thought she would die, but I used the Liniment as directed and she never lies down in the daytime now."

SLOAN'S LINIMENT

should be in every stable and applied at the first sign of lameness. You don't need to rub, it penetrates.

Will kill a spavin, curb or splint, reduce wind puffs and swollen joints, and is a sure and speedy remedy for fistula, sweeney, founder and thrush.

Price, 50c. and $1.00

Sloan's book on horses, cattle, sheep and poultry sent free. Address

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass., U.S.A.
