EDITORIAL.

Politically people are thinking and acting. Beware grafters.

We never knew of an important election to transpire in this good old commonwealth of Pennsylvania, that felt behind it so deep a "think" among the masses and consternation among the gangsters and bosses, as that on the memorable 8th of this month.

Oliver is making a push to be elected U. S. Senator from this state. He is now serving the unexpired term of Secretary Knox, since Taft's election.

That Penrose put his finger into the Allentown pie, has been clearly established within the past ten days. His intimation to President Taft, that Mr. Munson be given the appointment as a Judge of the Commerce Court, proves that the boss was in cahoot with some of the democratic bosses at Allentown, and the game leaking out is what caused the flare up.

When shifter Taft told Cannon and Aldrich and the rest of the high tariff Jacobins that he would not sign their tariff bill since it did not contain the revision for lowering the tariff as pledged in the republican platform, the high tariff chiefs told him if that was what he wanted then he, Taft, would have to get the votes to pass a revised tariff.

It turns up after all now, that Penrose was fishing for Munson just shortly before the Allentown convention, his hook baited with an appointment as Judge of the New Commerce Commission Court which Munson was to have if he would decline being a candidate for governor.

PROGRESSIVENESS PAYS.

Have you read the returns from the election? If so, what conclusion do you draw from them? The democrats won a great victory. Yes, but why?

Only in those states where the progressive republicans boldly repudiated their party's policy and had the courage to denounce the party's perfidy—only in these states did the republican party hold its own.

The very obvious lesson which the democrats will draw from the election returns is that progressiveness will pay in the republican party as well as in the republican party.

servative administration, how much more emphatic would be the democratic protest against an attempt to make the democratic party represent Wall Street interests.

A NEW DEMOCRATIC PARTY.

Not in Tilden's time or in Cleveland's time, was the Democratic party so united as it is now.

Never before since the civil war has there been so general an agreement about leaders and issues and opportunities. We are almost prepared to say that for the first time in fifty years there is a coherent democratic party which is sobered by victory and responsibility.

Even six months ago Democratic victory seemed to promise nothing better than Republican defeat and a popular rebuke of the party in power.

The way to the complete rehabilitation of the Democratic party is now so simple that it can be lost only by blind stupidity and folly. The trail is so plainly blazed that there can be no excuse for losing it.

For the first time since Andrew Jackson's Administration the Democratic party is emancipated and master of its own destiny. All the shackles have been struck off. There is no load of sectional issues or dead issues or economic fallacies for it to struggle under.

For fifty years the greatest service of the Democracy has been that of a party of Opposition. At last the opportunity has come, under men like Wilson and Gaynor and Baldwin and Dix and Harmon and Folsom, to lead, for it to be a party of constructive and progressive statesmanship.

SUPERB SARCASTIC OVER PRICES.

Republican organs will, of course, try to explain the fall of meat prices that has followed so promptly upon the great Democratic victory as a result of ordinary economic causes. But we warn them at once that this will never do.

WORDS WELL SPOKEN.

Dear Editor: The result of the election in Centre county, and the large majority given in favor of pure politics and clean candidates, is most gratifying to all good citizens without regard to party.

BUSH GROVE.

Hello Bush Grove scribe, where are you? So sorry you have gone up Salt river but we hope not.

MARRIAGES.

Tressler-Henry. Robert Tressler, of Rock Springs, and Pearl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Henry, of Altoona, were married at the home of the bride's parents in that city recently.

McCormick-Decker. Clarence McCormick, son of the Hon. J. T. McCormick and Miss Maud Decker were married by the Rev. C. T. Aikens, at Sellsburg, Thanksgiving afternoon.

Borland-Canon. Prof. Andrew A. Borland, of the school of agriculture, of Penna. State College, was married to Miss Jessie Canon, at the home of the bride's father, J. C. Canon, in Lake township, Mercer county, Wednesday, Oct. 12, by the Rev. G. T. Robinson, of Sugar Grove officiating.

Curry-Dorman. Harry N. Dorman and Miss Lillie Curry, both of Waddle, were united in marriage at Huhlersburg, November 18, by Rev. H. L. Crow, the groom is in the employ of the McKitt Lumber Company. The best wishes of a host of friends go with the happy couple for a long and happy life.

Jones-Harris. On Friday afternoon 25th, Miss Daisy Bowden Harris, of Bellefonte, and Augustus C. Jones, of Danville, Pa., were united in marriage by Rev. Newson, pastor of the African Methodist Episcopal church, of Tyrone. The wedding ceremony was performed at the home of George Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Jones will reside in Danville.

Kielholtz-Hoerner. Monday evening at the home of Wm. Garbick, Bellefonte, the Rev. C. W. Winey, of the U. B. church, united in marriage, Roy M. Kielholtz and Martha D. Hoerner. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Garbick. The ceremony was attended only by the immediate friends.

Shivery-Wasson. A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David H. Shivery, of Buffalo Run, on Wednesday, Nov. 16th, when their daughter, Ella Shivery, became the bride of LeRoy L. Wasson. About fifty guests were present to witness the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. A. L. Franks, of Stormstown. After a brief wedding trip they will reside at Stormstown.

Mauck-Yearick. On Saturday, November the 17th, at noon a quiet wedding ceremony was performed at Wilkesbarre, when Miss Gertrude L. Yearick, of Harrisburg, formerly of Huhlersburg and Harry Mauck, of Nittany, were married by Rev. Mauck, of Nittany, at that place. The bride is an estimable young lady. Both have a large circle of friends who wish them happiness and prosperity on their journey through life.

Shillings-Scott. About 40 guests assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shillings, of Beech Creek, Thursday evening, Nov. 19, to witness the marriage of their daughter, Miss Rose Shillings, to Arthur Scott. The Rev. Rollin S. Taylor, of Howard, performed the ceremony and the attendants were Randolph Shillings and Mrs. Frank Bowers. Following the ceremony a wedding supper was served.

Deitrich-Markle. A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Deitrich, of Huhlersburg, when their only daughter, Lila A., was united in marriage to L. Lloyd Markle formerly of the same town. Both bride and groom were former teachers in the public school of their home township. The groom is a member of the faculty of State College, his Alma Mater. The happy couple will be at home to their friends at State College early in December.

Candy-Haines. Calvin Candy and Miss Daisy Haines, both of State College, were married at the Presbyterian parsonage at this place, Saturday, Nov. 19th, by the pastor, Rev. J. Allison Platts.

Perry-Barner, formerly of Bellefonte, is again mingling with his friends in this place after an absence of about two years in the wild and west. His principal place of residence being at Logan, Kansas, Perry thinks Centre county the best country after all, as there is less danger of taking a forced trip on the rear end of a cyclone.

Knisky-Grimm. On Thanksgiving day Albert E. Knisky, of this place, and Miss Charlotte Grimm, of State College, quietly slipped away to Cumberland, Md., where they were united in marriage by Rev. Brown, a minister of the gospel of that place. After a short stay there they came back to Bellefonte to receive the parental blessing, which was freely bestowed. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Knisky, of this place, and is an industrious young man. The bride was formerly a very popular young lady of State College. They will reside in Bellefonte where Mr. Knisky is associated with his father in "the blacksmithing business."

Fleming-Chanley. The friends of Thomas L. Fleming, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fleming, of this place, were pleased to hear of his marriage last week to Miss Mary Chanley, which happy event took place in the Episcopal church at Beaver Falls, Pa., the home of the bride on Tuesday.

The groom is a very estimable young man, has many friends in Bellefonte. The bride is a pretty and popular young lady of Beaver Falls. Mr. and Mrs. Fleming spent a short wedding trip to the home of the groom's parents, in this place after which they departed for Altoona, where they spent a few days with the groom's mother, Edward Fleming, and then continued their journey to Barlington, O., where Mr. Fleming is employed and at which place they will take up their residence.

Dagget-Canfield. The home of Mrs. Jennie Canfield, on east Linn street, was the scene of a quiet but pretty wedding on Monday evening, when her daughter, Miss Caroline, was given in marriage to Mr. Lewis Dagget, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Dagget, of the Bush House.

At 6 o'clock, the appointed time the couple took their places before Rev. Platts of the Presbyterian church, who pronounced the beautiful ceremony which united the happy couple for life. Miss Helen Stull, of Wynetoe, Pa., acted as attendant to the bride, while Mr. Albert Canfield, a brother of the bride, was groomsmen. After a delightful wedding supper, the bride and groom were taken in a motor car to Milesburg, where they boarded the 8:20 train for a short wedding trip. They will return to Bellefonte where they will take up their abode at the Bush House, where Mr. Dagget is helping his father in the management of that hostelry.

On Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 23, at the parsonage of the United Brethren minister, Mr. Fred L. Raymond, of Bellefonte, and Miss Ella W. Merritt, of Julian, were united in the holy bonds of wedlock by the pastor, Rev. C. W. Winey.

The bride was very prettily attired in a suit of brown broadcloth, while the groom wore the conventional clothes for such an occasion. They were attended by Arthur Beezer and Miss Rose Beezer, of this place. After the ceremony the happy couple left on the afternoon train for Julian where a sumptuous wedding supper awaited them. The bride is a popular young lady of that place, and has many friends who will wish her much happiness. The groom is a son of John Raymond, of this place, and a most worthy young man. They will make their home in Lock Haven where the groom is employed.

College Student Reported Dying. Charles Smith, of Wilkes-Barre, is dying as a result of injuries received in a class rush at State College four years ago. The young man received a violent blow in the stomach from which he never recovered, steadily falling in health right along.
