The Centre Democrat. MRS. MARY EDDY

FRED KURTZ, SR., Editor. CHAS. R. KURTZ. Editor and Proprietor.

A. C. DERR. Associate Editor SWORN CIRCULATION OVER 5,500

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION: $1.50 PER YEAR Persons who send or bring the money to the office and pay in advance, $1 per year CENTRE DEMOCRAT clubs with Y. thrice-a-week World for $1.65 Pittsburg Stockman for .....

Published weekly every Thursday morning. Entered in the postomic at Bellefonte, Pa., as d-class ma ter.

The date your subscription expires is plainly printed on the label bearing your name. All credits are given by a change of label the first issue of each month. Watch that, after you remit. We send no receipts unless by special request. Watch date on your label.

Subscribers changing postomee address, and not notifying us, are liable for same.

Subscriptions will be continued, unless otherwise directed.

We employ no collector. You are expected to sendor bring the money to this office.

DLIGE BEFORE COURT.

(Continued from page 1)

of it to the home. The testimony of the Coroner was heard describing the condition of the body. There was condition of the body. There was nothing new given in this testimony that was of any importance, and has all been gone over in former issues of the Centre Democrat, in the past

As the trial will be continued later in the week than had been at first anticipated, this paper went to press on Thursday evening to give the im-portant events of the trial to this time. It will be our purpose to fol-low this issue wih another at the conclusion of the trial, in which we hope to give a complete resume of the testimony.

TALK TO SUBSCRIBERS.

The End of the Year is the Time to Adjust Accounts.

All patrons of the Centre Democrat who paid us any money on subscription during the past month of No-vember will find that proper credit was given by a change of the date on the label this week. If you sent us any money look at the label now, and in case of any error, please notify this office at once stating the nature of the error and when your remittance

We wish to call attention of all our subscribers to the fact that the end most powerful American woman." of the year 1910 is at hanl, and with it comes the time when all business men close up their books, balance week and is not offended when the they have justly earned and belongs Ready John Davis," we don't make them wait two or three years—but century, we go out and "raise it" for them in , "She us a special favor at this season of every evangelical church in the United portant business transacted. the year if you adjust the little mat- States. It has tens of thousands of H. C. Quigley, Esq., was p the year if you adjust the little matter of your subscription before the end of the year, for the reason that the postal laws are far different now,

COBURN.

What is the use of roving through the thickets and search for the fleetfooted deer for two long weeks! Why not walt until the last day of the hunting season and then stroll out with one companion about the middle of the forenoon and return before 3 ao'clock with a 150 pound-five-pronged buck. That is what one of our old hunters, Andrew Vonada did, and he thought it was "Glory enough

Last week Esta Rishel, now Mrs. Edward Shively, went to Mifflinburg to begin the noble work of house keeping. Her husband is proprietor of a bakery there.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Harter, who spent several weeks here, left for Harter, W. Va., on Tuesday morning, where the firm of Harter Bros. has lumber operations.

On Sunday afternoon the newly ed bishop Rev. U. F. Swengle, D., of Harrisburg, will preach in United Evangelical church. elected bishop Rev. U. We have some fat news in store for next week. Thermometer registered 4 below zero on Wednesday morning.

Struck Gas. In a test hole drilled recently on property belonging to the Dents Run Mining Co., Dents Run, Elk county, enough gas was found to warrant fur-ther drilling and it is expected that work will be resumed vigorously next spring. Parties from Williamsport and Pittsburg are interested and considerable of adjacent lands are under

CALLED BY DEATH

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE FOUNDER DIES OF PNEUMONIA.

No Practicing Physician Was Called Very Rich Woman.

section of Boston, on Saturday night, people of that community that aged eighty-nine years.

pneumonia, from which the aged wo-

For more than a week Mrs. Eddy had been ailing or, as a Christian Scientist would put it, "had been in Former Atte error." Still she was up and about, taking her daily drives up to Friday, when she took her bed and did not leave it again. She failed steadily, but no practicing physician was called the members of her household most of whom are Christian Science

Mrs. Eddy Was Born on a Farm.

The New York "World" makes the most extraordinary woman of her scene some way. In purchasing supplies, great intellect nor great learning, no little concern to the local officials we must pay for our type, paper, ink, etc., at the end of each month and we that was almost squalid. More than ation of the brutal character of the never get angry at a man sending us a half of a life of eighty-nine crime was made known at the trial. bill who has had enough confidence in years was spent in poverty and obus to forward us his merchandise be-cause he believes we are honest, and then takes the risk of securing that her from a million others of that un-human emotion.

done what Mrs. Eddy did. That it should have been the work of woman should have been the work of woman is still more amazing, for hitherto men have been the great religious leaders and women have occupied'n subordinate place. In all respects Christian Science has blazed a new trail for itself. It has derived no benefits from either force or persecution, the one or the other of which

Great Boon to Consumptives. The State's free dispensaries which State Health Commissioner Dixon has Mary Pearl Ryan - established throughout Pennsylvania, one of which is located in Philipsburg.

FEARS OF LYNCHING.

(Continued from page one)

The many threats made by reckless person indicated that it need only the start for an outbreak In a few days after the arrest of Delige the public began the discussion HAD BEEN ILL ONLY A WEEK of his career. How he had shot at Mr. Haugh the store keeper. How he had killed the little Williams boy in the school yard and escaped with murder in the second degree, and sev to Treat Her and Her Last Mom- eral years in the penitentiary. He ents Are Shrouded in Mystery.—A had been in other escapades and was a lazy, drunken, worthless loafer who did very little towards the support of Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy, who always insisted upon being called the discoverer and founder" of Christian Science, died at her splendid mansion from some mysterious manner, and A short time ago the Mattern barn Science, died at her spiendid mansion from some mysterious manner, and on Beason street, in the Chestnut Hill since then it is no secret among the owner is satisfied that Delige was the Death was due to an attack of man that did it. He refused to bring an action against Delige fearing that man suffered about a week or ten some worse deed might follow, should days, in the opinion of Medical Ex- he incur the hatred of the negro days, in the opinion of Medical Ex-aminer George L. West, who was called and viewed the body. reason hesitated to bring a prosecu

Former Attempts at Rape.

It is no secret among the people of that section that this man Delige had a mania for white women. Owing to the notoriety that would center about of that character, it is known that several respectable wom in that section had been annoyed forhealers, giving her the regular treat-ment, and Mr. Farlow said that Mrs. of this negro, and they were in cona long time by the lustful attentions Eddy brought all her powers to bear in an effort to heal herself of the some secluded spot. There is one in-The same mystery which has en-shrouded Mrs. Eddy for years was who realized that this man Delige was stance that is known of a modest, thrown about her end. Anticipating that in view of past rumors the question her and as a result shows a such an advantage on her, and as a result she was conthat in view of past that in view of past that in view of past in the look out. any one is to know that the woman In many instances she had to change who died was really Mrs. Eddy or was her plans of visits, and her movesome one who has been impersonating her for years, Mr. Farlow said that the leaders didn't really care what was George W. Glover, of Lead, S. D., from her in an attempt to accomplish Mrs. Eddy's son, is probably on the way east by this time, and he will know his mother's face beyond all danger of nervous collapse. He attacked the same woman a second time The affair was kept quiet Mrs. Mary Baker Eddy, commonly to a certain degree in that section for spoken of as the discoverer and the two reasons. The young lady did not spoken of as the discovered and the founder of Christian Science, was born on a farm near Bow, New Hampshire, on July 16th, 1821, the daughshire, on July 16th, 1821, the daughshire and the first pass by than to inspect the matter pass by than to inspect the matter pass by the founder of Christian Science, was want to have the unpleasant notor-lety, and feared that it were better to attention by Drs. H. P. Dale and W. S. Glenn. It was found that his face, both shoulders and arms and ter of Mark and Abagail A. Baker. cur the brutal negro's hatred hands both shoulders and arms and She was the youngest of six children. against her family, which she felt neck were frightfully burned and it against her family, which she felt was feared at the time that he had in-She grew to be as some one wrote not long ago, "one of the richest wom- instituted against the family, which she felt would follow should a prosecution be She grew to be as some one wrote not long ago, "one of the richest women in America—more than that, the most powerful American women in the community had a natur- moved to his home on Gill street at ough, where they also kept house unticount stands and that there may be no dispute. We send bills to all our subscribers at the end of the year and there will be no use in any unduly sensitive persons "going up in the air" over the receipt of such a missive, for it is only a plain business proposition, and does not question your integrity in the least. The publisher of this paper must pay his numerous employees promptly at the end of each subscribers at the end of the year and $5,096 communicants. All these churches and the churches are the result of the thinking of the delicate, religious in foreign countries are the result of the thinking of the delicate, religious in the community that was no common thing to hear desperate men say they would lead in a lynching and the plaintiff could men say they would lead in a lynching party. This week the attendance at court has been growing larger as the time for the murder trial was approaching. In the hotels, on the streets and especially in the hotel barrooms the topic of lynching the more desperate men say they would lead in a lynching and does not question your integrity in the defendant in the plaintiff could not recover. Compulsory non-suit granted.

The Lumber's returned with some success.

The Zimmerman crowd got two nice deer.

The Hublersburg crowd have one to the plaintiff and the plaintiff to recover at court has been growing in the attendance at court has been growing larger as the treation of the attendance at court has been growing in the community that was appears.

The Zimmerman crowd got two nice the plaintiff and t murderer was the topic on many an occasion. Standing about the court boys and girls line up at the desk on following interesting comment on the character of the remarks D. Peters at which time their daughamong the people was that of a sub-"A very remarkable woman died at dued rage that might at any time to them, and if we don't have the Newton Saturday night-perhaps the break forth and cause a dreadful

This was the situation as many "She had neither great beauty nor close observers viewed it, and it gave which belongs to him, and of which we got full benefit.

COUNCIL MEETING.

Monday evening and outside of the Yet she founded a religious sect usual grist of bills paid, the following In conclusion, let us say, you will do that has shaken the foundations of is a brief summary of the most im-the postal laws are far different now, than in former years, and we can not carry delinquent accounts without violating the postal regulations. Therefore, if you get a bill, get it off your mind at once, and you not only will make us happy but will feel all the better yourself for having given it attention.

With all the business-like precision of the Standard Oil Company, and while maintaining the forms of a pure democracy it is ruled as despotically as the Russian Church.

"Most new religions make their first appeal to the outcast and the forsaken. Mrs. Eddy's religion made its appeal to the sick, the hypochondriac and the afflicted, and this is a field that is as properties for various reasons, was pro broad as human life and as various as referred to water committee for in-"It may be said of Mrs. Eddy's work that what is true in it is not original and what is original is not true. Such elementary ideas as there are in "Science and Health" have been floating around the world in one form or another since the dawn of time. Mrs. Eddy herself had only a vague and indefinite comprehension of them, but nevertheless she built a new church out of them, drew into it persons of culture, education and property, and framed the structure of a religion that is one of the unmistakable influences of the century. Regardless of the merits or demerits of Christian Science, it is a social and psychologvestigation and a report. Borough "It may be said of Mrs. Eddy's work Treasurer Gehret reported receiving Science, it is a social and psycholog-ical fact which long ago compelled be drawn for $5000 to pay current "Only a very unusual mind and a very unusual personality could have done what Mrs. Eddy did. That it trail for itself. It has derived no benefits from either force or persecution, the one or the other of which has been a tremendous factor in the development of most faiths. It is a church without a charity, a mission or a martyr. There is no parallel to it either in the nature of its origin or in the manner of its growth."

person needs Sexine Pills. When you need a tonic-builder, there is no use taking anything else; for Sexine Pills do it in half the time, and do it twice as well. Price $1 a box, six boxes $5. Absolutely guaranteed. Address or call at C. M. Parrish, Belletonte, Pa., where they sell all the principal remedies and do not substitute. cipal remedies and do not substitute

Bellefonte

FATALLY BURNED BY GASOLENE EXPLOSION

RAYMOND GENSLER, OF STATE

COLLEGE DIES IN AGONY. WAS EMPLOYED AT LAUNDRY

Unfortunate Man Had But Lately Removed to That Town From Lebanon to Take Charge of Mechanical Department of Laundry.

With his body frightfully burned from an explosion of gasoline at the State College laundry, Raymond C. Jensler died in great agony at his home in that place on Wednseday night, of last week about 10 o'clock.

The unfortunate man was a brother of Arthur Gensler, one of the proprietors of the State College laundry, and had charge of the mechanical depart-How the accident actually curred is not clear, but it is evident that Mr. Gensler had entered the unfrom gasolene, or was in the act of over and drawing a pail of fluid when the posed of: fumes came in contact with an open flame, igniting the gas and causing an Betz and Gabriel Betz, an appeal,

Mr. Miller, who was standing alongby a sheet of flame which swept out of an opening in the floor close by him. He at once realized what had happened and made his way to the wash room and dashed through a wall found Mr. Gensler standing near the foot of the ladder, all on fire and his face covered with his hands. Mr. Miller made a grab for him and pulled him out of the hole into the wash room. Without waiting for assistance he pulled the burning clothing off the unfortunate man, severely burning his right hand in so doing.

An alarm was turned in and the company was soon at the scene. Fortthe blaze was extinguished just in time, else there might have een a different story to relate.

Mr. Gensler was removed to the home of William Cole, adjoining the Last Wednesday evening a beautiter Laura was given in marriage to Leason Grenoble, son of Luther Grenoble. A sumptuous wedding dinner was served of which their immediate friends partook. C. N. Fisher, from Zion, was the guest of honor. May nothing but success be their lot in Our section men were to Bellefonte most of last week assisting in mend-ing and repairing the Milesburg Our Hecla checker players would Council met in short session on like to have a meet with the Zioners. Chas. Guiser, from Altoona, is vis-iting at-his parental home. Mrs. Annia Van Gorder paid her mother in Lock Haven a visit last

BUFFALO RUN.

Some fine porkers were killed in this valley last week. There was quite a lot of people attended the murder trial this week from this section. Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Clemson attenued the welding of their niece, Miss Goheen, of Tyrone on November 21st. Samuel Kelley and George Yearick, Samuel Kelley and George Yearick, and battery. This grows out of an altercation in the office of the dealers who is a Justice of the Peace Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Clemson attend- ty. home of George Kelley a few days last

Mrs. Jane Hartsock, who has been very ill, is no better. Roy Crust, who was laid up with a sprained ankle, is able to be around attended the funeral of his mother. Mrs. Elizabeth Stine, of this place, last week; also visited his brother and sister while here.

The Templeton Case. Before Judge Thomas J. Baldrige in the county court on Wednesday, of last week, the case of Sarah A. Fisher against W. L. Hicks and Chambers O. Templeton, formerly associated together in the practice of the law, unler the firm name of Hicks & Tem-pleton, was heard. The plaintiff en-trusted $1,500 to Templeton, to be invested at interest. It is alleged that Templeton appropriated the money to his own use, and then turned over forged and worthless notes to Mrs. Fisher. Mr. Hicks offered the defense, that the transaction was no Breon. Bill is portion of the business of Hicks & pay the costs. taking on the part of Templeton, for which Hicks was not liable. The case came before the court on a motion for judgment for want of a sufficient affidavit of defense. The court overruled the motion.—Tyrone Herald.

ser, settled.

Comm. vs. Frank F. Miller. charged with desertion and non-suport of wife and two children. Prosecutrix Lizzie M. Miller. Defendant appeared before the Court on October 14th and walked the finding of the grand

- Bellefonte ty was the Mohawk club, of Woolrich Frank R. Stricker - Aaronsburg They arrived Thursday from the Elizabeth A. Acker - Aaronsburg Headwaters of Hyner run, and brought with them six deer. There were but six members in this party, and each

PROCEEDINGS OF DECEMBER COURT

MANY INTERESTING CASES DIS-POSED OF THIS TERM.

Many Witnesses and Visitors in Attendance-Great Interest Shown in Remodeled Temple of Justice-Pronounced Beautiful.

Court convened on Monday morning at ten o'clock, and a large portion of the forenoon was taken up in ing motions and petitions and return of rules.

Grand Jury called and sworn and A. Lukenbach, of Belletonte, a sales-man, selected as foreman; and after a full and complete charge as to their right duty, retfred to the Grand Jury The constables of the several districts then made their quadrennial rederground opening for the purpose of either examining the apparatus ed and absentees noted. List of civil with which they manufacture gas cases for both weeks was then called port. A list of Jurors was then callover and the following cases dis-W. H. Johnstonbaugh ys. M. E.

continued James D. Seibert vs. J. H. Lingle,

side the collar machine, was startled an assumpsit, continued at the costs of the defendant.

Mary Cauffman, vs. Celia Mirbach and Henry Mirbach, assumpsit, con-The School District of Greeg Town of fire to the trap leading down to the passage. Samuel Long estate and R. P. Campbell, and H. C. Campbell, owners. When he reached the opening he ound Mr. Gensler standing near the cot of the ladder, all on fire and his Long and R. P. Campbell and H. C.

Campbell, owners. Scire facias sur tax lien; continued. George B. Thompson vs. Bellefonte Central Railroad Company, trespass; settled. Summit Clay Manufacturing Company vs. Teutonia Fire Insurance Company of Allegheny; assumpsit; continued.

Comm. of Penna. vs. Jeremiah Aumiller and Manesseh Aumiller; trespass; continued

First case taken up for trial was Harvey Hoy vs. Overseers of the Poor of Benner Township; This is an action brought by Mr. Hoy to recover for board and maintenance ough, where they also kept house until most powerful American woman."

There came a time, it was in 1875, that about a dozen disciples of a woman named now Mrs. Mary Baker Glover, the head of an idea that had to do with the teaching of a mental to district they could read the man's could do to relieve his sufferings was goods was stored in the daughter went to her parents to live. The husband seeing her octational to do with the teaching of a mental three o'clock and all that medical skill about two years ago, when their down the daughter went to her parents to live. The husband seeing her octational to do with the teaching of a mental three o'clock and all that medical skill about two years ago, when their down the daughter went to her parents to live. The husband seeing her octational three o'clock and all that medical skill about two years ago, when their down the daughter went to her parents to live. The husband seeing her octational three o'clock and all that medical skill about two years ago, when their down that about a dozen disciples of a woman in three o'clock and all that medical skill about two years ago, when their down the daughter went to her parents to live. The husband seeing her octational transfer and the daughter went to her parents to live. The husband seeing her octational transfer and three o'clock and all that medical skill about two years ago, when their down the daughter went to her parents are three o'clock and all that medical skill about two years ago, when their down the daughter went to her parents are three o'clock and all that medical skill about two years ago, when their down the daughter went to her parents are three o'clock and all that medical skill about two years ago, when their down the daughter went to her parents are three o'clock and all that medical skill about two years ago, when their down the daughter went to her parents are three o'clock and all that medical skill about two years ago, when their men close up their books, balance their accounts, and try to start the hear of an idea that her was the new year with a "clean bill of lading." What we mean is this: The news paper man tries at the end of the year to pay all the bills he owes, and for that their to meet their obligations. Therefore we are now busily engaged now we use on job printing and advertiles of the year to pay and an adventile prediction of the year and we will be mailed to each if you have an account against the end of the year and we will prompt to meet the roblemocrat and are in arrears only a part to meet the plemocrat and are in arrears only a part to meet the plemocrat and are in arrears only a part to meet the persons who are taking the Centrel of the year and we will promote of the year and the year of the fer of a license from a man by the name of Davis to a man by the name of McClure for a hotel in Philipsburg. Chambers vs. Weist verdict on Tuesday morning in favor of the plaintiff for $90.20.

Comm. vs. William F. Kessinger, prosecutrix Martha L Kessinger. Indicted for assault and battery. This case is from Liberty Township in the vicinity of Eagleville, and grows out of troubles between the prosecutrix and the defendant during the night of October 29th, between 12 and one o'clock, the prosecutrix alleging that after some requests on the part of the defendant that he became abusive, had struck her with his fist, black-ening, bruising her cheek and arm and fracturing two ribs. While the tes-timony of the defense is that he ask-ed his wife to go to bed with the children, who all were still up and that the prosecutrix refused, that he went to carry her upstairs and as he was fell to the bottom. The details of this case heretofore were pubthis case lished in this paper. Verdict of guil-fendant who is a Justice of the Peace in Bellefonte on November 17th, when the prosecutor went to the office of the defendant with his attorney on some legal business, when the prosecutor alleges the Squire became abusive to him, caught him by the throat and chocked him and brandishing a cane over his head.

The defendant denies that he was Frank McClure.

The defendant of the prosecutor, or that he large Massmore.

Harry Washburn. choked him or that he brandished a cane, but that he had requested the prosecutor and his attorney to leave the office and had pushed the prosecutor towards the door to put him out. The facts of the case heretofore were published in this paper.
Verdict of guilty of assault.
Comm. vs. H. H. Fye, prosecutor Edward Groft, charged with larceny by bailee. Bill ignored.

Comm. vs. Charles H. Bierly, indicted, first count, furnishing liquor to minor; second count, furnishing liquor to person of known intemperate habits, Prosecutor, Elias Breon. Bill ignored and county to pay the costs.

Each Member Got a Deer.

The most successful hunting club to return from the wilds of Clinton county was the Mohawk club, of Woolrich.

They was the Mohawk club, of Woolrich was the finding of the grand Jury and plead guilty. Whereupon condition that he mantain and support was the Mohawk club, of Woolrich was the finding of the grand Jury and plead guilty. Whereupon condition that he mantain and support was the Woolrich w costs of prosecution. Comm, vs. Frederick Rockey, in-case is from Spring Township. According to the Commonwealth's statement Carrie Kauffman, little girl living with the prosecutor and his family, aged about 10 years, while returning from school on Friday after-noon, March 11th, of the present year in company with a little boy, after having gone around the lake which appears frequently in the spring of the year, and while in front of her home was hit by a bullet in the A. LUCKEBBACH FORMAN JURY left fore-arm. The testimony defendant shows that he had been at school at Zion on this date, and after returning from school got the gun and four shells from his sister and went to this lake with the idea that he possibly might get a wild duck and to look for a pipe which a friend of his had lost there a few days before. That he fired the shells which he had. two of them in an opposite direction from the Kauffman home, and the others in a diagonal direction, and that he had not shot at this child or any one else. Verdict on morning of not guilty, and costs divided.

The Register offered the several accounts filed in his office in minor and decedent estates which were con-

H. F. Geddes of Wilkesbarre is the court reporter in place and stead of the regular reporter for the week. This concluded the list of cases for trial, except the Delige murder case.

FOUND THREE DEAD DOES.

Were Shot by Careless Hunters and Presented a Pathetic Sight.

Dr. Fisher, of Zion, and an old hunter, who this year was in camp with the Zimmerman party, says, he saw a most unusual and pathetic sight on his way in over the mountains after breaking camp. He actually saw with his own eyes, three female deer lying in the woods, having been shot by careless hunters, who were too cowardly to make off with them after they had shot them. The body of was still warm when Dr. Fl. Fisher placed his hand upon the hide.

Will Celebrate on Monday. With the ushering in of December, the Christmas month, the holiday spirit will soon reach high tide and evidence of the approach of the most joyful season of the year will be heard on all sides. Christmas day is but a little over three weeks away and its observance is creating more than the usual interest due to the fact that the day falls on Sunday this year. As everybody likes to have a holiday it will be the general rule to serve Monday, December 26, as the regular Christmas holiday Car Load of Sleighs at Public Sale. On Saturday afternoon a car load of fine sleighs from Michigan will be on display in front of the Garman House and the entire lot will be offer-the plaintiff and the plaintiff could inches of snow, and day before, Monrecover. Compulsory non-suit day, from early morn to noon there were three inches of snow-total Joseph seven inches. No blizzard during those days above named. -Charles Donachy, who has been one of the Bell telephone company's trusted employes for a number of years, has recently received a wellmerited promotion, and will move his family to Williamsport after Christ-mas. Mr. Donachy has been given the office of plant supervisor, his supervision being over quite a number of surrounding counties—practically cen-tral Pennsylvania. The promotion also carries with it a nice advance in Wallace White and family, of Axeman, are spending a week with relatives at Brownsville, Pa.

ANNUAL ELECTION.

The annual meeting of the Parmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Centre County will be held in its office. Petriken Hall. Beliefonte. Monday, January eth. 1911. and the election of twelve directors for the ensuing year. between the hours of 10 a. m. and 2 p. m. of said day.

D. F. LUSE,

B. E. DUCK.

President

about to step from the third to the fourth step she resisted and they both APPLICATIONS FOR LIQUOR LICENSE Notice is hereby given that the following named persons have filed their p-tition for License in the office of the Clerk of the Court of Quarter Sessions in and for the County of Centre, and that said applications will be presented to the Court on Saturday, December 17th. 1910, SaidLicense to continue from the first day of April 1911.

TAVERN LICENSE. W. L. Dagget. Bellefonte. West Ward Horton S. Ray. South Ward James A. Noonaa. South Ward Henry Kline J. McClellan Davis.
J. McClellan Davis.
James W. Runkle . Centre Hall Boro.
Chas. W. McMurtrieHoward Boro.
Isaac A. Shawver.... Millheim Boro.
H. W. Waple.... I hillpsburg. Fir Lawrence Redding
John G. Uzzle.

John G. Uzzle.

Jest J. Kohlbeck rCentral City. Boggs tw
J. Warren Wood. Spring Mills. Grogg
Thomas Faxon. Rebersburg. Miles
James M. Moyer. Potters Mills. Potter
Edward Royer. Old Fort.

Coburn. Penn Edward Royer... Lewis E. Stover ... Frank W. Hess.... Coburn Penn Sandy Ridge Rush Casanova Rush Clarence Snow Shoe twp. WHOLESALE LIQUOR. Orin Vale.

George Parks.

James Black.

Lawrence Nugent Casanovs.

Clarence. Snow Shoe twp. Orin Vale Philipsb'g Brewing Co. Philipsburg Sec. Ward A. B. KIMPORT.

MARKET QUOTATIONS.

Bellefonte-Produce. Butter ..... 30 Bellefonte-Grain. The following prices are paid by C.

Y. Wagner Wheat, red It is a mighty long road that has no end.

Few of us are strong enough to desist from gossiping about our neighbor's shame.

The shame is located in Philipsburg. Elizabeth A. Acker - Aaronsburg and proving a great boom to many tuberculous patients. There are ow 115 of these dispesaries, and up to November 1, 1910, over 37,000 bor's shame.

Elizabeth A. Acker - Aaronsburg with them six deer. There were but dicted, first count, playfully dissix members in this party, and each one succeeded in bringing down a deer one succe Wagner for grain.