Very sincerely, LAURA S. BELTZ, Supt.

INTERESTING SKETCH OF A FORMER CITIZEN

HOW REV. ISAIAH WELCH ROSE FROM OBSCURITY.

BORN IN DARKEST SLAVERY

Was Brought to Bellefonte in Infancy and Worked on Farm—Longed For Education and Secured It—Now a Minister of the Gospel.

Bellefonte, Pa., Nov. 30, 1910. Editor Democrat:—Please allow me space in your widely circulated paper, to make brief mention of the early life in Bellefonte of our distinguished friend, Rev. Dr. I. H. Welch, who is now pastor of a large congregation in the city of Chattanooga, Tenn. Rev. Welch arrived in Bellefonte on Friday 25 inst., for the first time, after a lapse of 30 years. We received him with gladness and were heartily sorry when the time came for him to leave for his home. This distinguished gentleman was born on the eastern shore of Maryland, in 1845, and was brought to Bellefonte by his parents in infancy, who made their escape from slavery, with two children, William deceased and Isaiah; and were concealed by the family of Mr. William A. Thomas, Sr., deceased. In boyhood, Isaiah was house boy in the family of Hon. Andrew G. Curtin, deceased, and he remained with the family quite awhile. His father moved onto the farm of Hon. H. N. McAllister, where he remained several years, and acquired a practical knowledge of farming, Isaiah feeling anxious to educate himself for future usefulness, his father and Mr. McAllister reluctantly consented to his going. In the fall of 1861 he left the farm and went to Willberforce University, Ohio. His father made Bishop D. A. Payne his guardian. He was admitted to the institution and finding he did not have means to meet expenses, he obtained a job of corn shucking from which he realized enough money to pay his tuition and purchase books. He had been assured by Mr. McAllister in case of absolute need, before the school term in Boston, and was transferred to the 55th Massachusetts Volunteers in which he served two years and five months. He was in the storming of Fort Wagner and the capture of Charleston, S. C. He was wounded twice in engagements in South Carolina. During that time he has saved much of his money. He was mustered out of the service in 1865, at which time he visited his parents in Bellefonte, and then returned to Willberforce, resumed his studies and continued till he finished his course in 1870. He then went to Alabama and engaged in church and public school work for several years. Was appointed pastor of the church in Pensacola, Florida. From there he went to Kentucky and founded Wayman Institute purchasing ground and erected buildings for school purposes, and was President of the institution for several years, and then resigned. But after two years was re-elected and served two years more, and resigned again to return to the pastorate, serving alternately as pastor and Presiding Elder. He has written treatises on the origin and history of the A. M. E. church approved by many scholars of the race. Rev. Welch is now entering upon his fourth year's service in Warren chapel at Chattanooga. On learning of the destruction of the A. M. E. church in February last, he kindly sent us a donation through Gen. James A. Beaver, not knowing any of his former acquaintances were living. After he had been informed by Gen. Beaver, that there were still some living here who knew him, he sent the second donation which I received and for which we feel very grateful. Rev. Welch has expressed his great surprise at the material growth and fine appearance of his old home of 45 years ago. He left last week for Chattanooga. We bid him "God Speed," hoping it may be our pleasure to see him again some time during next summer. Respectfully, WM. MILLS, Sr.

It's A Secret No Longer

That for the last two years we have given the people of Bellefonte and vicinity, values which have not been equalled by any other concern. In fact we give more than full value for the money; the proof is by our constantly increasing business. This month we propose to break all previous records. In order to accomplish this wonderful feat we put to the knife to our $25,000.00, Twenty-Five Thousand Dollar, stock of brand new merchandise and cut prices lower than has ever been heard of in the history of merchandising. Beginning

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 9th, and Lasting Till SATURDAY, Dec. 24,

we place this opportunity before you. You must realize that your chance is now here, don't delay it off until tomorrow. Remember today is, to-morrow will be, every day brings you nearer the expiring period. Below you will find a few prices which will convince you of the wonderful bargains.

MEN'S AND YOUNG MEN'S CLOTHING GETS A DOWNWARD JOLT

We have had our tailors make up a great many more garments than last season because our clothing business is much greater than ever.
